Well I always said it was quiet in these mountains and I always wished more would happen. I guess I got my wish when a new couple moved into the mountain house next to mine. Two really good looking fellows, a wuffamute and a wakita, came over to introduce themselves one afternoon and to me they honestly seemed like nice guys. The Wuffamute, Arc, was a chubby fellow but handsome all the same and the Wakita, Sirius, was a big fellow with a lot of muscle on him. I figured they were lovers of some sort but I didn't pry, especially since I kept my sexuality to myself. But after I met them I couldn't help but rub one out after they left that night. And usually I do so in the seclusion of the woods where I can really stretch out, so to speak. I'm a size shifter and I love being able to jerk off while growing to giant sizes. It just feels good to let loose a hot load as a giant in a lake or in a forest. I did this about 3 or 4 times a week. But everything changed one night.

It was midnight and I was just feeling the need to let loose a load in the lake. I was walking out to the lake when I saw them. Two giant versions of Arc and Sirius making love in the middle of the lake. It amazed me to see 2 giants rubbing against each other and kissing all over. It made me hot all over. I noticed that they were getting ready to get to the good part so I decided that it was high time I made my presence known. I walk into the lake and grow to my giant size my bare body growing in girth along with me. They noticed me immediately.

"Hey guys." I say to them with a chuckle. "Got room for one more?"

"Sure Smokey." Sirius said with a smile. "I figured there was something I liked about you. Why don't you help me stuff Arc from the front?" Arc looks at my semi-hard member hungrily as I walk in front of him and stick it in his mouth.

After I do so he starts to murr lightly making my cock vibrate and stimulating it beyond all belief. "MMM you like that Smokey?" Arc asks with a full mouth. All I can do is moan in sheer pleasure and ecstasy. And then Sirius start to stuff himself into Arc from behind, which got me over the edge. Before I knew it I exploding in Arc's mouth with an orgasm like I've never experienced. It felt so good to do it with someone other than just using my paw to stimulate myself. It felt even better to do it with two very hot people. After about 3 minutes my orgasm died down but I was still hard. Sirius looked at me as he was thrusting in and out of Arc and chuckled.

"Why don't you come over here and see if I can help you with that, bud." He says with a smile. I walk over to him confused and he tells me to turn around. I noticed at this point that he had pulled out of Arc and arc was standing in front of me with a smirk on his face. Next thing I knew I was being bent over by Sirius and I had Arc's thick meat in my mouth and I felt Sirius trying to go deep into me.

"MMPH!!" is all I can say as my mouth was full of cock. My eyes roll to the back of my head in pure pleasure as I hear Sirius grunt and feel him enter my anal cavity. Arc starts to move his meat in and out of my mouth and I can feel it throbbing up and down my tongue as it moved. And I can also feel Sirius getting ready to let loose his load. All I could do was take it. Then I felt it. Sirius' knot popped into me and I got extremely tight around it. It felt so good what else was I supposed to do? The next thing I knew I Sirius and Arc were howling and I felt a torrent of cum fill both ends of my body. Sirius' hot load was leaking out of my hole in no time while Arc's sweet hot cream went down my throat so smoothly it felt like milk. Then I blow a second load into the lake as Sirius started to pull out of me. It felt so good to do something like that. I fall onto the shore and revert back to my normal size along with Sirius and Arc. I look at them with a chuckle. "You two really know how to have fun." I say. Sirius laughs and plants a small kiss on my forehead. And then he and Arc walk back to their house and I walk back to mine.

We still look back on that time to this day and all we can do is laugh about how things turned out. Especially now since we do this almost every day of every week since then. Things were always quiet in the mountains. But not anymore thanks to these two.
