

POW!

A wild Empoleon spiraled across the floor, crashing into a nearby pillar. A lone Lucario panted, dawning his green robe while clenching it, centering in the middle of a blue and white room. A kangaroo monster dashed behind him, encasing its fist in white aura. Once the Kangaskhan Comet Punched forward, a yellow canid shoved the wild creature away, shrouding in electricity.

The jackal flinched, turning around at the marsupial forming cracks around the wall. He sighed. "Thanks, Spira," he said, a smile plastering him.

"Don't thank me yet!" Spira the Jolteon turned her hind, Double Kicking an incoming Bronzong multiple times before casting lightning on it. "We still have ways to go!" Her goggles tilted, her coat shifting.

Many more dungeon crawlers appeared in the room, preparing attacks—oozing with snarls. The yellow jackal uncurled his fist, forming his blue sphere. "Right." He casted another. "We're so close, too."

Spira rolled her eyes. "And these Wilds are being a pain in the arse." A sly smirk showed itself. "We can do this, though. We've come so far, anyways." Electricity sparked as the dungeon Pokemon quickly surrounded them. "So let's not waste any time and reach for the stairs, Lex!"

"Heh." The Shiny Lucario flung his Aura Spheres, hitting two Empoleons. "This is why I love you, partner." He got into a posture, his fists clenching once more. "You've come a long way from being your shy self to where you are now." He smiled at her. "Confident."

Spira chuckled, zipping around a few Noctowls and electrocuted them, the Thunderbolt slamming them down. The other Wilds charge forward: Lex ducking a Crawdaunt's claw before grabbing and swinging it around, knocking down the Wilds as Spira rammed a Roserade down with her paws. She then leaped off, three Hariyamas smacking each other with Force Palms.

While airborne, she took a brief moment to gaze at Lex: The jackal tossing spheres left and right, tripping a nearby Floatzel before headbutting a wild Lucario. Needles started casting, spreading across Spira. She fired, darting around and hitting two Roserades that tried to sneak up on Lex. Finally, she twirled backwards, her back legs grazing in red energy before slamming a Honchkrow's face down, cracks forming around.

"Heh." Is all she uttered, hopping off the knocked out crow. The duo continued defending themselves: Lex tackling against another Crawdaunt while Spira shocked multiple Hariyamas. Eventually the rows of wild Pokémon were defeated, all lying down on the ground.

The two sigh.

"Phew. That takes care of them," Lex said.

"Don't celebrate too early now."

"Why's that?"

Spira pointed her paw to another set of dungeon monsters roaming into the room. Before the duo tried to attack, they gasped: Eerie, hazy tunes echoing throughout their minds. Their eyes lied at a Politoed that got done singing its Perish Song, hand resting on its chest. Spira's heart thumped along with Lex's, their pants heaving. Trembling, the two eyed each other and nodded, wasting zero time rushing towards the stairs. Lex shoved several dungeon Pokémon aside, one of them attempting to drag him by the ankles before he kicked its face.

Eventually they climbed, Spira electrocuting the following dungeon Pokémon away before following her partner.

Their eyes were in absolute awe struck: They'd reached the top of Destiny Tower, its highest point filled with the clear blue sky, the calming winds, and most importantly—the statues appearing in front of them. They pertained four entities: Dialga, Palkia, Giratina, and then Arceus. They all posed in such powerfully imposing manner: Dialga looking ready to fire its sphere, Palkia swinging its arm, Giratina glaring directly at the duo, and Arceus being above the three staring up at the sky.

"Whoa..." The duo simply said, walking ahead in astonishment.

"Greetings, you two," a soft, feminine voice said, reeking of utmost highness. Spira and Lex blinked, turning around: They spot three Pokémon that looked like the statues! Arceus, Dialga, and Palkia gazed at them, smiles painting across their faces. "Welcome to Destiny Tower's peak." The qilin equine nodded, her eyes closing. "Rest now as you've earned it."

The Jolteon and Lucario eyed each other for a moment before bowing. "It's an honor seeing you three, Arceus," Lex said, his arm across his chest.

Arceus sighed softly. "Such a kind gesture. I appreciate it."

Spira took notice of Dialga. "Oh hello there! Long time no see."

Dialga stared at the duo. "Greetings, Lex and Spira. A pleasure meeting you once again."

