

Danielle, a 17-year-old girl wearing green shirt and blue jeans, was walking on the streets looking for some E-crystals that people may have dropped on the ground. She needed money to get out of poverty and become rich. She was in poverty because Aeolus killed her father 5 years ago and now, she and her sister, Kylie, were in care of their poor grandparents who owned a farm. Danielle found an E-crystal on a ground and was about to pick it up, but another person, a man, got to it first and put it in his pocket. Danielle frowned and sighed when she didn't get the money she wanted. Her biometal, Model D (Dynamo) hovered out of her pocket and tried to cheer her up, "Hey Danielle, don't worry! There's still lots of E-crystals out there waiting to be picked up."

Danielle was always trying to be rich, but somehow each and every attempt failed. Danielle still didn't feel happy and replied, "Yeah, waiting to be picked up by other people and not me."

Model D said, "Really? But what if the next time you came across another E-crystal, the only person who gets to pick it up is you, do you want to pass this chance?"

The long black-haired girl thought about this and replied, "Well I guess we could keep searching. Come on, let's keep looking."

Vent, a member of the Guardians and the new owner of Giro Express, was delivering a package to Danielle's friend, Kayla, a 15-year-old female brunette wearing eyeglasses, a purple shirt, and white shorts. Kayla took the package that contained the Lucky Star DVDs and said, "Thank you, Vent! I really wanted these DVDs. Lucky Star's my favorite anime, you know."

Vent smiled and replied, "You're welcome, Kayla; I hope you enjoy your favorite show!" Vent went back to his blue motorcycle and was about to drive back to Giro Express, until Danielle & Model D came along and saw him.

Danielle said, "Hi Vent!"

Her biometal greeted, "Yo, what's up?"

Vent turned to see who was talking to him and got startled when he saw Danielle & her biometal, Model D. The black-haired girl smiled mischievously and asked, "So Vent, did you and Aile get married yet?"

Vent was taken aback by Danielle's question; he backed away to a nearby telephone pole and asked, "Wait! What? Are you a stalker!?" Why was she asking this question? Were these two trying to uncover his secret crush on Aile? Vent has always had a crush on Aile since Giro, the deceased previous owner of Giro Express, had taken them in after their parents' deaths.

Danielle and Model D both giggled and said, "Maybe. So tell us, are you and Aile lovers?"

Vent tried to answer, “Ummmm well.....” But he didn’t want these two teasing him for it so he said, “That’s none of your business.”

Model D said sarcastically, “Oh sure it’s not.”

Aile walked across the street and spotted her favorite crush, Vent, talking to Danielle & Model D. Aile giggled as she thought of surprising her boyfriend, while he wasn’t looking. Aile stalked quickly behind Vent and when she got closer, she glomped on him and shouted excitedly, “Vent-kun!” The long-haired brunette man blushed deep red when Aile gave him a warm tight hug.

Danielle pointed at Vent and shouted, “Hah! I see you blushing! That means you and Aile are lovers!”

The black-haired girl had once again hit Vent’s nerve. He tried to deny it, “W-wha?! I’m not blushing, you’re just crazy.”

Aile turned Vent’s head towards her face and say, “Vent-kun! Kissu!”

Vent didn’t know what she meant and asked, “Huh!?” Then he finally realized what Aile meant when she kissed him on the lips. After the kiss, Vent began to blush a deeper reddish color and started to feel all dizzy and warm inside.

Kayla, who was watching all of this the whole time, got out her digital camera took a picture of Aile kissing Vent. Danielle jumped up in joy and shouted, “Woohoo!” Then she asked Aile, “So Aile, are you and Vent married yet?”

Aile giggled cheerfully and answered, “No, we aren’t yet. But one day we will get married.”

Kayla looked at the picture she took and said, “Oh my god! I’m so gonna make copies of this picture!” She went back inside her house and started to make lot of copies of the photo. Then she came back outside with the copies.

Danielle asked, “Kayla, can I have a copy, please?”

Kayla nodded her head and replied, “Like sure.” She gave the copy to her friend.

