

Recruiting Wolves

Valor is at the mountain training as he has his pet electric dragon who helping him by giving more electric power then Valor absorbs it until he gotten even more powerful and stronger.

Valor: Electric dragon I going need more as you can so that I can reach the ultimate lightning element power.

Electric Dragon: Yes master I'll do I can to help you reach your full potential. *stored up his lightning energy to the max as he glows then releases most powerful electric energy at Valor*

Valor: *absorbs most his electric energy as much he can until his body muscles growth to beyond ultimate level. His longest hair is now sharp spikey style, one his pecs has lightning symbol as it glows like electric dragon's belly, lightning aura grew intensely as he finally reached his ultimate lightning god form*

Electric Dragon: Master how you feel?

Valor: I feel much better and even more godly powerful in this form.

Electric Dragon: That's good to hear and glad I helped you out for your training.

Valor: I appreciate for your assistance my old friend. You can take rest now you earn it.

Electric Dragon: Thank you. So what you going to do next since you finally achieved your lightning abilities?

Valor: I going to recruit as much as I can.

Electric Dragon: Sounds like a hard work but I know you can do it if you must.

Valor: I know. Well I'm taking off now. See ya later until we meet again, Raijan.

Raijan: You too master until we meet once again.

Valor takes his leave out the mountain using his ultimate lightning abilities then headed to the valley as he runs across the fields and goes to the jungle. The white fur colored werewolf with torn camouflage outfits shown his chest and wearing dog tags start running from soldiers as he's being attacked by them. Valor took down all soldiers with his newly lightning speed as the werewolf stop running and look behind to see all unconscious soldiers then a giant wolf with his lightning aura power around his body as he start growl softly.

Werewolf: *snarls at Valor*

Valor: *looks at the werewolf as he realizes as he can't speak so he uses his translation ability with a snap of his finger*

Werewolf: Who are you? Are you the one who killed all the men that after me?

Valor: That depends before I introduce myself. If that's your men then no I didn't killed them. They completely knocked out for long while so it's consider as unconsciousness.

Werewolf: They were my men... but look at me now I'm a monster...

Valor: Got bitten from werewolf perhaps?

Werewolf: Yeah I got bitten and it's hard to control what's inside of me...

Valor: I see. You'll get use to it.

Werewolf: How? You don't seem like a werewolf or something.

Valor: I'll explain later. Right now I on mission to recruit.

Werewolf: Who you recruiting?

Valor: Wolves and I happen to be leader.

Werewolf: You're a leader?

Valor: Yes.

Werewolf: So if I join you will you going to tell me your name?

Valor: Valor Wolf.

Cody: That's a nice name. My name is Cody.

Valor: Nice to meet you but why you growl and snarls at me?

Cody: Oh that? It's my werewolf instinct and I thought you going to kill me...

Valor: Why would I plan to kill you? I not a killer type so you kind of misunderstanding and you need to control yourself.

Cody: I know and I'm very sorry to mistook you. I want to thank you for not harming the soldiers.

Valor: So why they after you?

Cody: I guess I was a werewolf who being used as a soldier to do dirty work.

Valor: That outfits you worn so you used to be a human soldier at first.

Cody: Yes, I was a human.

Valor: Oddly since it's daytime, humans who're cursed transforms to werewolves during full moon but you seem like a full-fledged werewolf.

Cody: Really? So I'm stuck being a werewolf?

Valor: I'm afraid so. It's not just an ordinary werewolf. It's a special type of werewolf where you remain werewolf forever.

Cody: Damn I can't go back being human then.

Valor: I'm very sorry to hear it and I can't help turn you back to normal human.

Cody: What should I do, Valor?

Valor: Since you joined then I want you to fight alongside with me.

Cody: All right. I did mostly combat training.

Valor: That's good even as your werewolf form that has given your agility, super speed and super strength.

Cody: That's what I have?

Valor: You are faster and stronger but you have a hard time to control yourself. You got to concentrate and never go wild.

Cody: *nods*

Valor leads Cody away from jungle and heads to safe place. Valor explains everything to Cody that he's a Wolf God and wolves he recruited are his brothers as a family members then has his abilities and elemental powers etc. As he done explains then he help Cody to get use his werewolf form to concentrate and control it inside. Cody's eyes stop glowing as it look normal and finally regain control himself then looks at Valor.

Cody: I can get use to this form. Thank you, brother.

Valor: No problem.

Cody: Even I can't turn back to normal form but I glad to have a family members of yours to meet.

Valor: You're a wolf warrior not a monster to worried about.

Cody: You're right I not a monster.

Valor: *nods*

Cody: So you are indeed a leader and a wolf god.

Valor: That's right.

Cody: Then I must obey you.

Valor: Hmm? Well... If you want to.

Cody: I want to help you since you helped me so I owe you a debt. Please do tell me what you want me to do?

