

We return to a place mostly seen by those who witness the exploits of the Temporal Police. But now we witness something more cheery and bright. For you see our beloved Geauga is, at least for now, on her own. Even now she strives to make good on her promise to her brother to protect everyone she can.

At the center of the city, people flee in terror as it seems the very shadows have come to life to attack them. At the center of all of this chaos, a raven laughs as he commands hundreds of dark shadows to take form and assault the populous.

Shadowboxer: That's right! Run! Flee in terror! Know that your very lives rest in the many hands of Shadowboxer! <turns his shadow into a large hand and flips a car over> You all thought you could lock me up and forget about me! <black hands pop up from the ground and grab people by the legs and drag them off> But you WERE WRONG! <laughs like mad for a bit then stops and has a goofy grin on his face> Ooh it's been a while since they've let me out to play. <suddenly, two pink energy hands slide in and slam all of his shadow hands against the walls around him. He stands stunned for a bit, then slowly turns and sees the owner of the mystery appendages.> Aw crud.

Geauga stands a few yards from him and glares. She's about to speak when all the people seize this opportunity to run for their lives and nearly run her down.

Geauga: (koff koff) As I was gonna' say... Hold it right there, Shadowboxer. I cannot allow you to <takes her jacket off and shakes it getting all the dust off of it> run rampant and cause chaos to this peaceful city. <dusts the seat of her pants off> Now give up your evil ways or...

Shadowboxer: <arms crossed glaring at her> Look, you could at least wait till you clean yourself up before you go into your whole spiel. You're not even looking at me for God's sake!

Geauga: Huh? <still dusting her butt off.> Oops, sorry. <blushes then gets serious> You're going back to The Pit, Shadowboxer!

Shadowboxer: <laughs> I doubt that seriously.

Shadowboxer's shadow seeps into the ground and stretches beneath Geauga. Suddenly, a huge ebony fist socks Geauga sending her flying into the air. The shadow stretches further and a chain of fists pop up from the ground and hit Geauga, keeping her airborne. Then the last hand grabs her by the leg and slams her hard to the ground.

Geauga: <holding her head as she tries to get up> That was mean! You know better than to... <sees a huge shuttle buss with people still inside being hurled towards her> Aw, tofu.

Geauga catches the bus with her hands and her pigtails. She and it skid for almost a mile as her legs start digging into the ground in her attempt to stop it. Then, finally, it slams into the side of a building, crushing Geauga. Shadowboxer laughs as inside the shuttle everyone tries their best to get their bearings. Then, the door to the storage starts to rattle and suddenly Geauga falls out of it and lands on her head.

Geauga: <pulls herself together> Everyone okay? <smiles> Don't worry, I'll get you all out.
<Geauga's pigtails extend around them>

Outside of the shuttle a creaking noise is heard then the top starts to be cut open. Geauga's pigtails pop the top open, in the shape of two big can openers. Geauga's pigtails extend as two giant clasped hands. They open up, and from them the people from inside the shuttle scatter and run. Geauga watches them and she waves bye to them. Her eyes narrow as she spots Shadowboxer still laughing, then pops back in to the shuttle and sees the driver getting out.

Geauga: Um, do you mind if I have this? <pigtail rips one of the seats off>

Driver: Um, sure... okay. <befuddled>

Geauga: <smiles and nods> Thank you.

Outside, Shadowboxer still laughs, that is until a seat from the shuttle slams into him knocking him on his back. Geauga stomps towards him as one of her pigtails extends and busts into a window of a nearby building.

Shadowboxer: [gets to his feet] Ug, that's it! I'm not holding back you hear me! I...

A pink finger taps him on the shoulders. He turns and sees Geauga's pigtail waving at him. It points behind it and he sees how it twists and turns, in and out doors, windows, and even down a manhole cover into the sewer. It thwacks him on the nose then grabs his skull as it retracts back, dragging him back along with it. Shadowboxer is dragged in and out of windows, busting them as he goes. Then, he slams into a door as Geauga's pigtail tries to pull him through a keyhole. Finally, the door breaks and he's pulled into the room and up the chimney. Shadowboxer is thrown high into the air spinning. Geauga's pigtail snaps it's fingers as if to say "rats he slipped", then, it stretches and grabs him by his leg and yanks him down into an open manhole cover. The street keeps cracking in several places as he's dragged under the street in the sewer and finally tossed out a manhole cover.