Danielle, who wanted to get the brunette couple in blue together, said, “Oh and let’s give Vent and Aile a wedding right now!”

Vent jumped up in surprise and asked, “Wait, what!?”

Aile, who was excited about marrying her boyfriend, asked, “Really!?”

Kayla was excited about the wedding, she jumped in the air and shouted, "Oh my god, yay!"

That night, Danielle went back to her grandparents' house and started to send invitations to her friends by e-mail. "Oh boy, oh boy, oh boy! I can't wait for next week, when Aile and Vent get married! It's going to be the happiest day of my life!"

Kylie, a black-haired 10-year-old girl wearing an orange tank top and green shorts, has been waiting for 30 minutes to get on the computer and watch animal videos on YouTube. The younger sister asked, "Are you done yet? I want to get on the computer like really bad."

The older sister wasn't done with the computer and said, "Hang on, Kylie. I'll be done as soon as I send the wedding invitations to Grey, Ashe, Sugar, Spice, and Star." Sugar, Spice, & Star, were Vent & Aile's newest friends. They met when the three were trying to avoid a Gargoyle pseudoroid who wanted revenge on them.

Kylie's biometal, Model I (Iris) appeared and asked, "Danielle, why are you going to the wedding, I thought you didn't like weddings."

Danielle usually didn't like certain events such weddings, funerals, and awards ceremonies, because they involved wearing formal clothes and were a waste of time unless it involves receiving money at the end. But since it was her friends' & favorite couple's marriage, the older sister would definitely attend the wedding. Danielle replied as send an email to Grey & Ashe, "Yeah, normally I don't like this stuff, but if it involves my friends or money, then I'll go. Hey Kylie, are you coming? Our grandparents are going, but you don't have to come if you don't want to."

Kylie didn't really feel like going but she didn't like to stay at home alone and she didn't want her greedy sister to waste time picking up someone else's dropped money, so she answered, "I'll come to the wedding."

Danielle nodded and said, "Good, it's really nice to have my little sister around, right?"

Kylie shrugged her shoulders and answered, "I guess."

Once the older sister was done sending the e-mail to Spice, Sugar, and Star, she logged off of the computer and said, "There, now I'm done. You're free to use the computer if you want, sis."

The younger sister finally got what she was waiting for, "Yes!" she cried excitedly as she got on the computer and watched YouTube videos. Danielle took off her casual clothes and put on here lilac pajamas. Then she went to bed and started having a good night's sleep. Tomorrow, she would bring her friends with her to buy things for the wedding.

Meanwhile at the Guardian Base, Vent was thinking a lot about next week's wedding. He was really excited about getting married to Aile, but he was really nervous about that too. Model X seemed to read Vent's mind and said, "Vent, don't worry about it. Everything's going to be fine. Marriages may have some ups and downs, but I know that you and Aile will pull through."

Vent sighed and asked, "I don't know, Model X. What if I turn out to be a bad husband? What if I'm not right for her?" He loved Aile and wanted to marry her, but he didn't want to hurt her feelings.

The blue biometal wanted both of his biomatches to be happy and said, "Don't worry about it now. The answers will come to you later in the future and I think Aile will always love you no matter what happens."

Vent was feeling sleepy now and yawned, "Well I hope you're right. Good night, Model X."

The biometal watched long-haired brunette went to bed and sleep and whispered, "Sleep tight, Vent."

Aile was in her room feeling excited about next week's wedding. She giggled cheerfully and said to Model Z, "This is so exciting, Model Z! Next week, I'm going to get married to Vent! Once we the wedding's over, Vent and I can go on a honeymoon to Hawaii! We're going to have a fun vacation, just the two of us!" Aile dreamed all the good stuff to do together with Vent like watch a movie at a theater, make-out in the car outside the city at midnight, and making love.

Model Z watched Aile daydream and said, "You must be really happy about getting married to Vent."

The ponytailed brunette nodded and replied "I'm sure am! I'm looking forward to getting together with him! We're going to be a happy married couple!" Then Aile saw her clock saying 11:21 pm and said, "Oh look at the time, I better get to bed. Good night, Model Z!" She changed into her light blue nighties and went to bed.

