

A Special Evening

Illustrated by Leolionz (Gobanana),

Story by Leolionz (Gobanana) and Kavv

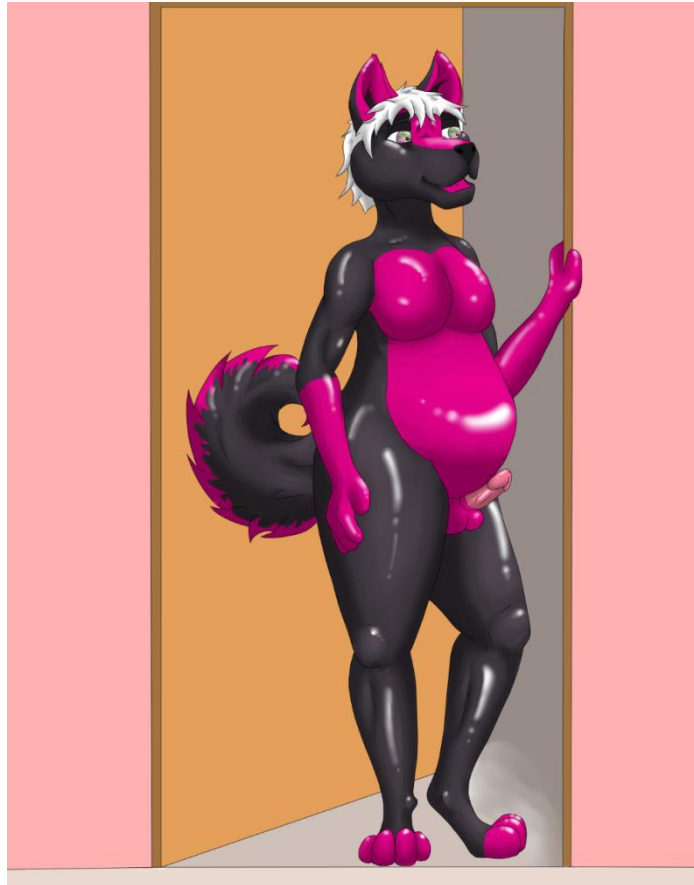

Leo sat at his desk, senselessly trying to make sense of the computer simulations he is running. His mind is not as sharp as usual today, something like this would have been solved by now if it weren't for a text he received at the beginning of his shift. A single image, a curvy black and pink latex husky that decided shi wanted to invite him over tonight for a special evening. The image? It was an image of hir cupping a boob and winking, along with the text "Want to come over for a special evening tonight?"

He sat in his seat, stiff and blushing profusely. Colleagues were asking him to go to the lab to help the others but he had to simply lie and tell them he was needed here. Just so they wouldn't see the massive tent the image induced. "hrmph..damn it Kavv..." Leo breathed. Hours went by and Kavv sent other images to his phone. One was a pump which made him pant and stifle a whimper, shortly after was an inflated balloon with the words 'Lion blimp' scribbled on it. Shortly after another text came in "I want a lion balloon all to myself, make him moan and beg for more".

"Wait.." Leo exclaimed out loud. Kavv, while flirtatious, was never this forward in the past with the teasing. Either this really was going to be a good evening, or something suspicious was going on...

Leo drove up to Kavv's house, which was easy to spot having been painted in a lighter shade of pink to the dark pink/purple shades that make up hir actual colour. Almost bubblegum coloured, mainly to tease anyone who walked by who knew hir. Kavv was already waiting at the door, stark naked and smiling. Upon getting out the car, the husky could see the tented trousers that Leo had been wearing all day. Grinning an almost evil grin shi breathed heavily and got excited herself.

"Hello stranger! How nice of you to turn up!" Shi announced to the neighbourhood. The lion quickened his pace walking down the pathway up to his house. Significantly less able to show the world his arousal than his dear friend. Shi giggled and briskly walked to meet him with a tight cuddle, making sure to pull his lower half into hers, eliciting a groan from the orange lion. "Hello indeed!" he whispered, before pulling his head back and asking "So, what's this all about?". A blushing face meets his gaze. Shi said nothing, took him by the paw and led him inside.

Upon entering, Shi quickly closed the door behind them. It was a very spacious house, a distinct smell of latex filled the air which was the case with any balloonie household. Kavu was completely made of latex himself, even with the added bonus of being stretchy like a balloon. A trait they both found highly pleasurable to play with. Looking into the living room, he found his friend picking up an electric pump and licking the nozzle seductively.

