

It was Sunday the 17th of December and Rob was out at Freshly place trying to find a Christmas present a friend.

"Now where am I going to find a gift" said Rob

Rob walked into GAME to see if it had any good presents for John, but there was nothing that was cheap enough.

"well I better go home and try again tomorrow" Rob said in disappointment

"wait there" a mysterious voice said

"Who's there?" Rob said looking around

"I'm over here" the voice said

Rob spotted someone wearing a black Jacket, blue Jeans, white trainers, Black gloves, and sunglasses also he had black hair.

"Who are you?" Rob asked the man

"you can call me Jack" Jack said

"ok Jack, what do you want" Rob asked

"I heard you're looking for a present to give a friend" Jack said

"yes, have you got something?" Rob said excitedly

"here you go" Jack said as he passed a piece of blue fabric to Rob

"this is just fabric" Rob said annoyed

"it's more than just fabric" Jack said

"it's not" Rob said in his annoyed voice again

"you will see when you get home" Jack said

"well this is better than nothing" Rob said to himself

Then Jack just vanished without a trace and Rob walked all the way home in disappointment while holding the piece of fabric.

When he got home, he looked at the fabric in surprise Wondering how this would be the perfect gift for his friend

"I wish I had a better gift for John?" Rob said

The the blue fabric glowed a bright blue color.

"What the?!" Rob said in surprise

When Rob could finally see again, the piece of fabric has vanished and Rob could not see it anywhere.

"where did it go?" Rob said looking around

Then he had a look at his hand as it was starting turn light blue along with his arm also turning light blue. The bottom half of his arm and his palm were now becoming a yellow color instead of light blue like the rest. Then his fingers were merging together along with his arm to form some sort of fin, Rob went to feel it. What was his arm and hand feel like it is some sort of fabric but now the inside of his arm was becoming fluff. So, he went off to feel his arm again to notice that it was now filled with fluff and which was not normal.

"what on earth happened to my arm now?" Rob said in shock

Rob decided to have a look at his other arm to see if the same thing happened to see if the same thing happened. And in complete shock, his other hand also looks a light blue and a yellow color just like his other one.

"it's happening to this hand now" Rob said in fright

Next his fingers were merging together to form a fin and his skin was becoming some sort of fabric. Now the bones and muscles in his arm were turning into fluff just they did in his other hand and now they were both done

"now it's happened to my other one?" Rob said

Then Rob just fell down on the floor all of a sudden and could not get up due to his hands being fins also he can't move his head.

"what's happening now" Rob said in a confused voice

Rob could not see but his right leg was turning a light blue color just like what happened to both of his arms. The bottom of his leg was becoming a yellow color then his leg and feet merged together to form a fin causing his trousers to tear. Next his leg skin was starting to become fabric and the insides were turning into some sort of fluff.

"wonder what happened to leg, it feels really weird" Rob said scared

Now his other leg was becoming a light blue color but Rob did not know this since he could not see what was happening to him. Now the bottom half of his other leg was turning a yellow color which is starting to happen frequently. Finally, his leg skin was becoming fabric and the inside of his leg was being replaced with a strange fluff. Now both of Rob's legs were no longer his legs, instead were fins of some sort of weird looking toy.

"wonder what's going to happen to me next?" Rob said nervously

Now Rob's top just teared right off as his belly bulged out but his skin does not appear to have changed yet.

"did my top just tear off" Rob said as he noticed a tearing sound

But the front of his belly was turning yellow while the rest is turning light blue which shows yellow and blue are the main colors of what Rob is becoming. A big grey shell with grey spikes formed on his back which was the only thing that was not yellow or light blue. Then his belly and shell became fabric as they stuck together and the insides of his belly is becoming fluff which is making it hard for him to breath.

"please let this end" Rob said in despair

Rob's next extended upwards as the front became yellow and the rest became blue also the inside was fluff. His head became blue as the underneath his mouth became yellow and his nose merged into his head. His mouth and nose extended into a muzzle and his lips were sewed together also his eyes became fabric and a fabric horn appeared on his forehead. Then his ears became bigger and spirals as they moved back a bit also becoming fabric, finally he lost all consciousness as his head was filled with fluff and his shrank a little bit. Now Rob's transformation into a medium sized Lapra plush was complete and he could no longer think, talk or breath.

The door opened and someone walked in with brown hair, red top, black joggers, white trainers and a blue hat.

"I'm here" John said

John looked around the entire place and could not find Rob anywhere and wondered where on earth Rob could be. Then he did see a medium sized Lapras plush with a bunch of teared clothes surrounding the toy.

John looked at it with a depressed look and said "it can't be"

John walked up to it sat down next to the toy crying and letting all of his feelings out like he knew what happened.

"not you too" John said crying

John wiped his tears, picked up the Lapras plush, put it in his car and drove off home with his new toy. When he got home, he put the toy in the center of the living room so he can see it every day when we wake up.

"I will name you Rob" John said

He decided to sit down next to Rob for a bit while he watches television and having fish and chips for his tea.

"looks like you made a perfect gift" John said

Now Rob spent the rest of his life as a Lapras plush with his friend John but nobody knows if he enjoys it or not.
