

Krystal and the Dragon II

Smaller than Life

By Hotdanimus

Well, what do we have here? A vixen and a giant dragon? ...Oh I remember now! Krystal and Vladok! They met when Krystal fell off the Kamigami Tree trying to get a Goddess Apple. Of course, being a kind-hearted creature, Vladok saved her from an untimely end. This led to them falling in love with each other, having a few embarrassing moments, and of course, enjoying themselves despite the size difference. Since then, they've been together for about 3 months.

Today, the weather is perfect, so the duo decided to have a relaxing picnic at the lake. Vradok managed to pick a few Goddess Apples since they plan on staying there for the day.

Krystal: You're sure this is enough?

Vradok: I'm sure this is enough. If not, I can always pick more.

However, there was one error committed this day.

You see, a Goddess Apple has the power to bring enjoyment and good fortune to those who consumed the apple and those around them. However, the Goddess Apple can only bring good if it is perfectly fresh, which is indicated by its red coloring. If it is spoiled, indicated by its purple-ish color, then its effects are disastrous. But if it's under developed, indicated by its yellow color, it will still bring some fortune, but it comes with a side effect. What that side effect is varies depending on the situation and this situation will have a dozy size effect.

Upon arriving at the lake, Krystal began removing her clothing, save for her bra and panties, as she planned to go for a swim. Vradok, still mesmerized by Krystal's beauty, can't keep himself from staring at her as she removes her garments. But even though Krystal doesn't mind him staring, he still doesn't feel like he should and tries to think of something else.

That's when his stomach started to growl.

Vradok: (Thinking) Guess it has been awhile since breakfast. Good thing I did bring some Goddess Apples.

Vradok went for the closest apple and took a bite out of it. As he did, he noticed something strange about its taste.

Vradok: (Thinking) Odd. This apple has an unusual taste.

What he didn't realized was that the apple he chose was the under developed Goddess Apple he accidentally picked and its effects are kicking in now!

