

Chapter 5: A New Experience on Parterre Way

Fae was making her way through Route 4 with Champ still in his Pokéball. After that close battle he had with Viola's Vivillon he had well deserved a break from the front line; a point he was none too quick to argue. That left Talo to take the lead for the day's battles and he seemed eager to prove that he was worthy of the position, taking down two groundskeepers and their Corphish.

It had been late midmorning by the time they had finished with the Gym and Pokémon Center in Santalune, so Fae decided they'd head out a little earlier than planned after Talo and Champ had an early lunch. She had decided that if she didn't find a Pokémon in this area that would suit her team by about midafternoon they'd head on to Lumiose, so far she wasn't having any luck. Lots of Combee and Flabébé around, but there had to be other Pokémon in the area there just had to be.

Well I might as well stop for my own lunch she thought to herself as her stomach growled with hunger after that I'll look for a bit longer before heading to Lumiose she decided to herself.

She found a nice secluded spot in one of the hedge mazes, there was hedge on three sides of her causing there to be only one way in or out. Kneeling down she removed a bottle of water and a veggie sandwich that she had purchased from a Café that had just opened up in Santalune, before laying the bag horizontally so it could be used as a back rest. Changing to a sitting position she slipped her boots and socks off, placing the boots behind the bag with her socks inside; she liked the feel of grass between her toes.

Removing the sandwich from its wax paper wrapper, she picked up one of the halves and inspected what she had purchased. They had used a rye bread that looked like it was a swirl of both light and dark rye; in between the bread was crisp leaf lettuce, fresh baby spinach, thinly sliced tomatoes and cucumbers topped with a thin player of sprouts and thinly chopped mushrooms. It looked delicious; as she bit into it she found a thin spreading of mayo laced with the tiniest bit of hot sauce to give it a little kick.

"Oh my god! It's like my mouth just had an orgasm!" She said aloud after taking a big bite.

Finishing her meal she stuffed the wax paper into a pouch on her bag until she could find a proper trash receptacle. Shifting to a half cross legged position placing her left leg vertical with her body, she opened the water bottle and took a decent pull of water before resting her left arm over her knee; bottle in hand. Leaning a bit more into her duffle bag, her mind started to wander as she relaxed. Thinking about everything from what her main six Pokémon were going to be, to simply thinking how pretty the clouds looked. Her vision fixed on one long oblong shaped cloud that had a large puff on one end, in her mind's eye it started to take the shape of Blayne's cock; causing her to feel a need in her loins.

Removing her gloves she slid her right hand down the front of her pants and used index and middle finger to rub her slit through her body suit her pussy moistening quickly, popping her hips she slid her jeans off and placed them to her left side; plopping her jacket over top of them.

Bringing her knees to her chest she then spread her legs open wide and continued to rub herself through her suit, the fabric soaked up her juices and clung to almost the exact shape of her mound, even her clit which had emerged from its hood was noticeable.

There was a wet squelching sound as Fae pulled the fabric away from her sex, strands of girl-cum linking each to the other, and moved it as far as she could to the right. Her pussy was now fully exposed and quivered as the fresh air gently kissed it.

Her juices flowed and her breathing quaked as she gave her cunt three short hard smacks with an open right hand. It seemed to her that she was extra wet today, as the slaps caused her honey to spatter her inner thighs. Bringing her hand up to eye level she noticed that her fingers and palm were also covered in her secretions, with a few strands linking her fingers together much like with her body suite. She plunged her index finger into her mouth, tongue swirling around it; she was unsure of what compelled her to taste her own cum, but she found it not unpleasant and cleaned off each finger in turn.

Leaning back a bit she propped herself up on her toes slightly, causing her ass to lift off of the ground. Bringing her right hand back to her sex she rubbed her clit with an increased pace of need. As her climax encroached Fae started to breath heavier, then suddenly she heard a rustling sound and in a panic she resumed a sitting position; clamping her thighs shut in an attempt to hide the fact that she had been jilling herself off.

