

"Tsk...maybe I should leave Hoenn? Even if that means...leaving her behind..." The Pokémon known as Latios thought very annoyed and fearful that he really needed to consider that option. But what else he could do? It's been so long since he mated with a good female!

He was a very rare Pokémon and humans always try to capture him when he was spotted so that was extremely annoying. That's why he avoided any areas of Hoenn that have humans in it, no matter if it's a city or only a base camp deep in the woods. While that allowed him to be safe it also limited his options in times like this...when he felt so horny, he almost wanted to just choose one of those smaller Pokémon and have his way with them right away!

The dragon type wasn't that interested to do that though it didn't help that he only found smaller Pokémon like Treeckos or Ralts. Where in the heck were the big ones? Where the heck were the...big girls like Cresselia or Flygon when you needed them. He kept flying around circles in super speed looking for something he could just put his cock inside of, already losing hope and thinking that he really needs to leave this cursed region and move to another when he realized he was making his way back home just as horny as he left.

It's been a couple of weeks since he left home to train and get stronger. Or at least that's what he told himself and to his sister Latias. Thanks to his amazing speed soon he got back home the Southern island hidden far away from humans or any other Pokémon alike himself. He returned just as frustrated as he left. Latios heard a familiar feminine voice from his side. "Brother...is that you?"

Before long he was hugged with a movement that was pretty much sonic in nature and he found himself trapped by the two thin yet strong red arms of his sister. Latias...his sweet and innocent sister. that he loved from all of his heart.

"Big brother? Is something wrong?" Latias asked him as she probably realized he didn't hug back or say anything.

It's been weeks since he last saw her and she was so beautiful...Latios liked what he saw. Those delicate movements as she floated, the nice red color mixed with the white on her body in a similar pattern to his own, her cute ear like fins and of course...her long neck same as his, and all he could think of was his failed journey to find any females on his journey. He was so pent up he needed something or someone but what or who?

"Big brother?" Latias called him again, starting to sound worried and that snapped Latios from his thoughts.

"H-heya Latias. Been a while. Sorry I took so long!"

"It's fine big brother. What matters now is that you're back safe and sound!"

"Y-yeah I suppose I guess I just lost myself in my training."

Latios answered while laying down on the cool grass underneath him, watching as the clouds passed by, while wavering his options inside his head. "What am I supposed to do? I'm so frustrated and there's nothing I can do to relieve myself. I've tried everything...right?" At that moment an idea popped inside of his head.

"What if...? No... I can't do that to her. or maybe I can?" Latios felt weirdly aroused when he thought about her. That red rump those delicate lips and that tight innocent pussy. "LATIAS! Of course! Why didn't I think of it before. Just because she's my sister perhaps...I couldn't see past that." Latios formed a smirk as his arousal grew from his slit as he realized they were alone on the island with no one else around and he could do whatever he wanted to her.

To think he wanted to do nothing but to abuse that innocence for his own needs...he felt so dirty for a minute but Latios still wanted to follow with it. He needed to have someone now. He couldn't handle it anymore; he was just too horny now! And he spent too much time looking for a mate but failing in it. He left home to find a mate even though he never had to, the answer was right in front of his face all along.

"Sis! Could you come over here for a minute?" The anticipation was killing him as he rubbed his shaft as he floated behind his sister. "You know...I realized something. As your big brother it's my duty to train you. I'm not talking about training like I did, to get strong and perform well in battles." The male Pokémon says as he had his paws on Latia's shoulders. "I mean training you for when you have a mate. And for that you need to know how to have good, hot sex."

"Good, hot...what?" Latias asked clearly not understanding what he was talking about. Her blinking eyes clearly showed her confusion and Latios could swear he saw a hint of fear in them. Was it fear of the unknown or of him? He wasn't sure. Not yet.

"Sex!" the male repeated finding quite hot to even just mention the word to his sister like it was a natural thing that she needed to know. "It's something that Pokémon that are mated with each other like to do since it feels good. I mean VERY good! So you need to know about this sort of stuff sis. You will need to if you want to get a good mate someday. So, let me teach you all about it ok?" he asked but clearly was impatient since he didn't even wait for the younger Pokémon to have a say in this. He started groping her right away, his blue paws traversing his sister's thick neck and descending already anticipating the feeling of touching another female alllll over.

