

Character Name: Alice

Species: Otter

Gender: Female

Hair Color: Dark Brown, hangs past her shoulders

Eye Color: Gold

Height: 5'4"

Weight: 132

Age: 27

Feet: Digitigrades

Build: Trim with a slight level bit of a belly, but not much. Small B-Cup breasts which she either thinks are too small or get in the way too much, depending on the day.

Distinguishing features: She is very shy and slightly withdrawn. Sometimes it's hard for her to talk with people and if pushed she'll tell you she does better with engines than living things. She also has an eidetic (AKA photographic) memory, which helps with her job.

Jewelry: None, same as with makeup.

Clothing: Alice prefers to wear clothing that is comfortable, practical and easy to clean. Anything she owns will get dirty in a short time, it's simply the nature of her job.

Personality: Alice was unfortunate enough not to grow out of that awkward teenage phase until she was nearly twenty years old. In school she was a bit overweight and withdrawn, so as a result she had little to no friends. Instead she entertained herself by reading. In her first year of high school she stumbled onto an old Chilton book for an old Chevy Nova and fell in love with the car.

She spent the next year saving up to buy one for herself, getting one the week she got her license, but the car would barely run. Deciding that she had nothing better to do she started working on it after school while the same time learning everything she could about cars and car repair. Eventually she even had to rebuild the engine, getting some help from the shop half a mile away.

By the time she had graduated high school she had the car looking and running as good as new, and knew what she wanted to do with her life. After two years of community college she got a job working in the same shop that helped her, where she still works. She is one of the best mechanics in the place and can repair pretty much any car from before 1994 and can even make her own hard to find parts.

Oddly while in the shop she is very open and outgoing, willing to open up far more than she would anywhere else. The shop is her second home and feels more like home than her somewhat bare apartment does.
