

Kali stared out the window of her bedroom; a cozy residence within a section of the Underworld known as The Den, home of the sex demons known as the Incubus and Succubus. She exhaled a heavy sigh as she watched the other Succubi with quiet jealousy; they were so tall, so voluptuous, so sexy. They must have been overflowing with sexual energy. And as for Kali herself...

"So unfair," She muttered as she turned towards her full body mirror, frowning at her reflection. She wasn't hideous by any means, she was exceptionally appealing. Her hair was long with a beautifully vibrant blonde color and silky to the touch. Her eyes were sharp and alluring with a bright green color. Her skin was perfectly smooth with a fine creamy color. She had pointed ears, red wings and long, spade-tipped black tail like many of her sisters. Her figure was petite; she was short, her breasts were fairly small along with her hips and rear.

She was cute.

And that was the problem, she didn't want to be just cute.

She brought her hands to her very modest chest and grumbled. She wanted big full bouncy breasts like her peers! Her hands then came down to her hips with a huff. Who would desire such slimmer hips? And her ass, which she quickly gave a squeeze with both hands, wasn't much to speak of!

"Having fun?" said a rather sultry and sexy voice from behind the succubus.

Kali yelped with a jump of surprise and quickly spun around with a readiness to explain why she was practically groping herself. Unfortunately, this only amounted to her crashing face first into her roommate's massive, perfect bosom; causing her to bounce back and fall rather ungracefully onto her rear with a pained "Oof!"

Kali's roommate couldn't help but giggle at the spectacle while bringing a hand to her mouth to keep herself from laughing any harder.

Kali rubbed at her rear while angrily glancing up at her roommate, "That's not funny, Lilibell! Don't creep up on others like that! And watch those melons! You can poke an eye out!"

Like Kali (and pretty much every female formed being that lived in The Den), Lilibell was also a succubus, but unlike Kali, Lilibell had the very image that would cause her to seethe with envy. Standing toe to toe, Kali's head didn't even clear the tops of Lilibell's breasts, easily dwarfing the petite demoness. Lilibell had the curvaceous form that Kali desired; a gorgeous hourglass figure with those aforementioned, large, bouncy, jiggly breasts of perfection, those wide hips, that flawless bubble butt, thick thighs, long legs, gorgeous feet and cute toes. They were almost even in the facial department, at least Kali would have liked to think so, but Lilibell had fuller lips and sharper eyes; a fine mix of sexy and cute. To top it all off, Lilibell had dusky, cinnamon dark skin that was attractively offset by her long, bright blonde hair; and like many of the other succubi, she had pointed ears, dark wings, long spade-tipped tail and angled horns.

It so wasn't fair, Kali thought to herself as she rose to her feet.

"Let me guess," Lilibell said, those pouty lips curling to a small smirk, "Your body again, right?" She gestured toward the smaller demoness, "It's like I told you before, you won't develop a better form unless you gather more energy. Stop preying on the husks down here and get up to the upper worlds and hunt."

"I would have if the hunting grounds weren't already exhausted! All I've been left with are table scraps!" Kali shot back.

Lilibell brought a finger to her chin in thought, "Well, you have a point. The Underworld does have strict rules about which Upperworlds we're allowed in and at what times. With rules like that, there isn't exactly an endless supply of prey. Stragglers like you end up with the leftovers, and you can see where that got you," She said while pointing to Kali's chest, "You're stuck with those."

"Not funny," Kali grumbled.

Lilibell sighed and rolled her eyes, "You're no fun, you know that? But I can see how much this means to you, so..." Lilibell snapped her fingers, releasing a sudden, yet small, burst of flame between the two succubi. Left behind in the tiny blast was a piece of paper with demonic language written on it with a signature and a blood stained stamp at the bottom.

"Is this..." Kali began to ask as her green eyes went as wide as dinner plates as she looked the paper over.

“A Contract,” Lilibel interrupted, answering Kali’s question before she could finish, “I shouldn’t be doing this, but I’m good with the folks upstairs. This Contract will let you into one of the prohibited Upperworlds. The prey there are just overflowing with energy, it’s where I did a good bit of my hunting,” She licked her lips, “The lust filled humans of that world are to die for.”

Kali took the paper in her hands and looked up at the taller female, “Wait, you’ve been hunting in banned worlds?”