"W...what are you doing?" clearly this kind of touch was starting to make the girl uncomfortable though she did trust her brother; he was the one that watched over her when their parents were captured by trainers leaving them alone in the world. And right now, Latios was using that fact to his advantage.... maybe if he wasn't so horny, he would be disgusted with himself but he just didn't care anymore. Soon he reached for his sister's chest and right away he forced both to hug, bringing their bodies close.

"It's ok. This is the first step sis! It's called a kiss. This is how it works..." Latios explained as he raised Latias's face by lifting her chin gently and he was slowly bringing his face close to her lips fully intending to kiss the sweet girl. However, it didn't go as he planned; maybe he got too close for comfort since Latias gasped and with her two paws against his chest pushed him away with all her strength! He barely had time to land on the ground. "Sis...?"

"I...I don't know big brother." The girl seemed to be scared, starting to back away from him. Clearly shaken she slowly was gaining distance between the two of them as she carefully flew backwards. "This stuff just seems...too weird."

"Oh, don't say that!" Latios tried to make it all seem fine by chuckling and looking cheerful about it as if he didn't even care that Latias pushed him away and seemed to want to try to escape from him. It was useless since he soon managed to close the distance between them until he was in another kiss-distance again. After all he could fly just as fast if not even faster than his sister. "It will be fun! It's going to make both of us to feel good. In fact, you might feel so good you might want to do this over and over and over again. He grinned when he noticed it made his sister look even more worried. His paws were on her shoulders now. "Come on sis loosen up you need to give it a chance first. Come on, don't be such a coward and give me some!" Latios pleaded her while giving small kisses on her neck.

"Brother...Stop NO! I don't want this!" Latias shrieked Latios away from her, she covered and shielded herself from his crazy brother. Seeing her fights against him was just more arousing to the male Pokémon. Maybe he was so horny that he really didn't care what she thought. All that mattered to him was that he would fuck his sister that day. "You said it was something mates do...right? S-so...should we really be doing it?" Latias seem to be choosing her words carefully, tapping her claws together showing how nervous she was. "We're siblings! Not mates big brother! So, this kinda feels...J...J...I don't know. Just wrong."

Maybe if he wasn't completely thinking with his "second head" Latios would see the truth in those words and would stop with this immediately. Unfortunately for his sister it just wasn't the case. He was no longer the caring brother that he was when he left home to sate his lust away. Now to sate his needs; that's all he cared about.

"I guess we got a do this the hard way!" the dragon answered harshly and before the female Pokémon could try to back away from him again Latios have his powerful paws all over her. In a way she was captured since now even if she tried to push him again the male would be ready.

Still to help prevent more of that useless resistance as his paws explored her body, he made sure to rub the triangle mark that was located right on the center of her chest; after all she have been ticklish there before. He could see tears running down her face as she tried to push him back to no avail. Clearly Latias had something she worried about so much she couldn't afford to relax and have fun by laughing freely when her brother teased her when he rubbed that spot sometimes.

"Not feeling ticklish today sis? It's ok. I will make you mine regardless!" seems that the male dragon really was determined to do it right away since he forced the female to lay – on her side and soon his claws found it. Sure, it still took a bit of searching but he knew his sister better than anyone and didn't take too long for him to find the sweet spot that rests in a certain area on her body which a Pokémon not familiar with the jet like body that his sister have could easily miss; her sweet slit.

"There it is...exactly where I remember! That's a female's most important spot sis. It's what a male will use to make himself feel good." He explained as he slid a claw alongside it making Latias gasp. He could feel the red female tremble with this touch in such a place; clearly, she was not used for anyone to do it of course as she should. Imagine how she would feel if he did more than just touch it like this!

"Now let's have a taste, shall we?" and once again he took action before waiting for his sister's reply since he was just too eager to "teach" her. However, since he let her go to be able to lower his head to her nether parts – after all it's not like a Latias had legs which would allow him to keep holding her as he does this – Latias took advantage of it and quickly turned to use one of her wings to hit her brother right at his face!

The red Pokémon backed off from her brother and she seemed to be in shock. After all, never before in all their years living together did Latios hurt her physically even when she deserved it when she was acting spoiled when she was a kid. To think she would do it, no matter if it was purely in self-defense...

"SO..." Latios said to her and the tone he used there made the girl even more apprehensive than before. "It seems you still have some fight in ya? That's ok Latias. I have the perfect tool to punish naughty girls like you. I didn't realize it before. But now?" he started to hover in a way like he was standing in the air and that's the first time that Latias noticed that her sibling was erect. "Now it will be a perfect time to use it!"

