

There were three friends in the woods and are going to find an abandoned mansion to explore since it's Halloween.

John was the leader of the trio and the strongest.

Ben was the smart one and was interested in ghosts.

Joe was the cowardly one and the one who kept the trio together.

Ben said "Are we nearly there?"

John said "yes"

Joe said "Why do we have to do this?"

Ben said "because it's Halloween"

John said "if anything bad happens, I will protect us"

Joe said "that makes me feel a bit better"

John said "we're here"

There was a enormous Mansion with Dark walls, Broken windows and a extremely terrifying atmosphere.

John said "let's go in"

So the trio went in.

Ben said "let's split up"

Joe said "Do we have to?"

John said "just come find me if you're in danger"

Joe said "ok"

Then the trio split up to explore the Mansion but little did they now, someone else is here and was watching the trio.

Joe said "stay calm Joe"

Then he opened the broken door to find a bedroom and It looked all fancy.

Joe said "somewhere to relax"

So Joe went to sit down but as soon as he did a black sphere with a face appeared in front of him.
Joe screamed "AHHHHHHH!"

The ghost said "calm down"

Joe said "Who are you?"

The ghost said "I'm Gastly"

Joe said "hi Gastly"

Gastly said "I need your help"

Joe said "With what?"

Gastly said "I need to find my friends"

Joe said "I will help"

Gastly said "thank you"

Joe said "What should I do?"

Gastly said "just sit there"

Joe said "What?"

The Gastly used Confuse ray to make Joe confused and then the Gastly went into Joes body to cahnge his appearance. A purple gas then covered Joes arms, legs and belly which made the just disappear leaving Joes head left. Then it covered Joe's head and the real changes actually began as Joe lost all of his hear and his head became a spherical shape. Then his skin turned a black colour and he lost his teth but gained two fangs, one on each side of his mouth. His nose and ears merged into his head but he could still smells the things around him and hear things around him. Then his eyes got bigger and menacing also they went over the sides of his head finally his memories were replaced by Gastlys memories.

Gastly said "Now I can find my friends"

Ben was in the kitchen to see if there was any food left but there was none.

Ben said "great, no food"

Ben then decided to turn around and explore more of the mansion but as he did, he spotted a ghost behind him.

Ben said "A GHOST!!!"

Gastly said "hi, I'm Gastly"

Ben said "hi Gastly, I'm Ben"

Ben said "I got to show you to my friends"

Gastly said "actually I need help finding my friends"

Ben said "I help you"

Gastly said " thank you"

Ben said "How can I help?"

Gastly said "Just stand there"

Ben said "What?"

Gastly then used confuse ray on Ben and inserted a weird looking orb into Ben so the changes could begin. A purple gas then appeared around Ben's body as his legs, arms, and belly vanished but his hands stayed. His fingers then merged together to form three claws on each hand and then his hands turned a purple colour. His hands moved up closer to his head as he lost all of his hair and a ghostly trail formed behind his head. There were three spikes on each side of the back of his head and his eyes became menacing like Gastlys are. Then he lost his teeth and his mouth got wider now and even got a bit menacing but there were few purple fangs. The final part was him losing his memories and gaining new memories of Haunter and his two friends.

Haunter said "hi Gastly"

Gastly said "hi Haunter"

Haunter said "Where's Gengar"

Gastly I was about to find him"

Haunter said "let's go"

So they went off to find Gengar and John was in the living room.

John said "Where are those two?"

Gastly said "there you are Gengar"

John said "I'm John not Gengar"

Gastly said "you need to look like him first"

John said "you need to catch me first"

John then ran off.

Haunter said "after him"

So they were chasing John and he found a closet to hide in.

Gastly said "Where is he?"

Haunter said "I don't know"

Then the front door opened as someone walked in.

They said "Hello?"

Gastly said "Who are you?"

The person said "I'm Jack"

It was Jack, who is Joe's brother.

Jack said "I came here to find my bro"

Haunter said "Will he do?"

Gastly said "yes"

Gastly used confuse ray on Jack and inserted a ball into Jack to begin the transformation of Jack into Gengar.

Jacks arms turned a purple colour as they also got shorter and his fingers merged together to form three claws. Then his legs turned purple and got shorter also his toes merged together to form three claws like his hands did. His belly turned purple as his face moved down to it and it even got rounder also a small purple tail formed. Jacks head merged into the belly as all of his hair fell and two big purple spikes formed on the top with on each side. More spikes formed on the back and his eyes turned red and menacing also his mouth became a menacing grin. Finally Jacks memories of his family were replaced by memories of Gengar and his friends, Gastly and Haunter.

Gengar said "hi"

Gastly said "hi"

Haunter said "hello"

Gengar said "What should we do?"

Gastly said "there is this other human we need to find"

Gengar said "let find him"

John was just stood in the closet near them but found three balls.

John quietly said "these are Pokéballs"

John said "I will capture them"

So John bursted out of the closet saying "heres Johnny"

John threw a Pokéball at each of them and they were successfully captured.

John said "Sorry I couldn't protect you all"

John kept the Pokéballs and walked out of the Mansion and there were the Police.

The Police officer said "I'm Henry and I need to ask you some questions"

John said "sure"

So John and Henry went off together.

Henry said "What happened?"

John said "my friends and one of their brothers disappeared"

Henry said "Who was with you?"

John said "Ben Harness, Joe Fisher and Jack Fisher"

Henry said "How did it happen"

John said "I don't know"

Henry said "Where did it happen"

John said "in the Mansion"

Henry said "When did it happen?"

John said "a couple of seconds ago"

Henry said "Why did you go there?"

John said "we wanted to explore the woods"

Henry said "thanks for your time"

John said "sure"

John then walked home and when he got home, he looked at he Pokéballs and swore to never go somewhere spooky again and hid the Pokéballs.

John said "I'm sorry you guy's"
