

Wide Receiver

Storm hung his towel up on the brass knob, looking over his shoulder to grin at Kaydex. The two of them were the only ones left in the locker room, as was usual after a long practice. Though the team didn't know it, the two shared a relationship much deeper than the regular one between a Back and Receiver, even though the latter's position was aptly named for what usually happened when the two virile males found themselves with some freedom and privacy. Standing seven feet tall, Storm made for quite a sight, his chiseled body shining clean from the shower, a picture of tiger masculinity. His cock, slowly hardening, hung proudly between his legs as he walked up to Kay from behind as the other tiger sorted through his locker. Without a word, Storm wrapped his arms around Kay from behind, leaning his head around to capture the other male's muzzle in a powerful, deep, and dominating kiss; not giving Kay much choice with the way Storm was gripping him except to just relax and go along with it...which, of course, Storm knew that he'd gladly do.

Kay smiled to himself as he felt Storm's big, powerful arms wrap tightly around him. "It's about time" Kay thought. He'd been fumbling around in his locker for the better part of ten minutes waiting for storm to get out of the shower. Kay played wide receiver on and off the field, and was looking forward to some 'off field' playing time. Storm stood a little over a foot taller than the smaller tiger, but Kay loved that the most. He could feel his cock harden between his legs as Storm's tongue explored his muzzle. Now the game could truly begin. Kay took his paw and started to fondle Storm's massive cock.

As the two made out, Storm moaned into Kay's maw, wrapping his tongue around the smaller male's as he took in Kay's wonderful taste. As Kay fondled him, Storm let out a pleasurable growl, happy to see that the exact same thing had been on his lover's mind the whole time. His cock responded very quickly to Kay's paw, growing to its full, almost painfully girthy eleven inches, pressing into the lower back of the other tiger. At the same time, while one arm stayed around his chest to feel the firm muscles beneath the fur, his other moved up just under his Kay's tail, playfully sliding his fingers up between his bubbly ass cheeks to feel the tight tail-hole he knew he would soon get to plow.

Kay shivered as he felt Storm's finger tease the tight pucker of his hungry ring. He worked Storm's cock, feeling it reach it's rigid maximum. Kay spread his legs, raised his tail, and pushed himself down onto Storm's finger; showing the bigger tiger how eager he was. Kay wrapped his tail around Storm's forearm, and half purred, half moaned as Storm stretched out his hole with another finger. Kay gasped, and felt a drop of pre-cum leak from the tip of his pulsing cock. "Ohhh, stop teasing me man. I need that big piece of meat in me." Kay moaned.

Storm gave the tiger a brief finger, feeling the tightness, but in reality, he was just as eager to get down to business as Kay was. Finally pulling back from the kiss, he put his forearm on the back of his partner's shoulders, urging him to bend down and brace himself against the lockers. "Mmm. Bend over then and show me that nice hot ass of yours..." he murred, his cock shoving up between those pleasantly muscled cheeks, pressing up against Kay's tight eager pucker. Storm couldn't keep Kay waiting even if he wanted, and so with an urgent, hard, almost too-rough thrust forward, the huge tiger buried himself halfway into his lover, a throaty rumble of pleasure coming from his chest at the familiar warm tightness engulfing his thick maleness. "Gods, I've been wanting you so bad, I think I'm going to fuck a whole litter into you...." he teased, knowing the smaller tiger loved to be bred.

Kay bared his fangs and hissed as Storm shoved himself deep into Kay's muscular butt. Kay bent down a little lower, arched his back, and spread himself nice and wide. He growled as he pushed himself down onto Storm's big dick. Kay's growl turned into a deep throaty purr as he got every last inch of Storm deep inside him. "A whole litter huh? How many do you think I can hold?" Kay asked as he adjusted to the feeling of 11 thick inches of tiger cock moving in him. "Either way, I want your cubs. Be a good stud and breed me...now."

Feeling up the tiger's sides, Storm murred with satisfaction, his strong paws finally resting on Kay's hips as he began to buck forward eagerly into his well toned ass. Lewd squelches and heavy, hard slaps of muscular flesh on flesh sounded throughout the locker room as Storm drove his 11 inch length deep into his lover', leaning forward to press his broad chest against his lover's back as he arched up against him. To anyone seeing it, it would be quite the erotic sight - two absolute studs of tigers going at it with looks of pure lust and need for one another. Storm's primal urge to breed quickly took over. Nipping the back of Kay's neck, one hand reached around to rub his partner's cock, stroking him from base to tip as he purred into his ear. "I don't know how many you can hold, but we're about to find out...mmmnggh....!" Storm grunted as he fucked Kay harder and harder.

Kay continued to purr as his paws struggled to brace himself against the cold metal lockers. Kay could feel the heat from Storm's body rubbing against his back. Storm's member filled Kay completely, and Kay's ass muscles squeezed it hungrily. Kay could feel his cock leak more pre-cum as storm rubbed it. Waves of pleasure made Kay's fur bristle as he gave himself over to his primal instincts. The urge to be bred took him over. He wouldn't be satisfied until he was heavy with a litter of cubs. "Yes, lets find out...but don't make me..AHH...wait too long!"

