

Furanui was shivering, and even with his dick hard underneath him, the blue fox couldn't tell if it was from fear, anger, disgust, or arousal. His ass was throbbing, and the cum streaming out of it and down his legs was doing nothing to soothe his pain, nor his anger. "How did I let you talk me into this." He glanced for just a moment at the otter next to him on the bed as he muttered to himself. His brother, Karls, paid the statement no mind, eyes glazed over in pleasure as he was plowed from behind by an orange tanuki.

The fox felt his rage building as he watched his fellow king shame himself. Furanui's cheeks turned red, and his tail flicked as he was reminded of how he must have looked just moments ago, and doubtlessly would look again countless more times tonight.

A tug on the king's leash brought the blush on even stronger, and his attention was pulled quickly away from Karls to a white ferret behind him. The beast had wasted no time in moving to his king's ass and pressing his cock against it, but he did hesitate for just a moment now that he was there. "P-prince Furanui..." The horny imbecile was drooling as he stared down at the king from around his fluffy tail.

Furanui was ashamed, but not too ashamed to maintain some sense of pride. "King, ferret... I am your king..." Though he wasn't able to muster up a truly commanding voice, almost stuttering when he felt the cock twitch against his still sore ring, the king needed to let whoever was fucking him remember that he was in charge. He couldn't help it. Yes, this wasn't exactly the most presentable way that he'd ever displayed himself to his citizens, but a king was a king! That's what he told himself, despite his embarrassment.

Hearing that made the ferret chuckle. "I'm sorry, your highness. It's just... you're so cute! I never thought I would have the chance to do something like this with you! It's a dream come true!!" He pressed his cock against Furanui's entrance, threatening to enter but not quite penetrating. "Please your highness... can you beg for it? For my cock? It would make me so happy!"

The fox's ears twitched. That word was somehow what had gotten him into this ridiculous situation. He could hear his brother's voice still ringing in his ears as he thought back to the proposal. "The kings of Honyalaland need to prove that they will do anything to make their people as happy as possible!" How that had turned to this was somehow beyond the fox even as he reflected on it. Somehow the otter had preyed on his shame and convinced him that self-sacrifice would be necessary to make it up to the people.

Furanui had bought the proposal wholeheartedly after that. In the end, he did want for his citizenry to be happy. To that end, he raised his tail a touch higher. "G-give me your cock, ferret..." He was mumbling, torn between holding onto his pride and satisfying the ferret's desire. "F-fuck your, k-king!"

The ferret didn't need any more convincing. Furanui felt the male's desire for him when he grabbed on his hips firmly before he thrust forward, impaling his cock right inside of the blue fennec and making him moan. He hadn't meant to! It just happened. Now that he had already done in once, his resistance had totally broken down. It was almost as if he had no choice but to go with the flow, like the advice his stupid brother had offered him when he was penetrated for the first-time minutes ago!

"Yes... YES! I'm inside your highness! It feels so nice and tight!! Oh gods!" The white male was clearly enjoying himself, moving his hips a shyly as if he still didn't believe this was real and wanted to test the situation. "I can't hold back! I'm sorry... I need to fuck you with all I've got! That's ok, right, your highness? You asked for my cock so it's ok, right?!"

"D-don't you dare hold back!" Furanui was almost shouting. In all likelihood, he would have shouted if his moaning hadn't stopped him. Every inch of his fur shook with pleasure, ramping his previous shivering up to a furious vibration. Much to his shame, penetration was like no pleasure he had felt before, and taking his idiot brother's advice was in fact making it even better. His own cock twitched wildly beneath him while he allowed himself to flow into the ferret's thrusts. "Fuck me with all your might!"

"Leave it to me, your highness!" The ferret took those words to heart and wasted no time. Like the animal that he was, he started to pound that blue rear with all he had, forcing the cute fennec fox moan beneath him. While he still felt ashamed by how much he enjoyed the feeling, Furanui had almost entirely stopped holding back his pleasure. The feeling of someone's cock inside of him like this, someone whose name he didn't even know, was just too thrilling for the young king.

"I'm... I'm going to..."

"What's that? Little king wants to cum?" The ferret was almost curious as he brought a paw down to squeeze the fennec's blue dick, all the while still pounding him nice and firmly.