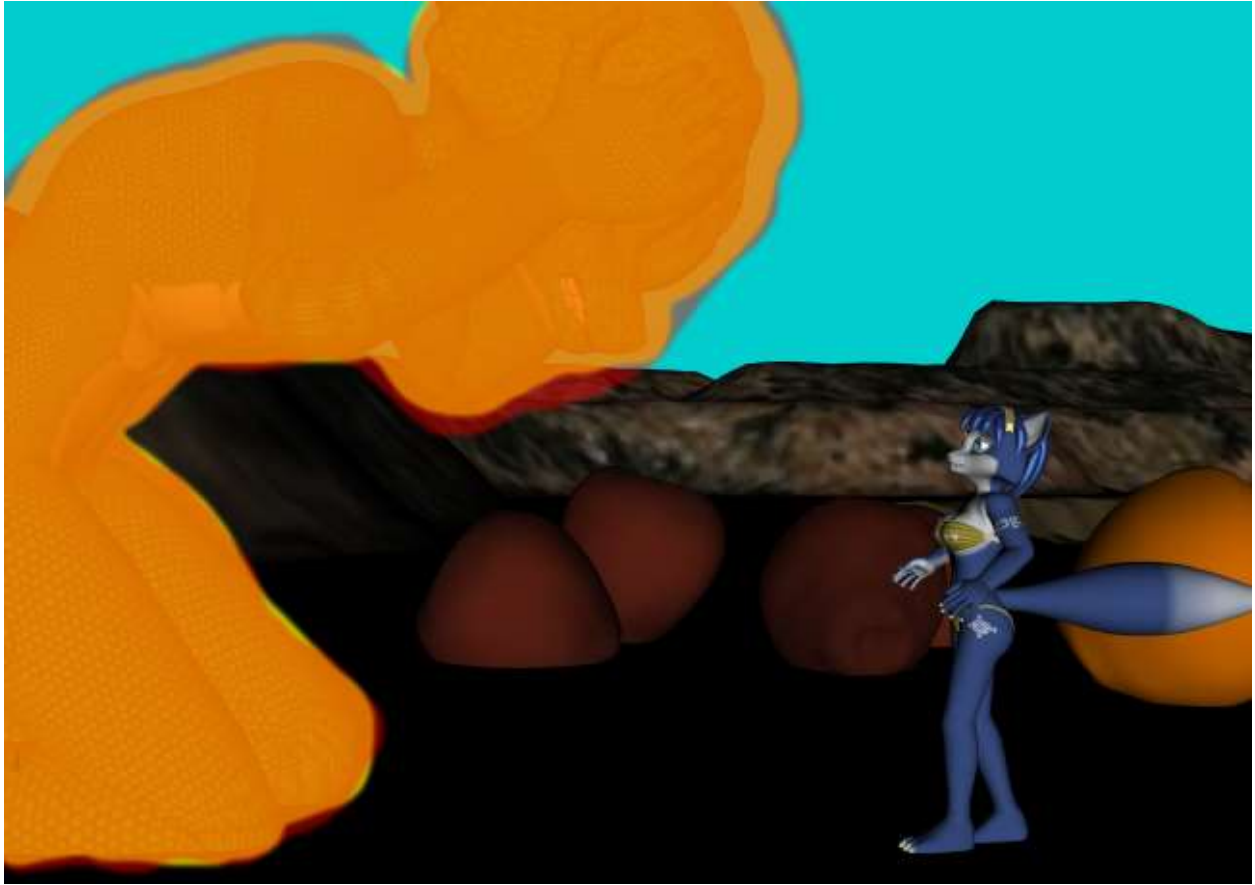

In almost an instant, his body glowed in an unnatural shade of orange as pain seared throughout his body.

Vradok: Aaaaaaaaahhhhhhhhhhhh!

Krystal was about to dive into the water when she heard Vradok scream in pain. Worried, she turned to see Vradok glow.

Krystal: Vradok?!