Shadowboxer: <sails into the air and opens his eyes to see a giant pink energy hand sailing towards him> Damn you, Geauga!!!

Geauga's pigtail slaps him down flat on the pavement a few feet away from her. She shakes hands with it and it reels back in like a fishing line.

Geauga: That'll teach you to... <glares as he's face down motionless in a huge crater> Look at me when I talk to you! <pigtail turns into a spatula and flips him over> There, much better. <giggles> Now... That'll teach you to... <looks up at a clock and sees the time> SKY ROCKETS IN FLIGHT!! I'm late! <in a huge flash of light she takes off down the street towards a school up in the hills>

St. Epsilon Academy for Girls sits atop the hills on the outskirts of the city. It's the weekend, so normally no one would be here, however, today is different. Geauga speeds towards it as a pink beam of light. Inside, a window opens and Geauga's head pokes in. She looks around then sneaks in. She quietly walks into a broom closet and shuts the door behind her. She sighs as she leans on the door. She starts taking off her coat and walks towards the back as someone steps out of the shadows.

Faith: You're late!

Geauga: GAAAAAAHHHH!!! [has her shirt over her head fumbles around and falls over]

A tall pandagirl smiles and helps her to her feet. This is Faith, Geauga's best friend and the only one who knows about her dual identity.

Faith: I can only make so many excuses for you. [leans against the wall with her arms crossed] And you know how antsy those two can get.

Geauga: Sorry, Shadowboxer got loose and was wrecking up the city... I had to stop him.

Faith: Yeah I figured, [sits down on a box] all part of the exciting life of a superhero. Makes me wonder why you even bother with us.

Geauga: Oh stop that!! [head pops into the scene with her pigtails missing] I love hanging out with you guys, you know that... right?

Faith: <nods> Yeah, I do. [rests her head in her hand] Still, I think it's crazy that you even bothered to show up. If I were in your shoes, I would have blown us off.

Gea Lapin steps out of the shadows dressed in a button-up shirt with rolled up sleeves and jeans. This is Geauga's secret identity. She is a gray bunny with a raccoon mask like marking on her face. Her pigtails are replaced by odd bunny ears in zigzag shapes on either side of her head. Faith smiles at her and stands up.

Gea: [walking towards her and she tries her best to fix her tie] I made a promise, and I try my best to keep them. Besides, <smiles> what kind of a friend would I be if I DID blow you off?

Faith: A smart one. [fixes her tie for her] There you go.

Gea: K, now let's go before they wonder where YOU are.

Faith: Um Gea? <points at her face>

Gea: Huh? Oh stupid me... <makes a goofy face> I forgot.

Gea's left hand glows pink for a second then a small pair of pink glasses appear. She puts them on and they rest gently on her nose. Faith gives her a thumbs up and they both leave.

Down the hall sits a room with much ruckus going on within. Inside, two girls are pacing back and forth. Both monkey girls are dressed alike from head to toe, the only exception is that each outfit is a different color. On the blackboard behind them is written Tea Club Meeting... and a few other doodles they did when they got bored waiting for Gea.

Faith: [walks in with Gea] Look who I found!!

Both girls look up and squeal with delight. Then, in a flash they are hugging Gea and snuggling up to her.

Bakari: [looks up at her] Oh Miss Gea you're here!! [nuzzles her face against her]

Wakari: [looks up at her] We thought you'd gotten lost again or worse!! [nuzzles her face against her]

Both: We were so worried!! [Gea's eyes nearly pop out as she hugs her tightly]

Gea: Sorry I'm late, there was some trouble in the city and my bus was late.

Wakari: [in Gea's face] Trouble?

Bakari: [also in Gea's face] No doubt Lady Geauga was there!

Both: [leap in the air] YAY!!

Faith: Lady Geauga?

Bakari: Yes, while Gea we call Miss Gea....

Wakari: We call Geauga, LADY Geauga because she is much like a diva.

Bakari: A goddess.

Both: A QUEEN!!! [both have hearts in their eyes]

Faith: [makes a face] What's with you two?

Gea: [whispering] Kinda' flattering though. <giggle>

Faith: [glares at Gea while she's holding the two twins by their tails] Don't encourage them. Anyway, [drops them on their heads] we have work to do.

