

Hands Free

"And you haven't popped in a few days now, right?" the pig asked, a little smirk perking his mouth up. Daniel fidgeted but gave a shy nod

"Y-yeah, haven't been touching myself at all," he answered. He chuckled a little, rubbing up the back of his head "Wasn't easy, been thinking bout this all week."

Daryl grinned wider and patted the bun on the shoulder.

"Me too, now I'm gonna lie back, you climb up and sit down, facing me," the pig ordered, climbing up on his bed, chuckling a little as he felt the rabbit's eyes on his big pink ass. He rolled over, laying flat on his back, the big curve of his belly rising up between them, with his fat cock already hard and standing to attention. Danny blushed furiously; Daryl always got him so hot and bothered. He climbed up after, smiling down at the pig as their dicks pressed together, both hard as a rock but the pig's considerably thicker and a couple inches longer. The rabbit climbed up higher to settle his feet to either side of the pig's hips, then squatted back.

"That's it, that's it, nice and easy, oohhh yeah," Daryl grunted when the yellow bunny's bottom eased down onto his cock. One hand settled on his hip, the other gripped his cock at the base; there was a moment of tension then the rabbit's lubed hole opened up and the girthy cock slid inside.

"Fffffuck," the rabbit groaned, one of his paws automatically wrapping around his cock.

"Ah ah," the pig chided and tapped his paw away, leaving the bunny cock hard and dribbling on its own. "Hands free,"

Danny blushed and chuckled nervously again as he sank his ass down onto Daryl.

"S-sorry, god, feeling you in me though, I just.. I can't help it," he pressed his cheeks into Daryl's lap with the pig's thickness pulsing up inside him. Daryl grinned wide.

"I know. Gonna have to train you proper." He grinned again and gave the rabbit's cock a light flick, making the bun squeak and clench down on him. "Now, you just sit back. That's right, lay your hands just like that."

The rabbit leaned all the way back until his paws were nearly over the edge of the bed. The pig rolled his hips, getting a moan out of the rabbit. They smiled to each other, then the pig gently brought his hands under the bunny's legs and cupped them behind the knee. Danny groaned a little as Daryl lifted his legs up, putting all his weight on his ass and that hard cock stuck up it.

"Mmm, good boy," the pig said and started to roll his hips. The slick hole gripped at his cock but the fat tool slid in and out slowly, getting faster, faster as the chubby hips below started to roll and bounce.

"Ah... ah fuck," Danny bit his lip, one paw reaching up to toy with one of his pierced nipples. Daryl laid his head back into the stack of pillows, a blissful smile on his lips, and started to buck up into the rabbit, lifting him up by his legs and letting the rabbit's ass drop down to meet his surging cock. In moments they got into a rhythm and the rabbit was bouncing in the pig's lap, the sound of the furry ass slapping down into his fleshy lap filling the room. Danny closed his eyes and let his mouth hang open.

He let out a sharp gasp.

"Oh! Oohhh, oh fuck," he muttered as he bounced up and down on the pig's cock, fat nuts flush against his cheeks again and again. The bunny's cock twitched, it jumped, suddenly a thick white stream spurted out "OOOooh FUCK!"

The pig tightened his grip and held the rabbit in place, keeping that ass riding his cock, pounding into it again and again as the rabbit's dick jumped, every thrust milking out another fat spurt of cum. Danny curled his toes, he gripped the edge of the bed, his eyes clenched shut as the pig fucked surge after surge of cum out of him.

"Mmmmphhh, MMMPPHH" The pig grunted himself, throwing his head back into his pillow and letting out a loud, guttural snarl as he pulled the rabbit down hard and thrust up, grinding into the fluffy ass to the hilt just as his own orgasm hit him, pleasure roiling through him as his cock blasted up inside the rabbit. The two of them trembled, Danny's cock leaking heavily over the big belly as the pig's cock spurted over and over into the rabbit's ass.

"Ohh god," the rabbit moaned, his body flopping back on top of the pig's legs. Daryl let out his own happy gasp, then reached up and grabbed the rabbit's still hard cock.

"MMm, better get used to that, gonna be the only way I want you to cum," the pig chuckled. The rabbit's ears perked up.

"What?"
