

The Bet

By Typhlosionboy

The gentle sounds of a snoozing Dalmatian could be heard as her nearby friend an anthro lab mouse named Jackie squirmed and shifted underneath the covers in her own bed hoping she could go back to sleep as it was both of their days off and she wanted the extra sleep. However it seemed the early morning rays that would shimmer through the blindfolds of the window were still enough to prevent her from going back to sleep. So it seemed the only thing she could do was go in the living room and wait for her friend Rebecca to wake up while she played some skyrim on the Xbox 360. The young mouse girl swished her tail to and fro as she hazily removed the sheets that had her covered and walked out into the living room as she turned on the coffee machine since she was the first one up. While she would wait she turned on the Xbox signing in to her live profile Sexylabmouse56C smirking softly as the screen loaded quickly allowing her to hit play skyrim on the My Games section.

She would grab the remote before turning down the volume so she wouldn't wake up Rebecca as she played at 6:30 in the morning. For at least an hour she would wander around the vast cold lands as a khajiit, and although that wasn't exactly her favorite choice they were the more anthromorphic animal species in the game besides the lizard race of the argonians. Plus the khajiit were very skilled in stealth skills which she liked using for surprise attacks on bandits or random dangers that would present itself in the game. After about an hour or two of wandering through the vast frozen wastelands of northern skyrim and killing frost trolls alongside with some snowy saber tooth cats the sexy lab mouse decided to take a break and pour herself some coffee adding a teaspoon of creamer then a small teaspoon of sugar as she gently stirred the liquids together turning the coffee from a dark brownish-black to a more creamy lighter brown.

Jackie would then sit back down on the living room couch murring softly as she felt the morning coffee sooth her mind, but within another moment she heard some shifting and went into her and Rebecca's bedroom noting that her Dalmatian friend was indeed awake. In fact it seemed she had just woken up as Rebecca was rubbing her eyes groaning sleepily in the process. Jackie headed over to make her bed now that her friend was awake so she wouldn't end up disturbing her. Once Jackie made her bed she would start to change but of course greeting her friend in the process.

"Good morning sleepy head. How are you feeling this morning?" Jackie inquired to the canine.

She would yawn before giving a response back, "I feel like I could beat you at any game today. Speaking of games what do you have going on out there?" she asked watching a tad greedily as the lab mouse revealed her naked body showing off her C cup breasts as she put on her pink bra and panties before a gaming-shirt along with some casual blue denim shorts.

“Oh is that so? How about we make a little wager then? And I was playing skyrim killing bandits same old same old” She said smirking softly.

“What are the stakes going to be?” the Dalmatian asked perking her ears up.

“We play one entire full match of Soul Caliber five. Whoever gets five wins first has to be the slave while the winner gets to be the Mistress. Sound like a deal to you?”

“You bet it does I can’t wait to stomp you. Let’s shake on it,” Rebecca said as the two shook paws.

“Pfft I doubt you’ll even get one win on me,” Jackie said teasingly.

Rebecca shrugged off the playfully harsh words and gave her a devious grin before heading into the kitchen to get herself a cup of coffee. Although she would occasionally enjoy it black she decided to also put a small amount of creamer then sugar before using the spoon that Jackie left on a paper towel to mix her coffee. She then set her coffee on the counter and went to go change. While the canine lass was doing that the lovely lab mouse, Jackie, was saving her game before heading to the Xbox home page before sneaking a peak at Jackie as she changed. She licked her lips but not noticeably as she saw her friend’s black pussy lips and anus with some spots her and there before giggling. Instantly this would catch Rebecca’s attention as she turned her head around swiftly growling a bit in annoyance.

“Oh hush you. I just thought of another lovely idea for our little wager. Want to hear it?” the mouse said gently rubbing her paws down the side of her hips before coming up to the Dalmatian lass and squeezing their breasts together. “Besides you peeked at me while I was changing so it’s only fair.”

Rebecca would moan softly before squeezing her breasts against Jackie’s in return, “hmm what is it that you have in mind you pervert?” she said pretending to make it sound harsher then she actually meant for it to be.

“Oh now I’m hurt looks like you better win otherwise you’ll be my bitch and I won’t go easy on you. Anyways so you know how we like to take our showers at night right before we go to bed...well I was thinking loser can’t a shower as extra punishment for being the slave.”

“Hmmm I see somebody is feeling pretty confident if they want to up the stakes. Very well I accept this two part bet...just no crying if you lose and smell of sweat along with sex when you go to bed. Deal?”

“It’s a deal!” Jackie exclaimed putting out her paw as the two once again shook paws on the new bet.

