

Once upon in modern times, there lived three little kinitopets. The oldest is Sam, a very hyper but lazy sea anemone who wanted to do was play all day and work less, the middle child is Jade, a green jellyfish who was the only girl and lastly Kinito the youngest of the three but also very insignificant. Since they had no homes they decided to set off and build houses each made of different ingredients. Sam built his house out of straw and Jade built her house out of sticks so that they can finish faster and go play but Kinito having no time to play builds his house of bricks, cement and sweat.

Yes sir, everything was just peaceful for the pets until after 2 months, a big bad wolf lady called Miss Circle was passing by and she was thinking of having sea creatures for dinner. She saw the straw house and noticed Sam was living inside it.

"Sea anemone, sea anemone, let me come in!" She knocked on the door.

"Not by the hair of my chinny chin chin!"

Sam responded and gave the middle finger to Miss Circle and that made her mad so she said "I will huff and puff and blow your house in!". With a powerful blow the straw house was flown away and Sam ran away to his sister Jade's stick house.

Miss Circle knocked on the door and said "Jellyfish, jellyfish, let me come in!". But Jade also said "Not by the hair of my chinny chin chin!", and she stuck up 2 middle fingers, so Miss Circle huffed and puffed and blew the twig house in. The stick house was destroyed so Sam and Jade had to make a long run to Kinito's brick house and when they knocked Kinito fastly unlocked and said "Come in with me!".

Miss Circle tried to get in any way she can first she tried to disguise herself as a baby seal but Kinito knew a wolf in sheep's clothing when he sees one. Next she tried to break down the door with a battering ram in far distinct, but end up injuring herself. And she finally surrounded the brick house with dynamite, rockets and bombs, but let's just say it horribly backfired. Miss Circle also tried huffing and puffing but the bricks could not be blown down, she was about to give up but that's when she saw the chimney.

Miss Circle slid down the chimney and she was finally in the house and she had a wicked smile on her face and the pets gasped in fear knowing that this might be the end. But little did Miss Circle know she started to notice smoke and smells something cooking. The pets had already lit a fire in the chimney and when Miss Circle looked down behind her she sees her pants and butt was caught on fire. Kinito looks at her and says "My lady you are already re-living your karma, you were a big bad wolf, because you still lack..." But before Kinito finishes his words Miss Circle jumps up the chimney again and falls onto the ground dragging her butt along the way as her clothes were burning right off her body, and the three little pets sang "Who's afraid of the Big Bad Wolf?" as Miss Circle landed into the river with her body charred and naked because the clothes were burnt off her body.

It took a few months for Miss Circle to recover from the wounds she got in her butt, and in the meantime, the little pets built, with the help of their younger brother, two identical brick houses, from which to protect themselves from Miss Circle, with huge chimneys that always they would have them ready for when the evil lady wanted to enter through them.