"You know I can see you, is this what you want to do tonight?" He asked watching his friend wiggle a little before walking towards him. "Like I said, it'll be a special evening" - Shi kissed Leo quickly before he could reply. A little high pitch whimper erupted from the lion, who blushed and cupped his cheek with a paw, accepting the kiss.

Shi took him by the paw again and led him quickly upstairs taking the first door on their left, the bedroom. Leo looked around and it looked pretty standard, wardrobe, chest of drawers, mirror, large four-post bed. Nothing on the ground at all, no clutter it was spotless. With that he knew what was going to happen. The lion surged forward and hugged the husky from behind. "oof, someone's eager!" she remarked still clutching the pump. Shi could feel how hot and bothered he was becoming, practically radiating heat. Placing the pump on the floor Shi turned to face him, he looked like he was in need of this, this evening of pleasure. Shi began to undress his lower half while he removed his shirt, revealing his pot belly to the amusement of Kavú.

"Someone's put on weight? Haven't they?" She remarked, kissing the belly repeatedly, the lion moaning in reply.

"I...it's not...entirely...mass... I pump myself every morning to this size before work". She blushed and giggled as he continued, "I like the idea of being slightly puffy when everyone just thinks im tubby..." He blushed deeper as shi removed his underwear.

"I can see that, always knew you were a living balloon. This is just more proof!" She stood back up brushing the lions manhood on purpose before grabbing it.

"mrph...Kavu..." Leo whimpered. His heart was racing, palms were hot, he had already succumbed to hir the moment he stepped onto the driveway. "B-blow me up!" Whimpering out the words. She said nothing but grinned. Pulling Leo in and planted a deep kiss on his lips.

The kiss was deep and passionate, Leo fully putting himself into hir maw and letting their tongues dance. His paw slid up her back while the other grasped at hir paw by the side. Shi grinned in-between kissing sessions but Leo never saw, he was far too occupied thinking of what's to come that he never noticed Kavú's skin take on a shine.

She broke the kiss momentarily to speak softly, her voice slightly apprehensive in tone "This next bit is going to be a bit strange, but do me a favour and just, don't freak out too much, ok?" Leo nodded, eyes half closed not even listening.

"WHA-?!" Leo gasped "You're...melting! holy shit! Er.. is this...normal for you being latex and all?" The shocked expression never left Leo's face, not knowing if he should run and get help or watch what was happening to the husky before him. The paw that was holding the husky's own fell to his side as the latex fell to the floor before him. His orange paw now covered in black and pink latex goo, he idly inspects it between his digits. It's still warm, it even tingles as if vapour-rub had just been rubbed onto his paw. Lifting his arm higher in front of him he notices that the goo is slowly sliding down his arm.

"I'm done with the joke now Kavu...you...you can come out now!" Leo pleaded into the empty room. Looking around, there was nothing, just him and the pool of latex goo at his feet, on his toes and shins - "wait! What!?". The goo started to cling and travel up and around Leo's legs, he tried to move, he was pinned in place. The goo was rising up further and almost had a sentient feel to it as it snaked towards him. Shins, knees, thighs and the arm started to get enveloped, all by this black and pink latex ooze. Leo could only struggle in vain as he was slowly being cocooned.

That numb tingling feeling followed wherever it touched Leo's fur, it was warm and inviting but it nonetheless caused him to try and break free as it reached his nether regions. The goo travelled around his sack and slowly up the shaft, almost teasing. It was very tender as it crawled up to the tip, massaging him. Right before the lion whimpered loudly as he felt the other side of him get penetrated by the goo. It was pushing into him!

"Kavu! If this is you! why are you doing...ngh...this?" Leo cooed as he trailed off feeling his belly fill a little, as if he had just eaten a large meal, the goo started to penetrate his cock tip as well, working its way down his tail and over his belly. He was struggling less and less as it covered him, he was losing the will to fight and it was instead replaced by a sexual lust. The lion started panting and moaning as the goo went up his back and over his shoulders. It began pressing his whole body and began to lift him off the floor. It even supported his head when it enveloped his mane. It began to slow its march once it reached the sides of his head, waiting for some of the bulk of the latex goo to catch up. Slowly moving over his cheeks, even over his eyes. Being stuck in a trance he never closed his eyes as it happened. He watched the goo march down his muzzle where it stopped for a second, it waited.

"Kavu..." where the last words Leo uttered before a tendril of goo forced its way into his muzzle, filling his cheeks before forcing its way into his belly. His body was covered..

