

The Beginning of Damien

Hi my name is Damien, I'm nineteen years old and I live in a flat down in Newcastle with my three mates Jacob, Scott and Natasha.

I go to Newcastle Northumbria University, I'm doing a course's in science, sports and psychology, I am also part of drama group and a music group, sadly I never do any big plays/productions or public singing/ concerts.

It's just because I'm too shy and there's something only a few people know about me.

On Saturday I'm going swimming as usual for practise but something tells me this Saturday's going to be different.
