Kind regards. Happy reading everyone.

The heart of the Alphon mountains, a nation at the south of the sole island, the only Land spared by the great disaster of 191 years ago, Akel. The region was ideal. Especially for dragons, creatures whose first representatives of the species mysteriously appeared shortly after the great disaster. In addition to enjoying the relatively temperate climes of the Alphon Nation, the heart of the mountains offers the opportunity to enjoy a warm sun softened by a pleasant sea breeze blowing in continuous jerks.

Keluna, powerful red hermaphrodite protector of his clan, was taking advantage of a sun at its zenith to mate with Clemos, tall and proud male of the same clan. Keluna was lying on his side, one of his hind legs raised in the air, against the male's hip. The latter began to accelerate the rhythm, whimpering as he panted, probably close to orgasm. Keluna also panted, scratching the rocky ground with his claws. The male's sex divinely rubbed the walls of his vagina while his second sex almost seemed to pulsate at the same time, feeling the pressure being exerted. Around the two dragons, the moans began to mix with the sound of suction between their two pelvises. Their scales, naturally oiled by excitement, a normal reaction between two dragons ready to mate, made their scales shiny and helped them rub against each other.

Keluna, no longer able to feel the pleasure he felt, pressed his claws against Clemos' solid scales. It was then that the male groaned even louder and pushed his straight limb deep against the pelvis of the hermaphrodite, literally knotting their sexes together... and releasing his seed at the same time.

The red dragon, feeling the concentrated and warm liquid pouring into his, moans in turn, also enjoying an uncontrolled cum.

Keluna and Clemos both remained stuck against each other, panting heavily, feeling exhausted, drained. After a few seconds, the exhausted male collapsed against his playing partner.

"Mmmm... You seemed a bit tense today Keluna. Is it because you're more used to taking females than being taken by a male?" asked the black dragon with a smile.

Akel's dragons do not speak in the literal sense of the word. They express ideas, and use the natural energy of which they are mostly constituted, the Zengen, to transmit them to their circle; at their goodwill, of course.

On these words, Keluna, still panting, stared with intensity at his partner.

"Me? Tense? Well... It's true I had a tendency to take females a few weeks ago. But I've been losing interest in taking over for a while now. I don't know... I feel a little frustration. I still feel pleasure in sex, of course, but... I still feel that great emptiness deep inside me at the end of each intercourse."

"Ooh! You're starting to talk like Ferlin!"

Keluna raised an eyebrow, his interest was sparked. He knew Clemos. The black dragon had some vicious propensities. He didn't throw anecdotes just for the sake of throwing an anecdote.

"Ferlin? The shy grey dragon of our clan?"

Clemos smiles. Without warning, the black dragon rose slowly. Surprised, the hermaphrodite, carried away by the sex of the male tied to his own, slipped on his back for a few inches, before the black dragon managed to get rid of his partner's rump.

"AH" let out Keluna as a result of the pleasure and the surprise he felt at the moment he was released from his grip.

"I only know him. One or two years ago, I think, he started talking like you. Saying he felt empty at each intercourse. One day, he finally admitted it to a whole small group during a small orgy. And Elesan was there."

Keluna sat up, using his front legs and wings to hold himself in a sitting position.

"Elesan? The small dragoness that works miracles in the making of Zengen materials?"

"She herself. And like I said, she heard him. And she told him she had a solution to offer him. Since then, I have often seen Ferlin taken by males, including myself. He confessed me at this time that he felt frustrated, but strangely fulfilled. At the time, I didn't understand, and then he showed me the solution that Elesan had offered him. A very simple and frankly effective device."

"A device? To not feel drained at the end of an intercourse? I don't understand. What device is this?"

Clemos suddenly stretched his wings, ready to go.

"Heh! To understand that, you should see Elesan in person from me and ask her to try. It's not something to describe. You have to test it."

Then he took flight.

"What? Can't you be more specific?" insisted the red dragon. "Hey! Come back here!"

He tried to catch up with the black dragon when he slid on the ground on the seeds left by him and the male, finding himself on his belly, legs apart in a rather comical position. Keluna grumbled.