Leo could feel his consciousness starting to fade, yet his heart was pounding, paws flexing, cock throbbing. It felt like someone turned his sex drive to full throttle and filled him with goo! The latex colours started to part and a pattern formed across the mass around the lion. Almost forming a second skin as the goo started to smooth out.

It felt like he was being held in a state of R.E.M. A point where you are still asleep but knowing full well you are awake or about to wake up. His body being taken over, he can feel it in his head. He wasn't alone with his thoughts. From the moment the goo entered his mouth that same warm numbness felt like it was inside his head, as it was throughout his body.

... Was he being taken over? Is he losing his body to this?

The colours came together and the shine dulled as the latex started to re harden. All his senses suddenly stopped. He fell to the floor. A few moments later, he could feel the floor, smell the room, hear the bird calls outside on the tree. Opening his eyes the room was on its side and blurred. Memories of the past couple of minutes were faded, he was confused. Placing a paw to his side he rolled onto his back and stared at the ceiling. It didn't feel the same.

His vision of the ceiling cleared moments later and at the back of his mind he just wanted to touch himself. For no reason, he just felt this urge...this need. At first he ignored it, despite the stiffness returning to his cock. Standing up he turned to face the mirror.

"NO...WAY..." a feminine sounding voice erupted from the creatures voice. "Kavu?! ...no?..it is? of course its me... I didn't say that?...ouch my head!" pressing hir hands to the chest of draws and staring into the mirror, the "Kavu" stared into hir own eyes. They were brown, pink and green but that voice in hir head was more prominent this time started to make "him" want to touch himself. One thought occurred.

"Oh god, I have boobs!?" Shi whimpered and started to cup them. Hir paws squeaking and rubbing all over hir new body. Some thoughts came across the creatures mind.

"Have you figured this out yet? ... What? Who?... It's us my dear...us? Kavv is that you?.. Calm down its me, everything is ok. I see you are enjoying our additions well" Shi whimpered aloud and started to pant; cupping and stroking himself. "Remember when you asked me to blow you up? why don't we do it together?..." The idea of two minds in a single form was perplexing to think about, especially as Leo's body was simply inside this shell of Kavv's. Shi looked for the pump shi brought up earlier, knelt down and plugged in the nozzle downstairs with a gasp. "wait, Kavv did that nozzle just go into me-me?" shi thought aloud, before hearing a reply Kavv overpowered Leo's consciousness and flicked the switch on their behalf.

"HOLY FUCK! OH GOD! I'M A BALLOON!!" Shi cried out as hir stomach marched forward, instantly giving the desired arousal for the both of them. Pre starting to form on hir throbbing tip and dripping to the floor. Hir hands grabbing at hir own chest and fondling almost everything shi can. Latex on latex squeaking loudly with each pawfull of belly and breast.

"I think- I'm gunna...already... OH GOD!" No bigger than the size of a beachball, shi arches back, paws on hir belly squeaking to the touch, shi climaxes. Moaning and whimpering spurting forth a mixture of cream and purple coloured seed across the floor. Wide eyed and panting, unable to speak and still swelling, the sound of an inflating balloon and a pump is all that can be heard. Breasts rounding out, belly plumping up and to the sides. Body still racked by the orgasm but shi manages to fall backwards and knock the pump switch, turning it off.

Panting and moaning in a daze, shi grabs herself and hugs hir belly. Staring once again at the ceiling and still wanting more. Kavu thinks up something naughty and naturally Leo gets shared the thought by extension.

"IS that a thing? Can that be done?" Shi inquired to herself, "of course, taken things this far, may as well see what you can do"...

An orange glow appeared on the front of hir belly. Smirking, shi stands back up with a wobble and waddles to the bed. Hir new found girth making hir re-stiffen downstairs just from the feeling and sound of hir thighs rubbing. Closing hir eyes, shi concentrates and a slick large orange deflated balloon emerges forth from hir belly. Picking it up carefully shi places it on the bed and unfolds it a little.

"look familiar sweetie?" She uttered staring at it with a soft smile. The balloon was the same orange as Leo's fur and the same brown mane colour in places... "no way..." The husky-esque creature climbs onto the bed and onto the balloon, a few squeaks here and there. Pawing at the balloon shi finds an opening and places it to hir lips. Upon breathing in shi sounds like a balloon filling with air. Internally shi monologues "you never did say, when we inflate with air does it go into me or you?... I think it's more fun to let your imagination handle that. Besides, everything your body feels, I feel. Everything my body feels, you feel. Everything that happens is simultaneous".