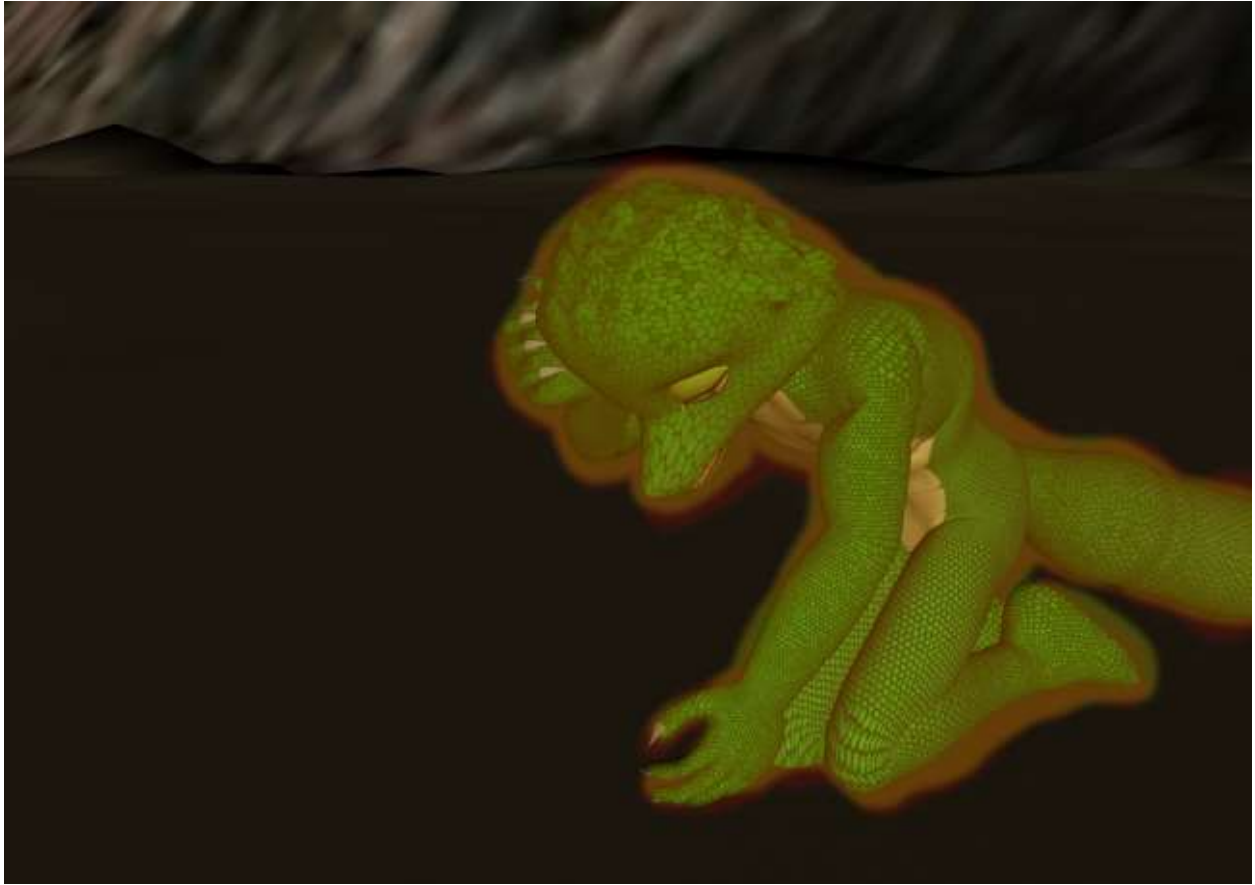

Getting on her feet, Krystal ran towards Vradok.

Krystal: Vradok, what's happening?!

Vradok: I don't know, but it hurts!

That's was when something very unusual begun to take place: Vradok was shrinking! With each painful moment, Vradok was unaware that he was getting smaller and smaller.

After a while, the shrinking finally stopped as the pain slowly begins to ebb, the glow around his body fading away as well.

Vradok: Ow... My head. I'm glad that's over, but what was that all about-?!

Before he could finish his sentence, Vradok made a frightening realization.

During the entire process, Vradok shrunk til he was even smaller than Krystal!

Vradok: Whoa! Wha-?!

Krystal: Vradok, are you okay?! You're so...small.

Vradok: (slightly worried) I know, but how? lightbulb The Goddess Apple! The whole thing began when I took a bite out of it.

Very gently, Krystal grabs Vradok and lifts him towards face level.

Vradok: Wow. So that's what it feels like.

Krystal: Are you sure you're okay?

Vradok: Y-yeah. I think so. sighs sadly

Krystal: What's wrong?

Vradok: It's just- sighs again I wanted this day to go perfectly, but now-

Without letting him finish, Krystal brought Vradok towards her chest, giving him a hug.

Krystal: Vradok, every day is perfect with you. Even if you are smaller, you're still that lovable dragon that saved me.

Vradok: Krystal...thank you. rests head on her chest and smiles You know. I've always wondered what this feels like.

Krystal: Really? Then I guess we both have our share of fantasies.

Vradok: Huh?

After sitting down, Krystal placed Vradok on her knee.

Krystal: While I do enjoy our time in your original size, there were times I wished you were smaller.

Vradok: Really?

Krystal: Yes. place a hand on her right breasts There are things we can't really do while you're in your full size.

Vradok: Such as?

Krystal then precedes to remove her top, exposing her breasts to Vradok. She doesn't stop there, however, as she begins to grope and squeeze her breasts in front of him.

Krystal: Giving you a better taste of my breasts is one thing.

Vradok: mesmerized Oh wow...

Vradok became so entranced by Krystal's breasts, which now seems larger than ever, that he got hard right in Krystal face.

Krystal: Looks like you're enjoying the sights. Now let's see about washing down that goddess apple with some "milk".

Krystal brought Vradok towards her right breast, which he began to nurse on.

Vradok: (Thinking) So this is what it tastes like. It's a very pleasant taste.

Krystal: (moaning) Mmmm...that feels so good.

After a while, Vradok stopped.

Vradok: Hey, uh, Krystal?

Krystal: Yes?

Vradok: Is it okay if I taste another part of you as well?

Krystal: (chuckles) I was hoping you would ask.