And that small touch was all that was needed for the 'little king' to let go entirely. His cock throbbed in the white animal's paw just as the dick throbbed in his ass. With a high-pitched whine, the king's eyes slammed shut and he came. His claws dug viciously into the headboard in front of him as he whined and stained the bedsheet below him. It was his first time tonight. Somehow, this pleasure was becoming even more amazing. This time, when the shivers returned, he knew exactly what was causing them.

Next to the blue fox, Kamo was loosening his grip on Furanui's leash. The platypus had almost been started by the boy's whine, but the cum staining the bed underneath him was enough to confirm that no harm was done, though he did idly muse that the cleaning bill for tonight would be very expensive. "I think he's beginning to enjoy himself, don't you?" He sighed turning his gaze casually from his son and back to the badger behind him that was cheerfully sniffing at his own fluffy tail.

Kamo got his answer in the best way possible as the male started to lick between his cheeks, trying to reach for the precious hole buried in between. The green platypus felt a pair of badger paws on his chubby, green ass, spreading it apart in order to make easier to reach that treasure. He didn't need to ask the animal if he was successful, as he felt it right away when a tongue started to circulate over his hole, readying to pierce it.

"So happy..." the former king thought, satisfied that there were still citizens that could be happy enjoying such simple pleasures. The badger had doubtlessly seen when his friend, a green rabbit, mercilessly pounded the green ass minutes ago and finished inside, so the badger surely knew that he was going to also lick his friend's cum. Kamo had no doubt it made the badger even happier.

The platypus sighed and flicked his tail upward, trying to allow his mate of the moment as much access to his glorious rear and that sweet cum as possible. He pondered his own pleasure at the feeling of the tongue, wondering if it was better to be tended to so eagerly or if the main event was truly the best. The question became foggier by the moment when the badger reached down and began to jerk the former king off gently while continuing his rimming.

Another whine and a few shouts woke him from his pondering and turned his attention back to his sons. Clearly Karls' and Furanui's opinion was that the main event truly was best, as both of them appeared utterly lost in the revelry of mating like wild animals.

"Such youth..." Kamo smiled to himself and glanced back towards his mate. Though the badger couldn't see his face, the platypus made sure to grab his attention with a tight, pleasurable squeeze of his rear. "Maybe we should show them how it's done?"

Kamo moaned soon after that once he felt that tongue penetrate his rear. It had been a while since the last time he allowed anyone to even get close to his ass like this, but to do it in front of other citizens and his family was such a turn on! He just loved it, his thick tail almost hit the poor badger as he explored his depths but the king was experienced enough to keep a firm control of it, almost as firmly as he held Furanui's leash.

After a while he felt the badger pull his tongue away, and he looked back to watch him lick his lips. The platypus barely blinked before the badger had stood up, already rubbing his penis between those previous green cheeks. "I-I love you King Kamo! I can't hold back! I... I need to fuck..."

The green mammal couldn't help but blush. The badger certainly was passionate to speak of love in such a place. It was almost embarrassing, but also intoxicating. "Then perhaps you should get started, my lovely badger..." He casually turned away and closed his eyes while at the same time he pushed hard against the badger's dick, rubbing it against his cheeks just as eagerly as his lover. Luckily, Kamo was not left waiting, as the badger leaned in and pressed into him shortly after being granted permission. Once he was in, he followed up by leaning into the former king's body, even kissing Kamo on the neck while he pushed in further.

"C-can I please, King Kamo?!" The former king didn't have an answer, so he just sighed and moaned back at the badger.

That was the answer the other animal needed, so he kept at it, loving to treat Kamo as if he was his lover. The way he fucked his ass like that while leaning over his body, licking and kissing his neck, Kamo wondered if perhaps this was an old fantasy now being finally sated? Well, he was more than happy to do such a thing for his citizens! Who knew that Karls' first decree would be this passionate and joyous for everyone?

It was with that in mind that the platypus allowed himself to be used, loving the feeling of that cock moving inside of him. He watched, content, as the faces of his family were twisted by pleasure just like what he was feeling now. It was no wonder his own hard cock already dripped more pre on the royal bed and sheets.

In short order, the badger tended to that dripping cock just as passionately as he tended to his king's neck and ass. A skilled paw reached under and resumed the stroking that had started during his rimming. Kamo, overwhelmed, started to chitter animalistically, and his claws started to tear at the bed. Once more the platypus's mind wandered toward the cost of what would doubtlessly be new sheets for the next of his wild son's decrees. Though he was pulled back to the moment almost immediately when the badger's kisses suddenly stopped.

