

The Toy

Irbisgreif

My little toy,
 You've been so good.
Have you enjoyed your short pethood?
 A girly boy,
 You came to me 5
And let me make you property.
 Now don't be coy,
 And please don't cry
All toys will break and all pets die.
Today my little toy will break under my care. 10

 You always knew
 This day would come.
You wanted it, and unlike some
 You'll see it through.
 You won't resist 15
As I consome your life. Persist!
 Give me your due!
 I want it all!
Into my stomach, you will fall.
You always knew my hunger, pet. That's why you're here. 20
