

The climate was normal today, not expecting high or very low temperatures. The forest park is a good place to go whenever people need to have fun and relax. Olivia, a young girl, is riding her bicycle visiting the forest for not only to explore, but to look for her mother that's she been missing for days and never came home and got her worried and sad. She always come here to visit her mom working and playing in the park. Sometimes she calls her working, at times she is busy and times when she is not and always talk on the phone for a little bit.

"Mom... where are you? I hope you are okay". Olivia said as she is underwhelmed .

She went through the forest, collecting flowers was one interest she goes to the park. Some flowers with different colors, shape, and type. Olivia goes deep in the forest and realized she was a little lost. Fortunately, she turned back and saw the path where she came from. So now she isn't lost. She went further in the woods and saw a lake flowing down far ahead wherever it leads to. Olivia found it beautiful to see a lake in the middle of the woods with trees, bushes, and soil.

She explorer more if there was anything left to see. Until she saw an some sort of temple. Which it looked almost bigger than her.

"Wow... what is that place" she said.

Olivia went near that place and saw the entrance. The temple seemed to almost like a cave with lots of dust sand, a little crack but not a lot to make the temple crumble. Also there were vines and grass around the walls in some spots. The floor seems to be dirty. Olivia walked inside the temple and see some long paths. She does like to explore places but nothing like this that looks a bit spooky.

“What could be in this place? could it be filled with treasure or stuff? I’ll see about it.”

Said Olivia.

She walked further until she found the room.

“What is this room?... oh look! I found something” she said as she looked on something very interesting. She found a statue like artifact shaped like a fox. That item was on the ground.

Olivia went slowly to the artifact. Then, she picked it up and held it with her hands.

“I found a treasure. I should take this with me.” Olivia said as she got the artifact.

Suddenly, the statue flashed around the room.

“Ah so bright... what was that?” She said looking at the statue. She started to walking out until all the sudden she felt strange.

“Ohh....” Olivia said as she felt a bit warm.

Olivia wondered if she had a fever or a cold. She felt like something was tickling her. She touched her skin and felt hair growing longer. In fact it was growing more and it was orange.

“What..!?” She was surprised.

Olivia looked at her hand and orange fur was there as well. She later felt like something was changing inside her body. She later fall down on the floor as she lost her balance. She tried to get up, but couldn’t anymore, she was now on fours.

“What’s happening to me? Owwww.” She said as something was hurting her on her legs.

She took off both of her shoes and see her toes were changing, so as her fingers and her nails were a bit pointy and sharp. Her skin on her legs and hands changed to dark. With all her hands and legs became paws. Meanwhile her hair or fur was still spreading all over her body.

“This hurts...mmmm” She said in a bit of a pain.

Her face changed as her nose went forward. Her tip of her nose was turning dark and made a muzzle which now it easy to smell things. Fur was growing more on her cheeks, her eyes felt different, her ears were triangular and felt like she can feel better. Also, Her teeth on her mouth went sharper. Her body shrank a bit smaller than her human size. Her clothes made it bigger to fit and fall on her body. Her stomach had grown not only orange fur but white as well on her belly. She grew a long fluffy tail with white on the tip while most were orange. The transformation was already finished. Her clothes were big, it was like a pile. Olivia struggling from her clothes and got freed by it.

“Mmmm... What happened to me?” She said

She didn’t know what happened but she hadn’t felt anymore pain. She walked with her four legs which got used to walk a bit. Olivia saw a reflection and saw a cute and adorable young fox staring back.

“Whaaaaaat.....! I’m....a Fox?” She exclaimed.

Olivia looked everywhere from her body, head, paws, and a tail which she turned her neck and saw it.

“But... why? How did this happened to me?” She said.

She said started walking out of the temple walking on fours with her four paws. She got out with fresh air going through her nose and her fur. This made Olivia feel good.

“Haha.. the wind almost made the fur tickled me.” She smiled.

She went into the woods from the temple. She went through the forest and surprisingly she had her nose scent which she can tell where she is at.

“Hey I can smell animals and things better, cool” she said in a smile.