Looking around to see who was there and not finding anyone, she opened her legs back up and started to slowly pump her hole with the index and middle finger of her right hand. Suddenly she heard the sound again, and that's when she saw it; peering from the corner of the left hedge that half made up the entrance to her spot was a wild Ralts.

"Well how long have you been there little one?" she asked with a sigh of relief, ceasing the pumping of her hand in favour of just rubbing her insides in an attempt to cover herself while still getting off "You startled me" she continued.

The Ralts fully emerged from its hiding spot and shyly made its way over to where Fae sat still fingering her box, until it stood a mere inches from her hand. Fae noticed that it was female, and less than half of the size of an average Ralts. The psychic spikes on her head were so small they were almost non-existent, but unlike other Ralts her small frontal appendages that would pass for arms ended with the daintiest little fingers Fae had ever seen; she was adorable.

The pint sized psychic type pressed on Fae's hand ever so gently "what is it little one?" she asked inquisitively, the little Pokémon answered simply by making a shooing motion with her arms "you want to see my pussy?" she continued, slightly confused; to which the Ralts actually responded with an eager nod. Fae shrugged and moved her hand up to her mouth to clean her fingers, not seeing the harm in granting a little voyeurism to such an adorable audience.

The little Ralts pressed its small digits into Fae's labia, and started to gently rub and caress each and every bump and line. Using both hands to spread open each side in turn as if she was investigating. Fae's sex was incredibly sensitive from her near climax and the Pokémon's delicate soft touch was making her head spin, her juices flowing like a small stream.

"What? Are you comparing it to your own?" Fae asked with a giggle between breathes which had become laboured. To her surprise, Ralts looked up at her to answer with a couple of nods once again.

The little Pokémon went back to exploring Fae's pussy, this time pressing its face into the muff and using its small tongue to caress every inch of the inner labia while still working the outer with tiny digits, the delicacy of the Pokémon's touch always present.

I shouldn't be letting it go this far raced through her mind, but she had gotten so horny that she was past the point of caring, and this Ralts had a touch that was like magic. Deciding to throw caution to the wind she laid back into her duffle bag letting it take more of her weight, biting her lip in an attempt to muffle her moans of pleasure that were ever increasing in volume; she left the psychic/fairy alone to just do what she wanted.

As the pint sized Pokémon continued to work Fae's honey pot it wrapped its tiny mouth around her engorged clit like a tight fitting glove and began to lick, suck and even nibble on the sensitive buzzer.

Digging her fingernails into her bag and curling her toes into the grass Fae threw her head back as her orgasm washed over her, letting out a short sharp scream of passion that just wouldn't be contained. Letting out a satisfied sigh as she slouched, Fae looked at the Ralts that was still between her legs. Its face and upper body had gotten a good dose of her girlcum when it had squirt from her pussy.

"Damn little one, where did you learn that?" she asked through shallow breathes "That was amazing"

Ralts didn't answer, content with moving the sticky girlcum from its body and face to its mouth swallowing every bit happily.

"You really like my pussy juice don't you?" Fae asked with a giggle "Why don't you come with me?" she continued placing a Pokéball on the ground next to the Ralts "Come with me and we'll get to do this again sometime if you'd like."

That seemed to seal the deal as the little Pokémon pressed the button on the Pokéball, not even giving the slightest bit of a fight as it closed. "Welcome to the team Pixie" she said picking up the ball and giving it a kiss before clasping it on her belt.

Using what was left in her water bottle she washed the stickiness off her sex and inner thighs before pulling her body suit back over her mound. It was still a bit wet and sticky and clung eagerly the form of her puss.

Dressing she got back to her feet and fixed her hair, it had gotten a little messy during the little interlude. Hoisting her duffle bag over her right shoulder she started making her way to Lumiose City, head still swimming a bit from the wonderful orgasm she had just a moment ago.
