

Mipple and Mepple's alone time

Chapter 1: Mipple's confession

One night, Mipple was sitting on the bed in hanna's room sighing as she kicks a small paper ball around. It was mating time for the fairies and she was nervous. She wanted to tell mepple but she wasn't sure on what to think of if they had kids. She then jumped at the sound of the door opening and changed to her card commune form thinking it was hanna's grandma only to find that it was Hanna. "Hey Mipple sorry I had to do something for my grandmother....what's wrong?" She asked noticing that Mipple seems upset. "Oh nothing Hanna its fine! Everything's just fine no need to worry about anything" she says making a obviously fake smile. Hanna sighed and picked up Mipple and looked at her "I know that face. Please tell me whats wrong." She says her face showing deep concern. Mipple frowned and looked at her and said "Its just....its breeding time for the fairies and I wanna be able to do this with Mepple but im afraid he might not want to do it." Hanna smiled "Of course he would. You two are head over heels for each other!" Hanna says. The pink fairy just nodded "Ok im gonna sleep now night Hanna" she said and closed up. Hanna nodded and placed mepple on her desk and layed down " night Mipple"

The next day, at school, Hanna and Natale were on the roof top eating their lunch as Mipple and Mepple talked to each other. "So its mating season for those two huh?" Natalie asked and ate a onigiri. Hanna nodded "She wants to ask him but she doesnt know if he will agree to it." She replied looking at them. Natalie looked confused and asked "Why wouldnt he? He's crazy about her!". "Not sure but ive got a idea but Ill tell you and Mipple after school." Natalie nods as the bell rings and they go back to class.

After school Natalie and Hanna were sitting in the science room mepple sat in the bag with Mipple. "Ok so what's the plan?" Natalie asked sitting down. Hanna sat down and whispered "ok so the plan is we get Mipple and Mepple in the park alone and she asks him by the sakura trees". Hannah looked at her "but we cant let them be alone they can get attacked" she says alarmed . "No no she wont be alone alone we'll be there by one of the trees." Hanna said giggling a bit. Natale nods and gets up " ok we'll do it tommorow sinse its a weekend and not too many people are around." The nod and get their things and go.

The next day they went to the park where they were sitting my the trees and look at the two fairies playing making sure no one was around as Hanna and got up and looked at the two. "We will be right back. you two be careful" Hanna says as they left. Mipple knew what they were doing and sighed "Mepple...I need to ask you something". Mepple looked at her and asked "whats wrong?" Mipple sighed and asked "you know that its mating season right?" Mepple nods "yeah i knew for some time why do you ask?" Mipple sighed before shouting out "would you be my mate?" there was a dead silence as Mepple finally says "why didnt you say so sooner mipple? Of course i would!" Mipple looks shocked "really? Your not upset?" Mepple shook his head and grabbed her hands "Mipple i love you with all my heart. Nothing will change that!" Mipple said happily.

Mipple smiles and kisses him and Mepple kissed back. It was nothing like they ever felt before. They stopped noticing the world around them. That moment changed when they heard a snap of a twig making their ears twitch. "Natalie quiet youll ruin the moment." Hanna whispered. "Hey sorry but my foot stepped on a branch" the two fairies broke the kiss and looked towards the sound and saw Natalie and Hanna's bags and hair. "We know your there! Come out!" Mepple shouted. The two stepped from behind the tree and looked at them. After Hanna explained everything the fairies nodded. "Thanks Natalie and Hanna means alot to us" the two say happily "no problem it was easier than battling evil monsters" Natalie says and Hanna nodding "yeah it is. Oh and you two can stay at my place ill make sure you will be able to have some alone time" Natalie nods and looks at Hanna "ill come with to help find a place" Natalie says as they went to Hanna's house.