The two ladies went back into the living room then the kitchen each grabbing a protein shake from the fridge before greedily gulping the liquid down. After they clean the milk mustaches from their faces each picked a spot on separate chairs across the room to prevent any unwanted bumping as Jackie got up remembering to swap out skyrim for Soul Caliber V making sure to put the games in the proper cases so they would never lose a thing. She then sat back down closing the disc reader via the controller and within moments the screen was ready. Once the game loaded she selected offline play, vs. match, changed the option from player vs. CPU to player vs. player.

“Are you ready to get stomped puppy eyes?” Jackie said trying to instigate.

Rebecca would reply back calm and collected, “Only if you’re ready to be my lab rat for my new toy.”

“Ha you know that’s not funny, but whatever I’ll stomp you anyways,” she replied back playfully.

Jackie would choose her custom char who had Hilde’s weapon style for longer range while using Pyrrha’s speed and ease of use. Meanwhile Rebecca chose Viola since she was good also with long range user like Hilde, Xiba, and Siegfried but got the added effects of using a magic ball...well sort of. A few seconds later a random location would be chosen as the two friends would begin their daring duel for the titles of mistress for the day and if unlucky enough stinky slave for the day too depending on who lost of course. The quite tension could’ve been felt if there was another person in the room as Rebecca was getting pummeled by Jackie’s custom char. Well she was getting pummeled until Rebecca got off a few kicks and smack using the magic purple ball before grabbing her while she had medium low hit points. The grab from behind was due to Jackie missing a jump attack which lead to Rebecca launching Jackie’s custom character into the air on top of the magic ball before it slammed her down into the ground finish off her HP along with an early armor shatter leaving her more vulnerable against future attacks. Jackie cursed as she paused once the beginning of the second match started before heading out the door.

“I’m going to smoke a cig so I can focus better hope you don’t mind the wait.”

“Not at all, go relax your nerves for a few minutes and get ready cause I won’t hold back,” Rebecca cooed gently towards her.

The lab mouse smirked softly tossing her canine friend a wave before sitting out on the chair they had out front. She pulled out a cig from the carton before putting the package back in her pants pocket as she lit the nicotine laced tobacco. She knew smoking was bad for you but she didn’t really have the will power to kick it...not yet at least. Besides her friend didn’t bother her about her habit as long as she went outside. She figured everybody has something they aren’t proud of that they may do or might have done. After several minutes of inhaling, puffing, and then relaxing too Jackie felt her nerves calming once more. She put out the smoke before squeezing her tits as she spoke to them as if they could hear.

“If mama loses this match at least I know you two will be put to good use, but let’s hope we don’t lose this bet. I really like my showers and not smelling of day old sex an sweat,” the lab mouse said heading back indoors to simultaneously greet while confronting her pal.

It sadly though it seemed as if Jackie’s efforts of calming her nerves had been in vain as several minutes passed by, but with fatal results. Well that is fatal for Jackie as they had played seven matches with Rebecca leading with four while Jackie one behind at three wins. Moments of combo busting moves would pass by as Jackie screamed in excitement for she had just won the last match with an astounding lance grab that pierced Rebecca’s char shattering what few robes Viola had to begin with, but of course not leaving her naked as this version didn’t allow that. Now it was done to the final match round 9 also called the final fight, both of their character’s armor had been shattered leaving each to take more damage from every punch, kick, or any other sort of combo they would throw at each other.

Then it happened all so quick, Jackie tried to do a stab move with her lance but messed up throwing a punch that was nowhere close enough to get Rebecca as she launch her purple magic ball firing away at her health until she was low then finishing it with another grab that spun her around after getting hit by that magic orb causing her to fall to the ground in agonizing defeat. She was so close yet now she had to obey the whims of her new mistress for the day. Rebecca would turn off the Xbox since Jackie was still too shocked to realize that it was over even as the match played in her head a few times over wondering what she could’ve done to prevent such a bad button mash on her part.

“Well Jackie it seems I won, I guess we get to have sex my way and you can’t take a shower tonight. Guess who is going to be smelly tomorrow? Lucky you we don’t work weekends so as your mistress I’ll let you take a shower in the morning. Now go to the bedroom and get undress will ya. Don’t want to make your mistress mad by not being ready,” the spotted canine said firmly but seductively at the same time.

“Yes Mistress I shall go do that right away,” she said heading into the bedroom to undress.

Meanwhile the young Dalmatian lass would head to the kitchen to take off her shirt and pants leaving only her undergarments on before opening the fridge to grab a few items. Said items included a can of whipped cream, a couple sweet cherries, and finally a bottle of hot fudge topping. As Rebecca headed back into their bedroom she managed to sneak a peek as her slave had her mousy tail and butt in the air for a moment showing off her very moist pink pussy. Rebecca got close as Jackie wasn’t paying attention as she placed one of her free digits in the mouse’s cunt before sampling her bitter-sweet flavor. This of course caught Jackie’s attention as she obediently raised her butt even higher for her friend now turned mistress.

