Noway smiled as he spotted the 2 friends at the checkout gate, they had made a cardboard sign but he didn't need it to recognize them. Blushing a bit as he approached the guys and read the sign not even stating his real name it just read "wolfy Noway".

"Hey guys" Noway said with a smile he decides to start with a handshake but Dbear quickly pulled him into a hug "come on wolfy, you are always giving hugs on IM" the 3 laughed. Noway was already getting less shy and gave Milo a firm hug after Dbear let him go.

"Glad to finally meet you both in person" he remarked as he smiled at Milo, "Thanks for coming along to pick me up Milo, i know you have work in the early morning". Milo nodded and gave a nod, "yeah, but its not every day we get company from Europe"

They headed to Milo and Dbear's place, it was already close to midnight so they decides to just do a quick beer before heading to bed. Noway had brought some souvenirs from the Netherlands for his friends and some dutch food items that he knew they didn't have in the states.

Milo unpacked a pair of wooden shoes and smirked, "These are not" going to transform me into some dutchman right" Noway laughed and shook his head, "nah into a doggy of course" all 3 laughed as Milo put them on and acted for a small moment that there was actually magic inside them.

They all liked Transformation and sometimes role-played transformation stories on IM so it was a bit of a inside joke. "good boy Milo" Noway said in a joking/mocking tone and petted Milo on his head.

When 1am arrived a fun couple of hours came to an end, all 3 where tired and Milo had work in the morning so they all went to bed and Noway took the sofa.

The next morning Noway woke up to find Dutch lapping over his face. "ack!" he jumped but then recalled where he was, smirking as he petted Dutch on his head, "he he, hey there puppy" Dutch was Milo`s Akita and was clearly curious what had been snoring on the couch the entire evening.

4 other ears clearly had picked up on petting being handed out because soon Dbear's huskies stuck their heads in through the door, wagging their tails as they quickly joined in for the morning petting.

Noway gladly gave Noodle and Freya a petting as well as he then got up. Noway loved dogs and always wanted to have a few himself. smirking as he thought about his plan and headed to sound of tapping keys.

He walked into Dbear's work room, `Morning` he said as Dbear turned around and smiled. `hey there wolffy, see you got the canine army with you?` Noway smirked and nodded, `we canines gotta stick together bully`

They laughed and talked a bit, "So, sheppy is out to work huh?" Noway asked. "Yeah, he won't be home until dinner time" Noway nodded "you 2 make a cute couple."

The big guy blushed in his desk-chair and smiled, `yeah, i love him very much` Noway smiled and nodded again, "it shows, i think you guy should stay together for a long time" he smirked a bit again in an odd way but then returned to smiling as Dbear talked about his sheppy and how much he loved him. Noway didn't mind as it gave him a warm feeling inside.

After a while Noway let Dbear return to his work and he walked the 3 dogs around the block to check a few local things in the neighborhood. Noway knew because he was staying a week not every day was going to be party time, after all Milo and Dbear had their work to do.

When it was getting close to the end of the workday Noway walked into Dbear's office, walking up to him and starting to knead into the big guy's shoulders.

"ooooh yeah" Dbear grunting out in surprise as he didn't expect that. "enough work, relax a bit will you?" Noway said as he kneaded and massaged firmly. At first it was quite relaxing and after a while Noway heard Dbear grunt Milo's name softly.

"Not quite big guy, but don't worry i won't stand in between you 2, in fact... I am going to help you 2 get very very close" Dbear felt a strange heat coming from Noway's kneading hands and woke up a bit from his relaxed state.

He raised his hand a bit to nudge Noway away but stopped as he looked at it, His skin was strangely crimson red and it was shiny. "wh.. whats going on?" he asked confused as he looked over himself to find more spots of odd skin all over his body.

"Oh nothing teddy, relax and let this transformation artist work" he chuckled as he kept kneading, Dbear realized this was wrong and tried to stand up but his muscles were not barely working. he felt so heavy. "sssh relax" Noway said as he kept going, he had his friend where he wanted him.

Starting to slip his fingers under Dbear's already loose clothing to strip it off. "hey! hey! what are you doing?!" Dbear protested in anger but ended up naked anyway. feeling Noway's hands rub and slide over his whole red body. he hated himself for enjoying it.

Noway hands heated up more, making Dbear's arms meld into his sides and his legs fuse together.

Dbear was scared as hell, this wasn't possible. Did Noway really have magical powers or something?. he tried to ask but a simple rub over his throat made his vocal chords fizzle away.

