Jean was excited as she walked down the street. Austin had found an apartment down the street from her dorm and it was her birthday. Austin and Kyle had promised a surprise for the girlott, so she was extra giddy. As she knocked on Austin's door the jackal answered wearing only a chastity cage over his sheath.

Upon entering the room she saw her surprise. Kyle, Austin, Kaya, and Fawks were all naked and wearing chastity cages. Kyle gave her a ring box. It contained a beautiful necklace, but also a small key. She took the key out of the box and flipped it over in her webbed paw.

"It can open any of our cages. We've been saving up for a few weeks now, just to fill you with a huge load each." Smiled Kyle.

Jean looked around the room at each of her prospective lovers. Setting down the key on a table, Jean stripped down to her panties, then laid down on Austin's tarp covered bed. Sliding off her panties the otter motioned for Kyle to come forward. The boyott couldn't help but notice his cage was still locked, but then realized what she wanted and buried his muzzle in between his sister's legs.

The canines stood around the bed watching and squirming. Their cocks weren't able to emerge from their sheaths with those cages on. They felt uncomfortable and got more and more turned on watching the otters. Jean let out a moan and sprayed Kyle's muzzle. His cock hurt, he couldn't get hard in his cage and his cock strained against it.

Jean relaxed on the bed for a few minutes then got up to gather the key. The males and Kaya lined up, each hoping to get their chance to finally get off. Knowing her brother must be feeling strained, she decided to save him for last. Choosing Austin, she uncaged him. His cock wasted no time emerging from his sheath.

The girlott laid down on the bed immediately followed by Austin. The jackal was very pent up and eager to leave a load in his girlfriend. Jean leaned back on the bed and spread her legs, and the boyjackal thrust his cock into her lubed up pussy with haste.

Knowing he can't knot the otter, Austin quickly thrust into her. Jean played with her clit while the jackal fucked her pussy. She knew he would be desperate to cum by now and wanted to help him out as best she could. The room filled with the scent of jackal and otter musk, causing the remaining men and Kaya to strain against their cages. Jean came around Austin's cock and the jackal yelped when her folds clenched around his cock, causing him to fill her pussy with a heavy load. A few minutes later, when he was done spurting into Jean, Austin got up and Jean looked at the remaining furs in the room.

"Kaya, you're up." Said Jean.

Jean unlocked her cage and her cock slid from her sheath. The girljackal placed her cock at Jean's cum leaking opening and slid in. Kaya loved the feeling of her brother's cum around her cock and she didn't even manage to last a minute before she spurted a thick load into Jean. The girljackal hugged on Jean as her cock throbbed in the otter's pussy and she pumped cum into it.

Twenty spurts later Kaya rolled off and Fawks rushed forward. Aiming the tip of his sheath at Jean's slit Fawks whimpered and then moaned, he shot cum from the slit at the tip of his cage all over Jean's pussy. The fennec whimpered throughout his orgasm and heavily coated Jean's slit by the time he was done. Once the cum stopped pouring from him Jean unlocked his sheath, his cock slid out and dripped before Fawks slunk away, embarrassed.

Kyle walked up and looked at his sister. Her crotch was coated with thick fennec cum and jackal semen was pouring from her pussy. Jean sat up and unlocked Kyle's cock, which quickly got hard. Kyle shoved his cock into his sister and thrust into her. Jean held him inside her, getting his lap sticky with fox cum. Kyle could feel the jackal sibling's jizz around his cock and knew that he wouldn't last very long either.

The boyott thrust into his sister and pushed out load after load of jackal spoo, causing it to pool at Jean's rump. Kyle started to feel the end coming and leaned forward. Jean felt a build up in her slit. Biting Jean's neck he started shooting cum into his sister/girlfriend's pussy. Jean felt the heat of Kyle's semen enter her and quivered as she sprayed him with girlcum. Kyle felt wave after wave of spoo flow from his cock into his sister. Jean hugged her brother/boyfriend, enjoying the warmth of the cum from her four lovers.

Five minutes later Kyle rolled off and cum poured from Jean's pussy. The boyott was sticky with cum too and dripped all over the tarp. Austin was glad he put a tarp on his new bed. The canines went off to shower, leaving Kyle and Jean to lay in their collective loads. Kyle leaned over and gave Jean a kiss before giggling.

"Like your surprise, sis?" Asked Kyle.

"Yes, it was perfect." Replied Jean.

Kyle looked at Jean for a few minutes then leaned back on the bed to ponder what could happen next. Jean, still leaking cum from her lovers, shifted over and kissed her brother on the cheek. Kyle wrapped his arm around his girlfriend and relaxed. The pair waited for their turn in the shower, enjoying the afterglow, and looking forward to the rest of the evening.