Elesan, the small black and white dragoness, was basking in the sun, on her back, her four legs folded up against her body, her eyes closed, while she was purring loudly, calmed by the grass under her. The reflection of her scales in her crotch offered a most pleasant sight that made Keluna blush with arousal, who was almost starting to get an erection. The hermaphrodite dragon came closer to the sublime female from the air, gliding quietly in a spiral.

"In any case, she plays the teaser well." Keluna thought.

He landed right next to her, stirring the grass and ending the nap of the small dragoness who felt the beautiful hermaphrodite taking place at her side.

"Oh ! Keluna ! "she exclaimed, delighted to see the mighty red dragon again. "Say, it's been a while since I've been able to feel the pleasure of your company. Have you come to share a little peace with me? Or to share something a little more intimate?"

Keluna blushed, hesitant. Embarrassed, he scratched his chin with a claw, looking away, to finally answer her: "Well... I talked a little while ago with a very cute male, and... Well, he told me to come see you to try..."

Elesan slowly sat up on her side, taking a seductive pose to give him confidence.

"To try?"

Keluna swallowed.

"Try... To try what you did to Ferlin..."

Elesan, opened wide her eyes, surprised.

"Oh! That?"

Then, standing on all fours, more serious, she came closer to Keluna and added, turning around the mighty dragon: "From a hermaphrodite as strong as you... What a surprise... And at the same time, it can make sense."

Continuing her seductive parade, she slipped the tip of her tail under Keluna's chin, still turning around him: "The ones with the most strength and powers can also be looking for a way to let go."

Then, pressing her muzzle against Keluna's, she asked this time: "Tell me, what did this 'very cute male' and you talk about so he would guide you to me?"

The hermaphrodite, blushing stronger, answered: "Well, we had... Let's say I had seemed tense to him. He asked me how that was come upon, and..."

Keluna turned hir muzzle aside and finished hir sentence, a bit less loud: "...I told her that I felt more and more empty at the end of my intercourses."

Elesan moved aside to face hir muzzle again. She licked hir nostrils in order to have hir full attention and asked: " Empty... in the sense that you lose all desire? In the sense that you wonder why you keep mating like this? Like you're losing interest in sex?"

"Um... Yeah, that's kind of that, I'd say..."

Elesan remained silent, scrutinizing Keluna intensely. Then, opening her eyes wide and showing a broad smile, she cheerfully answered: "Perfect! That "very cute male" advised you very well! And I'm so excited! Practicing my art on a hermaphrodite! What a joy!"

The red dragon, however, walked back a step, hesitant: "Yes, but... I would first like to know... what is this solution you are suggesting to me? What does it consist of?"

"Tu-tu-tut ! That mustn't be explained! That must be tried. Mmmh... Here's the deal. You try for a week! For a week, you'll have to stay in the same condition as Ferlin, no matter what. At the end of this week, you will decide if we continue like this, or if we stop. You can see it as a game. You can end it after a while, if it doesn't suit you."

"Um... That's not very reassuring... Well, a little bit."

Elesan insisted, trying to persuade him: "The question is: are you going to seek a solution to this inner emptiness, or are you going to stand by and do nothing?"

Keluna hesitated for a moment, then replied: "Well, all right... Let's try..."

"Perfect! Follow me, I know the place we need..."

Elesan flew to a forest. Keluna followed her.

The mighty hermaphrodite was now immobilized on hir back. Hir four legs were spread apart and each tied to a tree, by strong creepers and uprooted vines. Hir neck too. Elesan was above hir, humming.

"Um... Was it really necessary to tie me up?" Keluna asked, slightly tense.

"Of course !" decreed the black and white dragoness. "But that's not enough."

Keluna swallows.

"Not enough?"

Elesan went behind the tree to which the hermaphrodite's neck was bound and pulled out a small object, looking like human black fabric.

"What is it? Where did you get this?" Keluna asked.

"Oh, I took it from some hunters you neutralized. And I'm going to use it appropriately."