Gea: [picks up the twins one by one and helps them to their feet] Oh right, we have to work on our booth for the Academy Fair.

Bakari: We have the plans!!! [holds up the rolled up plans]

Wakari: Yes, this will be the best booth at the fair!!

Both: Then everyone will see the splendor of our beloved Tea Club!!! [spot light hits them as they have now have mics]

Bakari: We even made a little song!!

Wakari: And it won't take long!!

Both are about to sing when the spotlight comes crashing down, crushing them. Faith walks away dusting her hands off as Gea gives her a horrid look.

Faith: You should thank me!! I've heard them sing, they're awful!! They sound like a cat be thrown into a wood chipper..... with a sore throat. [Gea gives her an even more horrid look] What!?! It's the only way to describe it!! [Gea trembles and continues her stare] Alright, <sigh> I dig them out. Geez, the sooner we get started the sooner we can go home.

Gea: [Happy and chipper again] I'll get the plans and get started.

While our girls are about to get started, in the city it seems someone else was about to get started as well. A pink birdgirl clad in black sits atop a ledge looking down at the city. She stares down at the people for a while before looking away in disgust. She breaks off a nearby flagpole, and it begins to crackle and glow with energy. She hurls it into the middle of traffic lodging it into the street. Suddenly, it explodes blowing vehicles and debris everywhere. She hops down and lands on the ground with a huge thud leaving a small indentation on the sidewalk. She walks down the street stroking the side of a building with her hand leaving a trail of crackling energy. Seconds later the side of the building starts exploding in a chain reaction sending people screaming and running for their lives.

Rib: That's right, scream your heads off. Call her, bring her to me!! You're all just bait, and when I'm done with her... I'm going to have fun watching you and this stupid city burn to the ground. [eyes glow with energy]

Back at the Tea Club's meeting room. We see how our girls are doing. We see a perfectly designed booth that says, "St. Epsilon Tea Club," at the top in pretty text.

Gea: WOW... that... that... [we find that what we are looking at is a picture Bakari is holding up, when it is moved we see a horrid pile of lumber sitting in the middle of the room] that... looks NOTHING like the picture at all. <sweat drop on the side of her head>

Faith: Geez, <arms crossed> what did we do wrong?

Wakari: I have no clue. [unrolls the plans]

Bakari: [Looks at the plans] We followed them to the tee.

Faith: Lemmie see that. [Faith looks at the plans, rolls them up and chuckles. Then she starts violently hitting both girls with them] THESE ARE NOT PLANS FOR A BOOTH!! THESE ARE PLANS FOR A CD RACK..... AND A CHEAP ONE AT THAT!!!

Wakari: <covering her head> That might explain why our CD's don't fit.

Bakari: <winces from the beating> Agreed.

Gea: [snatches the rolled up plans from Faith] Now stop that Faith, they didn't mean for this to happen. You have to admit, <giggles> this whole thing is kinda' funny.

Faith: [looks her in the eye and gives her a tired look] No, it isn't.

Gea: Um, maybe we should take a break for now and get some fresh air. [grabs the twins by the hand and starts out the door] This way we can collect our thoughts and maybe cool down?

Faith watches them walk out the door and sighs. She looks at the lopsided, ill built booth and kicks it. It shatters and falls apart as she panics and runs out the door too.

Outside, the Gea and the twins are sitting on the bleachers looking at the city as Faith catches up and finds them. She sighs and climbs the bleachers and sits next to Gea.

Gea: <sighs> The city always looks so peaceful from here, hard to believe there ever a care in the world.

Faith: <sweat drop> I can't believe how oblivious you can be in times of tragedy. That booth isn't gonna build itself.

Gea: [glares] Party pooper. <turns to the twins> Don't worry about it, we'll think of something. Just admire the lovely glow of the city.

Bakari: Yes, it's so lovely.

Wakari: And the smoke and fire coming from it set such a mood. [both gets starry eyed and lean on each other]

Gea: See, now that they are calm and settled they'll be able to help come up with ideas too..... [turns her head 180 degrees and looks at them] Did you say fire and smoke?

Faith: Lenore?

From her bag a small bird-like robot comes out and hovers above Faith. It's eyes magnify and peer over to the city.

Lenore: There appears to be panic and confusion going on. Miss Faith, a criminal known as Rib has been reported in the area.

Bakari: What?! Oh my!! [she and Wakari gather around Lenore]

Wakari: I hope everyone is okay?