"don't worry buddy. believe it or not but I'm sure you are going to love this. hmm" his hands toying a bit with the erection his friend was having, `almost a shame but yeah...` a heat building up in Dbear's crotch as he watched in horror while Noway smooths it out leaving nothing but a smooth surface.

Noway could see the scared look in his friend's eyes and decides to finish up quickly, rubbing over Dbear's head and face, remolding it into an odd looking tip..the mouth making a perfect peehole as Dbear could see a reflection of himself in a nearby mirror.

Noway was molding him into a giant canine dick. as realisation sets in he could feel himself shrinking in Noway's hands. the touch felt so good, like his entire body was his dick.

Noway slipped his finger into Dbear's tail-hole and teased it around, making him hollow on the inside as it finished up.

Noway lifted Dbear up with ease and walked up to the mirror. Dbear could still see even if he didn't have eyes, seeing his friend was holding a rubber canine design cock sleeve. he could see Noway's hand holding him, in fact he realizes he still had all his senses even if he was made of rubber. the cock-sleeve gave a very mild wiggle and Noway smirked at that. `don't worry buddy, you are going to love this. you look so nice to wear.. you have no idea how difficult you are making it for me to not use you.`

Anyway that's not important right now, because we got some work to do.

He retrieved Dbear's cellphone and gift-box he had brought along from Europe. laying Dbear into it and packaging it up. laying the toyed Dbear on the coffee table.

"Let's see, got to make this not too long.. don't want sheppy realize it's me of course" Dbear could hear Noway talking to himself. "ah i know, got to head to a client tonight, got a present for you to make up for it. love Dbear` hmm hope that's not too strange.." Noway said to himself as he turned on the tv and watches some cartoon, meanwhile Dbear was laying in that package realizing what he was, wondering why his good friend did this to him, he laid there for at least an hour before he heard Milo's voice

"Hey there buddy, Dbear gone ? he send me a sms that he was off to a client, oh hey did he leave this for me?" Dbear's world was shaking around him as Milo picked up the package. he heard Noway confirm Milo`s questions,

Suddenly Dbear could see the large head of his lover staring down at him, a blush and wide grin forming on its face. "so what did he get you?" Noway asks as he tries to sound like he doesn't know.

Milo quickly closed the box again and hid it from Noway, "uhm. uhm. something a little private...excuse me" with that Milo ran off to the bedroom, he always wanted to try a toy like that out but he never had the chance until now.

Dbear watches helplessly as the box was opened again, he could make out that they where in the bedroom, he tried to talk "Milo! It's me!.. bear!" but besides a barely noticeable wiggle the canine cock sleeve didn't do anything.

Milo laid down on the bed and smiled in a naughty way as he picked up the toy. licking playfully over the rubber tip and nipping at it. "hmm... wish bear was home to help with this" he said softly as he started lubing up his growing erection that he freed from his pants while toying around.

Dbear was scared, sure he has been with his mate lots of times but this was diffrent, he was only slightly bigger then his mates cock now, hearing the sounds of lube rubbing filling the bedroom, a finger slipped inside his rubber body feeling Milo spread some lube around. it felt so good, feeling bad for liking it.

Milo's breathing was quickening and couldn't hold back longer. "enough teasing myself" he said to nobody as he took his new toy and started slipping it over his pulsing member. it was a tight fit but it was almost like it was made for him. feeling the rubber adjust and make a perfect fit.

Dbear felt his mates warm hands rub at him as something hot and throbbing was being forced in trough his back opening. the throbbing meat inside his rubber body felt like a heartbeat, filling him. he could taste and smell his mate, he had never felt so close to his mate as close as he was now.

Milo let his tongue hang a bit out, playing his sheppy spirit a bit as he rubbed and tried to grunt like a canine. feeling a drop of pre shoot out, making its way trough the toys peehole and leaking down along the side.

Dbear gasped as he felt the squeezing and stroking over his body, it felt so good. he could barely focus as he suddenly felt something hot and salty bitter move trough him and leaking out his mouth, realizing his mate just shot pre with him as the cock-sleeve.

"Having fun?" Mike said as he walked into bedroom smiling in a somewhat devilish way at his buddy laying there.

Milo gasped and tried to cover up with a pillow. "Noway! What the hell! get the fuck out of here!" he said but Noway didn't back down, Milo's eyes nearly popped out as Noway set down on the bed and without doubt slipped his hand under the pillow squeezing Dbear and Milo's shaft firmly.

"Now why would i do that?. a good boy like deserves some attention right?" he said in a tone of voice you use to address a dog.

Milo tried to squirm away but it just felt so good and hot. hating himself for slowly giving in as he felt Noway's hand squeeze and rub his toy covered member.

