

Name : Anchorage

Nickname : Magixx

Age : 21 (1991)

Birthday : March 17th

Species : Black Fox.

Height : 1m65 (5'4")

Weight : 60kgs (132lbs)

Cock size : 22cm (9inches), knot width : 10cm (4in)

Balls size : about the size of a golf ball each (scrotum is about the size of a tennis ball)

Language : French and English, learning German (advanced) and Spanish.

Eyes : Green, with tiny streaks and dots of gold, irises are slightly almond-like

Hair : White shoulder-length African braids pulled into a ponytail, with just two braids left hanging over the right side of his face.

Frame : thin, slightly athletic looking. Fur isn't really long, but fluffy enough to hide his timid six pack. Cheeks are particularly fluffy, there's a tuft of fluff that covers his bellybutton, and his tail is long and puffy.

Fur pattern : There's always a golden line that separates the black and white fur. It's thin in the face and on the torso, but it widens as it goes down the belly to a few centimetres.

- Ears : Black on the outside, white in the inside. The edges of the ears are golden, and the end of the ears ends in a little tuft of golden hair. His left ear has two earrings on its outer edge. They're usually either golden rings or small diamonds.
- Face : The head fur is mostly black, apart from a small white star on the forehead, circled in gold, and from the muzzle. There's a gold line that runs from his black nose to the inner corner of his eyes, along the middle part of his upper jaw. The lines then go down the cheeks, forming a pattern like the one on normal foxes : slightly curvy, separating the cheeks in half, the outer fuzz being black, the inner fuzz being white. The eyes themselves are slightly almond-like, circled in golden. Eyebrows are thin and white. Whiskers are black, really thin, barely visible. So the rest of the muzzle, the cheeks and the neck are white. He wears a golden necklace with golden dog tags : the first is embroidered with a tribal wolf design, while the second reads "Anchorage and Llumrei" in Braille.
- Body : front body is white, in continuity with the white of the face. It slowly widens till it covers his nipples (where they should be, rather), then narrows a tiny bit before widening again at the hips. Scrotum and balls are white, and the inside of the thighs is at the beginning, though it thins till it disappears around the middle of the thigh. The golden line ends up with a little curl. The white covers some of his bum too, covering the two lower thirds of his buttocks, the limit following his curves, looking like the higher part of a heart. The golden lines start big curls when they touch, barely visible because of the fluff of his tail. The tail is really long and big, mostly black, though the last sixth of it is white, separated from the black by a wide golden line. There's a tattooed sentence on his left flank, reading "Dreams Last for Eternity", written in a calligraphically style. It is white, like his bellyfur, and is made so that you can easily read it while Magixx is lying on his belly.

- Back : Back is black too, apart from a thin golden line that starts between his shoulder blade down to a point just above the base of his tail, and a few white spots on his left shoulder blade in the shape of flower petals.
- Arms : both arms are black, apart from a tiny tuft of white fur at the end of the elbow, and his left hand that is white, separated from the black by a thick golden line that looks like a wristband. He wears a golden ring on his ring finger, with a black tribal flame design. He usually wears two fluorescent wristbands on his right wrist, the kind you get into raves : a golden one and a turquoise one (the latter is sometimes replaced by a rich green one, like his eye color). He doesn't have pads on his hands.
- Legs : As said above, the upper part of the inner thighs are white , but the rest of the legs are black. Magixx usually wears a thin golden chain around his left ankle. His hindpaws are huge, looking like Demicoeur's. His feet's soles are white, and the fur between his toes shows a bit of white too. He has discreet pink pads on his feet.

Nature : Really quiet, and quite shy with strangers, he's a warm-hearted fox that loves cuddling and laughing. And that loves Llumrei, too. He's got a lot of imagination and is really creative, and loves daydreaming. He has a fascination for languages, but also for wildlife and maths. He enjoys playfully teasing people, and always try to get a smile on people's faces around him. He's quite fond of music, too, and would love to learn how to play the keyboard. He can be quite mature or childish, depending on his mood. He only very rarely sulks.

Tastes : Loves Blue (Deep Blue, especially) and Bright Green. Loves the night, watching the stars and the moon. About music, he's especially fond of Dance/Electro music (Mania, Tune Up...), though he'll listen to almost anything. His favourite band is Nightwish (symphonic metal) and his favourite song is J'ai Demandé A La Lune by Indochine (Rock). He likes fantastic films like Avatar, but he also loves animation movies, Disney's, Dreamwork's and others of the same kind. His fave film would probably be Dreamwork's Treasure Planet. He absolutely loves reading Heroic Fantasy books, and knows the Harry Potter saga by heart. He loves re-reading all his favourite books, like Twilight, Knights of Emerald, Narnia, His Dark Materials... He loves nature, which he finds absolutely mesmerizing, always admiring all the things nature created through evolution. Likes everything that's soft : plushies, tummies...

Kinks : He's all about inflation, turning his flat tummy into a tight round ball, getting it as big as he possibly can (keeps it quite realistic, though. No bursting out of a house or something like that), and same goes for his balls. And same goes for his boyfriend and playmates. Never let him alone or turn your back on him while he's around a garden hose or a pump, because either him or you will end up inflated.

Story : Anchorage was named after the town where his parents first met, and where they decided to go later again to "conceive" him. His father is a GP, and his mother is a teacher. He has no brother or sister. He's grown up in a cosy home, and has developed a passion of learning that helped him get the best marks in school, especially in languages. He's always been a cheerful and helpful foxie, which earned him numerous friends, and a good reputation all around the town. He met his tanuki boyfriend Llumrei in Senior year. Llumrei was on the Gymnastics team, and was looking for someone to help him with his maths class. Anchorage applied, and after a few lessons, Llumrei asked him out, finding him way too cute and interesting, and they've always been together since then.

He's really close to his childhood friend, a Pink German Shepherd balloonie named Cinta. Cinta's the one who started calling Anchorage Magixx, because of the poems and short stories Anchorage had showed him. Cinta had been mesmerized by those, and he said that Anchorage's way with the words were like magic, which led to Magixx. He discovered he liked bellies thanks to Cinta, while they were hiking in the nearest mountain, around the age of 16. Anchorage felt quite tired, so they decided to make a pause, and Cinta asked Anchorage to help him to inflate so that it'd make a bed for Anchorage... You can imagine what followed !
