

Employee Title: The Assistant

EIN: 515442

Gender: Female (Presents predominantly Female)

First Name: REDACTED

Last Name: REDACTED

Employment Status: Active

Summary:

The Assistant is currently the 17th individual to attain the title, and has by far retained the title the longest. She's proven extremely resourceful, intelligent and resilient. Her help has been invaluable compared to her predecessor, hence her record longevity in the position of over four years.

Originally recruited after being found [REDACTED], she threw herself into her work, and proved very eager for testing different transformative products offered by the company.

Her job duties in the last seven months have taken on a somewhat managerial role, which appears to have exacerbated her natural mischievous nature. Her main staff comprise the two recent interns (EIN 63215, EIN 63215). While distracted at first, she has largely taken to her new responsibility well.

While a hard worker, disciplinary action is sometimes necessary as a motivational factor. Should her insubordination reach inconvenient or impeding levels, she will be redesignated to a suitable role like her previous 16 predecessors.