The young canine however had a different plan as she set the toppings on a nearby counter pushing Jackie down on her bed leaning close as their lips were almost touching as she squeezed their titties together moaning as nipple touched nipple for a few seconds before Jackie looked away. Instantly Rebecca kissed her softly on the lips using her paw to tilt the mouse girls head back so they would be staring into each other's eyes as she told her not to resist. For a moment thought Jackie would stare into the canine's almost harvest moon red eyes while she stared back into her own peach eyes. Each with a beautiful luster unique to one another as Jackie breathed a sigh of relief knowing Rebecca was planning on a more...romantic night.

"Now you stay right there and don't move I got some special toppings for such a delicious morsel such as yourself. I mean your body is practically calling me to lick you up," her spotted friend would say.

Rebecca was slow but very meticulous as she slowly apply the whipped cream to her nipples, belly button, then pussy but only putting cherries on her nips while adding the hot fudge to her cunt leaving her belly button just simply creamed up. However even more so now the young female canine would careful as she gently licked up the cream along with the cherry until there would be nothing left on her nips. However that even took a few minutes and once she was done with that she started to suckle on Jackie's little mousy nips getting the cutest squeaks coupled with some lustful moans as she went to town with her rough wet tongue slathering and spreading a small amount of saliva as she stroked the tips with her slippery organ. Jackie could feel the pleasure start to build as her pussy began to leak making the cream start to get a bit runny.

However that didn't ward off Rebecca as she got up, sat on Jackie's hips before turning around smooshing her own black canine pussy into the face of her slave basking Jackie in the warmth of her sex that smelled wonderfully musky as she could see the smallest trickle of fem cum dribble down the side of her vulva lips. Instantly a moan would escape the busty mousy girl's lips as she felt her mistress's hot, wet, and rough but textured tongue run its way across her vulva lapping up the cream before eating her cherry whole meanwhile the whipped cream on her belly was being smothered all over the two lovers bodies allowing for a more slippery grip as Rebecca kept stuffing her cunt deeper into Jackie's face encouraging her to sample mistress' flavor.

After several moments of silence more moans would fill the room as feminine noises could be heard along with some slurping as the two ladies had a sixty-nine slurping on one another's cunt delving their tongues deep into their inner walls even hitting each other's clits a few times as spikes of pleasure would cause one or another to arch their back from the immense surge of pleasure coursing through their spines. Just as Jackie was getting close to her orgasm Rebecca stopped licking both were breathing heavy, but she had another plan. Now that all the toppings had been slurped up and then some she decided to pull out from a nearby dresser a double-sided dildo that she had been saving for a special occasion like so.

Jackie's face perked up knowing she would soon be scissored by her best pal and for now mistress as she was the obedient slave. Jackie would be gently pulled closer to the canine lass as the two shared a wet sloppy kiss that tasted of each other's bitter-sweet fem cum before stopping as Rebecca inserted the dildo in the young mousy lady's cunt even shifting the toy around just to tease her and get a lustful moan in the process. Then she positioned her body and lined up her cunt with Jackie's as the toy slipped in her moist cunt then they started bouncing their bodies against each other with each of them having one leg over and one leg under each other's bodies in a parallel yet perpendicular fashion so they could bounce one another into orgasm as the pleasure in their bodies would rise alongside their body temperatures too causing the young ladies to start sweating furiously.

This in turn of course made them start smelling like sweaty sex but it was a smell that both of the fine ladies enjoyed as they kept bouncing into the toy forcing it deeper each time into their steamy love holes as their fluids started to mix. Loud moans would echo throughout the bedroom even being heard through the kitchen walls, possibly even to right outside if somebody were close enough, but none of that mattered as they got louder their speed increased as they kept bouncing away from then to each other's bodies until finally both screamed aloud for one last final thrust. What was seconds felt like forever as a squeak escaped her panting lips her breathing labored as her pussy clamped down hard on the toy before a small gush of white would squirt through the toy covering both of their crotches in white as Rebecca continued her bouncing for a few more seconds until she too succumbed to her desires panting hard as a gush came squirting between her legs until the two lovers were tired, sweaty, and most importantly happy.

Minutes would pass until half an hour had gone by as Rebecca got up to go take her shower. By the time the Dalmatian got back Jackie had drifted off to sleep dreaming of a morning shower...and perhaps of being a slave once more...or maybe even getting her revenge. Either way she would remember this night and take into account Rebecca's passionate love making.