It was the first time she saw that pink meat so big and menacing dripping with pre-cum almost like it was alive, pointing at her. Desiring Lust for her. And Latios was a slave for it now, wanting to do nothing more than sate its lust.

"It's YOUR fault for being a naughty girl Latias! Seems I have to punish you before I can make you MINE! So, get ready!!" the male dragon warned Latias and she could tell from his crimson eyes that he really meant it. She tried to run away from both the male and his cock but it was too late; it only took a quick boost and Latios was hovering right near her head and holding her head with his paws as he tried to put it inside her mouth.

Latias was having none of it and kept her mouth closed though. "NO!...Stop...eww, brother please NO!" Latias pleaded. The male dragon kept trying but all he managed to do was to well...cockslap his sister. Sure, it felt nice in its own way but it wasn't what he wanted damnit! "OPEN UP! I'm going to get it in whatever you like it or not. And it's your fault it needs to be this way! So, open up or you will make things MUCH harder for you!" he demanded while looking down at her and he saw this...this pure fear in her yellow eyes.

Why was his brother doing this, why was he hurting her this way. Latios forced her mouth open by spreading her mouth open with this arms. Latias gasped for breath as Latios's arms spread her mouth open wide as he aimed his cock at her mouth. "That's good, suck on it, take it all in there sis, Ahh!" he added while he pushed his cock inside right away without giving her more time to really wonder what he was really doing to her but it was too late now.

"GHNRR!" Latias grunted but her brother didn't care. He let out a sigh of pure pleasure, simply letting his entire cock rest inside that hot mouth for a bit.

"Ahh...I really needed this..." and indeed he needed it. How silly he was! All this time looking for a female when he already had a good one right here at his home! Such a waste of time. He slowly started to move his hips, so his cock was rubbing everywhere inside of her mouth. "Just watch your teeth sis. You have no idea how goood this feels...well you would have some idea if you had let me lick you before! So remember: THIS..." he pushed inside of her mouth making the girl choke. Soon tears started to flow down from her golden eyes and while this should have been enough to sate his needs it...it only made him even more aroused. "...IS YOUR FAULT!" Latios concluded as it was the most obvious thing in the world clearly blaming all on the poor girl for his own lack of self-control. Perhaps this wasn't even the worst part though.

Latios noticed that after he thrusts inside a few more times, despite Latias clearly struggling and trying to back free, she had begun to suck on his cock. "That's it!" He moaned and felt his draconic rod to leak more pre since he didn't expect that. Latios had never felt anything so good in his life. Even after he leaked pre he felt his member being sucked and licked.

"Oh?" Latios grinned and let go of his sister's head. "It seems that you know what's at stake now! Such a good girl!" Latios thought that his cock and its taste was enough to make Latias start to understand the she had nowhere to run or flee to, she was now completely under her brothers control and he could do whatever he wanted to her. She let his penis go and Latios could soon feel nothing but his sister's saliva all over his member which made it quite chilly thanks to the cold air in the forest.

Still sobbing the girl looked at him as if he wasn't her brother but a complete stranger who she just didn't recognize. "This is wrong! And you know it too! Please...please stop!" she plead to him while she tried to back away from him maybe thinking of trying a run for it in the worst case? But Latios wasn't having any of that. He already came too far to stop now.

"You should know better by now sis. That you are never getting away from this, the brother you knew is gone!" That was enough to make the red Pokémon to start crying even louder as Latios made his way closer and once again started to grope her body and realizing that Latias tried to get away again but it was too late. Once again, she was in his hands.

"Please snap out of it..." Latias pleaded while still having the taste of her own brother's cock in her mouth and tongue. Latios didn't seem to care as he grins and sniffed along the big neck that only him and his sister had, sending shivers through that white neck.

"Eh?! J-just let me go please!" the girl certainly felt more nervous with this new approach and contact but the male dragon didn't answer seeming to be in a trance of his own as he explored her neck. After he sniffed a bit more Latios stopped and Latias relaxed thinking that maybe it was over now; clearly, she didn't know her brother when he was thinking with nothing more than his cock.

Latios started to kiss and lick her neck making her gasp and feel nervous; in a way even more than before when he forced her to put his...his...his thing in her mouth. "Eh...s-stop!" the girl gasped as it did feel quite creepy that her brother was doing this and that feeling didn't escape Latios.