Lilibel gave a fanged grin while bringing her hands underneath her large, perky breasts; lifting and giving them a firm squeeze, “Are you gonna get what you want? Or are you going to lecture me?” She released them, letting them bounce and jiggle right before the smaller framed succubus. “Shut up and go have fun.”

All it took was that quick pang of jealousy and teasing for Kali to open up a portal, but not before she gave Lilibel a quick hug and a bright smile, “The next time you see me, I’ll be even bigger than you!” She challenge before she dove into the portal; the swirling gateway closing behind her.

“Hope she doesn’t get too carried away, again. That poor girl is extremely proficient at letting hard work go to waste,” Lilibel said to herself.

Lilibel wasn’t lying. This world, this planet, this city was so alive with lust and desires that Kali was almost salivating. Her ears were practically twitching to the heartbeat of the vibrant energy, she was all to eager to begin feasting, but first things first; she had to take it one step at a time.

Kali gave herself a quick look over before checking out the city nightlife for any promising victims. Making sure to magically hide her wings and tail, and shrink and morph her pointy ears to be more human-like; Kali disguised herself as a young college girl; sporting a pair of glasses and a simple outfit consisting with a simple shirt, tight jeans and some Chucks. Nothing that drew too much attention, but enough that when combined with her small figure, lovely hair and eyes and cute looks, she could lure in quite a few prospects.

Her plan had gone off without a hitch. Within a half an hour of hanging out at a fairly popular nightclub and two drinks in, Kali had been approached by a tall, handsome man. A college guy himself, sophomore; no doubt looking to get some action himself. And even if he wasn't, he couldn't resist Kali's allure. Next thing he knew, he was inviting Kali back to his dorm room. His roommate was out, it would just be the two of them alone.

It couldn't have been more perfect.

"What's wrong, boy? I thought you said you've done this before?" Kali teased with a smirk.

The two stood naked in the male's bedroom, poorly lit by the screens of a computer monitor and a muted television, ready to do the deed, but the confidence the man approached Kali with at the club seemed to have been vanished.

"N-no, I have. It's just..." He trailed off, trying to think of a reason as to why he felt so...intimidated.

Kali licked her lips in the near darkness, her eyes quickly flashing from those sparkling greens to demonic crimson and back; her target all too unaware of her predatory demeanor while he basked in his own embarrassment, "One of those guys who talk a big game? Maybe you didn't expect to get this far? Or maybe you're a virgin?" She stepped closer and leaned up on tiptoe, pressing her modest breasts into his strong, bare chest. She reached up with a soft, gentle hand to caress his cheek and turn his head towards hers, her bright green eyes gazing into his cool blues, "No one cares about that. Let's just focus on what matters: what you want, and what I want," She said while reaching down with her opposite hand to grip at her partner's already erect member, "No girl could resist after seeing this, and there's no sense in letting all of this going to waste."

The man swallowed hard; when he approached her he never expected her to be this forward and aggressive, and he was in too deep to back out now. Besides, girl like her had to be great in the sack. He smiled, and nodded his head in the direction of his bed.

"Good boy," Kali whispered before giving him a rather powerful shove that knocked him clear off his feet and onto his back upon the mattress. And before he could even mention her surprising strength, she already pounced upon him; hips already grinding against his own with a needy, throbbing member in between. "No talking. Just give me what I want, and you can get what you desire," She purred as she leaned forward and cupped his face in her hands and pressed her soft, moist lips to his with an eager, hungry kiss. Already she could taste that sweet, delicious energy that she craved from just that kiss alone. It was enough to make her incredibly hot...and incredibly wet.

No longer willing to waste anymore time, she moaned hotly into the kiss while lifting her hips and dipped a hand downward in between them to position his rock hard dick so she could lower her hips once more and slip him into her needy, damp and hot girlhood.

For her, it was business as usual; give him the best encounter of his life and take all that wonderful lust driven energy.

For him, it was indeed the best sex of his life. He couldn't believe how amazing she felt! The perfect heat, the perfect wetness, not too tight but just tight enough. The way her snatch gripped and squeezed at him in all the right ways when she pressed down. The way she rode him, the way she bucked and rocked on his dick, the way her cute breasts bounced and jiggled the whole time. Her moans, her kisses, the way she complimented him. It was all so unreal, so incredible. He wasn't even aware how frantically he was bucking his hips; his consciousness was completely lost in the throes of passion.