Valor: You can help me by recruiting wolves as a family members. Rather they're anthro/furry, wolfling, werewolf or wolf warrior. If you see one do not engage to fight.

Cody: Alright. Brother what happen if they trying fight me or get involved?

Valor: Contact me by howling so my ears can pick up the signal then I'll be on the way as fastest as I can to your location if you find them. Right now they need an alpha leader like me who can listen so they won't wreck havoc or hurt anyone in their way.

Cody: *nods* You're right they do need a strong leader and probably intelligent to obey you.

Valor: Mmhmm. Good luck finding one and be careful.

Cody: You can count on me, brother.

So Valor and Cody fist bump each other then they took off already in separate ways. Valor is at different field but the area is quite huge with lots of monsters including giant turtle called Adamantoise then there are two wolves who fainted on the ground as they passed out so Valor rushes over to them then he concentrates and heals both unconscious wolves. Both of them healed completely as they open their eyes and see the giant wolf.

Hunter: Who are you?

Warrior: Are you the one who saved us?

Valor: My name Valor the Wolf God and yes I saved both of you.

Hunter: A wolf god? So that means the Savior is going to help us.

Warrior: We want to thank you for healing us.

Valor: No problem. So what you two been doing?

Hunter: We hunting the oversize turtle.

Warrior: Until he wipes us out with his powerful stomp.

Valor: Hmm... I fought one before and they are tough indeed.

Warrior: You did? How you manage to defeat that thing?

Hunter: We try everything and we both beaten and lost...

Valor: By cripple his legs which make him topple and won't fight back. You two need a leader which help give orders and formation what to do.

Two wolves looks at Valor.

Valor: ?

Hunter: Valor can you be our leader?

Warrior: We expecting to need a leader who can help us lead.

Valor: I dunno but I'll try my best to help you two. Care to tell me your name?

Zack: I'm Zack the wolf who's the warrior. I wield two-handed weapons like greatsword and axe.

Carl: Carl my name and I'm a wolf hunter who uses bow and arrows skill to hunt targets.

Valor: I see so you're both are hunter and warrior.

Both wolves nods as one asked Valor to know why he's wolf god.

Valor: I suppose ya curious to know why I'm a Wolf God? Well... let just say I'm one of a kind who have gifts and potential inside me when I was young.

Carl: Really? How old are you?

Valor: Sorry this does not concern of my age but I'm full grown now.

Zack: Even your age is unknown so we can't tell your real age?

Valor: That's right.

Carl: Hmm... I take it you look fully grown adult and mighty huge.

Valor: You could say that.

Zack: That's cool. Carl and I are an adult wolves since we became friends then partners.

Carl: Yeah we both are. Valor do you have friends too?

Valor: Not really... I have wolves who are brothers as a family members and clans which I'm a leader to them.

Zack: I didn't know you have family members.

Carl: Ah I can tell they respect you as a brother and a leader.

Valor: They are. How's the weapon you two?

Zack: Unfortunately our weapon is worn out completely...

Carl: It got damage badly during battle with giant turtle...

Valor: I can repair it. Let's go to my blacksmith place.

Valor and two wolves goes to blacksmith place then he explains to them that he is a Blacksmith that the previous owner who work has retired so he took his place who can repair, create new weapons and upgrade weapons as he put silver apron, work gloves and headband on. Carl and Zack give their weapons to Valor as he takes it then start hammering while two wolves watches him. Valor seems very busy for a good while but work faster as he has smithing skills that the previous owner taught him in the past. As he finished mending their weapons and give back two wolves.

Valor: Done.

Zack: *look at his weapon* Whoa this sword is like brand new and much improved!

Carl: *look his and gasps* This look like it's modified and it can changed between bow or crossbow!

Valor: So? Did y'all like the new improve weapons?

Zack: We love it! I didn't realize you the best blacksmith, Valor.

Carl: That's amazing, Valor! How you be able to do that? You like a professional to do anything.

Valor: Not much. I just had my mind something to help you two for difficult battles. Don't worry your weapon will not get broken, get damaged or worn out so I added special dust powder to prevent it.

Zack: Thank you very much.

Carl: Yeah thank you. Do we have to pay you? Zack and I kinda got broke.

Valor: Nah. I decided to help you both defeat giant turtle Adamantoise but since I'm a honest type I want to recruit you both if y'all don't mind?

Zack: Of course I would be honor to join you.

Carl: Sure I'll recruiting with you.

Valor: Ok it settles then.

Valor took his blacksmith equipment off then he lead his two recruiting wolves and headed off huge field as they encounter the giant turtle Adamantoise.

Zack: I see him!

Carl: Leader what's our command?

Valor: Stay focus and get ready to attack.

Zack and Carl: Yes sir.

