Irbisgreif

I do not need explosions up in the sky.
I do not want a half-naked guy
Dancing around on a stripper pole.
I do not want to go down in a hole.

I do not need a 12-course meal, 5
With plates of chicken, pork, and veal.
I do not want a boat or 'Vette.
I do not want rubies, jade, or jet!

I do not need to explore around the town.
I do not want everyone all around. 10
I do not want trees, I do not want grass,
That nature stuff can kiss my ass.

My birthday again has come too soon,
And I only want 15
        to sleep
            to noon.