Lex tilted his head. "What are you doing here in Destiny Tower?"

The steel dragon nuzzled the water dragon. "Just wanted to spend time with my relatives, that's all. Haven't been around them much since I became extra protective over Temporal Tower." Sighed. "Glad to have finally gotten the break I deserve, though."

Spira wagged her small tail, smiling. "D'aww. That's pretty great to hear!" Her paw was to her chin. "Although, who's guarding Temporal Tower right now?"

"The Lake Guardians. Well, two of them I think." Dialga tilted her head. "Mesprit said he wanted to spend time roaming around the world before joining in. Considering what I'm doing, I can't blame him for the decision, heh." She snickered behind her paw.

"I see."

The tall, imposing deity bowed her head. "With that said: Congratulation on reaching the heights of Destiny Tower," Arceus stated. "For your arduous efforts, I bestowed upon thee: Two Space Globes." Her eyes flashed white for a moment, two round spheres spawning in front of Lex and Spira: Both gray and shiny, spawning on Lex's wrist while the other wrapped around Spira's neck.

The Shiny Lucario smiled. "Thank you!"

Arceus nodded. "You have my graciousness, mortals."

The Jolteon poked her Space Globe, lifting a brow. "Mind telling us what these do?"

The water dragon lifted a finger. "It grants you tremendous powers for your offensives, along with calling for the aid of me, Dialga, Arceus, and Giratina." Her eyes closed, a casual smile rarely seen on a Legendary like herself sparked. "It's pretty handy, once you get the hang of it."

"Oh. That would've been quite handy during our climb up here, but I suppose beggars can't be choosers."

Lex flicked his ear. "Wait, 'Giratina'?" His eyes looked at the statues again, noticing the fourth one being a serpentine dragon. "Who's that? And where is she right now?"

Arceus stood still. "She's my third daughter and is currently in another realm taking care of her 'errands'. Thou should be back shortly."

"Errands?" Spira snorted. "Never knew Legendaries can have such."

Palkia waved her hand around. "Indeed. In a way, we're similar to you mortals in terms of this."

Dialga shook her head. "Nonsense. We're unlike them at all, humph!"

Palkia shook her head, smirking. "Yeah yeah, keep telling yourself that Ms. 'I'm Above You All'."

"Silence, you." Dialga blushed before eyeing away, a giggle ushering out of the water dragon. Arceus stared at her daughters' banters, forming a small smile beneath her otherwise stoic look.

Spira and Lex's eyes slightly closed, a slight smile forming across their faces. (I see that she hasn't changed much, too,) they thought.

Palkia eyed the Shiny Lucario, contemplating in thought. "Hmm..." With a smile creeping up, she shrunk down to the Lucario's size, ushering over to him. Lex flinched, staring at her.

"Hmm?" He blushed at the dragon's bedroom eyes. (Why...is she staring at me like that?)

Spira was also perplexed by Palkia's sudden behavior before the water dragon turned towards Arceus and Dialga, her tail wagging. "Say...how about we expand their rewards?"

Dialga quirked a brow. "What other rewards? The two have already done enough by saving the planet from the time crisis—" she gave the duo a quick glance. "Which by the way, thank you I guess...Still try to know your place, though." She eyed away, displaying her pompous act.

"Sure sure, Dialga." Spira giggled.

"I-I meant it!" Dialga shook her head. "Anywho, they've done that along with climbing the ultimate Mystery Dungeon." Her head tilted. "Surely they've done enough to earn such gracious rewards, the Space Globes. What more could they have?"

"Indeed," Arceus agreed. "The Space Globes granted them extraordinary powers and powerful allies. I'm uncertain about other alternatives to bestow them with.”

“Heh. Why it’s quite simple, actually.” Palkia smirked. “Let’s fuck them~”

Arceus and Dialga blinked in astonishment, Lex and Spira following along. “I’m sorry?” Arceus questioned.

“We have sex with them, mother! It’ll be a nice and lovely reward for these dashing beings.” She massaged Lex’s shoulders, the Lucario shuddering. “Think about it: They’ve done so much in their entire time on this grand journey. Saving the world from a time paralysis and even conquered this deadly dungeon that no other adventurers had.” Stopped. “It’ll be perfect, wouldn’t you say?”