"There we go... good boy Milo, good boy" Noway hummed as he kept kneeding Dbear and Milo's shaft. Dbear could tell something was happening as he felt so warm, the rubber was changing to flesh?, this was it. Noway was changing him back!.

He already starts thinking of how to respond then started realizing that besides the rubber turning to flesh not much else was happening.

"Aw such a nice doggy dick you got there Milo" Noway said as he let go of Dbear, seeing the veins finish growing trough his upper skin as there was no longer a toy or human cock for that matter sitting where Milo's tool should have been. instead there was a impressive piece of dog meat laying in between the mans legs. pulsing and leaking, it even seemed to have a knot.

"There there, such a good boy, who's a good boy?" Noway said as he petted over Milo's surprised and scared looking head. the petting felt so nice and relaxing. so right. after a few minutes he blushed and replied, "i.. i am?"

"Sure are, good boy Milo" Noway replied as he petted over Milo's changing ears. tugging on them a bit as their where forming into big triangular shells, brown fur growing on them as Milo could hear that his hearing was improving, the sound of various electronics in the house coming in clearer and he was sure he could hear animals outside the house nearby that he would normally would have never heard.

Milo tried to fight the urge but it all felt so right and relaxing, His friends hands stroking over his ears, something wasn't right here but he couldn't focus. watching a bit unsure as Noway's stroking hands moved down to his chest, watching as he started to barrel out and reshape, it was all painless but it did feel odd.

He wished Dbear was there to help him trough this, as Noway's hands started rubbing Milo's arms and change them into dog legs he suddenly felt a familiar presence, nerves had been linking up and he could weakly hear thoughts that where not his own.

It was difficult to describe how it felt but he knew it was Dbear, looking down learning the once toy sleeve had been his mate and now was his canine cock. Even if it was a scary thought him and Dbear both felt a strange calming feeling from knowing they would be together forever.

Noway finished up rubbing Milo`s hands into a big shepherd paws by now and gave the nervous pup a well deserved belly rubs as the changed traveled along. 2 strong hind legs replacing those human legs.

Milo couldn't help himself, even if he was a bit scared about the changed he looked down as he felt the pressure above his butt. seeing a big strong shepherd tail grow out of his rear, he had a tail! he always wanted one.

It started to wag fondly and tapping against the bed, "aw, somebody is enjoying this." Noway said as he helped Milo on his 4 paws. "Knew you 2 together would make a good dog." he said as he gave Dbear a firm squeeze.

"Well better help you out, good dogs get rewards after all" he said with a smile as he started stroking his soon to be dog firmly. making Milo yip and bark as his new voice box started forming.

"No, he had to fight this.. he wasn't a dog, he was a person." he felt the changes crawl up his face, his tongue lengthening and lolling out of his mouth as it grew into a strong wide muzzle, his nose turning wet and dark as his vision suddenly fade to a strange colour range.of yellowish brown and blue.

Dbear felt his mate change as he had linked up with him, it was strange to be part of his mate but he felt the love and deep connection they scared, feeling so good to be the one that was providing the nice feelings throughout his entire body as Noway's hand was stroking over him. making him drool his mates pre from his peehole as his knot was pulsing.

"There we go, almost there pup, good boy.such a good boy" he kept repeating as he jerked firmly, wanting to finish up the transformation. Milo somehow realizes that his fate and that of his mate would be sealed if they came but it felt so good to be a good boy. suddenly the knot was grabbed and it send both over the edge, sending thick ropes of dog seed out on the bedsheets and leaving both the heavily panting shepherd dog and the pulsing member in a state of pure bliss.

Noway smirked and held his hand out in front of Milo, watching as he sniffed at it and started licking off the dog seed. "good boy" he said as his hand got cleaned, he petted Milo on the head and left him to calm down.

Milo was still him, just having strong canine urges mixed in with his already playful personality. the shyness being washed away as he laid down on his side and starts lapping over his dirty dripping member mate, washing him lovingly feeling his mate enjoy it as he was licked into the warm sheath of the pup.

"Milo, Noodle, Dutch, Freya!" Noway shouted out the next morning, smiling as all dogs quickly came over to the hallway, taking out a couple of leashes and tying the dogs including Milo together. "Lets go home pups" he said as he tugged the leashes and walked the dogs to the cab, heading off to the airport and back to Europe.

A few weeks later Milo wasn't even worried anymore about his new life, he loved playing with Dutch, Noodle and Freya, chasing one and another or a tennis ball master had thrown for them. life was simple and good. Dbear was also used to his new life, being there for his mate when he needed mental comfort or support as well as the basic needs a dog has. Feeling safe and warm in that musky sheath of his sheppy mate.

The End
