You've noticed that Koraidon has been acting a bit strange the last few days. Being more affectionate and clingy than usual. You figure that she might be stressed out or something. So you decided to camp out in the forest for a couple of days.

It's night. You're sitting on the ground. With Koraidon's head on your lap. You absentmindedly pet her head. She purrs at your touch.

You've finished setting up your tent and sleeping bag. You yawn, stretching your arms out.

Koraidon looks at you as if you've insulted her entire family as you stopped petting her.

"I think I'm going to call it a night. Goodnight Koraidon." You stand up and walk towards your tent to sleep.

"Agia." Koraidon responds. Putting her head on the floor.

Koraidon's perspective

Ugh! He's so oblivious it's frustrating! For the past few weeks you've been thinking about getting a mate. Wanting to bring back your nearly extinct species with eggs of your own.

But nobody you've found is worthy of being your mate.

Nobody except him.. Even though you don't even know if he wants you back..

For the past few days you've been making increasingly more obvious ways to show your desire to him. But he just doesn't notice!

At first you thought that just showing him your pussy would be more than enough. So you did. Stretching out in front of him. Giving him a full view of your slick pussy.

But he just didn't notice! He barely gave you a glance. Didn't even notice your scent! When all of the other pokemon easily did.

He just remarked something about needing to stretch too and walked away.

The next day you're laying on the ground pouting a few meters away from him. Looking at him and his beautiful face sitting on a bench talking to someone. Frustrated at his lack of a reaction yesterday.

Maybe he just needs a more direct approach. You think to yourself. So you take some courage into yourself. Get up and walk over towards him.

Then you lay your head onto his lap and nuzzle into his crotch.

You can feel his cock twitch against you.

"Oh hey Koraidon. You want some attention too huh?" He laughs and starts petting you.

You growl in frustration and walk away.

The next day as he's riding on top of you. You notice a human couple. One of them gave a bunch of flowers as a gift to the other. They hug and you feel jealousy well up within you.

Maybe that's part of a human mating ritual? Maybe if you give him flowers he'll take notice of your advances!

So you rush towards the nearest bush. Much to his surprise. Picking up a bunch of the prettiest flowers you can find.

You purr loudly at him to catch his attention and turn your head around. Your head full of dirt, leaves and flower petals.

His surprise quickly fades as he looks at your face. Laughing he asks "Are those for me?"

You nod excitedly. He takes them while still giggling at your face. "Why thank you." He responds. Petting your face. Then he takes the flowers and puts them in his bag.

Before motioning towards you that he wants to continue riding.

Wait, that was it?.. That didn't do anything!.. Does that even mean something to human couples?...

You continued walking while pouting angrily at him.

He just keeps misreading your signals! So tonight you've decided to take drastic measures. Tonight you'll just make the first move

Luckily he sleeps naked so that makes it easier for you.

Your perspective

Koraidon zips open your sleeping bag slowly as to not wake you. Then she positions herself on top of you. Reaching her head down into the cover of your sleeping bag and using it to push the cover away. Revealing your naked body and her prize.

Looking back she moves her body to get her pussy right above your head. Forcing you to take in her musk. Then she focuses on your penis again. She lets out a soft rumble. Almost like the purr of a motor.

Recognizing Koraidon's scent and her purr you start to dream about her. Playing with her and petting her. She pounces on you. Licking your face and purring with delight.

Koraidon nudges your soft cock with her muzzle. Relishing in your scent. Before starting to slowly lick up its length.

You let out a soft moan in your sleep as she does. The licking and her familiar yet different scent pushing your dreams into a more.. erotic territory.

In your dream Koraidon starts to get frisky. Putting her muzzle on your mouth in a kiss.

Your cheeks go red and you can feel yourself growing harder as she does.

In reality Koraidon's continues to sensually lick your cock. Causing it to grow harder and harder. With each lick both of you get more and more excited. Koraidon's pussy soon gets wet. As she gets more into it she unintentionally humps her pussy into your face. Causing you to wake up.

Your groan. Disappointed that your dream ended so soon. It gets muffled by Koraidon's pussy. Only to immediately feel your nostrils being assaulted. By a strong smell of arousal and Koraidon?..

Then you feel something on your face. It's wet and quivering with quite some weight. You groggily open up your eyes. Reaching to your face with your arms to remove the thing.

Koraidon takes notice. Feeling your hands touching her. She immediately stops licking and raises her haunches. Looking back at you eyes wide in surprise. Her purring stopped.

It takes you a moment to take it all in. You see Koraidon's wet pussy just inches above you. Then you look down. Making eye contact with her. Seeing Koraidon looking back at you sheepishly. Her muzzle close to your penis.

Your cock feels wet and hard. Did she lick it? A lot of questions arise in your head. Is this why she's acting so weird lately?

But they're quickly pushed away by your arousal. In your dream Koraidon was making advances on you too. And you kinda liked it..

You figured why not.. Why not indulge in it. Both of you clearly enjoy it.

So without breaking eye contact you reach up with your head and give her pussy a quick lick. She tastes wonderful. Just like how her musk smells.