Dialga looked down, contemplating. “I...suppose so. But what happens if they spread this kind of reward to others? Perhaps our deity image could be ruined over this!”

Palkia rolled her eyes, waving her hand up and down. “Ah who cares? I sometimes rest in a mortal’s haystack before: My public image is an enigma at this point, haha!”

“Huh...” The Jolteon glanced down. “So old man Magcargo wasn’t lying about Palkia resting at his barn, after all.” Spira blinked, shaking her head. “Lowkey thought he was crazy!”

“Nope!” Palkia laughed, turning back to Arceus and Dialga. “So...what do you say?”

“Hmm...I suppose we could execute such a reward.” Arceus nodded. “Very well, my child: We’ll bestow these two the gift of indulgence.”

Palkia wagged her tail. “Excellent~”

“I’ll...agree to this too, in all honesty.” Dialga stretched, yawning. “Despite my slight concern earlier, I could use some casual fornication every once in awhile.”

“I-I, um...” Lex blushed along with his partner, both stunned by such a sexual honor given to them.

“Thank you for, um, providing this magnificent opportunity to us!” Spira said.

From there, Palkia lowered her hand and gripped Lex’s crotch, rubbing it. Moans echoing from the Shiny Lucario as Arceus and Dialga shrunk down to match the mortals’ size, Dialga getting behind the Jolteon. Spira eyed her with intrigue before letting out a mere moan, the steel dragon licking up the electric mammal’s pussy. Arceus got beside Lex, using her forepaw to caress his erecting canine shaft while nuzzling him.

“N-Ngh, gah!” The jackal gritted his teeth, the aquatic dragon nudging his side with her pussy, juices squirming over his arm. “M-Man...y-you two’s paws feel, mm, amazing. F-Fantastic and—”

“Divine?” Palkia finished for him.

“I appreciate the compliment, handsome. Thanks~”

Spira squirmed, shivering at Dialga’s tongue nudging and swirling along her pussy. “O-Oh goodness!” she stated, stroking the ground while spewing juices over the tongue. “What a divine tongue you have there, Dialga! Oh it feels very good, mmm!”

Dialga snorted. “You’re welcome.” She rimmed into Spira’s pussy, kissing and swirling her tongue all throughout her insides deeply.

Soon, Lex and Spira came: Spira squirting her juices all over Dialga’s face while Lex released waves of seeds, coating Palkia’s hand and Arceus’ nub. The mortal duo moaned, mewling in satisfaction.

(Oh gods, yes!) they both thought.

Palkia tilted her head, mesmerized by the batters. “Didn’t expect a mortal like you to cum so much, hehe~”

Lex shivered, his toes curling. “Thanks, ngh!”

“Yes: Thou could receiveth great satisfactory from a rod such as yours’.” Arceus’ tail wagged slightly.

“I-I see.”

Dialga grinned down at Spira. “Say, I have something huge to thank you for your world saving efforts.”

The Jolteon blinked, eyeing behind. “What do you mean by—” a huge equine dick rammed between her asscheeks, a yelp spawning out of her maw. “Oh what the!”

Dialga growled softly, wagging her tail while hotdogging the Jolteon’s buns: Her gender changing into that of a male. Spira gasped, blushing at the teasing while Palkia turned Lex around, the water dragon massaging his shoulders, licking his lips.

The jackal blushed as Palkia said, “I won’t beat around the bush when saying the following: Fuck me while my mother bones you~”

Lex flinched, blinking before eyeing at a now male Arceus throbbing with his big horse cock. The Shiny Lucario nodded, his tail wagging. “Will do.” Palkia then pulled him towards the ground with her, spreading her legs out to reveal her wet pussy. Lex wasted zero time sliding his dick into her pussy, his anus stretching from Arceus entering him. Moans ensued, the poundings proceeded.

Spira quirked her brow at Dialga’s dick. “No offense, but...” A sweat appeared by the side of her head. “How...will that fit?”

The steel dragon shrugged. “We’ll make it fit, that’s all. I’m a deity: It shouldn’t be an issue~”

Before Spira could protest, Dialga plunged his shaft into her pussy, hammering away. She yelped and mewled, shuddering at its intensity: His hefty balls ramming against her behind constantly. The yellow canid clenched her teeth, her belly bulging and stretching.