"You taste so sweet...hehe..." The male teased her, dragging his tongue up and down on the same spot whilst taking small whiffs of her scent. "We are gonna have more fun soon Hehe. Still...you know I could just sniff your neck all day long. It smells quite nice!"

"J...just let me go" Latias was upset and scared by such sleazy comments and she didn't even care to hide it! Latios wanted her to feel uncomfortable she needed to know he had control over her now. It only seemed to arouse Latios more the feeling of power over someone weaker than himself.

Latios started to move his tongue down, making Latias's neck quite wet at this point and worked further down to get to the spot he wanted. Latios smirked when he saw his price, between her legs, those innocent lips that he would soon call his.

Latias wanted her caring, sweet brother back and not...this Pokémon. "Please...stop this brother! This is not you!" but it seems to have fallen in deaf ears. And she had even more reason to worry now as Latios's face was now quite close to a spot she rarely put any attention to before. But to have her brother touch it just seemed so wrong.

"You don't mind if I have a taste Hehe" Latios claimed sarcastically knowing she had no choice in the matter. While he lowered himself to her pussy once again and this time, he was ready, he wouldn't be caught off-guard like before! He held her small lower arms which was enough to immobilize the female and he soon managed to get his face so close to her pussy that he buried his face on it right away!

Latios inhaled his sister's scent, the scent of a female that was never claimed before. He loved it. Sure, he could tell that his sister was scared and certainly more nervous now than ever before "W...w...what happened to you brother?" She asked him more scared than ever. And for Latios that was only an improvement for his arousal.

"Be quiet!" Latios said to her frustrated at the fact he constantly had to explain his actions however It only showed more proof that indeed Latias was a virgin and that would make things even more sweet for him in the long run!

Latios briefly looked at her sis's face before he looked to her innocent slit and the dragon licked his lips in anticipation wondering how Latias would taste like down there. Seeing no reason to delay this pleasure, he dove right in to find out the answer. Latios let his tongue out and soon it began to trail along his sister's virgin lips. And right away it had an effect on both of them.

The male dragon felt even more excited! Ahh...the sweet taste of a girl's private garden...! Even the scent was enough to make him feel like not caring about anything else – like say that he licked his own sister's pussy – and to just completely given in to pleasure and keep doing more and more of this. But Latias kept shivering in fear that excited him even more. He loved the fact that Latias was still resisting up to this point despite the fact that his brother had taken all of her hopes away of ever turning back to the normal loving brother she knew.

"Oh? Seems that you pissed a little from down here sis?" he stated clearly in mix of excitement and the power he had over his sister.

"N-no!" the girl answered right away and while she tried to sound secure about it Latios knew better. She was clearly more scared than anything now she just didn't want to admit! That only made him more eager to continue.

"Don't worry. I don't mind that you are lying to me, but i also have no intentions to stop because of it." he teased her and licked his lips as he stared at the inviting female organ. Latios buried his mouth on it, licking along the slit and soon he spread it so he could try to lick inside. Latias clearly wasn't ready for that feeling and he liked to hear the girl groan. Damn that was hot! It really added to the whole thing when you hear your mate being powerless to resist yeah that's right! This is what his sister was to him now! His mate!

Latios licked more inside her cunt "Just...just Stop it! Please brother, I...I...I will do anything s-so p...p...please just stop!" Latias cried while Latios lapped his tongue inside of her tasting her sister's warm folds against his tongue exhaling her innocent scent. Ahh...such a cute teary face she was making for him. Maybe he was being too mean in doing this while abusing his own family member and all but he just couldn't resist or stop himself. It was quite hot to find out a where this was going. And it only made him more eager to play with her.

"Hehe...ok sis. Let's leave it at that." He blinked as he answered her clearly showing that he was only pretending to give her some hope that the brother he loved was still there.

However, he started to lick more of his sister cunt crushing her hopes instantaneously, wiggling his tongue inside until he stopped and realized that he had sniffed another scent and this time it was not coming from that slit. It was different, it was more ...musky? Ah...yes. He knew what it was. Looking around a bit more he found the source of it.

It was of course his beloved sister's other hole. Her asshole...Latios had completely forgotten about it so focused in taking Latias's virginity he only really thought about doing it with her pussy but...

But what if he also tried her other hole as well? Maybe even making it the first to be explored?

"Brother...? Why...?" Latias sobbed while feeling her brother sniffing at her tailhole. She was still scared and oblivious and didn't know what he could want with such a place. Right now though, for good or for worse Latios was interested in playing with this charming hole.