After being set down between her legs, Vradok begins licking Krystal groin.

Krystal: (moaning and lustful panting) Oh, God.

Vradok: (Thinking) Looks like she's enjoying this. Time to kick things up.

Vradok then dug his entire muzzle into her pussy.

Krystal: Oh yes! That's it! I gonna-!

But before she could cum...

...Vradok stopped.

Krystal: (panting) Why did you stop, Vr-?!

As she looked down, she noticed that Vradok is glowing again.

Vradok: I feel weird again! But something strange is happening!

Krystal then noticed that he was growing!

Vradok continues to grow until he's around Krystal's height (only a bit shorter).

Vradok: (looking at his hand to notice the glow ebbing away) This is getting weird.

Krystal: Why did you grow?

Vradok: Maybe because I only took 1 bite out of the Goddess Apple, it's effects are temporary.

Krystal then precedes to move closer to Vrardok, placing a hand on his shoulder

Krystal: Well, at least we can look at each other without looking up and down so much.

Vrardok: I guess. Still, I wished I'd stayed small enough to finish pleasuring you.

Krystal: It's not your fault. Besides...

Without warning, Krystal begins to stroke Vradok's member, which began to harden.

Krystal: With you at this size, we can try something that couldn't be done while you're either small or big.

Vradok: What's that?

Krystal precedes to get on all fours and crawl until her rear is facing him.

Krystal: (seductively) Here's a hint.

Krystal made her point by raising her tail and wiggling her butt.

Vradok: (blushing) You mean...like mating?

Krystal: Yes, yes I do. After all, it's what mates do.

Without further delay or doubt, Vradok penetrated Krystal's pussy and began fucking her.

Krystal: (moaning) Yes! Yes! Oh god!

Vradok: (moaning) Krystal! This feels so good!

As they fuck, they're unaware of the time spent having sex.

However, there is one thing they will be aware of.

Vradok: (panting) Kr-Krystal! I think I g-gonna cum!

Krystal: (panting) M-me too!

In no time did the couple cum together, roaring in ecstasy as Vradok's seed entered Krystal's pussy.

A few hours have passed since that moment. Night has fallen on them as Krystal lays on top of Vradok.

Krystal: Are you okay? You look kinda out of it.

Vradok: (tired) I guess randomly shrinking and growing takes it out of me.

Krystal: I can't blame you for that. Besides, I'm pretty tired myself.

Vradok: (tired) I wish we had more time, though.

Krystal: Don't worry about it, Vradok. I hold no regret about the time we spent today. In a sense, you achieved your perfect day.

Vradok: (tired) Thanks, Krystal.

At that moment, Krystal planted her lips onto Vradok's. Although slightly caught off guard, Vradok soon returned the kiss. It wasn't long until their lips parted from each other, their weariness kicking in.

Vradok: Good night, Krystal. (falls asleep)

Krystal: (giggles) Good night to you too, Vradok. (falls asleep)