“F-Fucking hell, that’s so big! Ngh!”

Lex whimpered in joy at Arceus’ slams, his balls being pulverized by the other’s. “Feeling the same way but, mmm, towards Arceus’ dick instead!” His knot pressed against Palkia’s pussy, his cock grinding along those juicy walls. “So big and intense, ngh!”

Arceus chuckled. "What is thou without the might of a big, intense cock~?"

"F-Fair point, nyah!" Lex shivered, his behind wobbling at each thrusts. This all happened while his dick rammed and slammed into Palkia's pussy, the water dragon moaning with godly embrace.

She grinned, caressing the back of Lex's head. "Doing a fine job fucking me!" Her lips were licked. "Put further effort into it and pound me much harder, mmm~"

The Shiny Lucario mewled, oozing out pre-seeds into the water dragon. Palkia shivered, squirting herself over the jackal's dick as Arceus leaked his pre-seeds into Lex, his big balls smacking against Lex's. The deity sweated, gripping the ground.

"Mmm, I suppose thou needed such satisfactory after all."

"No kidding~"

Meanwhile Dialga was slamming into Spira's pussy nonstop, the Jolteon's belly bulging at each poundings. She yelped and yapped, the steel dragon grinning down before giggling.

"That's right: Take my equine greatness, mortal!" Dialga shouted, the tip smacking against Spira's womb. "Feel my immense wrath!"

The Jolteon gritted her teeth. "My goodness, Dialga: So damn rough, ngh!"

"Consider it, mm, revenge for tossing Thunder Wave at me in Temporal Tower~" Dialga gave another casual slam, his balls shivering.

"AH!" Spira panted. "You, ngh, know I had to do that because of how strong you are, especially during that time!"

"Heh, fair enough." Dialga jolted out pre-cum into the yellow canid, Spira panting and moaning nonstop. Spira then used her backpaws to rub Dialga's balls, fondling them with her toes. The steel dragon purred. "Seems like you're enjoying the roughness, anyways~"

Spira purred back, her behind wobbling at each thrusts. "Guilty as charged, heh." She leaked pre-juices, shivering. "Oh god, AH!" And then followed up with spraying her juices onto the dragon's cock, her stomach bulging at each menacing pounds while moaning loudly.

Arceus grunted, his balls shivering. "Mmm, thou is close to releasing."

"Right behind ya, Arcy!" Dialga followed.

The group continued the thrusts before Dialga, Arceus, and Lex slammed into their retrospective holes: Pumping out cum like crazy.

"A-AAAH!" Lex exclaimed, filling Palkia's pussy.

Palkia arched her head, her tongue hanging. "YES!"

Lex's eyes widened, gazing down at his belly filling. (Holy shit, he's cumming a lot!) And then something climbs up his throat. "Hmm?" He guzzled out seeds suddenly, coating his chest and a little on Palkia. Spira experienced the similar thing: Coughing over the ground below.

(So. Much. Cum!) the duo thought, mewling.

Arceus sighed in relief, his dick twitching. "Ah, I very much needed that." He snorted.

"Us deities all do, really~" Palkia quipped.

From there, Dialga, Arceus, and Lex pulled their cocks out: The latter was stuck to Arceus momentarily before falling off. The Shiny Lucario shivered, his gaping hole spilling out the deity's seeds. He bit his lower lip, curling his toes.

(What a...wonderful reward this has been so far, ngh,) Lex thought, shuddering.

Spira eyed Lex, laying on the ground with her ass sticking up, Dialga's cum raining out of her pussy. (He must be loving this reward, too.) She groaned. (Good, ngh.)

The duo then shivered at Arceus and Dialga spewing a bit more batters over them, moaning. Palkia caressed her chin, grinning. "Heh. These two did pretty well at taking our godly gifts." The water dragon eyed the deities, her pussy spilling seeds over the ground. "Isn't that intriguing?"

"Very much so. One would've expected mere mortals to fall from the Gods' grace." Arceus closed his eyes, smiling. "Impressive on that not being the case."

"Exactly what I'd expect from them." Dialga lifted his chin with triumph. Lex and Spira smirked, their tails wagging.