The whole engagement seemed to have lasted for hours, but in actuality it was less than five minutes. His body spasmed wildly upon his climax; unleashing thick, heavy loads after loads into the disguised succubus until there was nothing left. He was completely empty. It was the opening she wanted. She wasn't just taking in her seed, she was rapidly absorbing his energy along with it. Already she could feel it coursing through her body, a sensation far more enjoyable than these (still very enjoyable!) mortal pleasures. From the tips of her ears down to her very toes, she felt it. It tingled, it tickled, it squeezed and caressed at her, oh how she missed this feeling as much as she desired it!

"More," She whispered. She glanced down at her prey. Her screen lit face was glistening with sweat, her hair was disheveled. Her green eyes flickered to their natural red, her ears started to point, her wings and tail revealed themselves. "Give me more."

"Wait...w...what?" The man slowly recovered from his stupor and looked to the girl on top of him. His eyes drifted to her open wings...that tail swishing behind her...those glowing red eyes. Was this the same girl he brought home?!

He panicked. He tried to squirm and fight out from underneath her, he tried to push her off and make a break for it.

He wanted to.

He tried.

But he couldn't. Whether he was paralyzed some how, too tired to move, or just completely drawn in by her. He didn't escape.

"What are you?" He squeaked out.

Kali giggled. Her smooth fingers drifted over his chest and she grinned, "I'm the best thing to happen to you, and you have an important purpose to serve to me," She giggled while rocking back and forth slowly, still having his hardened member trapped among her folds. She squeezed, eliciting a pained and enjoyable moan from him, "Now give me the rest of it."

He cried out when she squeezed again; his cock was aching and as tired as he was, but still full mast within her, "Th-theres nothing left! Give me a half an hour at least, I need some—ugh!"

It was then he felt it. A sharp pulling at his very form. His vision in the dim lighting began to blur. He felt something leaving him, but couldn't figure out what. What he did notice however, was everything looking quite different as the seconds passed. The ceiling of his room seemed to expand and rise higher and higher. The walls seemed to slide further and further away. His bed seemed to just stretch out on all sides. And Kali...Kali was getting bigger?!

"Oh my god am I high?! Did you drug me?!" He cried out, attempting to escape this time, but was met with a sharp pain as he felt the girl's weight rapidly increasing on him. She was literally growing in size on top of him!

No wait...he was shrinking!

“Oh my, I think I over did it,” Kali remarked with a giggle. Her eyes focused on the diminishing male, now too small for her to keep any sort of grip on his cock. She watched him shrink further and further until he was a few inches in size, sprawled out helplessly between her thighs. “Looks like that’s all I’m gonna get out of you. Now the real question is, what do do with you?” Kali mused as she stretched her legs out on the bed on both sides of him, leaving him with very little hope of escape, not that he had much strength left in his body to do so.

The freshly shrunken male could hardly believe what was already happening let alone thinking about what she was going to do next. Fleeing was certainly out of the question. There’s no way he’s be able to run the length of her legs and get around her feet and she wouldn’t just simply let him climb over her thighs. And in front of him was...

“There?” Kali asked as she traced his tiny gaze to her sex. A sharp grin came across her face, “Even in this situation you’re still thinking about that? Humans are so simple. But on the other hand, I didn’t come yet, but you can’t hope to pleasure me at that size...or can you?”

A teasing question. It didn’t matter if he could or he couldn’t, Kali was going to force him anyway. She knew it and he knew it. He was already drawn in, just like before, but multiplied ten fold. It was a mysterious allure previously, now it was borderline hypnotic; the fact she was now so many times bigger than him brought about a greater impact. Her scent, her heat, her overwhelming presence; even if he had an inkling of resistance in him, he couldn’t summon it. Like a Siren to a sailor, he subconsciously moved closer towards her and pressed himself into her glistening wet sex with a warm moan. All the fatigue he once had seemed to fade as he found himself rubbing his tiny hands and kissing wherever he could; the mountainous form of the giantess shaking around him.

Lowering two fingers behind her freshly shrunken plaything, she promptly gave him a helping, forceful push into her needy depths, “Ohh!” She cried out, already feeling the tiny male squirming and wriggling around within her. Her creamy cheeks quickly became flush with a bright red as she bit down on her lower lip to stifle any deafening moans. “God damn,” She said with a shaking whisper, gripping tightly at the bedsheets while her tail swished wildly behind her. She hadn’t felt these pleasures in so long, it was incredible.