There were animals here in the woods. She can see the animals from the top of the tree or in a hole on the ground. Some animals greet and Olivia greet back.

“I think I like being a fox, this is not so bad” she said.

Suddenly, the animals were gone hiding and the woods became quiet as a ghost town. Olivia had wonder what had happened, did anyone got scared of her? Maybe the animals were tired, but it’s still daylight. Olivia had look around and everything was silent still.

“Why did all the animals go?” Olivia said.

She continue walking to see where did anyone go. Olivia then heard something on the bushes. She looked at it carefully who is in the bush. What came out were the three angry and fierce wolves.

“Uhh... hello do you know... where did all the animals go?..” Olivia said very hesitantly.

“Grrrrr....!”

“Ahh....!” She got scared.

“Aw how nice that you're alone, you make a tasty meal if I had eaten” The wolf said.

Olivia Gulped and still scared as she heard them say about eating her. Olivia stepped back a little trying to get away. The wolves were almost getting near her slowly. Just then Olivia sprinted off from the wolves “Get her!” The third wolf.

Olivia ran in the forest as fast as she could saving herself from the wolves. This explains why the animals are gone or hide. She kept running and hears that the wolves were in to her and they're faster than her. Must have been her scent that made them track toward her. She ran until she came to a dead end and no where to run.

"There you are." The 1st wolf said as they find her.

The wolves got near her slowly once again to finish her off.

"you not getting away this time" the 1st wolf said.

The wolves prepare to strike until a adult fox jumped in between them.

"You will leave her alone!" the fox said as she exclaimed to the wolves.

The fox stepped forward to those wolves and tried chasing them off. The wolves backed and ran away and never heard the footsteps of them.

"You... saved me... Thank you..." Olivia said in a relief.

Olivia was scared until the adult fox saved Olivia fox from the wolves which lead her to a smile.

"Are you okay? Are you hurt?" Said the adult fox.

"No, I just ran away from those mean wolves" Olivia responded." Thank you for saving me fox."

"Anything from me, I always help animals in need." The adult fox said.

"you help animals?" Olivia said.

"Yes, just like you" the adult fox said.

"Oh Wow..." Olivia said.

Both foxes had a good talk. The fox had look at the young fox and there was something about her. She looked into her eyes that might remind her of someone.

“My little child...” The adult fox said to the little fox.

Olivia heard what the fox said which surprised that she heard those words before. She looked at the adult fox’s eyes.

“M... Mother? Is that you?” Olivia said.

It went silent for a second.

“Yes, I am your missing mother.” The adult fox said, or Fabiola.

Olivia the young fox stood with her tears rolling and ran towards her fox mother for a big hug. She felt her mother soft fur as she was really joy that she found her mother after missing for days.

“I missed you so much mother... Sniff” Olivia said crying

“Me too Olivia” she said as she was hugging her, she cried for a bit as a tear rolled into her eye.

Fabiola couldn’t abandoned her daughter. She would be all alone and she couldn’t let that happened.

“Where were you?” Olivia asked her mother.

“It was a long story dear. I went saw this temple in the middle and saw this fox statue placed in the table and then-“

“Turned you into a fox like me?” Olivia said to Fabiola.

“Yes, How did you know you touched it?” Fabiola said

“Yes.” Olivia nodded in disappointment.

“That’s fine at least we are together. Whatever we are you will always be my daughter.” She said to Olivia.

“Mommy...” Olivia said. “What do are going to do now? We are foxes and we can’t go back home or they will hunt us”

We now will live here in the forest and you are living with me, after all you're my daughter and I will never you again” She said as she nuzzled her daughter.

Olivia laugh in joy and happiness just live the old time where she was a baby.

“The sun is going down soon”

“Awww... “ Olivia whines.

“But we will look around more tomorrow” Fabiola says.

So they went to their new home, which is a burrow, and both laid down and Fabiola cuddle her daughter. Olivia yawned as she went sleep. Fabiola kissed her goodnight and said.

“Good night my little sweet fox”

With that Fabiola went to sleep with her child, Olivia.