The red biometal whispered, "Good night, Aile."

A week later on the day of Vent & Aile's wedding, everyone that Danielle invited showed up and took their seats to watch the couple get married. Grey is the best man, Ashe is the maid of honor, Kayla is the flower girl, and Danielle is the proud celebrant. The wedding theme music started playing and the audience watched Vent and Aile walk past them. Vent was in a black tuxedo and Aile was wearing a white wedding dress. When they got to where Danielle was, the celebrant started to perform the marriage ceremony. (I don't even know the words, so let's just skip.) Finally, Danielle smiled excitedly and asked, "Vent, do you take this lovely lady to be your wife in holy matrimony?" She was hoping for the long-haired megaman to say 'yes'.

Kayla, who was crying joyfully, wiped her tears with her tissue and said, "Everything is happening so fast." The audience watched and listened carefully.

Feeling nervous with too attention to him, Vent blushed crimson red in embarrassment and thought, 'How did this happen?'

Seeing Vent all silent with nervousness, Aile answered for him, "He does."

Danielle was glad to hear that, then she asked, "And Aile, do take this handsome man to be your husband?"

Aile smiled cheerfully and answered, "Of course I do!"

Now that she got two yeses, Danielle ended the ceremony with the words, "Then I pronounce you, husband & wife! Congratulations you two, now why don't off on a honeymoon and make a kid or two."

The audience clapped their hands and cheered loudly. The extremely happy Kayla shouted, "Woohoo!"

Danielle said to herself, "When Grey & Ashe gets older, I'm going to make them get married!" She looked at her other favorite couple, Grey & Ashe. Grey was feeling nervous like Vent when she mentioned a future wedding for them. Danielle turned her attention back to the exiting couple and said, "But for now, Kayla and I will follow Vent & Aile in secret." The black girl went to Kayla and whispered, "Kayla, we're going to hide in Vent and Aile's car, want to come?"

Kayla nodded and answered, "Sure, this sounds fun! I want to see what they're going to do next."

The two girls got to the back seat of the car just as Aile was about to start the car. Kayla whispered in success, "Yes!"

Danielle whispered back, "Boy, I can't wait to see what they'll do on their honeymoon! Maybe they'll go to the movies, the beach, or the ice cream shop?" The megagirl started to drool at the thought of eating ice cream.

Kayla whispered back, "I'm surprised they didn't notice us."

Danielle replied, "They didn't, because we got in without making a sound." Then the car stopped and Danielle looked through the window to see where the couple have gone to. She whispered, "Look Kayla, we're at the cinema."

Model D heard what his biomatch had said out loud, "The movies, huh? Well then, let's go sneak in and see what'll watch!"

Danielle was scared when her biometal talked loud enough for the couple to hear and whispered angrily, "Model D, be quiet! Do you want Vent and Aile to hear us!?"

Kayla saw someone looking at them, "Um guys... I think they saw us."

Danielle asked, "They did?" She searched around until she saw the megaman couple looking at them menacingly.

Vent said, "Hello."

The girls were frightened and Kayla said, "Awww crap!"

Danielle tried to make a lie, but due to her being scared it had a hint of fibbing, "Oh.. uh... Hi guys. Kayla and I were uh just taking a nap in some random car. We didn't know it was your car."

Kayla lied with her, "Yeah, what she said!" But that wasn't a good one either.

Model D saw Vent walking to the back seat's door and said to the girls, "Uh ladies... I don't think they're going to fall for that one."

Vent opened the door and threw the two girls and a biometal out the car and said, "Next time, ask before you get in Aile's car."

His wife said, "I don't like stowaways hitching a ride without me knowing."

The girls apologized, "We're sorry."

The husband said sternly, "Good, don't do that again. You hear me?"

The couple walked away to the movies and left the girls sitting on the parking lot. Danielle asked, "Great, now what do we do?"

Kayla answered, "Well, I guess we could watch a movie or something."

Danielle liked the idea and said, "Okay, let's go!" The two girls went to watch the newest movie that had recently come out in theaters.