"You love me too, right, your highness?" Once more Kamo couldn't manage to answer, with another squeeze only eliciting a new chitter, but the badger wasn't looking for a clear yes. He took the response as enough permission for him to lean in again, this time to wrap his lips around the platypus's neck and sink his teeth in.

It such a passionate display of love! The badger had certainly longed for this kind of thing, and Kamo was considering why he had never considered it before himself. His cock throbbed with need and his lover noticed, stroking it faster without letting for even for a second, all while still thrusting inside of his fat rear more roughly by the moment. Now that he knew it was an ok thing to do, he really let go of any inhibition and allowed himself to just go wild with his movements. The bite on his neck was proof of that. It hurt, but in just the right way.

"Y-yes! I love you! Fuck me! Please love me more with your powerful cock!"

The badger obliged the king's new request eagerly by continuing his thrusts in an animalistic pace. His own growls mingled with the king's moans and clicks in a way that Kamo could only call beautiful, just as his thrusts perfectly blended with the forceful jerking of the former king's own dick. Both voices joined with the cacophony coming from his family, and the king found himself losing every sense of self in the pleasure. He was hardly even sure when he came or when the badger came, nor who came first. All he knew was that one instant it was going and in another it was over. Sitting, panting above his own mess, the platypus sighed as the badger finally loosened his grip.

"I think, I'm ready for another, yes." He barely glanced at the badger, instead looking to his family who appeared to be eagerly enjoying their own highs just as his had passed. "Who is next?"

"Hmm..." Hearing his brother being such a slut that he would ask for who's next was something that would normally make him cringe, but now the former minister that failed at his coup was somehow unconcerned with the shameful act. He too was shaming himself after all, kissing a white cat while the feline rubbed their cocks together.

Wao wasn't complaining. After another lemur had claimed him very angrily, certainly looking for revenge for the events of his coup, he had been amused when the cat asked for something like this. Still, when the white feline broke the kiss, panting hard with lust in his eyes, Wao knew that more would be demanded. "I always thought you were so hot, Wao, sir. I want to do so much to you but... but... can I... put it in?"

Wao had no illusions about what or who this madness was for, nor did he mind it actually. While the otter's proposal had sounded utterly mad, he had submitted to his king's whim proudly following the trouble his coup had caused. Now, he was equally as proud to submit to the citizens he had once harmed. "Do what you wish." He spoke sternly to the cat before kissing him again softly and lifting his legs. The cat gladly returned the kiss, blushing all the while. Wao moved skillfully with his legs and before long the cock that had been rubbing his was already positioned at his ass, splashing the eager feline's pre onto his tail.

Of course the cat was very eager to continue with that answer, so while he kissed the male lemur, he also adjusted his position so he could have his cock about the entrance of the minister's used rear. Holding him by his thighs he managed to find the target after a few thrusts. Both males moaned into their lustful kiss as Wao was penetrated. Wao groaned hungrily into the other male's mouth and found himself struggling to grab for the cat's invading tongue. His legs similarly fought for the cat's invading dick to dig in deeper, wrapping around the white male's hips as he fucked the lemur.

It should have been shameful, humiliating even. However, Wao had surrendered that shame before he had even placed himself on the bed, in response to his nephew's whim. Right now the lemur was driven by lust. He had never thought that such simple pleasures could bring him so much happiness, but now, surrounded by the sounds of his family and their loving citizens, he felt almost at peace. His cock and ass both twitched wildly, and his own groaning joined the sounds, but it all seemed to wash over him at once like a warm wave of water.

Feeling how much the former minister was getting into this was enough to excite the feline further and make him try to dive deeper, exactly as Wao wanted right now. He was panting as they continued their sloppy kiss, and he couldn't even try hide his own desire. His own penis was wildly hard and rubbed against the stomach of the feline above him. Perhaps it was as exciting for him as it was for the lemur.

The feline had his paws on his body now, exploring the strong body that Wao was so proud of, unlike a certain platypus. At the same time, he started to fuck harder, doubtlessly getting close. It wasn't his fault. The scents and noises of rough animal sex were all over them. It was too much stimulation for anyone, especially for one as sweet and young as he.