"Huh! What do you mean?"

Elesan brought the fabric closer to Keluna's muzzle. The latter panicked.

"Elesan! No! Stop! Stop it! What are you doing? Elesan!"

Everything went black... but Keluna could still breathe. He just couldn't see anything.

Elesan patted the poor hermaphrodite's hooded muzzle.

"There are holes for breathing, you big dummy! But I'm glad to see I freaked you out. At least your erection won't get in my way. Now, let's get to work!"

Elesan now placed her forelegs, one on the hip of the hermaphrodite, the other blocked any exit of the penis from its sheath. Keluna was tense, but let it happen. After all, it was too late to go back.

Elesan stayed in this position for a while, then she put one front paw on the other hip and the other paw went down towards Keluna's vagina who shivered. She stayed like that for a few more minutes.

The small dragoness finished her work soon and stood up, satisfied: "Phew! What a masterpiece! I'm so delighted!"

Keluna sighed with relief. At last she was going to free hir.

"So much work, I think it deserves a reward." she decreed, however. "A little intimate massage might soothe me."

Elesan then removed Keluna's hood. Finally some fresh air! However, the dragoness kept the hood over the eyes of the hermaphrodite who was still unable to see.

"Uh... Elesan?" called the red dragon.

Suddenly, something that seemed wet stuck to the dragon's muzzle. Something... tasty... and emitting an aphrodisiac smell. Keluna understood immediately. Elesan was sitting her wet vagina against hir.

"Come on, my little dragon! Get to work!" claimed the dragoness while the

"Elesan, this is not..."

"Tu-tu-tut ! Stop playing the proud dragon and let yourself go. Don't forget! For a week, I'll be your sex guide. Your dominatrix, if you prefer."

"But... Elesan..."

"Come on! Get to work, or I extend the game up to two weeks. Trust me, you'd regret... or maybe not, after all."

Keluna grumbled, but did so, and sticking out hir tongue, began delicately to tickle the clitoris of the small dragoness. The latter began to purr, satisfied. Keluna, however, still felt Elesan's paw on the sheath of hir penis, preventing any erection on hir part.

So the red dragon interrupted for a moment: "Elesan, if you're done, will you let go of my penis? I can't get an erection."

"Tu-tu-tut ! Everything is going very well, so keep going, I haven't reached the orgasm yet." The dragoness grumbled in a tone that clearly indicated that she did not appreciate this interruption of cunnilingus.

Keluna grumbled hir frustration, but stopped complaining and continued licking. The tasty flavor of Elesan's vagina fills the muzzle of the hermaphrodite. Hir penis kept trying to get an erection, pushing on the female's paw. But it ended up stuck, as always.

"Come on Keluna! The sooner you give her an orgasm, the sooner she'll free you." thought the red dragon.

"AH! What an appetite! The same as Ferlin the first time! Mmmm... That's good! Keep going! Keep going!"

Keluna was almost starting to get cramps in hir tongue. Let's hope the small dragoness cum. And quickly!

"Ah! Ah! AH! AAAAAAH!"

The small dragoness began to shiver from the rump. She was close to orgasm. There was no doubt about that.

Suddenly, Elesan forcefully pushed her vagina against Keluna's muzzle. It is at this moment that the ejaculation of the latter invades the nostrils and the mouth of the hermaphrodite. The red dragon then struggled, hardly breathing. Hir nostrils were filled with the very aphrodisiac smell of hir dominatrix.

Keluna couldn't wait any longer. Hir sex was about to explode. He needed an erection! Once he is released, he will jump on the little dragoness and make her regret this little game of forced cunnilingus.

Elesan finally stood up, having released her last juice.

"Oh yes ! That was delicious!" she said, licking her lips again.

Keluna then felt the ropes around hir limbs come undone one by one. First the hind legs, then the neck, then the forelegs.

"Finally!" cried Keluna.

The hermaphrodite dragon stood up, took off hir hood, then put hir paw on hir crotch, thinking of pulling off Elesan's paw... to find himself with a strange accessory between hir legs. An accessory that blocked hir erection and went down lower, also preventing any vaginal penetration. The whole was connected to a solid and hard band, passing in front of hir thighs and above hir tail, bypassing the lower part of hir wings.