A shuddering moan came from Storm's chest as Kay's ass squeezed him so tight, loving the way the tiger's hot inner walls seemed to work him like a hand. The extra pleasure elicited an almost feral reaction from the bigger male, and digging his footpaws in, he lurched forward, jarring Kay's entire body with each vicious thrust. His balls slapped hard against his partner's own sack, jerking him off still as he felt his pleasure quickly build. Caught up the haze of the animalistic fucking, Storm growled into Kay's ear again, his grip around his chest tightening. "Nnngh...you won't...ahh...aaaagh!" And with that, Storm leaned his head back, a dominating roar ripping from his core as he shoved Kay forward so hard it almost dented the lockers, his hips grinding tightly up against the feline's perfect ass as his whole body shook with pleasure. The other tiger would get that familiar feel of thick, boiling hot gushes of seed pumping into his fertile body, but Storm wasn't lying - this time, it felt like a steady stream, the big tiger obviously very pent up and so far showing no signs of stopping any time soon.

Kay roared loudly as he felt a Storm erupt inside him. Wave after wave of gooey hot cum rushed in to fill every part of Kay's body. He could feel the pressure building as the cum didn't stop. "Ooohhhh, fill me stud!" Kay begged as storm pounded in again and again. He could feel a wave of heat rush through him as a few eggs released to be fertilized.

Beads of sweat ran down Kay's back. His toes curled, and his tail swished excitedly.

Storm could barely hear Kay's roars and pleads through the intense pleasure coursing through his body, but Kay wouldn't have to worry about that at all. More and more of his virile, potent seed blasted deep into Kay's belly, washing over each of the eggs released, easily impregnating the male while even more cum continued to fill him. The smaller tiger would begin to get that wonderful familiar feeling of his abdomen starting to inflate with all the cum Storm was pumping out, the larger tiger keeping himself pressed tight up to Kay to make sure that not a single drop went to waste. His orgasm seemed to last for several minutes before it finally ended, his breath hot on the smaller male's neck, his strong chest pressing against Kay's back, their sweat and thick male scents mixing before he stood up slowly, staying buried deep within the smaller tiger.

Kay stood there panting with storm buried deep inside him. He could feel the waves of cum start to taper off. Kay looked down to see his belly was slightly swollen from the size of Storm's big load. "Wow man, a little pent up?" Kay grinned and moved a paw to his belly. "It feels like there's a gallon of cum in here. Along with a litter...Shouldn't be long now." Kay grinned as he could feel the flesh and fur start to push out against his paw. The fertilized eggs had fallen into place and were already developing at a steady pace.

Storm grinned as he stood there, still huffing as he recovered from the intense breeding. Gently holding onto his ass, the larger tiger pulled free with a loud, wet and slurping pop, his cock slightly wet with their combined fluids, but the vast majority still remained in Kay's rapidly growing belly. Taking a step back, Storm smirked down at him as he began to rub his belly, watching the cubs develop and Kay's belly grow bigger right in front of his eyes. Indeed, it would only be about a minute or two before they were ready to come out...and with Storm's size, and how quickly Kay was growing, already he knew both the litter and the cubs were going to be big. "Heh, I told you so, bud. You're going to have some work to squeeze all of those out...though I can say I'm going to enjoy watching it..." he murred. If there was anything that got him going more than knocking his lover up, it was watching Kay give birth.

Kay shudder as he felt his lover slide out of him. He clenched his ass for good measure, trying to keep as much seed in him as possible. Kay turned around and leaned against the lockers, both paws now on his swelling belly. He smiled as he let nature take its course. "Feel's like they're going to be big," Kay said as his swelling belly pushed his paws further and further apart. The white dome of fur pushed past 4 months, then 5, then 6. Kay felt his knees bend as the weight of the cubs increased by the second. "Feel's like there are 4 or 5 in here," Kay grunted as he swelled. "They're gonna be ready to come out soon!"

Taking a few more steps back, Storm eyed the ever expanding belly eagerly, waiting for the kits to come out. Though Kay was exceptional in that pregnancies only took a couple minutes with him, those minutes could still feel like the longest minutes of Storm's life. Giving Kay room to either squat or lay down on a bench, the still nude giant tiger felt his cock harden again as he watched the white belly fur of his lover get stretched tighter and tighter, knowing that labor would come any second now. "Heh...I think that's the most I've ever gotten with you, lover boy. I knew I was horny, but not that horny." Still, the more the better in his opinion, and so he waited, his eyes drawing lower to Kay's still stiff cock and muscular ass, knowing those cheeks would spread wide soon with their litter.

Kay waddled over to the bench and laid down while he was still light enough to do so. His belly heaved outward as the cubs developed in high gear. He ballooned past 7 months, then 8, then 9. He was so big and heavy that he couldn't even see Storm on the other side of his belly, which was saying something seeing that Storm was 7 feet tall! Kay moaned with pleasure as he rubbed his heavily pregnant belly. The cubs kicked and squirmed inside of him. Kay's cock was rigid and aching, thumping against his swollen belly. "I think this is the biggest litter you've put in my yet stud...I'm so fucking big...I'm...ooohhhhahhhhh!" With that a rush of warm water gushed out of Kay's ass as the water of his womb finally broke. "Looks like it's time!" he hissed as the first contraction hit him...hard.

