

Remy awoke to the lusty beauty of his cock laying before him, the Munchlax's member much thicker than normal. As much as the horny Pokemon enjoyed morning wood, today was an exception - the whole week had been an exception.

It was mating season in the region, as Remy's body knew. Remy's go-to mate, Amelia the Mawile, had decided to challenge Remy by making him find his own mate. The issue? Remy had vored, cock vored, anal vored, and done every senseless thing to the Pokemon in the forest surrounding his home. As would be expected, none of the inhabitants of the local forest wanted anything to do with Remy. Contrary to some species like humans, his body would not accept an unwilling mate. Thus, Remy had to travel elsewhere to find a mate. By the time he had gotten to any place where he was not known, however, a week had gone by and finding a female Pokemon who had no mate was proving difficult.

This was to be expected if he had to go to such extents to find a mate for himself, of course, but Remy had a small issue that he knew would make matters even worse. Male Pokemon had a little genetic trait that helped them find a mate - during the mating season, their penises and testicles would start to swell up. The idea was to look more attractive to female Pokemon, but the issue in Remy's case was that he had a bit of a genetic disorder - If he failed to find a mate, his cock'n'balls would swell and swell, grow and grow and grow, expanding without end until the mating season was over. Remy couldn't help but relish the thought of such delicious expansion of his truly awesome malehood, but being stuck like that for three months or more wasn't exactly something he necessarily cared for. A fun three months it would be, but there was such a thing as too much of a good thing. Even for a horny, sexy Pokemon like Remington.

Remy gathered his strength and stood up, his erection bobbing in front of him. There was no need to fap this one out - his member would persist in its hardon until Remy pounded some pussy. The best thing to do, Remy decided, was to start walking and hope the combination of the enticing bouncing of his member and his strong, masculine musk would attract some females his way. Just for fun, Remy used his hand to get a general sense of how long his boner was. It was about three paw-lengths long, a whole foot to be accurate. The Munchlax couldn't help but smile with pride, and he blushed when he realized that this was only the first week of mating season. His member was nowhere near done.

The Munchlax began his hike, marching forward with his member in the lead. Every now and again he stopped to stroke himself, hoping some females would be attracted to a bit of a show. None showed up. He continued, reaching the base of a mountain and beginning to climb the rough terrain. Finally he came across some female Pokemon, but as it would turn out all of them were mated already and were only attracted to Remy for the opportunity to suck such an enormous dick. Busy as he was, Remy couldn't turn down their offers. He was such a horny little Munchlax.

The first Pokemon was a Crobat. Her mouth, much bigger than the little Munchlax's, proved large enough to take the whole head of his massive shaft. Remy found himself drooling lustfully as the Crobat's tongue slipped all around the head. The bat Pokemon even went so far as to brave the orgasm, sealing its fangs into Remy's cockhead and swallowing the whole load, even though it bloated her up like a balloon. She couldn't fly for now, but she was very pleased. Sadly, though, a male Crobat came down and stopped Remy before he could claim her pussy, explaining that she was his mate and that she only wanted a taste of Remy's hugeness.

Two more Pokemon gave Remy a visit in the midsts of his trek. One was a female Ursaring who no doubt would have been able to take Remy's hugeness. She ended up being quite the dominate Pokemon, pinning Remy to a tree and stroking his member harshly. Remy's seed boiled within his balls, his member pulsing red and throbbing hard. His member exploded with seed that flew several feet into the air before raining down on the two of them, the results of which greatly pleased the female Ursaring. Sadly though, she had no interest in Remy and left immediately, leaving Remy lying on the ground panting through his afterglow.

