

Desired Tales #11

Dennis uses his hands to undress Josh. Josh thinks out loud, "I must be dreaming. I had no idea you liked me." Dennis grins while taking off his own clothes. The two are naked in a room with a bed.

Josh notices Dennis's tail and the wings on his back. Josh gasps, "This is a dream! What are you?" Dennis laughs, "Relax. If you wake up, it'll ruin the fun." Josh reacts, "So this is a dream! You're not really Dennis!" Dennis smirks, "Pretend I'm Dennis. It's your dream." Josh stutters, "But... what are you really? This doesn't feel like a regular dream." Dennis dodges answering by saying, "You must be special to not have woken up by now. Usually people wake up once they realize it's a dream."

Josh wonders, "You make it sound like this isn't your first time." Dennis laughs, "With you, yes it is. It's our first time together. Don't you want it to be special?" Josh questions it further, "You make it sound like you've been with other people." Dennis smirks, "I'm not a virgin if that's what you're asking." Josh's dick twitches. Josh begins to imagine Dennis having sex with other people. Josh's hand wraps around his cock and strokes his penis while he fantasizes about Dennis.

Dennis comments, "Why are you masturbating when we could be having sex?" Josh responds, "What difference does it make? You're not even real." Dennis states, "I am real." Josh argues, "You're not Dennis!" Dennis admits, "I'm not. I've only taken on this form to please you. It's what you desire tonight."

Josh asks, "What are you really?" Dennis grunts, "I'm growing impatient. I'll tell you if it speeds things up. I'm an incubus." Josh reacts, "If you're really an incubus, then why did you choose me out of all people?" Dennis laughs, "Don't be so dramatic. I don't choose where I go. I simply enter a dream. If that person wakes up, then I'm transported into another dream." Josh says unimpressed, "That's anticlimactic. Why are you even in a dream?" Dennis responds, "We don't have time for my whole life story. We should be having sex before you have a chance to wake up."

Josh blurts out, "Why do you want to have sex with me?" Dennis smirks, "Sex is raw power. No more questions. I'll give you something that will shut you up!" Dennis suddenly grabs Josh's lower jaw. Dennis kisses Josh's lips. Their tongues collide and their lips smack sloppily.

Dennis breaks the kiss once his hands push down on Josh's shoulders. Josh gets down on his knees. Josh's face gets hit by Dennis's penis. Dennis's fingers slide between Josh's wet lips. Dennis opens Josh's mouth. The length of Dennis's dick quickly fills the mouth!

Dennis's hands are on Josh's head. Dennis thrusts his hips and face-fucks Josh. Josh moans while sucking Dennis's penis. Dennis comments, "Good, you haven't woken up yet. It's time for me to start turning you into an obedient pet."

Dennis's penis squirts its semen. Josh swallows and continues to suck. Josh begins to sweat and feel hot. A canine head and furry neck emerge to the left and right of Josh's head. Josh's thoughts get hazy as his brain connects with the two canine brains. Josh doesn't panic. He feels relaxed. Dennis mentions, "You won't have trouble staying asleep now. Your new heads help control your brain signals."

Thoughts about pleasing master enters Josh's mind. Josh's human head shapeshifts into a canine head as more cum is squirted inside his mouth! Dennis pats Josh's newly transformed head while saying, "You're beginning to look like a good cerberus. Unfortunately, it's reversible if you wake up. That's why we wouldn't want you to wake up and spoil the fun."

Josh's head is filled with thoughts about not wanting to wake up. He wants to suck master's cock! Not just any cock! He wants a big juicy knotting red rocket!

The penis inside Josh's mouth starts to swell! Josh's eyes see fur growing on Dennis's skin! Within seconds, Dennis transforms into a werewolf-like creature! Josh enjoys the whole experience!

The werewolf explains, "A good cerberus loves having a werewolf master. I no longer need to be in a human form once your dog heads make enough suggestions." The werewolf knots inside Josh's mouth! Cum fills the mouth. Too much sperm to stay inside! Despite Josh's attempts to swallow it all down, some of the cum leaks out of his muzzle. Josh's additional canine heads lick the cum dripping out of Josh's mouth! Josh's hard penis swings up and down as he becomes completely aroused.

The werewolf suggests, "You shouldn't have a human form either." Canine fur starts growing all over Josh's skin! A tail forms on his backside! Josh's hands and feet swell to become canine paws! The only part of Josh that is still human is his hard penis.

The werewolf's cock finally stops knotting inside Josh's mouth. The red rocket slides out from Josh's canine muzzle. Josh stands up. His posture is different due to his canine legs plus the broad upper body needed to support multiple heads.

The werewolf howls! Josh barks and howls using all three heads! The werewolf asks, "What are you thinking?" Thoughts pour into Josh's brain thanks to his adjacent heads. Bone! His canine mouth slobbers.

Josh isn't thinking about just any bone. Josh's own bone! His dick! Josh wants his penis in his mouth!

Josh looks down at his shaft. Suddenly, he gets down on his butt. One of his paws lifts up his leg. He leans forward and his middle muzzle makes contact with the human penis. Josh sniffs the cock. His mouth salivates. He sticks out his tongue and licks the rod!

Josh's penis grows longer as Josh's tongue tastes it! The penis becomes long enough to enter Josh's muzzle! Josh begins to suck his own dick! The cock swells in his mouth! His adjacent heads lick the base of the penis. His cock no longer looks like a human penis. His red rocket knots in his mouth! The transformation is now permanent!

The werewolf pats Josh's heads before saying, "I must be going. Don't worry. You'll be busy with that bone of yours for quite some time. I'll visit my pet later." The werewolf disappears out of the room. Josh is too focused on the tasty bone in his mouth to think about doing anything else besides sucking.