Latios smirked and before the girl could even adjust or even say anything, he buried his muzzle there, sniffing and loving her musky scent from there. Like with her pussy though it wasn't enough for a male as horny as he was feeling at the moment to just sniff her scent though. He needed more...he needed her taste! What did this forbidden hole taste like?

"AH!!" the female dragon gasped right away when Latios spread and licked around the pink hole.

"So loud! And I'm not even inside yet." he couldn't help but chuckle with that lewd comparison though the girl just remained sobbing. Latios just would not stop this madness no matter what. Latios smirked and looked at the hole and just buried his mouth on it, licking inside forcefully and as much as he could.

"D...don't...ah...nhg...!" Latias words were about what he expected. Silly girl...what was she thinking? That he wouldn't go through with it? She should know better than that by now! Or was she counting that her big brother would come to his senses? So innocent...couldn't she see that right now he was just a horny Pokémon wanting to get some? Even if it was with his own sister...those were the words inside his head as he started to push his tongue deep in her asshole without any remorse in doing so.

This time thanks to the not subtle movements of his tongue Latias couldn't remain silent despite she still trying to. While if it was due to the shame of the act or because she didn't want to believe this was happening. She was letting cute grunts here and there and that was driving the male dragon crazier with lust; his pink draconic meat was fully hard and he knew that sooner or later just licking like this wouldn't be enough. He needed to sate his needs once and for all.

For a while though he kept doing it, licking inside his cute sister's tailhole and robbing her of her innocence with each lick. Before long Latios was wiggling his tongue right inside of it, trying to reach new depths and have more of this lewd musky taste driving him more and more crazy. Her body was shivering and while at times Latios had to make sure he still kept a tight grip on her so she wouldn't try to run away again because he knew if he lose his grip he would get smacked by her wing again. He just couldn't have that happen again.

His sister's butt tasted nice, he loved the musky scent and taste only it could offer but...but he needed far more than that. And he was very hard and needy at this point. So slowly, after licking a few couple more times insides and after the last time he wiggled his tongue Latios pulled back. He licked his lips and cleaned the lewd string of saliva that briefly connected his white chin and just stared at his work, the now wet hole looking even more inviting than ever before.

"It's over...it's over right?...Brother?" Latias asked looking quite desperate. Ah she still could be so cute and innocent! She really thought that this was it? That this would be all that it would take to sate his lust after he searched for a mate for weeks?! Oh if only. Clearly the silly female forgot about the monster that he tasted in her mouth despite not being so long ago. It was time to make her remember it but...now she would taste it with another hole.

"Over?! Oh no, faaar from it sis." without holding back what seemed like an evil chuckle from a villain from some cartoon the blue dragon turned her on her side so he could finally seal the deal. "Why we're only getting started!

She was flipped on her side and Latios was trying to position his cock right over his tailhole. She tried to resist but her brother was no fool and expected that at this point. The pose for her was too difficult for her to just fly away without falling to the ground at the same time and she would need to turn completely on her back or front to really dash away with her wings without any problems. Her brother taught her that otherwise if she flies in any other pose, she might not see what's ahead of her in time and have an accident. Still Latios noticed that she did try to get free from him even if that meant she would have to fly in a weird angle. So much risk!

"Hold still! You don't want me to get angry do ya?" he tried to get her to calm down but the girl kept struggling. In the middle of it he still tried to put his cock in but it was so difficult with her resisting like this.

"Let me go! Please brother!" Latias tried to plead to his kind heart but clearly, she wasn't sure if it would work. However, to her surprise her brother loosened his grip on her and looked at her with his deep crimson eyes, his concern for her very apparent inside of them.

"Very well sis. I will let you go."

"...eh?! Really?" she asked feeling hopeful and fully believing him right away. And that's exactly what Latios was counting on since that made the female – and that all that she still was to him right now – drop her guard and stop resisting.

"Yeah. Of course, I will Latias! AFTER I claim your naughty ass as MINE!" he grinned and the female dragon finally understood his intent but it was now too little too late. Latios already used those precious seconds to adjust his position and now that Latias was completely on her side and without resisting anymore he managed to get inside right after he spoke to her.

