

Doctor Visit

By Ayn BlackFox

Kiarra sighed as shi walked into "River City Medical". Shi dreaded doctor visits but shi was due for a full examination even though hir benefit package did not require hir got one. Shi grew tired of seeing the notices from the doctor's office reminding hir to see hir doctor. Shi walks over the counter and picks up the clipboard. Shi moves off to the side and then fills out the paper, stating the reason for hir visit and other vital information. After the handing the clip board to the clerk shi goes to the waiting area and sits down.

The over head TV does not seem to be working, leaving the office in a strange silence that shi was not used to. It seemed creepy at first but shi got over as a small bit of chatter is heard by a couple in the corner talking about their kids. Shi picks up a magazine and starts to read it not really caring what it was about, just something to help pass the time. Looking over at the wall shi sees a notice that announces a new doctor that will be seeing patients that has replace Dr. Killikan who died in a car accident. Shi blinks and then opens the "Soap Weekly" and starts to read.

Several pages in, Kiarra becomes confused not really knowing what is going on since shi stop watching soap operas a while back and then addition of characters has only made things harder to understand. A love triangle ends in tragedy and a female becomes pregnant by an unknown donor? Shi sighs in disbelief and puts the magazine down. Shi closes hir eyes and stays quiet just waiting for hir name to be called. Shi starts to wonder who the new doctor was or if shi was going to see by the new doctor. Kiarra became curious.

A female deer dressed in green scrubs comes from the back part of the office with a folder in hand. "Kiarra Lexinton?" Shi calls out looking at the waiting area. Kiarra walks over to the worker and tries to smile. "That would be me." Shi said softly.

"Full Examination, correct?" The worker asked making sure the paper work was right.

Kiarra nods slowly. "Yes." Shi thinks for a second. "Do you know anything about the new Doctor? My normal one was Doctor Killikan." Shi questions as they start to walk towards the exams rooms.

The worker stops at exam room 4 and opens the places the folder in the box next to the door. "No. I have not seen Dr. Dog." Shi said as shi puts a blue marker on the door and closes it.

Kiarra blinks hearing the name. "Dr. Dog?" Shi thinks. "Sort of an odd name. I wonder what he or she looks like." Shi starts to daydream, thinking of how the new Doctor could look like.

Shi blushes a little picturing a tall, toned male wearing white scrubs. Grey colored fur with blond hair and a canine of sorts. Shi giggles as shi picture the doctor walking into the room, speaking to hir with his handsome voice hir blush intensifies as the hunk of a male walks over to hir and starts to rub hir shoulders softly. Shi relax against the touch of his hands. Shi smiles widely as the male's hand rub at hir shoulders and neck. He kisses hir on the cheek as his hands move down and start to rub over hir breast softly.

Hir daydream is interrupted when there is a knock on the door. Kiarra shakes hir head some to stop hir blushing. Shi clear hir throat. "Come in." Shi said as hir curiosity spikes as shi gets see who the new Doctor is.

The door slowly open and in walks a silver color half chakat. Kiarra blinks and wonders if this is "Dr Dog". Shi watches the fox like chakat closes the door behind hir and locks it. Wearing a white top with several pens in the chest pocket, the doctor looks over Kiarra's folder. Kiarra can only watch as shi slowly looking over the doctor who appears to be female until shi sees the sheath. Shi swallows as the doctor moves over to hir.

"I am Doctor Dyrenne Ovixxia Greminku. You can call me Dr. Dog." Shi said with a smile having a strange southern accent. "I am yer new doctor, replacing Dr. Killikan."

"It is nice to meet you Doctor. I am Kiarra." The foxtaur replied with a hint of shyness in hir voice.

Dr. Dog nods and then looks over Kiarra a little before putting the folder down. "I see that you seem to stay furrly healthy." Shi said moving a bit closer to the foxtaur. "Dr. Killikan must have been proud of you."

Kiarra nods as Dr. Dog moves in closer and takes hir left hand and examines it. Shi blushes a little as the doctor looks over hir hand. Shi takes a pen and pokes the palm of Kiarra's hand and feels hir try to withdraw it. "Good." Shi takes the other hand and does the same thing to it and gets the same result. "Vury good." Dr. Dog moves and writes something down in the folder "Take yer shirt off please."

Kiarra takes hir short off exposing hir white bra to the doctor, who takes a stethoscope out from hir pocket and put it on. Shi places the head of the instrument on Kiarra's chest and listens to hir heart beat. Kiarra gasps a bit as the cold instrument touches hir back. Shi relaxes getting used the cold touch as the doctor moves the instrument around to hir back.

