

Desired Tales #8

Nick just got out of a bad date's apartment. The night was going great until his date revealed himself to be a top. The dating profile had versatile listed. The man was pressuring Nick to bottom. Nick never liked bottoming. Nick was always a top. He never liked getting his ass fucked. Nick wondered why the person would even ask Nick out when that was listed on his profile. Maybe the guy just had a fetish for fucking tops' asses, making tops bottom for him. It made Nick uncomfortable to think about and he had already forgotten the date's name. Nick uttered to himself, "I wish I could tell when a person is a bottom." Nick moved on from the subject and arrived home.

Nick checked his emails after walking through the door. He received a weird spam email from a few minutes ago. The email said his wish will come true. Nick didn't know who sent the email or what the email meant. He deleted the email and quickly forgot about it.

The next day, Nick spent time using a dating app. The app showed him a man named Trey with a cute face and an attractive body. Nick grinned when he saw the person self-identified as a bottom. Nick hoped Trey wasn't lying on the app.

Nick and Trey exchanged messages over the course of the next few days. There was small talk, flirting, and sent photos. Nick was delighted when Trey sent him a pic of his butt cheeks. Nick was growing more confident in the idea that Trey was truly a bottom and that Nick wasn't being lied to again.

They agreed to have their first date at a restaurant. Nick was ready to have sex with Trey that night if the date went great. Nick arrived at the restaurant first. He hoped he wasn't being stood up.

Minutes later, Trey arrived. He sat across Nick at the table. The two ordered their meals and drinks. They talked to each other while waiting for the food. Nick noticed Trey's forehead was sweating. Nick wondered if Trey was nervous. Brown fur began to appear on Trey's face! Nick was confused. Was he imagining all this?

Suddenly, huge antelope horns grew out of the top of Trey's head! Trey's face stretched and shapeshifted into a waterbuck muzzle covered in mostly brown fur with a few white spots! Trey's neck was now covered in long fur! Fur was poking out of Trey's clothes!

Trey stood up. He announced, "I should go!" Nick saw Trey's clothes ripping! Nick saw Trey's sexy furry body! Nick could tell Trey grew bigger in all the right places. Trey was embarrassed and nervous. Trey turned around. Nick saw a furry white circle on a brown furry butt with a tail in the middle!

It was like a bullseye for Nick! He wanted to pound those butt cheeks! Nick knew in that instant that Trey was the perfect bottom for him!

Unfortunately for Nick, Trey started running towards the door! The anthropomorphic waterbuck left in a hurry.

Nick got up and ran out of the restaurant! Nick chased after Trey! Nick wasn't going to give up! He saw the Trey's bullseye waterbuck butt in front of him! Nick shouted at Trey, "Wait for me!"

Trey continued to run! Nick kept shouting until Trey finally stopped. Nick caught up to Trey. Trey cried out, "What do you want?" Nick replied, "I want you. You don't have to run away from me."

Nick moved his arms around Trey and placed his hands on Trey's butt. Nick smiled while touching Trey's furry booty. Trey would have been blushing if the fur on his muzzle didn't cover it up.

Trey leaned in and kissed Nick's lips. Trey mentioned, "I live around here. I can let you inside."

Nick held Trey's cloven hoof hand while following Trey home. Nick thought it felt weird touching the hooves, but that didn't stop him from enjoying Trey's body. Nick kept taking glances at Trey's bullseye butt while walking with Trey.

The two finally arrived at Trey's place. Trey opened the door and let Nick inside. Nick had multiple questions in his mind. Was Trey like a werewolf? Was this the first time Trey ever transformed? What exact creature was Trey? It didn't occur to Nick that Trey was a waterbuck.

There were other questions on Nick's horny mind that felt more concerning. Was Trey still a bottom? Would Trey let Nick fuck his bullseye butt? Would Trey let Nick stay for the night?

Trey began to speak, but Nick wasn't focused on the words, Nick was only interested in Trey's butt at that moment. Trey smiled and said at the end of it just in time for Nick to pay attention, "You're a good listener, Nick." Nick responded, "That's not all I'm good at."

Trey kissed Nick. Trey stated, "I'll show you the bedroom." Nick followed Trey's booty to the bedroom.

Nick frowned when he saw how dark the bedroom was. How would he be able to see Trey's butt in the dark? Nick asked, "Can you turn on the light?" Trey was hoping Nick wouldn't ask. Trey was still embarrassed showing off his waterbuck body to Nick.

Trey flicked the light switch on before moving closer to the bed. Nick quickly took off his clothes.

Nick walked towards Trey who was already in bed. Nick thought about how he was going to have sex with Trey. Nick wanted to see Trey's butt at all times. That ruled out having Trey ride Nick's dick.

Nick decided not to climb into bed. He needed to change Trey's position. Nick's hands grabbed Trey's hips! Nick pulled on the hips while Nick walked backwards. Trey's legs were no longer in bed. His cloven hoof feet touched the floor. His chest, stomach, and head were still in bed. All that mattered to Nick was that he can now clearly see Nick's bullseye butt!

Nick's hand grabbed the base of Nick's erect rod. He pushed his tool between Trey's butt cheeks. Nick thrust his hips and started to fuck! Trey made cute moaning sounds while Nick pounded his ass! Nick loved hearing Trey's erotic sounds! Nick started to copy the grunts and moaning noises!

Nick felt hot while fucking Trey. Nick didn't immediately notice how his body was growing waterbuck fur. Nick only realized something was odd when the hands in his line of vision had fusing fingers that became cloven hooves! Nick grunted and continued to fuck! It felt too good to stop! His cock belonged in the bullseye butt! He wasn't ready to pull it out now!

Nick's noises got louder as his head shapeshifted into a furry waterbuck muzzle! Two huge antelope horns grew on his head! A tiny tail grew out above his butt! His butt now had a ring pattern exactly like Trey's sexy butt cheeks, although Nick wasn't aware at the time. His tail wagged while he thrust his powerful waterbuck hips into Trey's butt cheeks!

Nick had the energy to fuck Trey for several hours without stopping! It was finally time to sleep once Nick crawled into bed. Nick wondered if the transformation was permanent or if he would wake up as a human. He yawned and put his arm around Trey. The last thing Nick thought about before going to sleep was Trey's bullseye bottom booty.