The second his cock got pushed inside was the meeting of two different worlds for both Pokémon. For Latios it felt amazing; he barely managed to fit most of his size inside in the first try but the saliva that was inside there now really helped. However, at the same time that happened, Latias cried out. That aroused Latios even more since he never saw his sister in so much pain. In other times he would just pull out, caress her and ask what was wrong and do everything in his power to make she feel safe and protected.

Unfortunately for the poor girl he wasn't the same brother that she grew up with.

Instead of pulling out right away Latios just starts to pull his member back and then shoved back inside with a rough push. It made his sister let another loud and terrified cry of pain. "Hehe it feels so good sis. Mgh! It feels so good. It's so hot and tight! I love how it feels in your lewd hole sis!"

"AH...GHAAA...! Stop...STOP...please...!" Latias could barely talk right now probably trying to deal with the pain...or pains; the physical one caused by her brother using his cock in this way forcing it inside her butt like that and the worst one...the mental one. To think it was her brother that was doing it was certainly putting a strain on her mind. While Latios could just imagine the pleasure, he just couldn't stop. Not when it just felt so good inside of Latias! It felt so...tight. Even when he still kept thrusting despite her cries and pleas for him to stop, he just kept going.

The red dragon felt nothing but pain as evidenced by her screams. The male didn't care how that was making her feel it just turned him on more and more, and made him more eager to just keep going, with the objective of making his entire cock fit inside his sibling's ass. She just didn't seem to matter to him anymore. Even if she would never speak to him again after or if she would hate him forever; for doing this to her, feeling her insides squeeze on his cock was just making him feel so good! He was looking for this feeling all this time and he couldn't just let that go!

Latios felt his meat throb and release some pre inside her ass. Grinning the blue male stopped to catch his breath. "Oh? did you feel that sis? Sounded like I tore something? And I'm not even all the way in yet" He smirked without bothering to hide the clear teasing tone in his voice despite knowing she was in pain. And now his brother still had the nerve to tease her about it! Latios was sure that if she could Latias would run away from him now never to be seen again.

"I'...I-I' HATE YOU!" she screamed in tears as he smirked and thrust his cock deeper inside her rear.

"Huuu? So still not enjoying your big brother fucking your ass?" he asked making it sound as dirty as he could just to make sure the other Pokémon feel more hopeless and weaker under his control. "Then what if I do...this?" Latios thrust inside more fiercely than before and sure enough Latias screamed in pain.

Chuckling and noticing that the red dragon was probably feeling betrayed by her brother, after all of this "Don't worry sis! Ah..." he began to explain while beginning to slip more of his penis inside and just amazed how much he could stretch the insides of her butt; would it be the same if he was doing her pussy...? "It's normal for you to feel that way now, but due time you forget your old brother and get adjusted to the new one and...this! Hehe!" he concluded while fucking her ass and loving how she sobbed and tried to hide away the tears and trying to suppress her cute gasps and grunts. If her arms could reach it he was sure she would hide her face during the whole thing even if just to hide her tears or to not admit that he was right...as he usually was.

Latios seemed to try make things easier for her for a while so he decided to cut some her some slack – after all he wasn't doing it with any random female from any forest. It was his sister who he needed to sate his needs for a long time! – and he briefly stopped, letting his cock rest inside of her cum filled ass and noticing amusingly that he was almost all the way inside! It still hurt but it gave Latias a brake to catch her breath. Hearing Latias sobbing and catching her breath was even more of a turn on. He had complete control over her now. He had broken her into submission. He could do whatever he wanted to her and it made him feel more aroused that his sister had no say what will happen from this moment on. Latios had finally found the perfect thing for himself: He didn't need to search anymore and it's been with him since the very beginning.

"See? I told you sis you would mine! Now you only need to stick with me and let your brother do all the work!" he smirked while taking a whiff of her neck and while she didn't say anything it was clear that he wouldn't let her go no matter what.

Yes...he could do whatever he wanted to her. And that's exactly what he did; Latios's thrusts were rough and more frequent now and he felt more pre to be released inside of Latias. The girl still clearly felt hopeless about the whole thing but she wasn't hiding it anymore she just sobbed while her brother thrust deeper inside of her ass. It really made a huge difference to the male Pokémon knowing now that his search was over.

In fact, it was such a huge turn on that adding it to everything was just too much to Latios. He could feel it coming...and the fact that now he could feel his entire cock able to fit inside of her torn ass a place he never visualized as a possible target for it didn't help in trying to push his orgasm away as much as possible.