"Breathe in and out fer me long slow breaths." Dr. Dog said listening to the breathing on the upper torso. Kiarra inhales deeply and then exhales slowly as the doctor listens. "Very good, now for the lower torso." Shi moves the stethoscope down the lower torso and listens to the secondary heart and lungs. Kiarra keeps breathing as the doctor moves around listening still. Dr. Dog stop and then walks over to the folder and writes something down. "Vury good," Shi pulls out a tongue depressor. "Now stick out yer tongue and say "aw" fer me."

Kiarra nods and then opens hir muzzle and "awws" as said. Dr. Dog places the tongue depressor on the tongue and shines a pen light into the open maw. The minty smell makes hir smiles a bit as he looks down to the back of the throat. There are no abnormalities about the throat so shi pulls out the tongue depressor and then places in in the thrash. "Can you sit on the examination table please?"

Kiarra nods and and then moves to the low set table and sits on it. Shi watches as the doctor pulls a small device of the wall and puts a small black plastic cone over the front of the device. Shi turns on a small light that beam slightly from the device. Shi moves over and places the cone in Kiarra's left ear. Kiarra's cringes a bit as the plastic is cold but the feeling is brief as the doctor moves and views the right ear in the same manner.

The cone is removed from the ear and then taken off the device and placed in the thrash. "Yer ears look vury good." Dr. Dog said with a smile as shi writes in the folder. "Next is a neural-physical test." Shi said moving back over to Kiarra. Shi takes a hold of Kiarra's hands and holds them lightly. "Tell me if you experience any pain."

Kiarra nods as Dr. Dog takes a hold of one hand and starts to wiggle and bend Kiarra's thumb. Kiarra stays silent as Dr. Dog moves and does the same with each finger, still not getting any sign of distress from the foxtaur. With a half-smile, shi takes the other hand and does the same. Kiarra remains silent, simply watching as the doctor work on the hand before moving over to write in the folder. Dr. Dog slides back over an takes the left arm and starts to move it with in normal parameters, up, down and bending at the elbow, waiting to see if there is any distress. Kiarra blinks as he feels normal if a little nervous about how the doctor is preforming the exam. Unorthodox. Dr. Dog moves and does the same to the other arm, Kiarra not feeling any discomfort with the doctor's actions. Shi blushes a little as the dog moves down and stars work on hir forelegs in the same manner.

Dr. Dog smiles and then looks at Kiarra. "You seem to be in vury good health. No joint other bone issues." Shi said as shi writes in the folder. "I would check yer hind legs but I know I will get the same result." Shi continue to write in the folder as Kiarra watches. "The next part of the exam is a simple blood pressure and temperature taking."

Kiarra nods as Doctor Dog steps out the room, closing the door behind hir. Shi blushes a bit more as the phantom feeling of the doctor's touch lingers for a few seconds. Hir tail wiggles slightly as shi moves off the exam table. Shi looks in the mirror and then uses a paper towel to wipe hir muzzle down for no reason. Shi move away from the mirror and then sits next to the exam table. Just then the door opens and Dr. Dog walks in and a smile. "Oh good you got off the table." Shi said as shi closes and locks the door again. Shi places white seal packet on the counter. Shi puts on the stethoscope and pulls the blood pressure cuff from drawer. Dr. Dog wraps the blood cuff around Kiarra's arm and then place the head of the stethoscope against the cuff and listens to the heart beat as shi pumps up the blood pressure cuff.

Kiarra blushes a little as the doctor stopping pumping and lowers the pressure on the cuff slowly. A few seconds pass and the cuff is deflated and taken off. Dr. Dog puts the cuff back in the drawer and open the packet, pulling out a large thermometer Shi looks at Kiarra and moves closer to hir.

"Is something wrong Kiarra?" Dr. Dog asked as shi shakes the thermometer, seeing Kiarra blushing.

"Oh no. I am fine." Kiarra said shaking hir head.

Dr. Dog smiles and then moves around to the rear of Kiarra and looks at the thermometer "Can you lift yer tail fer me?"

Kiarra nods and lifts hir tail up. Shi gasps feeling the cold thermometer slip into hir tail hole. Shi blushes a bit more as the doctor moves around to where the folder is. Shi writes some in the folder as shi looks at the clock on the wall. Kiarra cringes a bit as shi tries to get use to the cold object in hir rear. Shi looks at the doctor and then looks towards hir rear wondering how long the thermometer had to be inside hir tail hole.

