

Employee Title: The Personal Trainer
EIN: 59190
Gender: Female

First Name: Triss

Last Name: REDACTED

Employment Status: Active

Summary: Triss is the resident Personal Trainer for Caliph Industries, part of a new initiative to promote health and wellbeing in the workplace. Her experience in the area of physical fitness is extensive and well suited to her role.

Triss is a former olympian, who came to the company after a debilitating accident. She elected for a complete rehabilitation via a new transformation process which returned her to a significant level of strength, flexibility and health.

Convincing Triss to sign on with Caliph Industries was part of the conditional employment contract for her sister, The Gardener (EIN 59191). This is currently not known to Triss and should be kept that way.

Her job duties are to lead fitness classes during the day for all interested parties as well as conducting work physicals on all employees as part of a mandated health initiative.

Triss is well suited to her job, possessing a kind motivation that is encouraging to those whom are in her class or undertaking remedial physical fitness courses after failing a physical. She works well with the staff, and possesses the ability to take the initiative when needed.