The other Pokemon was a big surprise to Remy, a male Venusaur. It's massive member, five feet in total, dragged behind him in a huge, throbbing glory. His balls were quite the show, eight feet wide and clearly stuffed to the brim with plant seed. Remy was still in the midsts of his afterglow, so there was no escaping from him. The Venusaur pinned Remy and, without any hesitation or lenience, rammed his massive dick into Remy's asshole. The Munchlax yelled in pain when his ass was forced to spread so wide so suddenly, but after that initial thrust he found himself enjoying his treatment. The Venusaur slammed his huge malehood deep into the Munchlax, denting his belly quite impressively. His orgasm was just as impressive, perhaps twice the volume of his balls unloading into Remy. Even as the Venusaur came, he felt his thick member throb against his rear, as if it was even bigger than before. Satisfied, the Venusaur pulled out of his victim and walked off, equally uninterested in mating the now unconscious Munchlax.

Remy awoke about ten minutes later and looked at himself. After those three episodes of pleasurable bouts of orgasm, Remy found that his member was twice as long as earlier, a whole two feet. The thickness of the pillar of flesh had increased as well, enough to undoubtedly satisfy a Rhyperior. His balls too, he just noticed, also had grown to match his huge maleness. Remy guessed that they were each eight inches in size, a very nice match for his cock. The Munchlax gave them a poke and felt a thick mixture slosh within - even though he had came three times within the past two hours, his balls were full of Munchlax semen that demanded to be blasted into some female. Those rubs of his seemed to spur his member into an awakened state of arousal. His member leaked a prestigious amount of precum, flowing out of his cocktip like a loose faucet. Remy gave his sensitive member a few rubs and sighed blissfully. It was bothersome but he loved his thickness so much...

His abused asshole made the rest of the climb up the mountain difficult, especially with the added weight of his throbbing member and big, squishy balls. It was easy to distract himself from the difficulty of the climb by listening to the churning of his balls, the hot seed within sloshing so tantalizing. It was hard to believe a female couldn't want him at this point.

When he finally reached the peak his eyes set on something that truly amazed him: below him was a valley, at the center of which was a giant cock and a pair of balls! The balls were a dark-indigo color, and were feeding the massive member semen to be shot out into the sky, all of that seed raining down across the whole forest. That member was so big, so thick, so beautiful! Remy was decided! He would mate with the Pokemon attached to them. He would pound them with his massive member and they, in turn, would pound him with their immense length!

Remy started to rush down the mountain, though the hike proved longer than he expected. Along the way he met two more Pokemon, female and male respectively, both of whom were mated already. They both partook in Remy's enormass member and, upon orgasm, it grew with each play session. It grew especially large when the male Tyranitar offered for Remy to fuck his ass. His member topped four feet long, a whole foot wide, in total. His balls, pumping up with seed even as he came both times, grew two and a half feet wide. It wouldn't be long before his balls surpassed his member.

Night fell and Remy had to sleep. He awoke to a Hariyama sucking off his six foot long member, the scent of Munchlax musk heavy in the air. Remy moaned loudly as the Hariyama took as much of the member as he could into his mouth, its tongue rolling all over the mass of flesh and driving Remy wild with pleasure. Remy's balls, with a diameter not unlike the length of his member, groaned loudly as their contents were tightened in the wake of Remy's oncoming orgasm. Remy yelled loudly as he exploded with cum, the Harimaya only able to keep the member in his mouth for a moment before he had to take it out and let it spray the ground in front of him. Remy, lost in the ocean of euphoria, could only watch as he rose up on his member which grew inch by inch, his balls swelling up with more and more seed even as they unloaded. The Harimaya crawled off, too tired from lust to actually walk. Remy too had to rest some.