Koraidon shivers at your touch. Purring happily again.

Breaking eye contact. You follow that lick up with another. Reaching your arms up across her back. You hug her hindquarters. Urging Koraidon closer towards your face. Then you lick her again and again. Until you're eagerly lapping at her pussy.

Koraidon quickly takes the hint. Humping her pussy into your face again. She purrs even louder now as she takes your cock, which is now at full mast into her muzzle.

You moan loudly into her pussy as she does. Licking even faster. Enjoying both Koraidon's taste and her scent. She's the only thing you can smell. The only thing you can taste. And you're loving it~

As the both of you enjoy each other something strange happens. Your body responds strongly to her's and you start to change.

You feel your mouth and nose growing forwards into a muzzle. Pushing deeper inside of Koraidon's pussy. "Agia!" she moans. Slightly muffled by your cock in her muzzle.

Your nose turns into two slits. Scarlet scales start to form onto your new muzzle. Your tongue grows longer. Forming a split at the end.

These changes make Koraidon's scent even stronger to you. Making you love her musk even more as you bury your muzzle and tongue even deeper inside of her pussy.

Your changes continue. Black scales forming on top of your muzzle. Your eyes change color. Sclera turning yellow and your eyes turning both slitted and orange. Your ears disappear. White scales forming in their place. In a half oval shape.

Your eyebrows turn into long crimson feathers. Two long tendrils start to grow from just above your eyes. Twisting like rope. Their dark blue at their base. Then turning purple and then turning white for most of their length.

Then your hair follows suit. Turning into a long feathered mane with the same dark blue, purple and white colors as your new tendrils. One dark blue feather grows at the front of your head. Bending down at half the length in front of your muzzle.

Making your entire head look just like Koraidon's.

Koraidon meanwhile is eagerly sucking at your cock feeling you getting deeper and deeper inside of her pussy motivates her to do the same. She gets your entire length into her. Muzzle pushing against your balls. Her nostrils fill with your musk.

You moan again as she does. This time it sounds closer to Koraidon's moan. "Aah-gia!" Muffled again by her pussy.

Your cock grows larger. Turning black as ridges start to form on it. It fills Koraidon's muzzle. The sensation getting you over the edge. Your warm seed spurts out of your new cock. Filling Koraidon's muzzle. She eagerly drinks it up. Cum dripping out of her muzzle.

Your balls shrink down into your body.

Feeling the pleasure of your lapping and your cum now inside of her muzzle Koraidon cums as well. Flooding your new muzzle and face with her warm juices.

You drink up as much as you can. Clearly enjoying her taste.

Both of you relish in the afterglow for a couple of minutes. Then Koraidon takes your cock out of her mouth with a wet "Silk". As she stands up your muzzle gets out of her pussy with the same sound. She turns around to lay next to you. Nuzzling your muzzle.

You return it. Both of you rubbing each other's juices on each other.

"I love your new look~" She purrs. You look at her in surprise. "I can understand you?! Wait my voice.." You say. Surprised at your changed voice. It sounds deeper. More like Koraidon's except more masculine.

"Of course you can lovely~ Haven't you noticed that you've changed?" She asks.

You think for a moment. Changed? There is something foreign protruding in front of your face. Adorned with scarlet scales. It looks familiar. Almost like.. Koraidon's face.

You touch your face. Feeling your smooth scales. Letting out an "Agia." In surprise.

You've changed.. No, most of your body hasn't changed. Is it just your head? As you examine yourself with your hand. You feel familiar feathers, scales and tendrils upon your face. They feel just like Koraidon. Except now you feel your hand touching them as well.

You're in awe. Only to be interrupted by Koraidon booping your muzzle with her own. "Do you like it?" She asks.

You get startled by her. Quickly blinking to focus on her. "I.. I think so. Am I turning into a Koraidon like you?" You ask.

“Yes you are~ Though you’ve barely started changing yet. We still need to get you a strong Koraidon body~” She slides a paw down your chest as she talks.

“O-only if you want to of course.” She looks away sheepishly. If she could blush she would’ve.

You think she looks cute. “Is this why you were acting so weird? You’re in love with me?” you ask.

Koraidon nods slowly. “I’ve been.. making advances on you for a couple of days.. But you never noticed!” She shoves you with a paw. Causing you to roll slightly in your sleeping bag.

You instinctively tilt your head. “You were? I just thought you needed some rest or something..” You say.

Koraidon shoves you again. “No I wasn’t dummy! I was asking if you wanted to be my mate!” She pouts.

“Aahh, so that’s what the flowers were for.” You say.

“Yes they were!” She sighs. Looking directly into your eyes. “Since I can ask directly now. Do you want to be my mate?” She asks hopefully.

You think about it. You’ve been affectionate with each other since you’ve met. Even if this is a step further. You did enjoy it. Enjoy her.

Though you’ll probably fully change into a Koraidon like her. “Will I change completely then?” you ask.

“Yes you will. How else can we properly mate with each other?” She says as if it’s obvious. “If it counts I think you look better like this. Sexier~” She licks you.