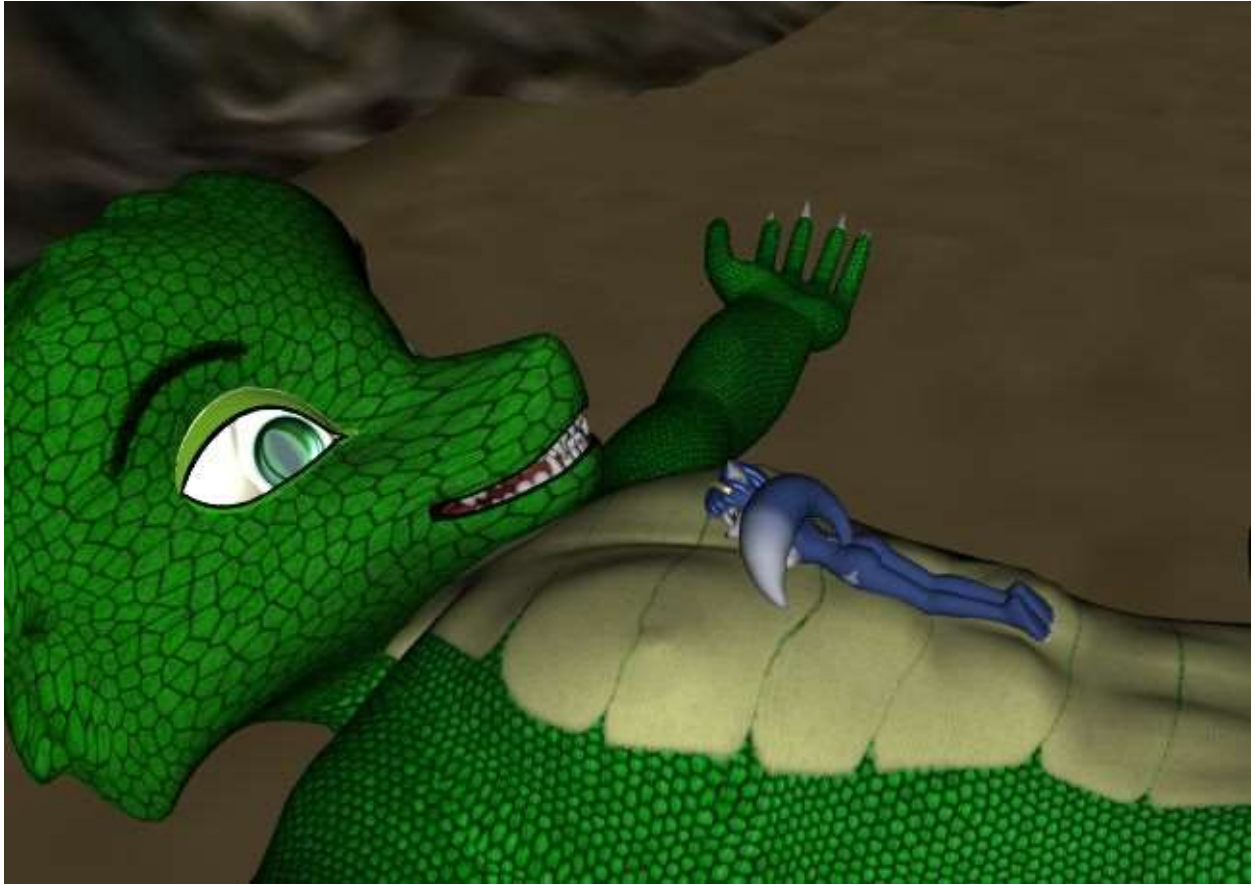

As they sleep, Vradok's body undergoes one last change.

As the morning sun rises, Vradok slowly opening his eyes.

Vradok: (yawning) Hmm, morning already? Well, at least my head doesn't hurt anymore. But why don't I feel small?

As Vradok looks down to get a good look at Krystal, he noticed one very important detail.

Vradok has regained his original size as he and Krystal slept!

Vradok: Krystal! Look!

Krystal: (slowly waking) Huh? Wha-? (noticed Vradok's size) Vradok?

Vradok: I grew back into my original size!

Krystal: That's great!

Vradok, despite his excitement, carefully scooped up Krystal as he began to sit up.

Vradok: Regardless, yesterday was really fun.

Krystal: I agree. The way you filled me was exhilarating!

Vradok: Although, you forgot a very important rule about being a friendly giant.

Krystal: (confused) What's that?

In a surprise move, Vradok grabbed Krystal with his right hand.

Vradok: Lick the micro senseless!

With those words, Vradok began licking at Krystal, who couldn't defend herself from the torrent of licks.

Krystal: (laughing) Okay! Okay! I'll be sure to lick you clean next time! Which reminds me. (looks back) I think we should pick some more apples.

As he stopped, he looks at the Goddess Apples and noticed that most of them have spoiled.

Vradok: I think you're right. Despite the happy little accident yesterday, I don't think I'm gonna experiment the effects of these apples.

With that, Vradok stood up and, with Krystal in his hands, walked back to the Kamigami Tree to get more apples. As they walked away, they didn't realize that the only good apple there is the same apple that started this story.

The End