While the girl's attention is focused on Lenore, Gea removes her glasses and starts to edge further away from them. Then she undoes her tie and hops off the bleachers and lands behind a near by bush. Suddenly a HUGE explosion of pink lights and flame engulfs the bush as Geauga takes off from behind it like a pink beam of light. She speeds towards the city as Faith looks over and sees her leave.

Faith: [to herself] Be careful Geauga. [she then sees the huge flaming bush a few feet away from them and the twins suddenly tossing Lenore around like a ball] How on earth can those two not see that?

Faith attention is then caught by Wakari and Bakari's bag. It starts hopping up and down as if something is trying to get out. The twin stop tossing Lenore around who goes sailing into the air. The bag pops open and a metal ball rolls out. The ball then starts to transform till it resembles something between a ball and a small monkey.

Wakari: Pibb?

Bakari: What is it sweetie?

Faith: [gives them a look] You call your T.A.D. sweetie?

Pibb: [hopping into the air like a mad monkey] Miss Bakari, Miss Wakari!!

Both: Yes?!

Pibb: Target Geauga has been detected heading towards the center of town. Tracking her movements as requested.

Both: YAY!! [leap into the air and high five each other] We have her now.

Faith: Say what?

Wakari: [holding out her bag] Into the bag, Pibb.

Bakari: We had Pibb on 24/7 Lady Geauga alert. That way if she showed up, we could find her and meet her.

Wakari: Quickly Bakari! We must be off if we plan to catch her.

Bakari: Um, where is Miss Gea? [looks around]

Faith: <sweating> Um, uh...well.

Wakari: Oh look there's a burning bush!! [points at where Gea changed] Miss Gea must have run off to call the fire department.

Bakari: And did not want to alarm us so she slipped out without telling us.

Faith: <shrugs> A little farfetched, but let's go with that. [gets pulled away] HEY!!

Wakari: Come we must go see Lady Geauga!!

Faith: [being dragged off] What about Gea?!

Bakari: We'll get her Lady Geauga's autograph, least we can do.

Faith: Waaaaaiiiitttt!!! [the twins run off with her towards the city as Lenore flutters behind them keeping pace]

At the center of town, thunderous explosions shake the city and it's inhabitants as Rib lets her power fly. Everything she touches starts to glow and crackle with energy. Finally, it becomes unstable and explodes sending debris and fire everywhere.

Rib: Shin and Calavera said I couldn't do anything on my own, but look at me now. Who needs the Skeleton Krew. [touches the ground causing it to break apart in a huge wave of explosions.]

Voice: Think fast!!

Rib: Huh? [a cylinder flies right at her face. Instinctively she catches it to protect herself. She sees that it is a fire extinguisher... and also that her hands were still glowing. It explodes, blowing her back and covering her with white powder] What the hell?! <coughs>

Geauga: Good catch! [Geauga crosses her arms as her right pigtail salutes Rib] But next time, think a little faster.

Rib: I knew you'd show up if I kept blowing things up. <her whole body surges and the white power is burnt off. She gets to her feet and glares at Geauga, or rather, where Geauga should be> Hey, where'd you go?! <she hears Geauga giggling and turns.>

Geauga: <pointing> Ha ha! You missed a spot.

Rib: Huh? [looks at sees a huge spot of white powder on her butt then the area around her explodes] WILL YOU STOP PLAYING AROUND!!!

Rib lunges and Geauga with her hands ablaze with energy. However, she cannot seem to lay a hand on her. Geauga blinks out and reappears next to her. Finally, after everything around them is blown up and the smoke clears, Rib tries to catch her breath.

Geauga: [pops up behind her and whispers] Look at the mess you made.

Rib: [enraged] Hold still you..<trips> Aaaaaaaaaa!! [lands on her face.]

Geauga: [sees her pigtail grabbing Rib's leg] Oopsie. Sorry, they have a mind of their own.

Rib: [pulling herself up] Why won't you hold still?

Geauga: [bops her on the head with her pigtail and knocks her on her face again] What am I crazy?! You accelerate the molecules of anything you touch causing them to reach critical mass and explode. That would hurt, besides muffin gave me this outfit, and if anything ever happened to it I'd cry.

Rib: Thanks for the tip.

