

Desired Tales #6

Once upon a time, Andy used to go to the same gym with Craig and Horacio. They had a few things in common. They were all single, gay men, fat, and wanted to lose the weight. They became gym buddies, until one day, Andy decided to stop going to the gym. Andy only knew Craig and Horacio from the gym. When Andy stopped working out, he lost all communication with Craig and Horacio.

Andy disliked the fact that he stopped going to the gym. It had been a long time since he stopped. He had an excuse for why he stopped, but was that excuse good enough to justify it in his mind? He had regrets. He saw online photos of people improving their bodies by going to the gym and working out. A part of him imagined how he would look like now if he didn't stop. It made him sad.

Andy decided he would go back to the gym! He worked up the courage and entered the building. He quickly found a piece of equipment and restarted his gym routine. He quickly built up a sweat and his clothes became stinky with sweat stains on his chest, under his armpits and man boobs as well as all over his belly, butt, and thighs.

Andy got off a machine and was breathing heavily. He knew it was going to take a lot of time before he was fully in shape. Andy heard a voice behind him saying, "Andy, is that you?" Andy turned around and saw something strange! It was an anthropomorphic flatworm, Craig, in gym clothes! Andy hadn't heard Craig's voice in so long that Andy hadn't recognized the voice, and of course, Andy didn't know it was exactly a flatworm. All he knew is that it was skinny with abs, had a human height but didn't look human due to a weird beautiful skin color and strange arms and legs. It looked like an anthropomorphic slug or sea slug to him but skinnier and not slimy.

Craig the flatworm continued, "I haven't seen you here in a long time, Andy. You looked even bigger than before!" Andy felt a little insulted by that remark. Andy responded, "Do I know you?" Craig answered, "Had it been so long you forgot about your pal, Craig?" Andy reacted, "You look nothing like Craig!" Craig chuckled, "I take that as a compliment! I lost all the weight! I'm pretty proud of myself. If you would have stayed at the gym with me, then you would be skinny like me too. Funny how things worked out. Why did you stop going anyway?" Andy sighed, "It's a long story." Craig laughed, "Don't want to tell me about it? Maybe you'll be more like to open up to my boyfriend. Here's Horacio now!"

Another flatworm appeared, Horacio. The two flatworms kissed and embraced each other with their hands in front of Andy. Andy could only tell them apart due to Craig having sweatier clothes than the second flatworm. Horacio asked, "Who you're talking to, sweetie?" Craig answered, "Do you remember Andy?" Horacio gasped, "Of course I do! He was cute for his size at the time. I had a little crush on him. Then he stopped showing up and once I had enough confidence in myself, I asked you out on a date, Craig. I probably would have asked Andy instead of you if he had continued working out with us." Craig mentioned, "That here is Andy." Horacio laughed, "This is awkward. You looked fatter than before."

Andy was annoyed. Craig and Horacio were making out again and basically groping each other in public. Andy hated the fact that his dick was getting hard watching! Andy didn't look away. He was telling himself he wasn't attracted to these creatures. He told himself he was attracted to the idea of being skinny and having a boyfriend.

Horacio noticed Andy was still there. Horacio didn't know why Andy was still there. An idea formed in Horacio's head. Horacio offered, "I can help you work out if you want, Andy."

Over the course of the next few weeks, Andy spent his time working out with Horacio and Craig at the gym. Andy still had envy for his gym buddies' skinny bodies. Andy had only lost a few pounds and was still ashamed of his big belly whenever he saw Craig and Horacio making out. Their skinny stomachs pressed together always made Andy's penis hard and erect. Andy wondered if Craig and Horacio noticed, but they never said anything to Andy about it.

One day, Andy admitted out loud at the gym to Craig and Horacio, "I wish I had your skinny body. I feel like I've made barely any progress. It's going to take me forever to lose the weight." Craig patted Andy's belly and said, "You'll lose it eventually. It's a marathon and not a sprint."

Horacio suggested, "We could always turn you like us." Craig gasped, "Do you think our relationship can handle another flatworm?" Horacio laughed, "You've probably thought about it too already, Craig. I'll let you two think it over."

After Andy left the gym, Andy spent the next few days thinking about it. Was Horacio kidding? Would Horacio really turn Andy into an anthropomorphic skinny flatworm? Was it even possible? Horacio and Craig were both flatworms and Andy knew them as humans, so it was probably possible. Andy had seen other flatworms in the gym as well. It wasn't like Horacio and Craig were special in that regard.

Andy was disappointed he wasn't seeing the results he wanted from his workouts. He wanted to be skinny now, he didn't want to wait several months or years to see the full results. He was willing to become a flatworm!

Andy told this to Horacio and Craig the next time he saw them at the gym. Craig was fully on board this time and said, "Go to the shower and we'll do it!"

Horacio, Craig, and Andy were alone together in the gym shower room. Horacio and Craig took off their gym clothes. Andy saw their erect hemipenes for the first time. Andy wasn't aware each of them had two cocks! Andy took off his clothes and the others saw his huge boner. Craig informed Andy, "Things are about to get sticky."

Craig and Horacio each stood on opposite sides with Andy in the middle. Andy saw them grab their hemipenes! They jerked their rods in front of Andy. The dicks began to squirt huge strings of cum all over Andy's skin! Andy wondered if the semen was going to turn him into a flatworm.

Andy was still human when Craig and Horacio turned him around. Craig and Horacio pressed their bodies into Andy. Craig's cum was now touching Horacio's flatworm skin while Horacio's cum was touching Craig. Andy was getting pushed between the two. Finally, Andy couldn't see or move!

Craig and Horacio stepped out of the shower. Craig was now sporting an enormous belly! Horacio rubbed Craig's belly. Horacio was proud of his accomplishment. Horacio and Craig left the gym together.

A few days later, Andy left Craig's belly and was a skinny adult anthropomorphic flatworm! Andy now had the confidence to start looking for other flatworms to date!