And since he was doing such a lewd thing with her, she wouldn't mind if he did more right? So he extended his tongue and started to lick Latias's neck again, slurping over the thick member all over while still thrusting inside of her, feeling his cock stretching her ass real good. Latios couldn't resist both things at once it was just too much for him. He moaned and Latios could swear this was the best thing he had ever felt as he sucked on her neck with this new, lustful hunger. It was great, it all felt so good and right!

"I...I...I'm going to cum inside of your hot ass!" such a dirty sentence...but it was the truth. Just hearing was enough to make the female Pokémon cry in pain as he thrust as deep as possible she couldn't even get ready for it. Latios didn't even consider the idea of NOT doing it inside of her sister's rectum. Or to wait for Latias to actually be ready for it. And so the red dragon barely had time to really brace herself when her brother moaned and closed his eyes, thrusting inside as his cock basically exploded; Latios just came and his seed started to fill his sibling's insides with astonishing speed despite not being the original hole he intended to do so.

"Phew....by Arceus that felt amazing!" he exhaled while clearly looking happy with himself though when he pulled his cock back from her used rear, cum drip from it right away and he could tell without looking that he was still pent up. His dragon cock still hard and ready for even more action. "Really now?" He smirked looking at her again. He turned her on her back so now she was laying on the grass while fully facing him. Latios made sure to watch out for her wings ...just in case.

"Uh..hu... Why won't you stop? Please no more!" she complained while sobbing and while the thought of fucking her again did make Latios feel a bit exhausted he wanted more. Especially when he knew that he had the power over her butt before. So imagine taking power over her other hole, the one made for that purpose!

"Ha! I will never stop so you better get used to it" he smirked as he stopped hovering over her and let his body pin her down with all of his weight. He smirked towards at his beloved sister, nuzzling her in a lovely way. "Plus, there's still one thing I wanna try. I will make you MINE! Once and for all! You will see sis!" Latios tried to kiss Latias but she turned her side to the side and he couldn't do it. He tried again and Latias turned her head to the other side and he felt her small arms against his chest, trying to push him away and they only failed because of the heavier male on top of her.

"Stop resisting it already!", Latios growled at her. Latias still seemed to think that fighting against her brother was the right thing to do. After all the horrible things he had done to her taking his cock in her tailhole, sucking on his weird thingy and licking her insides. He still wasn't satisfied with his lust? Can't Latios see that he was hurting her? Maybe it would be absurd for anyone that couldn't understand how a Pokémon that horny thinks but that's how Latios was thinking right now and no matter how much she plead and struggled. She had lost her brother for good to something she didn't even understand.

"Come on you bitch! You know you want it!" Latios had lost any common sense at this point he didn't care about her anymore he only wanted to sate his lust for good this time. He tried to kiss the red girl again but once again he was denied it. "Fine! If that's how you want it...!"

Latios slapped her across her face punishing her for denying him access "I need to fuck you and cum inside your pussy! I need you this way! Nothing else matters!!" Latios spoke like a madman right to her face and taking advantage of his superior weight over her and aimed his hard-on cum-filled cock at her entrance. Caressing her thick, long neck he yells: "You will take it sis! many...many...many times...!" making clear what his plan was.

Latias wanted to try to escape but she was too late to make a move. Latios already had already made his; the tip of his member poke lightly at the entrance to the next act and he only needed to push inside to secure both that and Latias. Forever now marked as his girl. His female. His...mate.

When he sank his tool in her, Latios groaned and already could tell the difference of doing this hole compared to the other. It felt wetter and hotter than the other and around as tight as her tailhole. It felt more...natural Latias probably wouldn't agree though since she once again cried in pain. It was clear she was in pain and feeling miserable; her brother violated her butt and that wasn't enough! Latios still wanted to claim her virginity too! She had every reason to still demand that he let her go and try to run away again. But to his excitement Latias closed her teary and sobbed. It was all he could ask for right now. Her desperate cries and whimpers that fell to deaf ears. And he had no intention of giving her any mercy.

"That's right show me just me how pathetic you are. Take my cock you fucking cunt!" Latios was determined to make sure that Latias knew how dire her situation was no matter how many times she would try to run He would always stop her. He started to move his hips and pistol his fine meat inside...damnit! It really felt good! Despite Latias clearly taking in deep breaths as she tried to brace herself for the pain that still insisted in make itself present, he could feel it all...her vagina squeezed around his member. And not only one or two times; everytime he got inside and also pulled his cock outside he felt the young pussy suckle on his member.