Realizing the cat was nearing his climax, Wao broke the kiss for just a moment to catch his breath and speak. "Don't hesitate." He groaned as his own cock flexed against the cat's belly. "Finish inside, mark me as yours..." He almost felt the tiniest pang of shame this time, but it was drowned out by the sense of pride. He had already been claimed once in anger, and he had no doubt about being claimed again before the night was through. The cat, however, would be the first to claim him in a passionate joy. He made that clear by diving right back into Wao's mouth as his thrusts sped up and became shakier, moments before finishing with a burst of passion inside of the lemur.

Soon the purple male felt the cat's paws tighten as he grabbed his hips and came. His member throbbed inside of him, shooting his feline hot seed inside to join the mark that had already been left. Wao enjoyed every moment of it, groaning as he sucked on that animal's tongue. He was happy to let him take his time.

Eventually the cat was finished, and finally broke the kiss on his own, panting and smiling down at the lemur. "W-Wao, sir..." He seemed to want to say more but couldn't manage to get out anything in time. The pair was barely allowed a moment's rest before a new paw landed on the cat's shoulder, this one belonging to a slightly larger, pink feline.

"Enough of this lovey, junk. Come on, man, it's my turn with him!" The cat was grinning ear to ear, impatiently baring his fangs. Though the white cat atop him was nervous about his friend's aggression, and even glanced down to seemingly check on the lemur, Wao couldn't do anything but smile.

In a moment, the white cat fell aside and the pink one picked Wao's leash up from the bed. He licked his fangs, trying to be intimidating no doubt. Wao merely continued to smile. His own cock twitched in pride as he looked the cat over and noticed the eager tool between the feline's legs. "What is it you demand of me?"

"Easy. Get on your knees, slut! I'm gonna fuck you senseless!" The cat tugged his leash aggressively, and his friend gasped, though Wao himself was unconcerned by the pointless gesture. Still smiling, he did as the cat asked and even eagerly lifted his tail, ready and willing to be marked again by those he had wronged.

"So? Are you happy?" Karls asked his new partner, a red fox whom he noticed that was quite shy at first, but who soon got into it thanks to the atmosphere around them. Maybe Karls and his experience working with his gorgeous ass helped too, since now he was riding the fox with all he had.

"Yes... ah... YES! I'm so happy!! Your body is amazing your highness!" The yellow otter smiled at the energetic comment, and slammed himself down one more time hard, this time making sure to fit all of that fox's cock inside of him.

"That makes me so happy too..." Karls practically giggled as he shook his rear on the fox's lap. More than simply happy, he was overwhelmed with happiness right now. His entire body was positively vibrating with joy at being filled, and it seemed his very soul was glowing thanks to the joy of spending such a time with his family. "Everyone's so happy right now, yes! The whole kingdom, so happy!"

Karls devolved into actual giggling as he allowed a paw to drop to his dick and started to rub himself atop the fox. After soaking in the canine's glorious, delirious smile, he glanced around to his family. All of them were grinning ear to ear. Next to him, Furanui was just as delirious as his fellow fox, only his smile was framed by a perfect coating of cum over his precious little face. Just beyond, Papa Kamo was cheerfully singing with his body pressed hard against the headboard by a hefty blue beaver. Finally, on Karls other side, his beloved uncle Wao was getting fucked and clawed at by a vicious pink cat, all while his own smile wrapped around the stiffening penis of an adorable white feline.

"I knew this would make everyone happy! So many people to have fun with, yes!" He smiled wider and squeezed hard on the fox, eager to fill himself with even more liquid joy. The fox moaned in approval.

Not everyone was as happy as that fox though. Karls could tell just by looking at the other citizens. Many of them were still waiting for their turn and all had their own members out by this point, stroking themselves to the depraved show. Quite a few of those guys were Wao's victims so Karls imagined that they especially would demand even more. This show was for them, after all.

Some of them were even starting to get impatient! The guy in line behind Karls' fox, a smart looking yellow tanuki, stepped forward and grabbed his head while he was still bouncing on the fox cock. Before Karls could even say anything, he felt that tanuki dick slaps his face, though it didn't shake his smile for a moment.

"Too hot! Your highness, open your mouth! I can't hold it anymore!"

Karls was more than happy to oblige, opening his mouth with a cheerful, "As you wish!" before diving onto the dick. The signal was clear to everyone but the otter, and in a moment more animals were impatiently climbing onto the bed, ready to join in one, big, happy pile.
