

Measuring up
By Tredain

The big cat fidgeted and averted his eyes.

"I was just thinking... we could, y'know, switch it up, a lil?" he asked. The slim cat smirked, giving a little roll of his eyes as he slowly drew the zipper of his jumpsuit down.

"Ya really wanna do this every time Chance?" Jake teased as he kept pulling the zipper down until his underwear came into view. The jumpsuit peeled away from Jake's body and his paw cupped the front of his bulge, always thick and heavy but getting bigger as his dick stirred to life. The big cat swallowed, his eyes staring at that thick cotton lump, but he nodded and pulled his boxers down. The small button of his dick jutted up from the bush of his furry yellow pubes, but only just. He swallowed again, his tail flicking nervously, as Jake grinned and pulled his underwear off. The slim cat stepped closer to him. He didn't even need to hold himself. His fat cock hung down and then tapped up against Chance's groin.

"Ah..." Chance gasped a little, heart pounding in his ears. His dick was as hard as it got, barely the size of his own thumb, probably smaller but he'd never really checked. It throbbed. Jake's dick tapped it again.

"Switch what up, No Chance? Hm?" the cat flexed his cock and it rose up to smack the nub. "I'm not even hard yet, look at it." Jake pressed his hips forward until the cocks ground up against each other. Chance gasped again. He could feel Jake's heartbeat as his cock grew bigger and harder. Jake took hold of it and swabbed the tip up and down Chance's whole cock.

"Aaahhh..." the big cat blushed and squirmed.

"Yeah. That's what I thought. I wouldn't feel that little thing even if I did let you top," he tapped against its underside repeatedly, letting his tip rub into the small nuts below, making the bigger cat jump with every light smack. He bit his lip and looked away, breathing heavier as his little cock throbbed harder and harder, even if it didn't get a bit bigger. Jake smirked, rubbing his dick up and down Chance's groin, making the big cat shudder and squirm. He pulled back.

"As much as I like teasing it, I don't really like touching it," he said bluntly, letting his dick gently wave up and down "You know what a dick like this is meant to go."

The big cat stared at his buddy's big cock, how thick the shaft was, how it rose up, proud and hard. The air was cool on his own throbbing nub without that thick spongy pole grinding against it.

"Y-yeah," he admitted, as he always did. He leaned forward, both paws settling against the wall. Jake wasted no time to step up behind his chubby friend, his dick sliding up the big cat's ass crack.

"That's it. See, even you don't try to touch it," he rolled his hips to grind up against the cat's big yellow butt, letting his cock ride up against the cat's tail while his balls tapped at the chubby cheeks. Chance blushed deeper and splayed his ears back. He let out a low moan and pressed back into the slim cat.

"Naw, only one way boys like you get off," he pulled his hips back and aimed his dick between the big round cheeks. A slow thrust pressed his thick tip between them. He felt Chance's hole. He smirked again. "Already lubed huh? Just wanted an excuse to feel a real cock against your little eraser nub? You like seeing how small and pathetic it is, eh No Chance?"

Chance squeezed his eyes shut, his heart pounding in his ears, he hung his head a little, then let out a long, low groan as Jake pushed forward and his dick began to slide inside him. The slim cat let out a low growl of his own, one paw settling at Chance's hip as the other gripped his dick at the base and held it, feeding in inch after inch up inside the fat cat's big ass.

"Ffffuck..." Chance moaned. Jake pressed his hips all the way forward, letting the big yellow cheeks press flush into his lap as he drove himself as deep inside the hole as he could go.

"That's it buddy, that's a real dick," Jake cooed, pulling out slowly. He thrust back in with a fleshy smack. Chance moaned aloud.