"What the... Elesan! What the hell is that?" Keluna asked, worried and stunned.

"The device of Ferlin you agreed to test for a week, of course. You could have guessed that." the dragoness answered as if nothing had happened as she began to hum again.

"And... how does it work? How can I get an erection?"

Elesan held back a giggle, hiding her expression behind one of her wings.

"You can't. You need a key to open it. Only I know where to find that key. But you won't find it before a week."

"What? But... so that's your solution? Stop me from having any sexual intercourse?"

"Don't get it wrong. You still have sodomy, fellatio and cunnilingus. You just gave me one. Do you feel emptied again?"

"Wha... No, I don't feel empty... but I don't feel relieved neither."

"Then find a male to sodomize you. You'll see, it'll change your view of sexuality."

"Wha..."

Elesan suddenly came close to the hermaphrodite, sticking her muzzle to hers again, and taking the human hood from hir paws.

"And don't forget! You agreed to endure the same device as Ferlin for a whole week. A commitment is a commitment. At worst, go see Ferlin, he'll probably have some ideas to sexually relieve you."

Elesan then placed her tongue on Keluna's nostrils, licking hir muzzle all the way, then stretched her wings and flew. Keluna moved back, surprised by her takeoff, and found himself stuck against a tree.

"Come back to me in a week... or when your tongue is missing my vagina." she shouted out before flying away into the air.

Keluna watched her for a moment, then leaned against the tree, staring at the chastity device of the small dragoness.

"Rah! Damn Elesan!" cursed the chaste hermaphrodite.

The scent of hir dominatrix's vagina was still stuck on hir nostrils and the hermaphrodite could still taste it on hir tongue. This did nothing to help the futile repeated attempts of hir penis to erect.

Keluna clenched hir teeth and put a paw on the device. With hir strength and a little luck, he would find a weakness, a way to get rid of it. He pulled up with all his strength. The device seemed to move up slightly, but the belt part came to be blocked against the bottom of hir back, not allowing hir fingers to slide through. At best, the hermaphrodite was able to scratch the sheath of hir penis and the tip of hir vaginal labia, but that was as far as it went. And it was obviously too little for hir to feel any pleasure.

Keluna growled and tried to help himself with the tip of hir tail. By forcing and lifting the device a bit, he would manage to slide hir tail inside and... suddenly, the device slipped out of hir claws and came to pinch hir tail. The hermaphrodite bit hir lip, trying to stifle a roar of pain as he hurried to remove hir aching tail, tears in eyes.

"It's useless..." Keluna sighed, facing the facts.

Suddenly, the figure of a dragon emerged above the trees and landed right in front of the hermaphrodite. Keluna, embarrassed, placed a wing in front of hir in order to hide the inviolable device.

"Well, you finally followed my advice, I see." said the newcomer.

Keluna then recognized the very cute male who had told hir about Elesan and Ferlin this morning.

"You! Why didn't you tell me?" grumbled the hermaphrodite.

"Because you would have refused without even experimenting."

Then, coming vividly close to Keluna with a smile on his face, Clemos licked hir under hir chin.

"How about a round two now? I have to test the new Keluna in this device."

The hermaphrodite opened wide round eyes, shocked by this unexpected proposal.

"R... Round 2! Clemos! I can't even reach my vagina!"

"So what? Didn't Elesan suggest you try sodomizing, fellatio or cunnilingus?"

"You... You spied on us?" the red dragon rose up.

Clemos suddenly stood on his hind legs and moved two steps forward, maintaining his position by placing his forelegs against the tree against which the red dragon was leaning and by grasping the branches of trees near his wings. So positioned, he managed to place his erect penis directly against Keluna's nostrils.

Still holding his chastity device firmly, the hermaphrodite suddenly felt all wet and even more frustrated as he blushed uncontrollably.

"Come on! Why don't you give it a try?! As a thanks for advising you well."

