

Name: Rammy Sonet.

Species: Zoroark (Anthro).

Sexuality: Bisexual.

Preferred Role: Switch.

Age: 21.

Gender/Sex: Male.

Height: 5.7 ft. in.

Appearance: He has bangs and occasionally wears black stockings on his arms and legs along with red glasses. During the outdoors, he wears casual clothing (such as a red shirt and blue shorts). He's also a relatively slim twink with three claws on his hands much like any other Zoroarks. He has a big dick, balls, and ass to please anyone. He also has a puffy anus too, making bigger cocks entering his hole much easier. His eyes are turquoise, and his feet are the regular three red toeclaws ones like any other Zoroarks. (Not canon: He can switch into his twink appearance on the fly, developing muscular abs and biceps along with a red lipstick.)

Abilities: Besides using the Illusion ability to change his appearance completely (but hardly use it because he loves himself for who he is), he's capable of switching between any genders/sex he can think of. Male, female, any of the intersex—even be a guy with big boobs, not moobs: He's able to do these thanks to a rare condition he was born with. However because of said condition, he's incapable of impregnating someone nor get impregnated whenever he's in these genders/sex: Infertile, in other words. He can also change his cock's appearance between humanoid, canine, and horse without any hassle. His cum can be as messy and on the same level as hyper cum, reaching excessive cum levels, even. He also can use his claws and Pokemon moves like Dark Pulse to defend himself.

Likes: Sex, videogames, traveling, his friends, his parents, writing stories, juice beverages, ice cream, popcorn, someone being clingy, chubbiness, someone being hornier than him, sluts, humans, having sex with any species, receiving and giving blowjobs, and himself.

Dislikes: Rape, his close ones being harmed, being blackmailed and manipulated, being in a close relationship due to uncomfortable restrictions (he's experienced this in the past with someone in high school, and felt abused), blood and gore, and drugs and alcohol.

Personality: Rammy is a humorous, caring Zoroark who enjoys meeting new people and chatting with them. He's all about relaxing with others and getting to understand their worldview, even if he doesn't agree with it. His favorite things to do in life is to play videogames, write stories, travel around the world, and have sex. Plenty of sex, in fact. He loves doing it with his close friends and kind strangers alike, with consent in mind! He would consider himself a switch, enjoying being both a dom, a sub—top and bottom: Whenever he feels like it really, he can adapt! He does have a tendency to go rough during sex and loving himself more often than he should. But he's always willing to slow down during sex if told to, along with doing his best to not inflate his ego. He never intends on hindering others with his self-praising, always striving to help others be confident about themselves. He found his tendency to self-love excessively be his biggest flaw.

Background: He was raised in a wealthy environment, with two loving parents who taught him how to be a good person and respect others' worldview. His parents also supported him for who he is, loving him regardless of his sexual preference and enjoying sex alike since that's how his parents met each other: Through sex! Upon evolving into a Zoroark by the age 20, he moved out of his parents' home to go live with his two friends he's been socializing with online since his senior year in high school. Before meeting his friends however, he used to have problems getting along with other students during his elementary and early middle school. This was due to his rich spoiled kid behavior, leading him to either get in fights or insult others for not being as wealthy and great as he is. What changed him were the multiple times his parents shamed him for those behaviors and educating him on the concept of open mindedness. From there, he started becoming more understanding towards others while progressing through middle school. Even discovering things about himself he wasn't aware of such as his sexual preferences and loving to write stories. Although since his newfound appreciation for understanding others, he can be pretty regretful whenever he loves himself too much even till this day. He didn't want to repeat his past mistakes, and his friends remind him that he isn't repeating those mistakes.