A wicked grin appears across Rib's face as Geauga notices Rib's glowing hands as the ground explodes under her sending her flying. Geauga flips in the air and lands just as the ground glows again and explodes. Rib rushes in with energy crackling off of her hands. She jabs forward where Geauga was going to land. She looks up and sees her suspended over her staring down at her.

Geauga: Oh yeah, I can float. Remember these? [looks behind her and makes her wings flutter faster] Ain't that a kick in the head, like this! [kicks Rib in the face and knocks her across the street. She busts into a window as Geauga slowly floats back to the ground.] Oh yeah, much better. [looks back at her fluttering wings] Feels good to use you guys again, I rarely get to. [stretches] Okay let's get this over with, I have people waiting for me back... huh? [looks around and sees Rib missing] Hello? Hey!! [walks across the street] I didn't kick you THAT hard.

Bakari: Lady Geauga!!

Geauga: Huh? [pokes her head into the window where Rib crashed into]

Wakari: Lady Geauga!!

Geauga: [looks inside and sees Faith and the twins] Hey guys what are you three doing here? [sees they are held together by a steel bar bent around them]

Rib: [pops up suddenly] Playing the part of bait!! [Rib charges the wall between her and Geauga, it explodes sending her flying. Geauga rolls then gets to her feet. Geauga is about to rush Rib when she stops in her tracks.] I'd stop right there unless you want these girls to get hurt. [Rib's hands start to crackle and she moves them closer to the bar holding the girls] I can't say how these girls will fair from an explosion this close.

Gegauga: Leave them alone!!

Faith: Sorry Geauga, the girls dragged me with them. They wanted to see you and get your autograph.

Bakari: But Miss Faith, it was your idea to hide in this building.

Wakari: And stay out of sight.

Bakari: So, in a nut shell.

Both: [both wrap her in the head with their tails] IT'S YOUR FAULT!!!

Faith: What?! [kicks and tries to get free] Why you two little brats, wait till I get my hands on you!!

Rib: Enough!! You gals can't stand each other? Well I'll make all your molecules take separate vacations! [starts charging up Wakari's shoe]

Gegauga: NO STOP!!! I'll... [clenches her fists in rage] I'll hold still and take their place if you let them go.

Rib: [turns her head with a wicked grin on her face] That so? Well, then I'm sure we can make a deal. [Rib stops charging up Wakari's shoe. It crackles with energy then disappears in a puff of smoke leaving her bare foot.]

Wakari: [wiggles her toes then pouts at Rib] Hey, at least do the other one so they match.

Faith: [swings her head back and bops Wakari in the head] Shut up you! Geauga don't do it, she'll kill us after she's done with you!!

Rib: QUIET YOU!!! [rushes at Geauga, her hands blazing with energy.] Now I've got you!

Gegauga's uniform starts to shimmer and glow with energy. It slowly creeps around her engulfing her entire outfit. The girls watch in horror and can do nothing. Then in a huge flash of light and thunderous bang, Geauga explodes. Rib is blown back and laughs as the smoke clears and nothing is seen of Geauga.

Rib: Well that was fun, now girls where were.....we? [Rib sees the bar is unbent and laying on the floor and the girl's are now missing] What the hell!?! [she looks at where Geauga was, but only sees a charred crater, then looks back at where the girls were] There's no way... no she couldn't have. <enraged> DAMN YOU GEAUGA!!!

In a building a ways away, Faith is peeking out of a window checking to see if Rib has figured things out yet.

Faith: God, that was close. [slumps on the floor then turns and looks off screen] I knew you were fast, but that was crazy. [we sees Geauga's arms come into panel and rip a nearby door off] You okay? I mean <blushes> aside from being butt naked!

Geauga: [holding the door sideways in front of her to cover up] NO!!! She blew up my clothes! Muffin gave me that outfit!

Wakari: [blushing with hearts in her eyes] Thank you so much for saving us Lady Geauga!!

Bakari: [blushing with hearts in her eyes too] Yes, we are indebted to you.

Geauga: [turns and looks behind her and smiles at them blushing] It's okay, I'm glad you're both okay.

Faith: [walks around the room collecting curtains and other types of cloth] I know you can warp stuff into anything you want... [stops and looks at the twins who have hearts in their eyes getting and eyeful of what they can see from behind] um, will this help? [hands Geauga what she collected]

Geauga: [takes it in her hands while her pigtails hold up the door in front of her] Yes, thank you.

