

It been says that there are many dimension in both time and space. There are beautiful world of harmony, there dark worlds of evil. It been say that other world exist in the world of Poke'mon, unique creatures that was are capture and train to battle, some trainers are kind to them who see them some as friends, Some trainers are cruel to them who as fighting machines. Now Invaders call "The Claw" from another dimension plan to take over other world of both time and space. Five warriors knows as the "Poke' Star Knight" protected the dimension from "The Claw" using the power the of elements and the poke'mon DNA injected in then to give poke'mon abilities. Their poke'mon had aided them in battle as well. The battle lasted for years until the Poke' Star Knights won the battle against "The Claws." However there was a some sacrifices made, lives was lost during the final battle and there been fear that "The Claw"will return. Five descended of the original Poke' Star Knights will take their place, but the "The Claw" were aware of them, they must destroy them before they could be foundthat including their Poke'mon since that aided them. They must be found before all hope is lost

Five silhouettes with pokemon appear