"AH!" Latios moaned as he couldn't help it and started to speed up despite Latias's sobs and clearly showing pain as her vagina dripped with his pre-cum. Latios didn't stop his hips! It's like they were moving on their own now and he was their slave and they were a slave of his lust.

While he violated his sister. His mind flashed through memories of the past. All the searching for that perfect pussy all those failed trips he'd took thinking about moving regions didn't matter anymore. He had finally found what he's been searching for all this time and it was right in front of him. Latia's virgin pussy was always there; he just couldn't see that before. He loved the feeling his sister's pussy gave him. The best feeling he had ever had.

Latios kept thinking about it while fucking his own sister, almost able to sink his entire length inside of her and hoping to do so soon. He already sped up the movement of his hips despite still making his young sibling cry from the pain, that just added to his sick lust. Despite all the pain and humiliation. Latios wanted to break her for good make her beg for it.

It was clear to him he wasn't gonna last a lot longer so he wanted to humiliate her. Her pussy was squeezing all over his cock even more than before. Such a tight perfect fit! He couldn't even control himself dripping pre inside of that marvelous place with each thrust. Yet he wanted more! He wanted to embarrass her. To make her ask for it.

"Beg for my cock!!" he demanded with quite an angry expression that by itself was enough to make the girl scared that he might slap her again. Still it must have worked because she opened her mouth and whispered.

"G...g...give it to me!" she said with teary eyes That didn't seem to be enough for the male dragon though.

Sure, he still stretched more of her insides as he pushed more of his powerful meat inside of her but he still had the nerve to shook his head and say: "Give you what?" You need to be clear about what you want sister!" He stopped briefly just to stare at her. "What is it that you want! Let's hear it! Come on!"

She couldn't handle it anymore. He was sure that he felt bigger inside of her than she could expect and despite she already experienced it with her ass, her pussy was still a new hole and so a new experience. "G-give it to me...your...your cock! Please...brother I-I...I need your cock!"

Hearing that was just amazing. It's exactly what he wanted, what he needed to make this whole thing even more raunchy and perfect. And of course, he had no reason to refuse such a request. "I will make sure you will get plenty of my cock!" and he seemed quite happy to give it to her since he started to fuck her like crazy, taking her words of weakness as a sign to not hold back and to slam his cock inside of her as fast and as roughly as he could.

Latias closed her eyes and seemed to have given up. Latios could tell since she wasn't struggling anymore. Latios really wanted to shoot his hot draconic seed deep within her womb. Heck he wasn't even sure how much longer he could keep this going! Latios already came once in her butt so it's not like he could give her that much, fucking the now limp girl right after he already came in her. Not that it would stop him in taking what he wanted. Latios wished this amazing feeling could last longer; still he had to admit Latias was perfect for this. To think he didn't realize it until now.

"Gonna...gonna cum soon sis." He loved seeing the female dragon broken at this point. Latias just started away from his brother tears running down her face. "You want it huh? Want my seed inside you? Just like it got lots of it in your butt?"

Latias seemed to not even pay attention at this point that he was saying dirty things during this sinful act. Still it was clear she was still in pain emotionally and physically. Losing his loving brother this way and feeling sore all over, especially in her privates.

Feeling himself at the edge of it Latios looked at her and without asking for permission he kissed her. Right at her mouth without hesitation. Maybe she would still resist that and bite his lips but..wait. That's not what happened.

Latios had his eyes closed when he kissed her but for his surprise, She had her own eyes closed and she just let it happen. Latios could feel his tongue trying to pierce her lips and get deeper inside of her mouth! That was...that was too much!!

Moaning and feeling his tongue get inside her mouth he felt his orgasm taking his body hostage as he came right inside of her pussy, thrusting inside without any remorse or care that maybe Latias could get pregnant. From the way Latias whimpered while Latios's tongue brushed against hers lapping up more of her saliva as Latios moaned in pleasure into her violated mouth as he felt his cock pulsating and releasing the last drops of cum inside of her sister.

As he was done penetrating her, he kissed her for a bit more before he pulled back, leaving a wet trail between them. As they both just laid there for a while. "Uh...Latias?" Latios asked. But didn't get a response from her sister.

Latias just laid there as he looked away from him towards the trees with her empty eyes not paying attention to him ever again. Like she didn't care anymore. Latios made her his and it's not like there was nothing left to say.

The search was over
