

It's early on Halloween night. Anthael has arrived on time for the party. The invite said to dress in something a little revealing to assure a good time. Anthael dressed in his best slutty cheerleader outfit. The pink top and matching pink leopard print bottom matched perfectly with the pink pom poms. On the doors someone spray painted "Trick or Treat." Anthael opened the door that read "Treat" and went inside.

Anthael entered through the door down a narrow hallway with glowing arrows that showed the way. As he made it halfway down he came to a table with a sign that read "Put these on." He looked down, and there was a ball gag and ball mitts. He blushed some; it looked like it was going to be a treat indeed. He put the ball gag in his mouth and slipped his hands in the ball mitts. He followed the rest of the arrows to a booth with red curtains on either side. He entered the booth and was shocked as his hands were yanked up and hooked on the ceiling. More hands came through the holes and started to grope and grab him.

The hands were strong and firm. His legs were spread. Hands caressed his chest squeezing it, others grabbed his ass spreading his cheeks teasing his tailhole. He looked up to see a large cock sticking out one of the holes. It was aimed right at his face. The hands lifted him off the ground spreading his legs wide. He groaned as his hard cock was stroked and fingers pushed into his tailhole. Anthael groaned with pleasure his hips bucking.

The hands worked their magic. Anthael moaned into the gag as hands teased his body. He was too entranced to hear the giggles and the clicking sound. With in a few seconds thick dark green slime started to hose down out of a hole in the top. Anthael wiggled, but the arms wouldn't let him go or let up. The slime washed over him covering every inch. He felt his body getting close, and his back arched as he came. Soon the slime stopped and the hands let him down.

The curtains parted and from behind them stepped out the magic hands. The dragon Principal, Bill, Dan, and Emmy all came out naked. All were very hard and aroused. Emmy smiled and another curtain was pulled back revealing a large pit of orange and black slime. She told Anthael that since they gave him his treat, it was his turn to get them all off. Each grinned as they ushered him to the slime pit.