Keluna turned to him, frustrated.

"Because you call that a good tip?"

Clemos purred then and the hermaphrodite could not hold his sexual urge any longer. He held out his tongue, trembling, and finally began to lick the hard sex of the male.

"Mmmh... I'd tend to guess so." mocked the black dragon.

"Why don't you shut up?!" he summoned him, as red as a tomato, between two firm licks.

Keluna wrapped his tail around the base of the male's tail and pushed it into his anus while starting to taste his erect limb with appetite, enjoying the concentrated pheromone scent of his new partner's sex as well as its unique salty taste that made the red dragon's vagina burning in lust. Clemos opened wide round eyes but let the hermaphrodite do, succumbing to the gentle and pleasant contact of his tongue on his penis.

"Mmmnh... I see you're as good as ever." he said, panting.

With his front paw, Keluna kept pulling on his chastity device, as if there was any hope that his brute strength would free him from it. On the other, he began to rub Clemos' scrotum, caressing it sensually while pressing it from time to time, as if he hoped to extract its juice.

"What an appetite!" Clemos commented, purring deeply as he almost got caught up in the game and accompanied Keluna's sucking gestures, forcing him to speed up the pace.

After a while, however, the black dragon grabs his play partner by a horn, forcing him to stop and to look up at him.

"But don't go too far." he required. "It was only the first step."

The male then walked back on his hind legs, moving his sex away from the tongue of the hermaphrodite. He then moved his muzzle closer and came to stick it to Keluna's.

"Now that you've lubed my sex well, it's time to take it to the next level."

Keluna frowned.

"Clemos, I haven't said that I... Wooh!"

But the male had just wrapped his tail around the base of Keluna's tail and suddenly pulled it back. The red dragon let go of his grip on his partner's anus, unrolling his tail in order to land better. Keluna found himself on his back, his pelvis held up by Clemos' tail, whose well erect sex was now positioned on the chastity device.

The hermaphrodite, tense, had scratched the tree on its height by sliding on the ground, switching from a seated position to a lying one, and was still holding the tree with his forelegs.

"Wo-wo-wow! Clemos! Wait! I... I've never practiced anal!"

The male, purring loudly, replied: "Oh really? Well, there's a first time for everything."

He then slowly moved his pelvis back and tried to target Keluna's anus.

"N-No! Wait!" begged the latter.

But Clemos did not listen his and began to gently push his big sex through the sphincter of the hermaphrodite. The black dragon, probably experienced in this field, was going gently. Keluna's saliva covering his limb allowed penetration to take place smoothly, and without much resistance. And Clemos' very dominant side made the hermaphrodite feel unable to fight. He trusted him and knew that for a week it would probably be the closest sexual intercourse he would ever be able to get.

"Ah ! Oh ! OH ! Stop! Clemos! Mmmmh..." protested the red dragon, feeling his sphincter stretching. It was the same feeling as the first time he had let a male visit his intimacy... except that the pleasure was mixed with frustration. It wasn't that orifice that wanted to rub up against the black dragon's limb. It probably won't be enough for the hermaphrodite to reach the orgasm.

"You make it sound like you like it." emphasized the black dragon to his.

Keluna groans, grinding his teeth.

"Mmmmmnn..."

Clemos was halfway there when he suddenly pushed his penis all the way to the end.

Keluna opened wide round eyes, surprised, put her hind legs against the male's hips and pushed his claws as well against the scales of the black dragon as against the trunk of the tree.

"Mmmh... You love anal as much as vaginal, I'm convinced now." Clemos laughed.

The male rocked his hips back and forth as he abused the hermaphrodite, making hir enjoy each and every thrust. While Keluna was experimenting with sodomy for the first time, he noticed that hir erection attempts had calmed down. He was still aroused, but hir attention was too focused on hir sphincter stretching and retracting in a new way. Hir second sex, on the other hand, couldn't get any wetter. The grid of the device, which was placed in front of it, allowed a large trickle of cyprine to bead, which, as it flowed out, lubed the active penis of the tall male even more.