Smirking, Storm sat down on the other end of the bench, liking just how big the other tiger had gotten. It was almost obscene. "I would hope it's the biggest litter you've ever had...if you've had more, then I have no idea how your ass would stay so nice and tight", he purred. Seeing the water break, he reached over to his locker to toss a towel on the floor beneath him, knowing there was going to be a big mess, and not really caring if any got on him, but wanting to keep it somewhat under control nevertheless. "Looks like you're ready! Push hard, Kay!" he encouraged, eager to see the cubs emerge from the hot and tight hole that he was fucking like a beast just minutes before.

Kay spread his legs and reached up to grab up behind his knees and pull. Beads of sweat formed on his brow as he growled and groaned at the pain of the contractions. He felt his tight hole burn and stretch as the head of the first cub started to crown. He growled and pushed hard, wanting to please his lover. Kay was in heaven. He loved letting Storm knock him up, and he knew Storm loved it too. "Here comes the first one.....nngghhhh....they're so big..."

With a wide grin, Storm moved closer, as Kay strained to push out the huge cubs that had just been put inside him by his fellow tiger lover. It made for quite an erotic sight, seeing the male stretched so wide with the head of the big cub, his shoulders getting squeezed through now, the thickest and hardest part done with. It was already easy to tell who the parents were with him, as the cub already seemed strong like the two of them. "Keep pushing, you've almost got it! Man, you're right, he is huge..."

Kaydex strained and finally pushed the first cub all the way out. He had time to gasp and ask, "Is he ok?" before the next contraction took him, moving another cub down to crown. Kay grunted and hissed as he felt his tight hole stretch wide again as the big head and shoulders spread his ass wide. "Man, they are eager to get out!" Kay panted, "They must be running out of room in there." He gasped again, pushing the second cub all the way out, and geared up as the next one started to crown.

"They're just fine. Keep on going, I can see your belly getting smaller", he responded, moving each one out of the way so the next could come. The other tiger's efforts in pushing were really paying off now, his hole wide enough for the cubs to move through relatively quickly now, which was saying something, for how big they were. Though his bones would bend, all was going just fine, and if Kay could see the massive erection that Storm had from watching, he'd know that his partner was enjoying it just as much. "They're really big, though. I only think you have two or three more left."

= Kay pushed down again, his hole not quite as tight. The third cub lined itself up, and started move out as Kay worked with the contractions. He watched his belly start to shrink as the third cub came out, head, then shoulders, then the rest. Kay grinned as he felt the cubs slide out of him. His cock was fully erect at the thought of being a brood mare for Storm. He took a deep breath and pushed as the now crowning 4th cub slid out from between his ass cheeks, shrinking his belly that much more.

Smirking, Storm finally saw Kay's face again, and gave Kay a devilish look. He knew just how much the smaller male enjoyed doing this, and he was happy he gave him such a big litter to enjoy himself with. Though there were already four cubs out, almost a fourth of his whole body weight, there was still one large bulge left, moving quickly down to his hips. "Looks like it is five, Kay. Go ahead, one more hard push...let me hear how much you love shoving out my cubs and being my breeder!" he teased, reaching forward to start to rub Kay's erect length again.

"Oh..goddd...this last one is huge. He must be 16lbs, at least...I hope I can get him out..." Kay panted as he leaned forward and strained to push out the crowning cub. His hips and ass were on fire as they were stretched to the absolute limit. The head moved out agonizingly slow. Kay roared in a mix of please and pain. He wanted storm to see what a good breeder he was. He wanted to carry so many cubs for his lover. He wanted him to see just how well he could produce. Finally the head was out, and then the shoulders.

"Almost...nngghhh...there!" Kay gasped as he pushed again. "This one is going to grow to be bigger than you one day...I can tell." With one last growl Kay pushed the last cub all the way out. Followed quickly by the after birth. Kay erupted in Storm's paw. Once again being driven over the edge by an intense breeding.

Storm watched, almost in awe, as Kay worked to push the last cub out. No wonder this one waited until last - it was at least twice as big as the first. Storm never had doubts that Kay could produce a lot - after all, this wasn't the first time they had cubs. But, he had no idea that Kay was this flexible, especially as muscular as he was, and so as Kay roared out in pain while his ass stretched, Storm watched with interest as the cub was inched out slowly. Once it was all finally over, Storm kept stroking him to prolong his orgasm, knowing it was intensified from the hard labor. Smirking, he then leaned over the exhausted tiger, still groping him even though he was completely spent. "You look damned sexy having those big cubs come out of your ass..." he growled, leaning down for another kiss, tilting his maw to work it against Kay's muzzle as he came down from his birthing high.

Kay smiled to himself as he kissed Storm passionately. His body pulsed with pleasure as the effects of the birth started to die down. "That was amazing stud...Same time next week?"
