It's early in the night. You're walking home from the nearby park when you hear a cry from a nearby bush. "E-espe.."

Walking towards it you find a dirty Espeon cowering inside the bush.

"It's okay, come on out.. I won't hurt you.." You say to him in a hushed voice. Stretching your hand out to comfort him.

Slowly he sticks his head out towards your outstretched hand and he starts sniffing it. Then he slowly puts his chin on your hand. "Speon~.."

You laugh and scratch his chin. After a while he slowly steps out into the open. Giving you a chance to examine him.

His scent is the first thing you notice. It's thick and earthy. You scrunch up your nose when you smell it. His fur is dirty mud and dirt clinging to most of his body. He doesn't seem hurt so that's a relief.

"Don't know how you managed to get like this. But I don't need to know. Let's get you a nice bath at my place." you say to him smiling.

"Esp." The Espeon responds nodding.

You walk home. Espeon following behind you.

Once inside you pick him up. He lets out a surprised "Spe!" and glares at you.

"Sorry, don't want to have you dirtying up the floor." You say. He huffs in response.

You manage to get him into your shower without a hitch. Putting him gently down onto the shower floor. He sits down.

"Let's get you cleaned up." You say, grabbing the shower head and turning it on. First letting it warm up before gently placing it on Espeon's body.

"Espe~" He seems to be enjoying the warm water running through his fur.

You smile, this could've been a lot harder if he didn't like it.

Running your hand through his fur. Your other moving the shower head close by. You coax out all of the dirt and grime out of his fur.

Starting with his back, then his head and ears, then his tail, his paws and lastly his belly.

He's very cooperative moving along with you to help get the dirt and mud out.

When you get close to his genitals. Espeon quickly stands up and presents his ass to you wiggling it. His gem briefly shines.

You can see his sheath, balls and ass. His musk is strong. The once dirty odor now more.. sensual?.. You almost want to push your face into his taint...

You shake your head and blush. Quickly spraying down his genitals and ass. Before turning off the shower.

You grab a nearby towel and dry him off. You don't know what that thought was. But it isn't like you to think like that... At least He's clean now.

Unbeknown to you Espeon is hiding a small grin...

That night Espeon sleeps at the end of your bed. He waits for you to fall asleep then silently walks up towards you. His gem shines dimly. Causing your innocent dreams to turn into dreams about Espeon. Especially his scent~ You start to relive showering him. Though this time you indulge into your desires and push your face into his taint. Relishing in his musk..

Out in the real world Espeon grins. He uses his psychic powers lowering your blanket to just above your knees.

Espeon focuses on your underwear. He glances at your face, takes a couple of steps back and sits onto your face at the same time you push into his taint in your dream. His scent feels so real inside the dream. You can't get enough of it~

Espeon has settled nicely onto your face. He's now looking at your quickly hardening cock pushing into your underwear. He nudges the tip with his muzzle. Causing you to stir and let out a muffled moan.

Espeon quickly focuses his powers on putting you back to sleep. You hear his voice in your mind. 'Sleep and enjoy your dream pet~..' as you drift back into a deep sleep. Going back towards your dream again.

Now that you won't be awake for a while Espeon can get back to work~ He pulls off your underwear with his powers and starts to lick your cock. His actions in the real world mirror into your dreams.

You're enjoying his musk as he sits on you. Now you feel his rough sandpapery tongue running up your length. Starting at the base then moving towards the top. You can't help but moan as he does. Muffled by his hindquarters.

After a couple of licks Espeon puts your cock into his mouth. He expertly runs his tongue around it while moving up and down your cock.

It takes only mere moments for you to feel your orgasm coming. Espeon tastes your pre and prepares to take your load. He moves up and down for the last time and then you cum.

Your seed bursts out into Espeon's mouth and he manages to swallow it all. Your cock starts to shrink down after each spurt of cum. It shrinks and shrinks. Your balls shrink down with it. Soon you feel Espeon's nose pressing against your skin.

Though you can't see what's happening you do feel it. Once your cock is nonexistent you feel a new opening forming a black spade small at first growing larger and larger. Espeon pushes his muzzle into it causing you to feel pleasure all over again.

New feelings flow through you. You feel horny and empty.. You need to be filled~

Then Espeon stops 'That's enough for tonight~' He says. Pulling his muzzle out of your spade.

You're disappointed, but after a flash of Espeon's gem you quickly move on towards your normal dreams.

The rest of the night you two sleep peacefully. Espeon still sitting on your face with his muzzle near your new spade.

That morning you wake up to a pleasant smell. You don't recognise it, but it smells oh so good~ Taking a deep whiff while still half asleep with your eyes closed. It's starting to make you feel hard.. No something's not right.. You feel.. Wet?...

Opening up your eyes you're met with the sight of Espeon's ass on your face. Something black is protruding from your face snugly into his taint.

It takes you a second to process your situation. Then you immediately push Espeon off of your face to the side. "Espe!" Espeon yelps, now awake.

