

Kalos Adventures Chapter 11: Dream World

Fae was woken up by the sound of running water, sitting up on the bed to rub the sleep from her eyes the covers fell off her to reveal her large bare breasts. It was then that she realized that this was not the room that she fell asleep in at the Pokémon Center. She was on a king size bed with silk sheets and was dimly lit by numerous candles of different sizes. There didn't seem to be any windows and there was only one door which was half open letting in some light from the adjoining room, which was also where the sound of water was emitting from.

Looking around some more she started to panic when she didn't see Champ anywhere, none of her other Pokémon were present either; not even a single article of her clothing for that matter. Throwing the covers off her completely she launched from the bed and made a b-line for the only door, hoping that whomever or whatever was behind it was at least somewhat friendly.

She threw open the door and stepped into what turned out to be a washroom and froze at what she saw, it was Champ; standing up like a human under an open waterfall shower, the water washing over his body. What a body it was too, standing about six feet he was well built with a broad chest that was covered by a large tuft of fur across the span of it and his lean muscles were well defined. He didn't seem to notice her as she looked him up and down, her vision locking on the impressive pair of testicles hanging between his legs.

It wasn't until she noticed that his testacies were getting closer that she realized he had turned the shower off, by the time she had gotten herself somewhat back to her senses he was already standing in front of her. Instead of using a towel to dry himself he simply increased his body temperature until the water evaporated off him like a steam, the act aroused her even further and she could feel her juices starting to flow.

Not giving her time to react Champ placed a hand on the small of her back and pulled her into his body, planting a kiss on her lips. Fae was surprised to find that his lips were flexible like a human's with this body, tears of joy started to swell in her eyes and she attacked his lips with her own in a frenzied state; overjoyed that she could finally kiss her lover properly. Champ eventually had to pry her off him almost forcibly so I could breath, as he did he used his bandana to tie her arms behind her at the wrist; Fae looked at him wide-eyed as she bit her lower lip in anticipation for what he had planned.

Champ then motioned for her to lower herself, which she did without hesitation until she was sitting with her knees spread and her legs bent behind her; leaning a bit back using her bound hands to support herself a bit. His cock had since emerged from its sheath and it was every bit of magnificent as his balls, while still a bright red and veiny it has increased in both length and girth; though his knot was now gone. Grabbing his cock by the base he started to slowly rub it on her face before prodding her lips with the tip.

Fae opened her mouth and let her tongue hang over her lower lip, at which point Champ started to rub his cock over to tongue; giving her a gentle cock slap when she tried to actively lick his shaft. Once he got a suitable amount of her spit on his shaft he grabbed a hold of her breasts firmly causing her to feign a gasp and buried his cock between the two massive flesh pillows. He started to thrust slowly as he enjoyed the feeling, allowing her to lick and kiss the tip when it would emerge at the top of her cleavage.

Increasing his pace he gave one final hard thrust before releasing her breasts to stroke his cock, letting out a grunt his cum flew from his cock to splatter on her face and breasts with some getting in her mouth: to which she swallowed eagerly. Acting quickly he picked her up and slung her over his right shoulder, carrying her from the washroom and back into the bedroom.

Fae giggled playfully as Champ gently tossed her onto the bed, her arms still bound behind her. She watched as her lover slowly climbed onto the bed his cock was still hard with what seemed to be a steady stream of cum drooling from the tip; she came a little in anticipation for what was to come next. He then flipped her onto her stomach and lifted her ass up until she was on her knees with her legs close together, straddling her from behind in a squatting position he plunged his cock inside her with a hard fast thrust; revelling in the lustful yelp she let out as he did.

Fae bit into the bed sheets as Champ began to thrust his increased size was a lot to take and he wasn't giving her any quarter with his thrusts, luckily she was as wet as she was. Her juices combined with the cum leaking from his cock made him easier to take, with every movement of his hot rod inside her, her mind went more blank until her tongue was hanging out of her mouth and she was panting like a Vulpix in heat.

Champ snarled through grit teeth as his cum loosed inside her wet pussy, pulling out during his climax to drop the rest of his load onto her tramp stamp tattoo. With his cock still hard and throbbing for more he spread her ass cheeks and pressed the tip of his cock against her starfish, which snapped Fae back to reality. She twisted her body a bit so she could see him a bit better "Careful love, we haven't done that ye..AAHH!" she was cut off as he started to slowly insert his shaft into her ass, her juices spraying in climax when his balls pressed against her cunt.

He started with long slow motions so his lover could get used to him inside without causing her too much discomfort but before too long he was pounding her ass with the same ferocity that he used on her pussy, his balls slapped against her moist slit only to pull away with a faint wet squelching sound. "YES FUCK ME HARD! MAKE ME YOUR BITCH!" she yelled through cries of passion, making sure he had a firm grasp on her hips Champ straightened his legs and stood up on the bed; lifting her body off the bed as well leaving her with only her large breasts underneath her for support as she was now at an angle between the mattress and his cock.

Champ used the grip he had on her hips to push and pull her off his cock in time with his thrusts, grunting and snarling with every motion. The bed started to creak and sway noticeably under them and his balls slapped louder against her pussy as he quickened the pace at which he was taking her ass. With one final hard thrust he loosened his grip on her hips as he climaxed and started to shoot his seed deep into her bowels, letting go of her completely she slid off his cock and fell to the bed and rolled onto her back as Champ's balls continued to empty themselves; squirming in delight as his hot cum splattered on her stomach and what skin wasn't already covered on her breasts.

Fae gazed at him standing proudly over her through tired eyes, his raging cock finally starting to soften. He started to fade away as she closed her eyes, reopening them to find that she was back in her bed at the Pokémon Center in Cyllage City. Looking at the clock through tired eyes to see that it was 2:30 in the morning, she rolled over on her back and pulled the covers off her.

As tired as she was she was even hornier, her nipples were so hard that they actually hurt and her pussy felt hot. Reaching between her legs she touched herself and winced a bit as it was sore, as well as sopping wet. That was one hell of a dream she thought to herself as she laid on the bed debating on the action to take. Moving to the edge of the single bed she looked down to see Champ sleeping peacefully beside the bed, her duffle bag in front of him; she didn't have the heart to wake him up this early in the morning.

Instead she quietly reached for her bag and opened it, being as silent as she could she pulled out a special toy she had picked up in Lumiose City along with a small tube of lube; it was a gel dildo that was purple in color and about the same size of Champ's cock. She applied a small bead on lube on the tip and used one hand to spread the lube around the toy. Laying back on the bed she spread her legs and lifted her ass off the mattress, taking the dildo firmly in her right hand she plunged the sex toy into her pussy; muffling her moans with the nipple of her left breast.

Fae sucked and nibbled her nipple as she pistoned her toy in and out with little remorse, bucking her hips as she masturbated. Using her left hand she pressed her breast harder against her mouth forcing her puffy areola past her teeth as she could feel her climax approaching, and it was approaching fast. Biting down on her tit she closed her eyes and her body went rigid as her pussy juiced squirted from around her dildo like a garden hose. Her lust sated Fae let the weight of her breast pull the nipple out of her mouth, a red bite mark around the areola. She laid still on her back with one hand on her stomach and the other up by her head, her eyelids started to get heavy as she finally fell back asleep; her dildo still deep inside her.