Palkia licked her lips. "I want more of this, mm~"

"Same here. I'm all for extending their reward." Dialga grinned.

Arceus lifted a foreleg. "That's if these two wants the continuation." He eyed the duo, both looking at each other briefly.

After nodding, Lex gave the deities a thumbs up. "We're up for continuing this~"

Palkia clapped her hands, crossing her legs. "Correct choice, Lex."

Arceus nodded. "Very well then." He backed up. "Since you've impressed us fantastically, we'll allow thou the choice on what we do next."

Spira got up, her and Lex's belly having gone back to normal by this point. "Really?" Arceus nodded once more, the Jolteon pressing a paw against herself. "Wow...We're quite honored for this."

Lex perked up. "Truly! I never would've thought a group of Legendaries would provide us with choices of our own."

Dialga snickered. "Yeah yeah, no need to go full on polite on us. Now hurry and choose before we do~"

"Hmm..." The duo stared off, blinking. After a few moment of thinking, Spira looked at Arceus.

"Say, are you and the others able to change another person's gender by will?"

Arceus smiled. "Of course: How else could I reach mastery when I couldn't change one's gender?"

"Fair point." Spira gazed at Dialga, smirking. "I'd like to be a guy so that I can bone the steel drago over there."

"Figure you'll make that request after what I've done." Dialga giggled, turning around to get on all fours as he reverted into a she: A lone equine pussy lied in its once cock and balls' place. "Intrigued to see how rough you'll go at this naughty time lady~"

Spira smirked, wagging her tail as she glowed momentarily. "Oh I'll be rough alright."

Arceus' eyes were glowing, gazing at the Jolteon as her pussy shifted into that of a canine dick, balls accompanying it. Meanwhile Lex took a stare at Arceus' ass: Mesmerized by its donut hole. The Shiny Lucario erected, his dick throbbing with excitement.

"I...would like to, erm—" he scratched the back of his head. "For a lack of a better way to phrase this: Fuck your ass, Arceus."

The deity gave Lex a side eye, laughing. "I'm happy to oblige, brave one!"

Palkia lifted her hand. "And what should I do?"

Lex stared at the water dragon, smiling. "You could eat my ass out~"

She clasped her hands. "Sold~"

Once the transformation finished, Spira climbed on top of Dialga, grinding his shaft against the equine entry. The Shiny Lucario got onto his knees, licking and kissing Arceus' donut while Palkia did the same to him, groping and caressing his asscheeks. All while Spira had already rammed his dick into Dialga, pounding her away.

Moans ensued: The Jolteon humping the steel dragon like crazy, groaning and grunting. "Mmm, fuck that feels amazing!" Spira stated, his tone soft and feminine.

Dialga giggled, her deity cooch clenching around the mortal shaft—damn near squeezing it. "Start fucking harder!" She smirked, wiggling her behind. "I know you can get your revenge simpler than that~"

"Cocky much?" Spira huffed, intensifying the doggystyle.

Meanwhile Lex continued to swirl his tongue around the deity's hole, slurping over it. He groped and fondled his ass, wagging his tail in bliss. (Wow...Can't believe I'm actually doing this to Arceus. THE Arceus, I say! Mm!) He shivered at his behind being groped and fondled, Palkia tasting some of Arceus' seeds along the way. (So awesome and...hot, mm.)

Eventually, Lex stopped the rimming, shivering. "Ngh...I need to fuck this, NOW!" Wasting no time, he stood up and rammed his dick inside of Arceus: Grunts uttering from the two. Lex pounded away, his hips ramming against the deity's big behind. Arceus' ass clenched the jackal's dick, the deity sighing in relief.

"Mmm. Thou is quite eager, I see." Arceus snorted, his balls smacked by Lex's many times. "You're doing great. Keep it up~"

"Th-Thanks—AH!" Lex shuddered at Palkia's tongue sliding in and out of him, penetrating. (H-Holy crap, this is amazing!)

Spira slammed and rammed, the Jolteon growling in delight while the steel dragon mewled. "Oh yes!" Dialga sprayed her juices over Spira's dick, clenching the ground in satisfaction. "Keep it up! Pulverize this pussy like how I did yours', mm!" Her ass jiggled, more juices spewing out.

