Little One...

You are strong

Talented

Wonderful in every way

It would be a shame for the world to miss your greatness

You are brave

Confident

Bright in every way

Gone are your days of feeling lonely

Gone are your tears, all wiped away

Gone are your inhibitions

Say hello to your compass

May it point the way

Say hello to your heritage

May it ground you

Say one last hello to this poem, and what its brought you