“You’ve been holding out...you still had plenty left. Good boy...give me the rest of it...OH!” She curled her toes tightly as she pressed her inner walls down on his tiny form in climax; squeezing him tightly with a firmly grip. However, he wasn’t being crushed he was being absorbed into her as she took the last of all the energy her prey has to offer, absorbing him into her very being. She squeezed, she pressed, she crushed him over and over, one orgasm after another until she got every bit of energy, until there was nothing left.

“Oh my my my,” She moaned, flopping forward face first and raising her hips slightly to idly play with herself using her tail, “I’m going to have to take five after that one. To think that was only one human, gosh Lilibel, you struck gold with this place.”

Kali slowly awoke roughly an hour later, sitting up in her recent sexually devoured prey’s bed. She gave a cute yawn while she stretched her arms and legs, quite relaxed from that little nap. She figured it was time to get moving; there was no doubt someone would come looking for him. There was no need for any unnecessary attention, she only needed to consume enough to get the body she wanted.

But first, there was one thing she needed to see.

Flicking the lights on with the tip of her tail, she sauntered over to the full body mirror in the corner of the room; a pleased grin creeping onto her face as she quickly noticed the changes in her figure. All it took was one sexually charged human and already she was a few inches taller, her legs were longer, her hips were wide, and of course her butt and breasts were larger. She ran her hands along her body, making sure to give her rear and her bust firm squeezes with a giggle; at this rate, she could have her ideal body after just a few more victims.

Just the sheer thought of being so close to her goal so easily was enough to get her riled up again, but she kept her focus, knowing that it's best to save that for her next victim. She changed back into her disguise, though now with tighter clothing and moved to exit the apartment, but the moment she started to head for the door, she realized it was already open. Already through it was a taller and more athletic version of the man she was just with, just as handsome, but had a fairly confident aura that made him all the more attractive.

The two stared at each other for a moment. Kali being rather captivated by his looks and most importantly; the amount of energy he could possess. Whereas he was more puzzled about this woman being in his home away from home.

"Are you a friend of Dan?" He asked, breaking the odd silence.

"Dan?" Kali asked, before her bright green eyes went wide. Oh right! The guy she just devoured with her pussy. "Oh. Oh yeah! We actually just met at the club and after a few drinks and some talking...well you know."

"No kidding? I didn't think my brother had it in him, especially since you don't look like his type."

Kali poked her index fingers together with a shy smile, "Oh he's was...er...is your brother huh? Well that explains why you both look alike, although I have to admit you're more attractive. You the older brother?"

"Younger actually."

Kali eyed him up and down with a grin, "No kidding. So what did you mean by his type, uhh...?" She asked while fishing for his name.

"David," He replied, "And well, he likes...shorter...more petite looking girls."

Kali grinned. These humans are so easy, all you needed to do was appeal their desires and they were instantly in your hands. "I'm Kal...err Kelly! So what about you?"

"Hm?"

“Huh?” David quickly looked Kali and brought his hands up in protest, “Oh no, no. I have a girlfriend.”

“That’s not what I asked,” She purred, pressing up against him, her new found chest squishing into his own. Her green eyes flickered red as she stared up into his own with a wide grin, “I asked what kind of girls are you into. Tall? Short? Busty? Booty for days? Blonde, brunette, redhead?” She grinned widely, pressing even close with each question.

“I, um...uh...err, hey!” She caused him to stumble backwards, falling over of the arm of the couch onto his back upon the cushions. “Look! I said I have a girlfriend! I’m not interested! She’ll be here soon! You should leave!”

“Maybe I should, but that’s not what you want, is it?” She was already upon him, gripping playfully at his bulging crotch and undoing his pants, “Let’s see...oh it’s my lips isn’t it?” She giggled as she licked them slowly and pursed them, blowing him a kiss, “I bet she sucks a mean cock’, is what’s going through your head?”

“N-no! I...” He trailed off as he watched her pull his pants and boxers down, revealing a very needy erection. Despite all his protests, he never once made a move to struggle or escape from her. He wasn’t exactly sure what came over him, but he was subconsciously very eager for her to have her way with him.