When he awoke he realized just how much he had grown, and how much he had attracted overnight. There was Munchlax semen covering the trees all around him, and musk was the dominant scent in the air. Remy saw his member was nine feet in length, two and a half feet thick. His balls were monstrous, eleven feet wide each and filled with gallons upon gallons of thick, Munchlax cum. He sighed blissfully, even now still enjoying the effects of his afterglow. Even now, he could feel his endowments throb, a little bit of size adding to them with every pulse of his flesh. He could feel his balls swelling ever so gently, his body working overtime to produce cum. Remy was loving this mating season! He was actually considering giving up the search for a mate and just letting himself grow when he remembered the giant endowments he saw earlier. He looked in their direction to see that they too had grown, were still growing in fact, and were very close by. Summoning all of the strength he had, both physical and psychic, he dragged his massiveness over to the giant and started climbing. He grabbed onto strands of fur on the giant balls, hoping he wasn't hurting their owner, and pulled himself higher and higher. Looking down, he figured the giant endowments were the size of nearly the whole valley. It was a wonder why Remy hadn't been buried under them.

When he reached the peak he found the endowments' owner: a rather pouty looking Snease who didn't seem to notice Remy until he finally walked up to him and said "You're the size of the whole valley!" The Sneasel jumped a bit, startled, but turned to see the Munchlax in all of his giant endowed glory. Remy smirked, standing proud with his giant cock and balls throbbing behind him. "My name's Remy. Can I guess that you don't have a mate this season?"

The Sneasel sighed. "You'd be right. As a matter of fact, I totally forgot it was mating season until a few weeks ago. I couldn't be bothered, but then... just last week I started swelling up. I just can't stop growing! I shouldn't be able to get this big!"

"Have you enjoyed it?" Remy asked, thinking about all the fun mating season had brought him thus far.

"No! I don't want to be immobile for the whole damn season!" The Sneasel looked legitimately frustrated. "Plus I've crushed my home and every other habitable place around here!"

Remy decided to make his move. "I'll tell ya what. My body doesn't wanna stop 'till I get a mate either, so how 'bout I be your mate? That way we can both stop growing and just enjoy the season!"

The Sneasel began to get flustered. "Oh! No way! Hell no! I am straight!" He exclaimed. Not a moment later, a loud groaning came from below. The two Pokemon felt the Sneasel's balls bulge and rise up, apparently filling with a massive new load of semen. His cock, too, rose higher than before.

Remy chuckled. "I can't see how you don't enjoy this. Think of all the pleasure you can go through."

"Well, I guess it's pleasurable, but that's not the point!" The Sneasel replied.

"Our bodies aren't gonna stop. Males can be mates too, ya know. I've been sexed up by at least three males so far this season, though none of them wanted to be my mate."

"Good for you, but I just don't swing that way! I'm not gay, or bi, or pan. For the record, I'm not asexual either! I'm just straight!" The Sneasel said. Then, his endowments groaned again, growing even bigger and higher. Remy looked out beyond the Sneasel to see that the giant was taking up more and more of the valley, reaching the fringes of the mountains around them.

"I don't know about you, but your body seems to be speaking a different story." Remy replied.

"Your body wants a mate, no matter how much you don't, and right now the fact that you're turning down my offer is making you swell larger and larger." Remy had to admit it was making him swell larger too, his member having grown two more feet longer and his balls five feet bigger. His member was now twelve feet long in total, three feet thick, and his balls sixteen feet wide each. They demanded they be given some attention! Luckily, Remy was ready to take this Sneasel's asshole, and now that he thought about it that was probably the only way to turn this Sneasel around. "I think you just need some encouragement." Remy replied, slipping his member out in front of him and prodding the Sneasel's asshole.

"What?! God no! Even if I was gay, how could I take that member?! It must be ten feet long!"

"Twelve." Remy corrected, his guess being accurate.

"Wait! Please just get me a female! I can't take your member!"

"I don't think anybody will be able to take your member either." Remy replied. He judged that the Sneasel was easily a mile long in terms of cocksize, and his balls several dozen miles wide.

