

The Bimbofication of Henry the Dragon

Irbisgreif

Strophe

Henry the dragon eyed the pink lever
As his friend tied him down. He never Realized that dangers
Came not just from strangers,
And now he'd be Jake's pet forever! 5

He did, of course, whimper and beg,
And urine did run down his leg.
Jake flipped the switch,
To make Henry his bitch,
And the dragon's brain into fried egg! 10

Antistrophe

As the machine hummed and whirred softly,
Henry looked longingly at his "new master".
There was no emotion in the face of the osprey.
As the machine hummed and whirred softly,
The dragon noticed that he was awfully 15
Easy for the machine to mold like plaster.
As the machine hummed and whirred softly,
Henry looked longingly at his new master.

Epode

Henri rubbed his giant breasts and moaned loudly;
Jake the osprey was fucking his warm cunt again. 20
The dragon slut's head was high, held proudly
For her osprey owner—He was a most happy hen!

If only he knew why he was pregnant so much;
It wasn't like he hung out with storks at all.
When all that he did was lift his tail and such, 25
He still found himself preggers every fall.

Still, his life as a brood-pet was, like, easy,
And Henri was, like, so pleased with his state.
Sure, he was now a slut, like, very sleazy,
But Master Jake had given him that fate! 30

So, you can see, Henri's a bimbo through and through,
So now Jake is eyeing his new slut—that's you!