Geauga turns the door vertically and holds it with her pigtails while flashes of pink light come out from behind the door. The twins oooooo and aaaaa with hearts in their eyes as Faith gives them a vicious glare. The door falls over and Geauga steps out back in her outfit.

Faith: Hey Geauga, listen um, sorry all this happened.

Geauga: [smiles and places her pigtail on her shoulder] No need to be sorry, I'm glad you are all safe. Please stay here and keep them out of trouble. [turns and looks back at the twins still love struck]

Faith: [sees Geauga run off] Be careful!!!

Geauga: [in a flash pops back in] I will.

And with that she winks and is off again in a flash of pink light. Faith sighs and turns to see the twins still with hearts in their eyes.

Faith: [yells at the knocking them over] What is WITH you two?!

Rib is blowing things up. She hears something whistling behind her and turns to see a fire hydrant flying at her. She leaps out of the way and it smashes through a building behind her. She gets to her feet and is suddenly blasted by a huge torrent of water. Geauga has her pigtails covering the water shooting out because of the absence of the hydrant, and is directing it as Rib with full force.

Geauga: [starts stomping towards Rib] I warned you, but you just had to blow up my uniform!!! NOW I'M REALLY... REALLY... CHEESED OFF!! [eyes flaming red as she gets closer]

Rib: [coughing up water] Cheesed? Geez even when you're pissed off you're cute.

Geauga: [her pigtail turns into a fist and hits her square in the gut. The impact passes through her and leaves a HUGE indentation in the wall behind her] SHUT UP!!

Geauga's pigtail picks Rib's chin up with one finger then winds up and punches her sending her sailing into the air. Rib slowly starts to fall back to earth as Geauga powers up another attack.

Geauga: [starts moving her hands in a circular motions counter to each other. Crackles of light start building up and form a swirling ball of kinetic energy.] THUNDERKISS!! [She then winds up her body like a pitcher and tosses the ball at Rib]

The ball hits Rib in the head and does so repeatedly, slowly at first, then it picks up speed, swarming around her like a swarm of bees. Geauga's eyes move around as if they are guiding it's movements. Rib's body crashes onto the street, leaving a huge crater. The ball of energy lands on her head. Rib slowly gets to her feet and after pulling herself together, then glares at Geauga, who's standing a distance away with her arms crossed.

Geauga: You like blowing stuff up right? [cocks her head] Then you'll love this. [narrows her eyes and raises her hand and snaps her fingers]

Rib looks up and atop head sits the ball of energy, it starts to swirl faster and seemingly becomes unstable till it bathes everything with light then explodes. Geauga stands unmoving as smoke and debris fly past her. Rib flies past her, having been hurled by the blast and Geauga snatches her out of the by her neck and looks her in the eye.

Geauga: You don't seem to be laughing and smiling when you're the one being blown up.

Rib: [eyes filled with tears] S...stop.... I was just trying to.... show up Shin and Calaverda. I promise I'll stop. [Rib lowers her head as her hands start to crackles with energy as a hidden grin forms on her beak]

Geauga: [wrinkles her face at her] Your two big mistakes were putting my friends in danger, not to mention blowing up my outfit. That's a quick way to make me forget how dangerous it is when

I don't hold back. [Rib raises her head and laughs as she grabs Geauga's hands and starts pumping energy into them] And that, [Geauga's eyes glow red] was the last mistake.

Geauga releases Rib and her hands starts to glow, too. The energy from them starts to overtake a panic stricken Rib as she fights and pumps more energy into her hands. Geauga with no effort at all causes a huge ball of energy to form and starts pushing Rib back.

Geauga: Quantum Physics is always my best subject, so let me give you a lesson. While molecules, when accelerated become unstable and explode with great force. But, they can be contained within a controlled field, and when someone like, say me, can control space and reality itself well that's no big feat. [balls grows bigger and continues to push Rib back] What you have here a small space or rather a small pocket dimension, one I made so I control everything inside it. Your power will not touch me, nor will it touch anyone or anything. [ball starts to surge with power] Still listening? Good. Now here's the best part. You have some serious power, you abuse it, but your not a god, and neither am I. But I'm pretty darn close. [blinks both her eyes at her with a blissful smile you usually see on her face. Then, it wrinkles and her stern, scary face returns] So I've seen things you cannot possibly fathom, much like this. As I said, I can control everything with this field of space. [ball starts to grow to a size bigger than Rib. Now she has given up pushing forward and is trying to pull her hands free unsuccessfully.] You'll see this first hand, and live to tell about it... so consider yourself honored because everyone else at this point, [Geauga's eyes glow red again] would say you're screwed. [The ball starts to collapse in on itself as Geauga starts pushing it towards Rib with one arm] The nexus is collapsing in on itself and creates a huge, if not incredibly destructive force... all aimed at you!!! NEXUS BLAST!!!