“Uh huh,” She giggled, curling her soft, slender fingers around his girth with a devious grin and gave is a firm squeeze, “Don’t worry about that girlfriend of yours, I bet I can have you finished before she shows up,” She said while leaning in over his member, opening wide and taking his throbbing manhood into her mouth. She immediately showcased her fellatio expertise, as expected of a demoness of lust, bobbing her head in a steady motion as she effortlessly took him from tip down to the base of his dick and back up again; complete with loud slurping, suckling and kissing noises.

David’s groans of pleasure echoed throughout the apartment. No one has ever given it to him this good. Her lips were so soft and plush against his cock, and the things she was doing with her tongue, oof! During that moment, he had forgotten he had a woman he cared about, in fact he lost sight of everything in the moment. The only thing invading his mind was the woman doing incredible things to his body. His vision began to blur and become hazy, the world around him seemed to spin, stretch and enlarge around him. He came; offering load after load of his seed into Kali's hungry gullet.

Kali, of course, hardly minded, as along with the warm sticky stuff came that wonderful energy she so desired. She had to hold back the urge to giggle; amused by the fact she could feel his dick shrinking between her lips as he diminished in size. She watched closely with mischievous eyes as he steadily shrank; his shirt going from a loose fit to a full on blanket. If not for the fact she was holding him between her lips, he would have been lost within her own clothing.

Kali slowly lifted her head with her prey's lower body held snugly between her warm, soft lips; her tongue playfully sliding about his legs, groin and backside while her lips squeezed and suckled happily as if he were some sort of sweet, candy treat. The poor thing was in a blissful stupor, unable to recognize his predicament at the slightest. Kali could only giggle; to think her powers as grown this much to rob someone of their sensibility this easily.

Satisfied, Kali slurped the tiny human into her wet mouth, slowly tilting her head back as she felt him slide along her slick tongue and down into the depths of her throat. She brought her dainty fingers to her throat as she swallowed; gulping hard and feeling the bulge in her neck drift downwards as David fell into the pits of her stomach.

"Goodness me," She licked her lips and gave her stomach a playful pat, "Your younger brother put up much more of a fight, but you had much more delicious energy, mmm."

"Oh my god..." said a horrified voice from behind Kali. Standing in the apartment doorway was a fairly tall, dark haired woman with a fairly nice build, but nothing that Kali found too impressive. What the succubus did notice however, was how full and soft her lips looked, which brought an amused smile to her face. Her recent prey certainly liked full lips indeed.

Kali's ears perked to the voice, and she glanced over her shoulder with a devious grin, "Oh my, and how long have you been there?" Kali asked sweetly, more than eager to deal with this witness in her own manner, "Perhaps you want to join your boyfriend, hmm?"

Before the woman could say anything, Kali was already upon her, shutting the door and pinning her against it. There was no stopping this succubus' hunger.

It had only taken a few days, but Kali's feeding frenzy quickly gathered attention. She had long acquired the body she desired; the height, the massive tits, the wide hips, the huge butt, she had it all. But she was far too addicted to feeding and the euphoria that came with stealing energy. The more she fed, the more reckless and careless she became. She started leaving evidence behind, there were witnesses to her actions, she was moving in patterns, her presence was becoming known. Whether it was on purpose or not was left to be determined, but the fact of the matter was that authorities were clued in on the situation at hand. They weren't quite sure how to handle a supernatural creature capable of shrinking others through sex and doing away with them, but Kali seemed human enough to be dealt with in conventional matters.

They tracked her down to one end of the city; a seedier part of town known for its Gentlemen Clubs and prostitution. An ideal feeding spot for the succubus, really. Reports stated she was last seen traveling with a small group of people towards an apartment, and there was no doubt she would be the only one leaving from there.

After mobilizing the large police squad around the building to prevent any escape, they waited until the wee hours of the morning; when Kali finally made her appearance exiting the building, wearing nothing but some skimpy panties and an extremely snug halter top.

"Oh my," Kali remarked upon seeing the dozens of police vehicles and the countless police at the ready, weapons pointed at her, "So many playthings and only one of me," She licked her lips, nearly salivating at the buffet laid out before her.

"Alright, you monster! You're under arrest for the disappearance of civilians and suspicion of murder. Come along quietly or we will use lethal force!" yelled one of the leading officers, gun pointed right at her.