Clemos sped up the pace little by little. The two dragons groaned, louder and louder. The male felt Keluna's sphincter narrow as the latter felt hir partner's limb had gotten bigger since this morning. He felt he was going to explode. Having slightly accommodated himself to these thrusts, hir penis once again tried untimely erections against the device. The hermaphrodite felt that hir scrotum was swollen and was about to explode and that hir vagina was about to burn. He couldn't take it anymore. Hir moans were changed into an astonishing roar of pleasure, desire and frustration.

Minutes passed, and Clemos began to feel his sex swelling, ready to pour its seed into Keluna.

"Ah! Clemos! Clemos! FUCK!!!" shouted the hermaphrodite, feeling the volume of the male's limb changing.

Clemos, grinding his teeth, shouted back: "Mmmmn... It's coming! It's coming!"

And the ejaculation came.

"GRRRRRAAAH!!!" shouted the two dragons at the same time.

Clemos' warm liquid invades Keluna's inner. This time, the male had failed to anchor his sex to the hermaphrodite. But the red dragon felt too exhausted to find the strength to free himself. And anyway, it was just sodomy. No risk that the male would give him a few eggs after this little hanky-panky.

Keluna's pelvis was shaking. The hermaphrodite had felt a very strong pleasure, close to orgasm. But he didn't go through with it. He wanted to go further. He needed to go further...

However, the male collapsed on the hermaphrodite, ignoring hir feelings, hir desire. No, he probably knew that. He said he had this kind of intercourse with Ferlin. He just didn't care. He was relieved. That was probably all that mattered to him.

"Ah! That was good..." he exclaimed, his muzzle against Keluna's.

The latter stared at him, frowning, irritated.

"RAH! I don't... I don't want this thing anymore! I want to cum too!" he complained.

The hermaphrodite again attempted to remove the device with one paw while attempting to penetrate hir vagina through the grid of the other. But hir naturally oiled scales and sticky seeds around hir crotch did nothing to help. There was nothing to do.

"At least you don't feel empty anymore." Clemos replied, a teasing smile on his face, while licking hir muzzle.

"Mmm... I should hate you for that."

"I take that as a thank you."

Suddenly, a voice rose from the sky. It was Elesan, the dominating small dragoness was back.

"Keluna! Keluna!"

The black and white dragoness landed quickly in front of the two dragons.

"Mmmh... I see you quickly followed my advice. What a sex-hungry dragon."

Keluna blushes, embarrassed.

"Anyway, it doesn't matter." Elesan continued. "Good thing you just finished. We have an emergency, Keluna. A dragoness and two of her youngs have been captured and are threatened by humans. We need your help."

Keluna straightened up abruptly, sliding Clemos aside, hir hindquarters dripping with hot cum: "What!?"

Then, clenching hir teeth, he added: "Alright! I'm going. However, Elesan, you're going to have to release me from this device. I really don't see myself fighting with it."

"Tu-Tu-Tut!" protested this one. "This device is made of solid Zengen. It sticks to your skin, but it is flexible where I wanted it to be flexible and rigid where it should be. Then no excuses!"

"But..."

"Ferlin already tried to do this to me too. But I have no reason to give in. I'll come with you anyway."

Keluna grumbled. It is true that Elesan was also a good fighter of the clan and had proved useful in certain situations when it was necessary to fight against humans. It was not by chance that she had managed to take over the piece of black fabric she had placed on hir head. He could not refuse her to come with hir and therefore could not find an excuse to evade hir promise.

"Nice try Keluna!" Clemos laughed.

"Okay, fine. Come on, let's go!" grumbled the mighty red dragon, frustrated. "But be discreet, Elesan. I'll be the one to kill the humans."

"As discreet as an ant!" promised the small dragoness with a wink.

The two dragons flew, Elesan in front, leading the hermaphrodite. Keluna also had her dominatrix's vagina in sight, naturally wet and lubed. Obviously, the scene she had just seen on her return had not left her indifferent. And it was the same for what Keluna could only stare at, pinching his lip.

"Don't think about it! Don't think about it..."