Exhaling sharply into the orange balloon it immediately starts to take shape and push against the puffy husky. Feeling the balloon press against himself yielded a few moans of pleasure. Again shi inhales and exhales into the orange and brown balloon, a figure started to appear. It had arms, legs and a tail! On closer inspection Leo figured out they were puffing into it's muzzle!... HIS MUZZLE?!

"I'm officially turned on beyond belief and have no idea what's going on and how you've done this! " Shi thought, Leo clearly taking the drivers seat back and begins to french kiss "himself" through their collective muzzle. One final puff and his body forms, the plump orange lion recreated as a latex being before them.

Picking himself up the husky takes a step back to admire hir work. Even eying up the stiff lion peen displaying itself to the world. Before long a small grumble is heard from the bed, the ballooned latex lion moves his legs and whimpers "fuck me, blow me up like a balloon, please! I'll be a good lion balloon for you...". A perplexed expression comes across hir face.

"Thought he was just a balloon?! ... well he was. It came from living latex like me, i took a part of your consciousness and put it in him, a copy of your, shall we say, subby tendencies..." Shi rolls hir eyes and moves forward toward the horny begging lion. Paws moving across his silky latex thighs and presses hir belly against his. The lion looking up at hir master, paws to his chest and whimpering. His cock throbbing needily against his lower belly. Shi smiled and strategically positioned his lower half close to his.

"kitty wanna swell?" Shi chuckled. The lust stricken lion moaned and nodded, panting as he felt up his own pudgy air filled belly. Smiling, shi then pushed against his rear and started a small humping motion. Squeaks of latex on latex filled the air in conjunction with whimpers from latex-Leo and a moan from himself. Slowly but surely his length was making its way into him, and the higher in pitch his whimpers became. When it became clear shi was all in the hip movements started to become more rhythmic. Squeaking, moaning, whimpering and huffing the both of them.

Leo let loose a low moan as his belly started looking visibly larger. "blow me up, ngh, make me swell, ngh, I'm your balloon!" he repeated over and over. The husky grinned as shi inhaled and slammed into him over and over. Shi was only inhaling and thrusting. The air shi inhaled was just immediately transferring through his sizable shaft and into him with each thrust!

He was slowly swelling as shi humped, breath after breath, thrust after thrust, closer and closer they both came to climax. His belly pushing up and out against her own bloated form, his chest began to puff out a little while his arms and legs thickened. Shi lets go of the bed side post and grabbed his legs, thrusting faster and faster. His swelling intensifying. The beachball ballooned lion swelling up and out whilst being pounded by the lust filled husky. Both kavu and Leo single mindedly thinking "puff up you slut and come yourself!" as they pound latex leo mercilessly. His sides rounding out and rump starting to lift him up as his arms push to the sides, air pressure starting to make it hard for him to fondle himself. His cheeks swell up with a whimper and his chest begins to push his lower jaw, all he can do is whimper and swell.

Shi slowed hir pace and inhaled deeper, shi wanted to climax but wanted him bigger! Each deep inhale and thrust made the latex lion surge in growth, rounding out ridiculously fast. The lions legs now straight out along with his arms, an orb of an abdomen and a tail starting to swell up between hir thighs, turning hir on more with the increased stimulation. Switching from leg holding shi grabs the lions over inflated cock and starts ramming him using it as leverage. Hir hand getting covered in the purple seed that kavu would usually have.

Rounder and rounder the lion became, whimpering and spurting small amounts of pre each thrust. His arms now cones and being absorbed by his abdomen. The bed posts beginning to push against the mass of lion. He was getting big!

"Oh god! You fucking blimp! Look at you! You beautiful balloon slut your bloody huge!" Shi screamed in a pit of passion and that had done it. Upon hearing those words the lion erupted over the front of the husky. purple latex goo spurting over hir as she throws her head back one last time, inhales deeply for one final thrust! The lion managed to roar for a split second before exploding into shreds revealing a primed husky cock beginning to erupt! The force of the bang pushed hir back a few steps onto the chest of drawers, spurting across the bed and floor. Gasping as each pulse hits in waves. As it tails off shi slumps down against the drawers and cups hir belly. Grinning and making hir body squeak against hir paws, still in the afterglow of the orgasm.

"How long does this last?... last? its only 9:15. We've got all night..." Shi giggled.