"Oh goodness, you're so demanding and focused on what you want, you're one of those kinds of people, aren't you?" She moaned teasingly with a warm giggle, "But it's no fun without a little struggle now is it?" Kali's green eyes flickered red and her tail and wings made their appearance once more, "How about we make this more interesting?"

It was time. The time had come for Kali to put all that stored up energy to work. She could have used it to blast away the police, she could have used it to make a quick escape to The Underworld, but she thought it would be a waste. There were still numerous tasty morsels in the cities, all filled with that addictive energy. She wanted to feed until there was nothing left. Having been pushed to this point, she used that energy on herself. All that stored lust was released within her, causing her body to grow at a rapid pace; her clothes quickly ripping and snapping right off of her, exposing all of her glory to every on-looker. She brought her hands to her breasts and squeezed them, arching her back and groaning loudly as her body swelled in size, "Mmm! You can't imagine how this all feels!" She cried out as her body quaked with those pleasuring sensations.

As her body stretched towards the heavens, she could only look down below in amusement. That possibility intimidating crowd of police was quickly looking smaller and smaller by the second; from normal sized beings to large dolls, to small toy figures to simple insects that could be overwhelmed by her toes alone. "What's the hold up? Where's that so called lethal force you were going to use?" She teased, her airy voice echoing throughout the skies. She flashed an amused grin as she leaned back, plopping her shapely rear upon the very apartment building she stepped out of; the structure groaning and quivering under the sudden weight. There was no doubt that its remaining occupants were thrown out of their beds and seats as their entire homes were jostled.

"Well?" She asked impatiently after a few moments, crossing one leg over the other; her raised foot lazily flicking bits of gravel into the crowd. "Don't tell me you all can't bring yourselves to harm little ol me!" She taunted once again.

She knew it was a moot point for them the whole time; there were completely captivated by her. She was able to lure in a person just by looking at them. Now her presence was so grand they were simply lost in a lustful stupor. Though their guns were ready, they couldn't fire, they would never fire. They didn't want to harm her, they wanted her to take them.

"Oh humans, such silly little things. You made me use all that energy in self defense and now you can't even be true to your word. I guess you'll just have to be good little boys and girls and pay me back, now won't you?" She smiled as she leaned forward in her seat, the building shuddering with her slight movement. She flicked her tail back and forth lazily as the ends of that prehensile appendage started to morph; bulking, thickening and forming an open mouth, looking like something akin to some sort of monstrous worm. "All you have to do is, give me your energy!"

Without much warning, her mouthed tail lunged right into the bulk of the crowd; worming through and snatching dozens of officers up into its hungry maw and promptly swallowing them with a loud gulp. This allowed those remaining to snap out of their stupor and quickly realized the danger of the situation and responded appropriately; by running for their lives.

"Ohhhh gods that's the stuff! That feels SO good, mmph!" Kali moaned to herself as she quickly felt all that energy flowing into her, exciting her even further, "If you could only understand how AMAZING this feels!" She cried out, curling her toes tightly as she gave her breasts a firm squeeze; the building she sat upon rocking, swaying and shaking with her movements, "This beats sex by miles!"

Kali gripped herself tighter and rose to her feet as she felt another strong, arousing rush of energy. She started to grow again, expanding and surging to far greater heights than she did before. Those structures that were taller or of equal size quickly became knee height, her prey were like grains of rice at her feet, even her pinky toe was more than enough to overwhelm a person. She was huge, she was excited, and she was incredibly horny. So horny infact, that she took on a new appendage. Her clit began to stretch and swell, expanding and bulging to a thick phallus shape until it became a fully functioning penis; thick, hefty, massive, and throbbing with Kali's excitement.

"Now would you look at that!" Kali chirped, "There's so much energy I have to find new places to put it! And since you've all have been just so kind in helping me, I think it's only fair that I share."

Kali moved to reposition herself; her now larger-than-life feet easily tearing through the city. Her toes effortlessly bulldozed numerous sturdy structures and tens of hundreds fleeing citizens fell to the careless weight of the mighty titaness' soft, warm, yet all encompassing soles; buried deep into a massive footprint. That hefty meat was no slouch either; swinging back and forth like a pendulum between her legs as she walked across town, smashing through buildings like a wrecking ball; the mighty structures blown to bits by that impressive cock

“Now this should do nicely,” said Kali as she arrived to the more busy, downtown section of town. Once again caring for anything around her, she dropped down to her knees; effortlessly crushing all underneath her as she got settled. She lifted girthy, heavy member with both hands and promptly dropped it down, letting it land and obliterate everything underneath it with a meteoric thump. The might impact sent blasts of gale force, sex scented winds flying in every direction as earthquakes rattled the occupied downtown area.

