Snu Snu

“Pass me another?”

Wordlessly, Rain reached over the armrest of the couch to grab a can of beer from the twelve pack sitting on the nearby side table. Thanks to Rain’s well above-average size of seven and a half feet the full-size aluminum can looked dainty in her large hands. But, when she passed the can to her lupine friend sitting next to her on the over-sized couch Eva’s massive paw utterly dwarfed the comparatively tiny can. Not surprising when black and gold colored wolf woman was almost two feet taller than the large green driger offering it to her.

“Thanks, lawn tiger.” Eva told the green-striped driger with a slight smirk tugging at the edge of her lips as she took the can.

“No problem, lion girl.” Rain shot back with a faint hint of a grin all her own.

Eva huffed a bit at the quick counter. She couldn’t help but huff slightly as she ran her free hand’s fingers through the thick mane-like red hair that started at the top of her head, wrapped around her neck and cascaded down her back a bit past her shoulders. Despite her momentary grumping she knew the banter was all in good fun and found a smile tugging at the edge of her lips. Popping the tab of her drink Eva downed almost half the can in a single casual swallow. The beer may have been comically small to her but after six previous beers on top of this latest one she was finally starting to feel a bit of a buzz coming on. Big girls like her took a lot of alcohol for it to even begin having an effect after all.

The entire time the exchange and subsequent drink had occurred neither woman had let their attention wander off of the movie they were watching for more than a few seconds. There might be a lot to be said about two bigger-than-normal women finding such enjoyment out of watching giant monster movies like the one they currently were viewing but that didn't stop the two from enjoying it all the same. Though it might embarrass them to varying degrees to admit just how much they 'enjoyed' these types of movies out loud. Particularly how excited they both got at the good bits where the monsters were rampaging through cities or tearing apart towns while fighting each other. That excitement wasn't limited just to the entertainment of watching an engaging bit of media, either.

The movie had reached the point where some of the giant monsters were beginning to rampage through a city while the military tried in vain to stop them. The banter had quieted as both girls focused on the movie with eager anticipation betrayed by various subtle physical signals such as Eva's tail trying to wag slightly beside her or Rain's thicker tail thumping it's tip lightly against the floor a few times.

A flush of heat began to build in both of their faces that wasn't entirely due to the alcohol they had been consuming up to this point. It didn't take long for one of Eva's hands to wind up on Rain's and begin rubbing. A soft, barely audible hum of appreciation and approval from Rain along with her leaning more against Eva was the last straw before things began to rapidly heat up.

Eva's hand found it's way to Rain's crotch directly just as Rain reached over to do the same to her. The gentle, teasing touches escalated into full-on squeezing and groping. The soft, quiet sighs and murmurs of appreciation and satisfaction became sharper inhales, grunts, and growls of desire. The green-striped tiger took the initiative and was the first one to get her hand inside Eva's pants and grip their cock directly but the larger woman did the same with Rain after only a momentary pause to let out a soft gasp of delight at the stimulating direct contact with her now-aching erection. Seconds later both girl's underwear had been tossed aside; their erections both freed into the open air for each other's hands to shamelessly grope, squeeze, and stroke with abandon.

Suddenly Rain was shoved down into the couch with a grunt of surprise and momentary discomfort as Eva's entire weight came to bear down on her. In a blur, the larger woman had spun around on the couch to straddle Rain; pinning the smaller, but still quite large, woman underneath her. On reflex Rain reached around as much of Eva as she could and gripped the side of the muscular intersex wolf's hips as they shifted about on top of her to get more comfortable. Sexual hunger radiated from Eva as she leaned in close to Rain; both women soon panting visibly as their cocks ground against one another and soon were being stroked in unison as one of Eva's meaty hands reached between them to jerk both of them off together.

"Someone's feeling wild tonight." Rain accused softly, her normally teasing and playful voice undermined slightly by her arousal and the associated quickened pulse and breathing. "Whats going through that naughty head of yours, big girl?"