You're distracted by that black thing still in front of your face. You grab onto it with a hand and feel your wet nose pressing into your hand. You have a muzzle!? "W-what is..." You're promptly interrupted by Espeon who walks onto your chest and sits down. His erect knotted cock barely touching your nose.

His scent overwhelms you. It's almost the same as the one you enjoyed just a second ago.. Your crotch tingles. You feel empty, wet.. and horny... Espeon smiles smugly at you. His gem shining softly. A soft masculine voice enters your head.

'Go on lick it pet. You know you want to~' He says.

"E-espeon?" You respond. Unable to say more with these feelings coursing through you.

Espeon nods and nudges his cock closer. Smearing precum over your nose. His scent gets even stronger. 'Don't you want to? You were so eager when I pleased you last night. Don't you want to return the favor pet?'

Last night?.. What happened?.. Fragments of your strange dream last night surge forward. Of Espeon pleasuring you and you enjoying it.

"That wa-mmpphh!" You try to respond. Only for Espeon to seize this opportunity. Pushing his cock into your mouth as soon as you open it. Your tongue brushes against his cock. He tastes.. amazing?.. It's just like his scent.. You can't get enough of it~

You weakly try to push him off of you. Only for him to hump deeper into your mouth. You let out a muffled moan. 'Just enjoy it and be a good Umbreon bitch~' Espeon's voice rings through your head. The words 'Umbreon bitch~' keep repeating inside of your thoughts.

Why does that.. Feel so right~ Was that why you have a muzzle now?.. You're turning into an Umbreon?... An Umbreon bitch~

Your thoughts get interrupted by Espeon starting to hump into you. The pleasure of his scent and taste coursing through you. You can't help but enjoy it like the bitch you are~

Sliding your tongue all around his cock you relish in it. Taking his cock feels so good!! He keeps humping into you. Going deeper inside each time. Until you feel his knot bumping into your muzzle. After a couple of tries he knots your muzzle.

Immediately after, Espeon cries out "Espeon!" As he cums inside your mouth. You eagerly swallow his seed. Some of it flows down your muzzle. Dripping off.

As you swallow his seed you start to change more. Face getting covered in black fur. A yellow oval of fur forming in the middle of your head. Ears lengthening into an oblong shape and moving towards the top of your head. A yellow band of fur grows onto the middle of them as they get covered in black fur.

Your sclera turns red and your hair grows shorter. Turning into black fur. Leaving your head fully changed into an Umbreon.

"There we go. You look much better like this pet~" Espeon says out loud. It seems that you can understand him now.

In this moment of rest questions arise again in your head. Did you really just do that?.. But those questions are suppressed by your arousal. He might've had his release. But you still need to. You still feel empty. You still feel horny. You need him inside of you NOW!

You push Espeon off of you. Feeling his cock leave your mouth with a plop. Quickly grabbing onto him and rolling around. Moving you on top. "Fuck me! Make me your Umbreon bitch!" You almost yell at him in your new voice.

Espeon looks surprised "Feisty now ar- Speon!" He moans as you interrupt him. Already having pushed your new snatch onto his cock. Feeling his girth inside of you in a new feeling of euphoria. Finally that empty feeling inside of you is going away. "Breon!" You moan, "Less talking more fucking!" You say as you continue to hump into him.

Espeon is unable to get a word in as you roughly hump into him. All he can do is moan "Spe! Espe!" You notice his ears twitching and his tail wagging into you.

Your changes continue as you fuck him. Black fur grows all around your naked body. You start to shrink down closer to Espeon's size. "Umbre!" You moan. Feeling his cock filling you more and more as you shrink down.

"Espeon!" Espeon also moans louder as he feels your walls squeezing tighter around his cock.

There's a pressure at your lower back that's quickly released. As you grow a bushy black furred tail. With a yellow band of fur in the middle. Espeon quickly entwines his tail with yours when he feels it brush into him.

Yellow ovals of fur grow onto the outside of your thighs and upper arms. As soon as they finish growing all of your rings start to glow in rhythm with your humping. Almost as if your body just found the on switch.

Your legs crack and bend, feet shrinking, toes merging together. Leaving you with three toed paws. You place your new paws on the bed. Leaning into Espeon to nuzzle him. Your new quadruped legs allowing you to do it more easily.

Espeon responds by turning his head sideways and kissing you. Feeling his tongue go inside your mouth you relish in it. Closing your eyes.

Lastly your arms and hands change. Fingers merging together to form three toed paws just like your hind legs.

You're finally getting close! You release the kiss. Trails of spit getting cut as you move your head back. And with one big hump push his knot inside of you. "Espeon!!" Espeon huffs and moans as he cums first.

Feeling his seed flowing into you sets you over the edge as well. "Umbreon!!" You moan. You drop yourself into Espeon. Hugging and nuzzling him. He returns your nuzzles as you both bask in the afterglow.