The ball implodes for a second, then a huge blast of energy engulfs Rib and rips a trail of destruction a mile behind where Rib once stood. When the smoke clears, Rib is standing in a burned crater where the blasted dissipated. Geauga walks up to her with her hands in her pockets whistling. She looks down at her and smiles.

Geauga: Remember this next time you decide to go blowing things and my friends up. Because, you survived, because I don't like killing. [walks away then stops and turns back] Even cold blooded people who deserve it like you. [in a blink of pink she's gone again]

A little later, the girls have finally made their way back to their school. They walk down the hall to their meeting room.

Faith: [leans on the door] Finally we made it. [looks at her back seeing the twins clinging to her back] RIDES OVER GET OFF!! [drops them on their heads]

Wakari: We made it we're safe!!

Bakari: It was a hard trip we got back in one piece. [hug each other, then suddenly both and smacked into the ground by Faith]

Faith: You guys never even walked a single step here! [breathed hard] What's worse you made me get you something to eat!

Wakari: Maybe making her go through the drive thru was a bit much, sister.

Bakari: [thinks back and shows them ordering food from the drive thru while riding on Faith's back, who is fuming mad] Well, maybe just a bit.

Faith: I can't believe you two sometimes. [rubs her face then takes a deep breath and calms down] Let's just get inside.

The twins nod as Faith opens the door that says Tea Club on it. Once the door opens, Gea pops up and scares Faith half to death causing her to fall back. The twins squeal with delight and bounce on Faith and into Gea's arms.

Gea: Welcome back!!

Wakari: Miss Gea you're okay!! [nuzzles her face into the side of her head]

Bakari: We were so worried!! [does the same to the other side of her head]

Gea: Oh, you two. [smiles]

Faith: [gets to her feet] Good, they can be your problem now. [looks past Gea and sees something] What the heck is that? [points off panel]

Behind Gea, shimmering with light is a booth with a sign that says Tea Club on it. It looks a thousand times better than their last attempt.

Gea: [turns her head] Oh that? Well when I walked in here I found it, and this note from Geauga saying she apologizes for you all nearly getting killed and she hopes this makes up for it. [the twins leap out of her arms and towards the booth]

Wakari: Lady Geauga is the best!!

Bakari: We should so get ourselves killed more often! [both twins get crushed under a desk]

Faith: LIKE HELL!!! [dusts her hands off and walks up to Gea] So, everything go okay? [Gea nods and smiles] Good, sorry your outfit was destroyed. If there's anything I can do to replace it. I know Monguse gave it to you and all.

Gea: [looks down sad] That's okay. [head pops up with a huge smile on her face] Muffin gave me tons of outfits like it just in case!!

Faith: [shoulders slump as she has an exasperated look on her face] Then... then why were you so ticked?

Gea: Oh, well each one means the world to me. He gave me them so I cherish each one.

Faith: [brushes her hair out of her face] You frustrate me sometimes you know that?

Gea: Oh, and the rest of the time?

Faith: [whimpers] You confuse me.

Gea: Also good. [smiles as Faith shakes her head and shrugs]

Faith: Speaking of confused. [looks at the twins twitching under the desk] They started writing Lady Geauga in hearts the whole trip here.

Gea: Oh? [tilts her head] On what?

Faith: [turns around and shows all the writing on her back] Take a guess.

Gea: [giggles] Kinda flattering.

Faith: [grabs the sides of her head] No, it's not! It's DISTURBING!!!!

Scene pans back as we see the school and the sun setting in the back. Over to the right there is still smoke coming from the city and explosions from the battle between Rib and Geauga.

Geauga: [head appears in the shot. She sticks her tongue out and blushes] Oopsie guess I over did it huh?

Faith: [head also appears. She moans and hangs her head] I give up.

The End