Eva grinned wolfishly before leaning in closer. Her chin brushed tantalizingly against Rain's own as she moved in until her lips were right against one of Rain's ears. In the process her breasts wound up squishing against Rain's front and partially burying the driger's face in her bosom. This did an excellent job in accentuating what the larger woman whispered in Rain ears and causing the driger's cock to throb noticeably against Eva's own.

"Death by snu-snu..."

Just as suddenly as Eva had straddled Rain she let go of their cocks and pulled back; freeing Rain's face from her cleavage at the same time. The weight on top of Rain lessened as Eva raised up and shifted forward just enough to line Rain's thick cock, already slick with a combination of both of their now-constantly leaking pre, with her backside then slam herself down on Rain's lap!

A gasp forced it's way from both of their muzzles as Eva felt Rain's cock spear into her ass. Rain may have been smaller than her but the driger was by no means small in general and her cock was particularly large even for someone of her size. It was more than enough to fill even a girl as big as Eva up despite the wolf being nearly two feet taller than Rain.

The gasps turned onto groan of bliss from Rain and a growl of lust from Eva as the tight confines of Eva's ass squeezed around Rain's large cock. Without further delay Eva began to ride Rain for all she was worth. Her thick, powerful hips and thighs lifted her up only to slam back down onto the driger's lap over and over again. The wolf woman's hands gripped Rain's shoulders for balance and each time she rose up Rain felt herself being pushed down into the couch further by Eva's shifting weight. Each time her broad hips and thick, muscular ass pounded down onto Rain another gasp, growl, snarl, or moan would escape them both. And each time she pushed Rain balls-deep into her ass her own cock throbbed and added to the growing collection of pre soaking into the fur of Rain's stomach and breasts.

Normally Eva might have been more careful to control herself. She was a big girl, after all, and she could easily injure someone of a more normal size just from her weight settling on them by itself. But Eva knew Rain was more durable than she appeared; knew that the driger could handle it. So she let loose. She tilted her head back, closed her eyes, and let herself get lost in the raw, primal pleasure of using her friend's huge cock like it were a dildo that just happened to have a cute driger attached to it. Even as she did one of the few thoughts that did make it past her lust and alcohol-fogged mind was that Rain really was hung as fuck for a girl her size. She was being filled up so thoroughly she could actually feel herself being stretched out more and more each time she pounded down onto Rain's lap and it was driving her wild.

Wait...

The realization momentarily broke through her lust-addled mind. When she actually focused on it she realized she really WAS being stretched more than she was originally when she had first been. When she opened her eyes they immediately widened as she saw the truth of the situation.

Rain was bigger.

The wolf woman's hands no longer utterly engulfed Rain's shoulders where she was still holding them for leverage and she no longer had to reach as far down to grip them. Her thighs were spread further apart than they had been to straddle Rain's lower body. Most noticeably though was that Eva no longer towered above Rain as much as she had before. Now they were almost eye to eye.

But then other details started to appear. The armrest of the couch to their side seemed further away. Looking up, the ceiling loomed far higher than Eva was used too. It didn't take her more than a moment to figure out that Rain wasn't just growing... Rain was stealing her size! Yet even as that realization finally overtook her Eva never actually stopped riding her friend.

"Finally noticed? Took you long enough." Rain panted between breaths as their eyes met.

"A-are you taking... taking my size?" the wolfess gasped in response, forced to pause mid-sentence when Rain gripped her hips and thrust up into her a couple of times in sync with Eva's own movements.

"Slipped something in your beers. In mine too, actually." The driger responded with a toothy grin. Her grip tightened almost possessively on Eva's hips even as they continued to contract and dwindle at a noticeable rate now that Eva was paying attention.

"What? How are you..." the formerly larger wolfess started to ask even as she realized she was now the smaller of the two of them as their sizes were now reversed and still changing. But she didn't finish her question before Rain gave her a shit-eating grin and interrupted her with an answer.

"Nanomachines, Son."

Despite the unusual situation, her dwindling height, and her own still-roiling lust Eva let out a bark of laughter at the ridiculous reference. Her laughter melted into another moan after only an instant when Rain tugged down on her hips the next time Eva lowered down onto her, forcing her expanding cock deeper into the dwindling wolfess.