“Awesome, isn’t it?” Kali giggled, twisting her hips left and right; sweeping her massive member, bulldozing anything that was in its and leaving a fan shaped patch of ruin right there in the city. “I knew you guys would like it! But that was only foreplay,” Kali said with a sly grin. She gripped her newfound member tightly and moaned, “Mmm, now give me more of what I crave!”

None could have been prepared for what came next. The tip of Kali’s dick suddenly began to draw in massive amounts of air with a great vacuum force. Targeted only for their energy, hundreds were plucked up from the hurricane-like winds, drawing them into the hungry tip of the giantess’ cock.

“Oh!”

Kali’s body shivered with unbelievable pleasure, every single human that was drawn into her cock gave her that same rush of energy that seemed to thrill her no matter what size the victim was. But at that rapid pace, she couldn’t contain that energy fast enough, and did the only thing she could do; grow even larger. She shut her eyes and tilted her head backwards, letting those intense feelings of lust take her. Her body rapidly swelled larger, rising from hundreds of feet to thousands and climbing still. She couldn’t feel the humans anymore, they were now like grains of sand, perhaps even smaller, and getting smaller still. But their energy was there. That, she could always feel, and the bigger she got, the more she felt. Their energy pulsed like a heartbeat all around the planet, she could feel it on her skin, she could taste it on her tongue, she could hear it pounding in her ears.

Bigger, larger, and bigger still. All that lustful energy made her an unstoppable growing machine filled with power and arousal. Her dick started to harden and rise, dribbling out a single drop of precum that served to totally annihilate the entire heart of the city and flooded it with the titaness' juices.

From thousands of feet to miles tall, she effortlessly loomed over the entirety of the city. She bent down forward on all fours and pressed herself close to the ground while laying her sky piercing cock across the entire length of the cityscape; pressing everything in its path into a forced multi-mile half pipe of dirt, all shaped to fit the curve of her deity worthy dick.

"More," She murmured, her still growing body unable to be satisfied.

Now big enough to invade more than one city at the same time, she quickly made the most of it. Using her monstrous tail, she promptly snacked on the city that lay beyond her toes; that demonic mouth of a tailtip swallowing the sky over the neighboring town no bigger than a dinner plate as it descended, devouring the entirety of the city in one bite.

The town in front of her served no better.

In Kali's eyes, the 'big city' was nothing more than a small gray patch on the ground. She could crush it entirely with just one hand, she could carve in deep canyons with just her finger, she could blow it all away with just her breath, but that would be a waste of resources. She couldn't see them, but she knew they were down there; over a million humans, each of them ripe with the energy she craved.

She leaned in closer and slowly parted her lips. Her warm breath filled the air as she rolled out her glistening, wet pink tongue and press it down upon the edge of the city. She then dragged it forward, that pink muscle like a rolling tsunami, across the entire town; lapping up everything in its path, which happened to be everything. The humans, their homes, their workplaces, everywhere they thought to hide was now slurped up by that world ending tongue. Kali drew in her tongue with a warm giggle; amused by the fact an entire city could feel like nothing but bits of sugar decorating her tongue.

She promptly swallowed, and upon feeling that energy once again. She grew even more.

Grow. Consume. Grow. Consume. Kali's tongue, tail, and cock would devour city after city, state after state, country after country; more and more and more, a never ending cycle to feed Kali's insatiable addiction.

That is, until there was nothing left.

"I can't believe I did it again, ugh, Lilibell is gonna kill me! She told me not to get carried away and now look!" Kali whined as she hovered in front of the planet that was now the size of a marble in comparison to her, "I only wanted to change my looks, not ruin a whole planet," Kali pouted, "It was her fault for showing me such a tasty world, now I have start from scratch."

With a sigh of frustration, Kali drew forth the Contract that was gifted to her. She gave one final look to her new body and proceeded to give up everything she had collected to refresh the Contract, opening a portal to a new world.

She appeared in another city, bustling with life, with the same petite body she started out with.

She didn't mind too much; maybe this time she won't consume so much of the world.
