

Name: Belan Lazuli.

Species: Goodra (Anthro).

Sexuality: Pansexual.

Preferred Role: Switch. (Top Leaning)

Age: 25.

Gender/Sex: Intersex (Female).

Height: 7.6 ft. in.

Appearance: She's a tall, chubby overweight goo dragon with the usual pale purple skin much like any other Goodras. She has blue eyes unlike the usual green ones from other Goodras, and her breasts are huge (about E to F cups) while being able to go hyper sized at will. She also has a huge voluptuous ass with a large puffy anus along with a big cock and balls that can all go hyper at will. She has four fingers on her hands and three toes on her feet, both lacking fingernails and toenails on them (although, her toeclaws are the same color as her feet). She also has a plump pussy on her taint, readying for any sort of eating out and filling. Her clothing of choice is usually just a white plain shirt that barely does a good job at hiding her erected tits. She wears nothing else at the bottom, except for when she goes out in public, then she'll wear black pants.

Abilities: She's capable of using Dragon based moves much like any other Goodras. These moves include Dragon Pulse and Dragon Breath. She can also use her horns to hit harder than her fists, usually resulting to knocking her foes out. When needing to get herself out of sticky situations, she'll sometimes rely on her slime as means to defend herself (she'll also form slime when hugging someone or during sexual pleasures sometimes). Because of her chubby appearance, she can tank incoming trains and planes and all sorts of objects that'll normally kill a regular being.

Likes: Katherine Corinne (loves being filled by her cock), having sex with her friends and anyone in general, Rammy and his friends, someone having a thing for chubbiness, hugging, watermelons, sausage pizza, reading fantasy books, socializing, watching action movies, and daydreaming.

Dislikes: Someone hurting her friends (especially Katherine, her girlfriend), exercising, pineapples, onion pizza, reading horror books, being inside of a cramped space, watching sports events, and being alone.

Personality: Cheerful and wise, as her friends call her. She always have a thing for hanging out with those she's close to despite her social and pan ways: Being able to express herself freely without feeling judged. She daydreams about being in a violence-free world, the vibe she gets whenever she hangs with her close friends, especially with Katherine.

Background: She was raised by a loving family who supported her through her many ups and downs. Once she became a Sliggoo, she started traveling around the world, meeting all sorts of new people and things in it. Eventually she met Katherine and felt the need to be her friend after feeling sad for the lonesome Delphox. When Katherine was close to being killed by some nefarious witch hunters, Belan evolved into a Goodra and defeated those hunters, saving Katherine's life as a result. The two became close friends (and eventually lovers) since.