Spira and Lex grunted: Both oozing their pre-seeds before speeding up. Arceus' cock flailed back and forth, spewing pre-jizz as well. The deity huffed, groaning before smirking.

"Mmm, this method of rewarding the mortals is..." Arceus moaned, his donut clenching around Lex's cock further. "Quite ecstatic. Thanks Palkia for such a provocative suggestion."

Palkia snickered, caressing Lex's ass. "You're—" she smacked it, a yelp echoing out of the jackal. "Welcome~"

"A-AH!" Lex slammed a couple more times into the equine deity, releasing loads of cum throughout him. The Shiny Lucario moaned, gripping Arceus' ass while his knot slipped right in, some of the seeds spilling out of the hole.

Arceus grunted. "Mmm, yes~" His horsedick jetted out many cum across the ground, a simple huff ushering forward. Spira hammered into Dialga a couple more times before cumming like madness, some of those batters flying across the holy floor.

"Ngh, goodness that felt great!" Spira exclaimed, filling Dialga's womb to the brim. The steel dragon gasped, her tail wagging while she mewled.

"My my!" Her belly expanded, cum splashing out from Spira's continual thrusts. She shuddered. "I didn't know such a mere mortal like you could've possibly released this much, hehe."

The Jolteon smirked. "Consider it a revenge best served messy~" Spira slammed once more, further seeds pouring out of the deity as the canid curled his toes in satisfaction.

The dragon growled softly, smirking back. "Oh you sinful being~"

"So...blissful." Lex hugged Arceus' tail, panting—shivering with embrace. "Nggh..."

"You're very much welcome, dear." Arceus purred. "Not often does one grant such an honorable opportunity as this."

Palkia licked Lex's ass teasingly, winking. "I second that."

"Eheh." Lex shivered once more, moaning.

Soon, he and Spira pulled out: Cum dumping themselves onto the ground, a waterfall mess ensued. Spira lied on his back, sighing softly.

"Goodness, that was...pretty great~" Lex relaxed beside his Jolteon companion, both eyeing the serene blues.

“Definitely agreed with you there.” The Lucario nuzzled Spira, his tail wagging.

Palkia smirked. “Mmm...” She snapped her fingers. “Third round, you two?” Her gender changed into a male: Her pussy being replaced with an equine dick, balls forming along the way.

Lex and Spira eyed each other for a moment, the look of eagerness painting them again. They turned to the water dragon. “Yes.”

Palkia grunted and moaned: Pounding into fem-Lex’s pussy while carrying her, his balls abusing her asscheeks. Spira was beside the two licking up Dialga’s cum-coated pussy with juices oozing along the way, her own pussy being fucked by Arceus. Both her and Lex mewled, their tails wagging in enthusiasm. The others moaned along, all casually having a godly raunchfest~

“Ngh! Ah!” Lex exclaimed, her tone soft and low. Her vagina gripped around the horse cock, juices coating it already. “Sh-Shit, this is really good!”

Palkia grinned. “Glad to hear~” he said, having a suave tone to him.

Dialga nudged up against a boulder behind her, arching her head. “Mmm...Good mortal.” She patted Spira’s head. “Doing a wonderful job at cleaning your mess, peasant. Keep it up~”

Spira quirked her brow, snickering. “Don’t act like I wasn’t the one who caused this mess towards ya.”

Dialga blushed, staring away. “O-Oh hush, you!”

The Jolteon giggled, kissing up the dragon’s pussy while enduring the other deity’s menacing shaft. Arceus groaned, slamming deeply into the Jolteon’s pussy, his tip plapping her womb.

“Mmm. I see that the leftover release from Dialga is still within,” Arceus commented. “Makes pleasing your vag much easier.”

Dialga winked. “You’re very much welcome, haha!”

Palkia groped and fondled Lex’s ass, deepening his thrusts. He moaned, slamming away. “Damn, your pussy feels real nice, Lexy. Could go at it for eons if I wanted to~”

Lex yapped, shivering. “O-Oh! Thanks, nyah!”

Belly bulges cast on the Jolteon and Lucario, the duo huffing.

“Fuck me, this is huge!” Spira commented, her face pressing against Dialga’s pussy every now and then. “Could barely focus on the, mmm, damn dragon’s pussy here!”

