

Name: Terra Adalin.

Species: Garchomp (Anthro).

Sexuality: Pansexual.

Preferred Role: Dominant. (Top and Bottom)

Age: 18.

Gender/Sex: Female.

Height: 6 ft.

Appearance: Has black sclera with yellow eyes much like any other Garchomps. Her tits are big (DD) along with having a large ass, too. She also has a big dick whenever she changes her sex. She has five fingers and three toes: All the nails are colored red. She has a long wavy hair along with wearing a muscle shirt, both being black. She dawns blue pants with red heels. Terra is also quite muscular, having defined biceps and abs to display proof of such.

Abilities: She's capable of using Pokemon moves such as Dragon Claw and Dig just like any Garchomp would. She's also quite agile and strong due to her gym routine, allowing her to lift ten or more people with ease—chubby ones, included! What sets her apart from other Garchomps is the fact that she's capable of changing her sex by will, albeit only going between being female, a female with only a dick, and a female with both a dick and a pussy—futas or intersexes, in other words. She's able to do this thanks to adapting to New Earth's sex-loving vibes alongside experiencing a sex change spell from Katherine that one time. This ability may be minor in the grand scheme of things, but does benefit her in the sex-crazed department.

Likes: Exercising (whether at the gym or at her neighborhood, Soothern Creek), having lots of sex, ageplay (18+ of course), challenging doms during sex, chocolate bars, watermelon, partaking in any sorts of fun contest and competition, sparing, helping others.

Dislikes: Distractions on her exercising routine, purists (specifically the sex hating ones), bigotry, lemon (the fruit, not the sex of course), waiting.

Personality: Terra is energetic and blunt, always being clear about what she wants. She takes pride in her physique ever since she traversed into New Earth, being proud of her accomplishments along with her independence. She can be quite pushy at times, however: Not being particularly fond of waiting, especially during a task they're supposed to do. Despite her impatient behavior, she does mean well overall, even going as far as to help those in need. She's also a huge fan of sex and exercising, something that her werewolf friend, Lupus, can acknowledge oh too well.

Background: As implied, Terra wasn't originally from New Earth. In fact, she used to be from the Pokemon World in another dimension. One that has all of the Pokemon be anthrofied, herself included. The world there has a much different life than the one in New Earth, such as the Pokemon themselves being captured by humans and becoming their partners—whether through normal means like partaking in the Pokemon League, or something that New Earth is familiar with like sex. Terra used to be under the ownership of the Sinnoh League Champion, Cynthia: Always there to be by her side, overcoming any obstacles in their way. While Terra enjoyed being Cynthia's companion, she always felt that there was something missing in her life, something she could truly feel like her real self. And then one day at Cynthia's home, Terra's body glowed bright and she disappeared into Katherine's cabin at the Grand Forest. Katherine, Belan, Naomi, and Lupus witnessed the Garchomp's arrival, leading Katherine to realize she made a huge mistake since she confused the transportation spell for her unfinished dimension transporter spell (DTS for short). After some conversation about the situation, along with calming Terra down about Katherine and co. being harmless, Belan proposed to Terra that they can help her return back to her home by aiding Katherine on polishing her DTS. Terra thought about it for a moment before eventually agreeing with the proposal since she has no other way to travel back home. After a few more discussions on getting to know each other, the Delphox, Goodra, human, werewolf, and Garchomp all get themselves into a spicy fivesome, creating a mess at the cabin. This is also where Terra gained her futanari capability as well as gaining a long black hair. The former can be explained from Katherine's sex changing spell, but the latter no one isn't so sure about. Regardless, Terra had a good time with everyone here, especially Lupus: She's taken a liking towards the werewolf, admiring his physique, the way he fucks, and the way his ass feels. When asked who she wanted to live with, she opt for Lupus. Since then, she's been living with the werewolf at Soothern Creek, being right close to Nudity Beach. Once she found out about the beach's existence, she went over to partake in an array of sexual pleasures with a lot of people there, since there was an ongoing sex party—free of charge! Once the fuckfest ended, she head back home, fucked Lupus, went to bed, and lived with him since. She gained interest in partaking gym courses along with traveling around Soothern Forest to get a better look of the environment, thanks to her werewolf friend. She even met Rammy and his friends—to which she also had sex with, of course. Soon, Katherine gave her a call and told her that she got the DTS finished and readied for the Garchomp to return back to her world anytime she wants. Terra thought about it for a moment before eventually declining, deciding to stay on New Earth due to how much alive and independent of a person she felt upon living here. She did make sure to let her trainer know about all of this through the DTS call, ensuring her that maybe they can visit each other sometimes here and there. Afterwards, the young woman continued to live on this planet, satisfied with the outcome.