She thinks you look sexy? You gaze at her body. Inspecting her.

You’ve never thought to think this about her. But you think she looks sexy as well. “You look sexy too~” You respond with a lick of your own.

You lay next to each other for a while. Until Koraidon talks again. “Well?” She asks.

“Well what?” You respond.

She pushes you again. Looking unamused. “Do. You. Want. To. Be. My. Mate?!” She accentuates each word by moving her head closer to you.

You smile. Relishing in pestering her for a second before you answer. “I do~” You respond. Nuzzling her muzzle.

Koraidon’s heart skips a beat. It might’ve already been obvious but.. Now it’s official!

She returns your nuzzling in excitement. Tail swishing madly around. She purrs loudly.

Then she rolls on top of you. Positioning her pussy right above your cock. Which is now hard again. You smell the thick scent of sex in the air. And most of all smell Koraidon's wonderful musk still on your muzzle.

"Are you ready to become even sexier and help me bring more Koraidon into this world?~"
She asks. Nuzzling your muzzle again.

"Of course~" You respond. Returning her nuzzle.

Then she humps into you with vigor. "Aguas!" Both of you moan. You can feel the ridges of your cock pushing deeper and deeper into her folds with each hump.

You feel a pressure at the base of your spine. It increases with each hump. Until with a "A-agia!" moan from you. A long thick tail bursts out from your spine. The base is covered in black scale ridges. While the end is covered in scarlet scales with white scales on the top forming a spiky print.

Koraidon immediately coils her thrashing tail into your own. Making you feel even closer to her. Koraidon starts to purr louder. As your entwined tails soon thrash around together.

Your neck grows longer as a mane of crimson feathers form. With dark blue feathers forming in the middle of the mane.

With your longer neck you easily nuzzle her muzzle. Then you put your arms around her and pull Koraidon closer to you. You can feel the rumbling of her purring. Causing an unfamiliar feeling in your own throat. As you purr in return.

Your throat and chest bulges outwards into a large inflatable sac. Looking like a wheel with spikes. The side of the wheel is red with white points on the edges.

It involuntarily inflates. Pushing against Koraidon's own. She looks at you in defiance. Inflating her sac as well. Causing them to push against each other.

The feeling of it is amazing. The more you change the more you feel her against you. You both nuzzle into each other as Koraidon continues to hump you into her. Your tails still thrashing entwined together.

Two blue tendrils grow from your shoulders beside your growing onto your chest. Looking almost like handles.

Koraidon smiles. Putting her arms around you and grabbing onto your new handles. "Now I can finally hold onto you just like you hold onto me~"

The sensation of her paws on your handles is foreign. But it feels right. You return the favor by also grabbing onto her handles.

A crest of long feathers grows just above your ass. Looking just like the one your hair turned into. With dark blue, purple and then white colors.

They quickly get squashed under you as Koraidon humps into you.

The scarlet scales grow down your shoulders. White scales growing in a pattern of two diamonds on your upper arm. Your arms grow thicker and stronger. Long dark blue feathers grow on your elbows. As the scarlet scales reach your hands your pinky and ring fingers fuse together. Black pads form on each of your four fingers and the palm of your hands. A white webbing forms between your middle two fingers.

You test out your new strength by pulling on Koraidon's handles. "Agias!~" She moans.

You nuzzle into her. "Your moans are cute~" You smirk at her.

Then you feel her roughly pulling on your handles. "A-agias!~" You moan.

She returns the nuzzle. "Yours are cuter~" She smiles smugly at you.

The scarlet scales grow down your chest and belly. White scales growing as well in a pointy pattern. As the scarlet scales reach your upper legs. More diamond patterns of white scales form. Just like on your arms. Your legs too grow thicker and stronger. Scarlet feathers grow on the underside of your upper legs. Forming long pointed ovals. Like the dark blue ones on your upper arms.

Your feet are next. They follow the same fate as your arms. Pinky and ring toes merging together. All of your toes grow longer. Matching your new hands. As black pads form on each of your toes and the middle of your feet. A white webbing forms as well between your middle two toes.

As your changes finish you wrap your legs around Koraidon's hindquarter. Now every part of you is around her. Feeling her.

It feels amazing. Overwhelming. Her humping into you. Your tails thrashing around together. Your nuzzling. Your throat sacs expanding against each other. The hug and both of you playfully pulling at each other's handles. And now your legs against her humping hindquarters.

Every sense you have is filled by Koraidon. Your entire body against hers. She's all you can feel. All you can see. All you can smell. Even all you can taste.

It feels like heaven~ At this moment you reach your peak. You let out a loud moan. "AAGGIAASS!!" Feeling your new hot Koraidon seed flooding into her.

Koraidon soon follows. "AGGIAAAASS!!" She moans out. Coming as well. You feel her hot juices flooding your penis as well as your groin.

After both your orgasms she lays on top of you. Content and purring. Your tails are still entwined but stopped thrashing around in the afterglow.

You purr too. Content with your new mate. Thinking of your new role as a parent that's soon to come.