“I, mm, agree there!” Lex curled her toes, her tongue hanging. “Oh my god, cum into me hard! Obliterate this explorer’s pussy like some slut from Treasure Town, ah!”

She and Spira soon squirted over the deities’ dicks, moaning like crazy. Dialga fanned herself, giggling at the thirsty display.

“Hah. Look what this ‘reward’ did to them,” she commented.

Palkia smirked, his cock twitching. “Oh I’m well aware: And I love it!”

“I see it all, my child,” Arceus followed, his cock also twitching with anticipation.

Dialga growled happily. “Feeling myself about to cum. Oh fuck, this is the best reward we’ve ever given to mortals, mmm!”

Arceus sped up, his balls pulverizing Spira’s ass. “I concur! This vag is loveliness beyond belief.” And with that, the deity shoved his whole shaft into her, pumping loads of cum throughout while groaning. “Mmmngghhh~!”

“Ah!” Dialga shot her pussy juices over Spira’s face at the same time, the Jolteon mewling in glee, her insides being filled to the brim.

Palkia slammed one good time into Lex, unloading his cum throughout her pussy. Some of the seeds spilled out of the Shiny Lucario and coating her ass along with landing onto her face: The duo moaning in satisfaction. Lex stroked the back of Palkia’s head, wrapping her legs around him.

“AAAH!!!” The Lucario felt as though she’s having hearts for eyes. “S-So much!” Her belly expanded a bit. “So many are filling my womb! Oh goodness, there’s a lot of great godly cum!”

Palkia huffed, chuckling. “Thank you!” He happily uttered with confidence, lifting his chin. “I’d imagine such greatness would please mortals like you.”

Before Lex could comment further, Palkia brought her into a passionate kiss: Their tongues nudging, saliva exchanging. “M-Mmf!?” The Lucario blushed, letting the satisfying kiss commenced.

After what felt like minutes, the water dragon pulled back: Saliva trailing. “Let’s continue further~”

“Ehem.” Arceus coughed, catching Palkia’s attention. “These two looked tired. They’ve reached their limit.” He pulled his cock out, cum splashing out of Spira’s pussy as she moaned softly.

“M-Mm, yeah...” Spira sighed. “As much as I’d love to continue, my tiredness is kicking in.”

“Same here.” Lex nuzzled Palkia, grunting.

Palkia huffed. “Dang. That’s no fun.” Palkia nodded. “But I suppose that’s only fair.” The dragon pulled out as well: Lex shuddering at the seeds guzzling from her hole, further painting the ground and Palkia’s balls.

Once Palkia set Lex down, him, Lex, and Arceus reverted back to their original selves: The Shiny Lucario having lied beside Spira afterwards. Both were spilling seeds out of their retrospective holes, sighing softly.

“That was...a heavenly perfect reward,” Lex stated.

“Absolutely. I doubt any amount of cash earned from rescue missions could ever top this.” Spira snorted, prompting Lex to follow along.

SWISH!

Everyone blinked in confusion, staring at the source. A shadowy dragon with some yellow scales floated towards the group, displaying necklaces and jewelries throughout her. Giratina waved with her red-tipped tentacle, being within her Origin form.

“Heeeey! I bought us some jewelries from another realm,” she said, her tone cheery and upbeat: Contrary to her shadowy appearance.

Palkia sat beside Dialga, smiling. “Thanks.”

Giratina waved her tentacle up and down. “Oh it’s no biggie!” Her head tilted. “Although, I found that realm to be quite bizarre. The Pokémon there look so unlike the ones here. Many of them wore actual outfits that covers themselves, something I’d normally see in another realm filled with humans.”

Palkia lifted her brow. “Really now?” A grin plastered her face. “Sounds like you’ll have to take me there at some point.”

“I’ll keep that in mind!” Giratina then eyed around fully: Spotting the seeds spilling out of Lex, Spira, Dialga, and Palkia’s parts along with Arceus’. Her brow raised. “Yoo, what happened here? And why are you three small right now?”

Giratina flinched. “By fucking them!?”

Arceus nodded. “Indeed.”

“Wow...” The shadow dragon slumped over. “Wished I joined in, haha.”

Spira purred. “I’d imagine you’ll be a real treat with those tentacles~”

Lex gasped. “Spira!”

The group soon laughed, appreciating the lovely time they had together.