Two minutes pass and Dr. Dog moves away from the folder and pulls the thermometer out. Shi smiles and then looks at Kiarra. "Temperature is perfect. 103. Slightly over normal but nothing to worry about." Shi puts the thermometer in the thrash and write the temperature in the folder. Shi reaches into hir pocket and pulls out a latex glove. Shi goes back to the rear of Kiarra and puts a little lube on hir fingers. Shi then pushes two of the lube fingers into Kiarra's tail hole, making the foxtaur gasp sharply. Kiarra tenses up and then blush some as the fingers slip into hir tight anus. "Cough please."

Kiarra swallows a bit and then coughs as said. He gasps again as the fingers slip deeper into hir tight anus. Shi coughs again and looks back doctor who seems to be thinking. "Is everything," Shi clears hir throat. "OK back there" Shi asked.

"So far, yes. But thur is one more test that I hafta do to make shure though." The doctor said as shi takes off hir glove and then puts another on. Using two fingers, shi pushes into Kiarra's vagina. Kiarra gasps and then moans softly as the fingers slip into hir tight passage.

With a soft murr, Dr. Dog slides hir fingers in and out of the vagina, using hir thumb to rub over Kiarra's clit softly, making the foxtaur moan slightly louder. "Interesting." Shi spreads Kiarra's legs a little and pushes hir fingers a little deeper into the foxtaur, adding a third.

Kiarra moans louder and humps back at the fingers. "May.....I... ask what that...." Shi moans, "Doctor?" Hir own member erects from its sheath.

"I'm not entirely shure. I will hafta examine you some more." Dr. Dog said as shi pushes hir fingers deeper into Kiarra's passage. Shi uses hir other hand to strokes the erection. Hir own penis erecting quickly into a full erection.

Kiarra can only nod and moan as the fingering and stroking of hir member makes hir arch hir upper torso back a little. Shi pants and then moves hir tail to the right side as the finger's reach as deep as they can into hir vagina making hir gasps and moan loudly. Hir legs shake a little. Shi moves hir hands up and starts to rubs over hir upper torso belly. Hir penis fully erecting in the stroking hand.

Dr. Dog pulls hir fingers out and stops stroking the penis. "Going to need to do a probing." Shi moves and mounts Kiarra pushing hir firm erection into the tight vaginal passage. Kiarra inhales and then exhales slowly with a low moan behind it. Shi gasps as the doctor's hand paw starts to stroke hir member again.

Rubbing hir breast softly, Kiarra humps into the stroking hand and letting the doctor's member sink deeper into

hir. Pre-cum starts to leak against the stroking hand-paw. Shi moans and then grabs the exam table and squeezes on the padded leather as the doctor's member slips deeper and is much bigger than any toy shi has used. Shi gasps again but much louder as the doctor hilt's hir with the member. Shi blushes heavily and squeezes hir breast as the doctor starts to thrust into hir

Dr. Dog picks up the pace, thrusting the faster into hir patient. Shi places hir hands on Kiarra's shoulders, stroking the pre soaked member in time with hir thrusting moaning softly. Kiarra moans a bit louder and squeezes hir own breast. Hir body tensing as starts to reach climax. The fingers of hir hand-paw curl up as suddenly climaxes. Hir vaginal passage clenching the long, thick member slipping about it, coating it in hir juices. Kiarra knot quickly forming against the stroking hand-paw.

Dr. Dog groans at the suddenly clench but keeps thrusting into hir patient as hir own climax quickly reaches hir. Shi growls and then thrust hard into Kiarra making the foxtaur squeal. Dr. Dog stick hir tongue and grips Kiarra's shoulders tightly as shi squirts hir warm, thick seed deep into the tight depths of Kiarra. Shi keeps stroking the member in hir grip making the foxtaur gasps and suddenly orgasm again. The seed from Kiarra's member splashing against the floor as Dr. Dog squeezes the knot. Kiarra gasps and then moans out loudly as shi cums.

Dr. Dog stops thrusting and pulls out of Kiarra slowly. Shi walks over to the counter where the folder is, still having a full cum covered erection. Kiarra pants and then relaxes a bit as the doctor writes. Shi blushes some, wiggling hir tail. The doctor closes the folder and then looks at Kiarra with a wide smile. "Yer exam is complete, but I want to a follow up in a week just make sure nothing has changed." Dr Dog said writing down the date and time on a small notepad and given it to Kiarra.

"Oh OK." Kiarra replied looking at the slip.

"You can get dressed now." Dr. Dog said as shi puts the notepad away and closes the folder. "Come on back and see me now, here." Shi opens the door and heads out of the room, still sporting an erection.

Kiarra gets dressed and then puts the slip in hir buttoned shirt pocket and head out of the room. Shi spots Dr. Dog behind the counter typing up something on the computer. Shi gets a waves from the doctor as shi walks towards the front of the building. Shi exits the office and then starts to walk down the street. "That was an interesting exam."