"This is the only way." He pushed his member in, the Sneasel yelling in pain as his ass was spread wider than it was meant to. Remy, however, was loving the feeling of the extreme tightness the asshole had. His cock shot precum like a fire hose, the liquid quickly bloating the Sneasel up like a balloon. The Sneasel kept shouting as Remy started to shove his cock deeper into the Sneasel, but his screams slowly turned into moans. The pain in the Sneasel's asshole slowly dissipated, and was replaced with sheer pleasure. In fact, the pleasure seemed to grow as the Munchlax kept thrusting. The Sneasel tried to ignore it and keep to his argument of being straight, but the further that huge member pushed in the more he liked it! The Sneasel moaned loudly, hugging the huge dent in his belly, which sloshed with precum. How could he resist this for long?

It occurred to Remy that the Sneasel was getting tighter by the second, though at first he paid no mind to it since the pleasure was just too great to concentrate on anything but thrusting his full member inside the Sneasel, halfway in now. At one point, though, Remy managed to get enough concentration to realize that his member was growing! His mind suddenly focused on his surroundings, which mostly consisted of loud groanings below him from the Sneasel's endowments rapidly growing. The mountains around them were cradling the Sneasel's balls like a hand holding a filling water balloon, though it was evident that the Sneasel would soon crush the peaks. It seemed that, while mating a female would reverse the effects of their growth, mating with a male seemed to enhance them. It would explain the extreme growth he went through when the males had their sexual pleasures fulfilled through his giant dick. This was becoming counter-productive really fast, but in reality Remy was too far gone to stop now. He needed a mate and it was going to be this Sneasel! "Why did you stop...?" The Sneasel asked Remy, bringing him out of his thoughtful trance. "Your dick... It's so much! The pleasure...! Amazing! I want more! Give me more!" Remy smiled, seeing that the Sneasel had finally come around - either that or he too was too far gone to stop now. Either way, Remy had no complaints and began thrusting again.

The two Pokemon, especially the Sneasel, kept getting bigger! Remy's dick was fifteen feet in all, which became sixteen, seventeen, all in the vain effort of attracting a female mate. Remy knew his body would not be fulfilled this desire - he knew who his mate would be and he was claiming him right now. Remy could feel his balls producing gallons of cum every moment, those orbs being stuffed more and more, growing twenty feet wide, twenty five, thirty! At this rate Remy felt he might match the Sneasel soon, but at the rate Sneasel was growing, maybe a few miles being added to his girth every moment, he was probably wrong about that. A thick, powerful musk started to intoxicate the air as the Sneasel began to get closer and closer to his true climax. The mountains holding up the Sneasel's balls began to crumble in his mighty wake! His entire malehood began to rumble, his climax upon him. All that was needed was a push over the edge.

Remy delivered quite the push, slamming his member further and further into the Sneasel until finally he hilted him, his entire length locked in. Remy toppled over the edge and unleashed his biggest load of cum yet! His fifty-foot wide balls groaned as they produced many times their volume to pump out into the Sneasel, with so much excess that they simply continued to grow! The Sneasel's body bloated up rapidly, taking every bit of semen the Munchlax had! The Sneasel could only scream in pleasure. A loud boom sounded overhead. Remy looked up to see a massive wave of semen shoot high into the air before falling down in massive globs all around. That, as it turned out, was just one shot. The Sneasel screamed again and again and again as his balls continued to unload, practically without end. The Sneasel was lost in euphoria as he turned to Remy and yelled "Don't just sit there! Mate me! Fuck me senseless! Make me your bitch! I want more, I must! I must have more!"

Remy gasped and held his breath, bracing himself to thrust into the Sneasel again as he orgasmed violently. He felt his member thicken within the Sneasel's asshole, his tip pouring out gallons of cum! Remy moaned at the lewd sounds he was making as he rammed the base of his shaft into the Sneasel again and again. As Remy's first orgasm finally died down, his ninety-foot balls unleashed a second load for a second orgasm that was even more powerful than before! The Sneasel again cried out in pleasure, calling for Remy to fill him full of cum like a little bitch.

Remy, however, did not call the Sneasel his bitch. As he picked himself up for round three, he called him his mate. His extremely lewd, smexy mate.