"Oh gods don't make me laugh when you're balls deep in me!" Eva pleaded through the fresh surge of stimulation and pleasure. "Feels... feels like you're going to split me open!"

“Just... Just wait.” Rain growled through gritted teeth. “I’m getting close. Lets... lets see how good of a balloon impression you can do.”

As she did Eva felt herself stop moving as Rain’s now-superior strength and size halted her riding and instead held her in place just above the driger’s lap. By now Eva had shrunk far below Rain’s original size; likely less than six feet tall now while Rain was well past ten! The driger then began thrusting with abandon up into Eva over and over. Now it was Eva’s turn to be the sex toy. She could feel Rain’s huge erection throbbing and twitching almost violently as it stretched her dwindling form to it’s limit as her friend used her like a fleshlight. Her own lust was nearing it’s peak as well from the turned tables, aggressive fucking, and watching the driger she normally towered over grow larger as she dwindled smaller until Rain’s breasts were nearly blocking Eva’s view of her face.

Finally Rain couldn’t hold back anymore. With a final snarl of raw desire that echoed through the room several octaves deeper than usual the driger pushed herself as deep into Eva as she could, creating a visible cock-shaped bulge in the smaller woman’s stomach, and came. Eva’s own climax was set off almost instantly by the last thrust but her orgasmic bliss was nearly drowned out by the explosive stimulation of Rain orgasming inside of her.

With the first rope of cum shot into the wolfess Eva’s stomach bulged outwards like she had been punched from the inside. An instant later the liquid settled and rounded out her normally taut, well-defined abs. But Rain was far from done with just a single cumshot. A second repeated the act an instant later followed by a third, a fourth, a fifth! The driger’s jaw was clenched and her eyes were squeezed shut as she unloaded payload after payload of thick, warm jizz into the wolfess. Over and over again Eva’s stomach bulged outwards then settled larger than before. Her Abs soon completely vanished behind the growing, visibly sloshing, ball of cum-filled fur and flesh that was her still-inflating cum-gut.

Time lost all meaning for the two of them in the midst of their explosive climaxes. When they both finally began to come down from their respective highs they were left panting and exhausted against one another.

Rain’s stomach and the lower part of her breasts had been completely soaked in Eva’s cum. Thick ropes of the liquid were streaked across the soft, green fur to the point that if Rain had stood up then it would be dripping off of her. But that paled in comparison to Eva's own situation. Looking down, she reflexively reached to grip the sides of her massively-inflated stomach. It jutted out so far she wouldn't have been able to see her feet if she had been standing! She could actually both see and feel it wobble and jiggle around when she touched it like a water balloon. She looked like she was eight months pregnant with twins.

Thankfully the size transfer seemed to have stopped between them. Eva's best guess was that she was around 4 feet tall while Rain had to be in the ballpark of 12 or 13 feet: roughly three times her height. Rain's cock alone was almost half as long as she was tall now! Not that it was a big surprise considering she could still feel the mostly-hard monster of a driger cock buried deep within her and adding to the distension of her belly.

When she finally thought to look up after inspecting herself a blush burned across her face when she saw Rain leaning forward slightly to grin down at the shrunken wolffess past their own ample, and partially cum-drenched, bosom. She had been watching Eva the whole time she had been 'inspecting' herself and that likely played a role in why the driger's cock had hardly softened at all despite just filling Eva up like a condom.

"Ready for round two, cutie?" Rain asked playfully in a voice much deeper and more resonant than Eva was used too thanks to their altered sizes.

Eva's eyes widened slightly at the question as she felt a pang of nervousness even as her own cock twitched and began to come to life again. "R-round two?" She stammered, flustered.

"Of course, lion girl..." Rain replied, her voice taking on a teasing singsong tone to it. "We haven't reached your goal yet, after all."

"What goal?" Eva asked, confused.

She could tell that's what Rain was hoping she would ask based on how she felt her friend's cock twitch inside her and regain what little hardness it had lost. To answer her question, Rain leaned forward slightly to see better past her own breasts. A grin that would have done the Cheshire cat proud spread across Rain's muzzle as she answered in a low, predatory growl of naked lust and desire.

"Death by snu snu."
