

Name: Millo Asmodeus. (Used to be Millo Venos before she married Ixaka.)

Species: Scolipede (Anthro).

Sexuality: Bisexual.

Preferred Role: Submissive. (Bottom)

Age: 22.

Gender/Sex: Female.

Height: 6 ft.

Appearance: She's quite the chubby individual with a bit of overweightness to her, similarly to Ixaka (with that said, she can still walk and run). She has incredibly large breasts (E or F cups) and a large ass with a big, puffy anus, similar to her husband's anus (which she and Rammy enjoys licking and kissing). Another thing that's similar to her husband is her tongue being long and pink with a fork look at the tip, which she uses for passionate tongue kisses with him. Her tail is fairly medium sized in length, with some thickness to them (her husband likes wrapping his tail around it as he cuddles her). She also has a wedding ring on her right hand, signifying her marriage status with Ixaka. She has yellow eyes and wears red clothing whenever she goes outdoors. Living with her husband and the others, she only wears a red shirt and nothing else, showing off her private parts casually. She has humanoid hands and feet: Five fingers and toes.

Abilities: Despite being chubby, she's able to do all kinds of flexible things, similarly to Ixaka. Unlike Ixaka, this wasn't developed naturally in her. She developed it thanks to her being incredibly active with her job and school. Why it doesn't lower her fat is a mystery even she couldn't figure out. Since the discovery, she practiced her flexibility along with teaching herself self-defense. Like Ixaka, she can use her long tongue to defend herself, along with her using Pokémon moves like Sludge Bomb.

Likes: Being busy, Ixaka's moobs, watching movies and TV shows (when she's not stressing herself over not doing any work), people with chubby kinks, candies and chocolates, ice cream and cake, Krimson's piano skills, watching people playing videogames (personally seeing Rammy getting beaten in fighting games due to him being bad at them), and researching random topics.

Dislikes: Body shaming, discrimination of all kinds, someone harming her loved ones (especially her husband), restrictions in a loving relationship (after hearing Rammy's view on closed ones), corruption, seaweed, people not respecting different opinions, relaxation for the most part, winter and the chilly winds (Ixaka aiding her a lot with his warm, heated body), cotton candy (doesn't enjoy the feel of it inside of her mouth), and someone trying to manipulate her.

Personality: Clever, calm, and compassionate is what Millo considered as. She's also a hardworker, the opposite of Ixaka. Mainly due to the fact that she enjoys keeping herself busy on something, whether it be through a homework from her high school days or filling out paperworks at her job, which relates to her making sure the environment is okay. This helped her husband be a bit more motivated to do something in his life despite being lazy. Although, she can overwork herself to the point where Ixaka's laziness helped influence her to relax afterwards. She doesn't like taking a break since it takes up a lot of her time when she could've been doing something else. But whenever she isn't busy with something, she'll stick to watching movies and TV shows she likes along with seeing Krimson and her next door neighbors beating Rammy at a videogame. Her relationship with everyone is good, but with Ixaka, it's lovingly good. She loves this yin and yang approach of her being a hardworking individual and Ixaka being a lazy individual, but the two managing to motivate each other with who they are despite it. She also loves him for his multiple sides and sharing the same physical traits as hers, making him the soulmate she never knew she wanted. But also needed.

Background: Millo's willingness to work hard originated from her times living with her parent at the age 10 during her Venipede stage. Her mother was struggling to feed her and her siblings after her husband passed away from a deadly illness even a godly being couldn't heal. Due to her concern for her mother, Millo and her siblings tried desperately to get themselves a job to support their mother, but couldn't due to their age. After focusing on their schoolworks and evolving into Whirlipedes, they all found themselves a job after getting into high school. Millo used to work at a fast food restaurant while in school, using the money she got from it to help pay the bills. The stress she went through had gotten her all fatten up due to eating sweets a lot out of relief. Her chubby looks ended up being a hindrance to her as she was bullied and harassed for it. Despite this, she still worked hard on schoolwork and her job, doing everything she can to help her mother. Soon she met Rammy and Ixaka, where her life changed for the better. She gotten to know the two and grew a bond with them, especially Ixaka since the two shared similar experience in terms of bullying and struggling to get along with others. This led to Millo evolving into a beautiful, chubbier Scolipede after she and Ixaka fell in love with each other. After graduating, she told her mother that Rammy and Ixaka found a place for her to live in, to which her mother supported her decision. She felt bad for leaving her mother to go pay the bills, but at the same time, she knew that her siblings were as hardworking as she was. Upon moving in with Rammy and Krimson, her and Ixaka decided to get married after being in a loving relationship for so long. Although, she's gotten so used to being busy that she couldn't relax for more than a second, hence why she gotten herself a job right after her and Ixaka moved in.