Valor and his wolves confronts Adamantoise then engages the battle. The turtle just stand there as he about to make move. Valor transforms into ultimate lightning element form which changes his appearance with silver lightning aura around his body. Zack and Carl see Valor as they never seen his new form before. The turtle about stomp his front leg but Valor beats him by his lightning rush attack with incredible speed to prevent stomping as he rematerializes both his godly ultimate wolf blades then rushes so fast and unleashes powerful long string combo which knock the turtle down as he's vulnerable to open attack and helpless.

Zack: No way! How he do that?

Carl: He put him down like it's nothing! That form of his... He really is the most powerful wolf god warrior.

Valor: If you two just standing and done talking then now the chance to strikes.

Zack and Carl: Yes sir!

Zack rushes with his greatsword then do series combo slashes while Carl shoots unlimited number of arrows at the down state turtle. Valor given his power to Zack's weapon with earth element and Carl's weapon with wind element to make it easier. As the wolves using skills to plummet Adamantoise then Valor preforms ultimate technique his eyes glows intensely as he sprints toward Adamantoise then several number of his double appears then he lightning slashes and so his double deals huge massive damage then the final blow as he teleport above turtle then lightning slams down on him which finished off Adamantoise as he's defeated to end the battle.

Zack: We did it!

Carl: We sure did thanks to our leader, Valor!

Valor: *reverts back to normal then claims the spoils from Adamantoise as he got extreme rare Adamantine ore* Well that's that.

Zack: Leader what's that?

Valor: Adamantine. Only Adamantoises dropped it which is extremely rare and makes the best equipments.

Zack: The best equipment? Even weapons too?

Valor: Armors, weapons and accessories too as well.

Zack: Wow so killing the turtle is worth it to obtain that ore.

Carl: Yeah Zack and I trying to obtain one but those turtles are too strong...

Valor: I understand you two did great job out there then I notices when I got here you two gotten beaten and passed out.

Zack: We aren't strong enough...

Carl: It was awful until he got the best of us...

Valor: Don't give up hope Zack and Carl but as a leader of myself I want you two to come my place at forest wood area.

Zack: You have your place where you lived?

Valor: Yes and you might like it there.

Carl: Really? What else you got there?

Valor: My house is much bigger to have plenty rooms for all wolves member to stay in their comfort beds. There's also campground and gym for training and workout then I cook meals to keep them healthy and strength up.

Carl: Whoa so then I would love to go your place to stay.

Zack: I agree with Valor. We can train together to get stronger then have a great meals.

Valor: Basically you'll meet my wolven clans and they are brothers so don't be shy to talk them. Show kindness toward them, get along each other, show respects to each others and supports them.

Zack: Then Carl and I should called you "brother" then.

Carl: Mm-hmm thanks and I'll support them too, brother.

Valor lead his newly brothers Zack and Carl to his place in forest wood area then Cade and wolf members looks at Valor and two recruiters. Valor welcomes two wolves then the wolf members greets them to show their kindness and respect as they both did. Valor and Cade watches them but Valor's ears twitches as he hear the howling which is Cody that he found new recruits. Valor farewells them then took off leaving where he follows Cody's howling. Cody is at plain field as he found two wolves as they both wears clothes from Hong Kong.

Lee: So is he coming what you said?

Cody: I'm sure my howling reach him.

Josh: So who is this "Wolf God"?

Valor: As you two need to know.

Lee and Josh looks at Valor as they seem surprised like he appear out of nowhere.

Cody: There you are, brother.

Valor: I told you I'll be here.

Cody: *nods* I sure you will. Well here are two new recruiters.

Valor: Okay. *turns to two wolves then looks at them* That clothes you both wear. I take it you both from Hong Kong?

Lee: Yes, my brother and I born there.

Josh: *looks at Valor* Are you the Wolf God and a leader?

Valor: That's right.

Josh: Cool I bet you look even quite huge and stronger to see big guy.

Lee: Excuse my brother... I'm Lee and this is my brother, Josh.

Valor: I'm Valor and this werewolf over there is Cody and he's our brother as family members.

Lee: That's cool to have him as your brother as well, Mr. Valor. Is it true they follow and respect you?

Valor: It will grow much bigger so I'm recruiting as much as I can. Yes a strong leader is willing to help and support them so I train them to make them stronger and have potential.

Lee: *nods* My brother and I been training at our hometown since we young.

Josh: We sure are. We gotten stronger!

Valor: You both did?

They both nod.

Josh: I know! Valor let's have a spar just me and you.

Valor: *seems confused* Hm? Why?

Lee: Jeez do you really have to pick fight with him, brother?

Cody: I wouldn't underestimate him if I were you... *remembers what he saw Valor took out every soldiers with his quick fast strikes and powerful form*

Lee: *turns Cody* Really?

Cody: Yeah he saved my life from my comrades who came after me not too long ago.

Lee: Wow no wonder he's super strong.

Josh: *goes in his fighting stance* Come on Valor let's go for round.

Valor: Sorry I don't have time to spar and I have no intention to hurt you.

Josh: Why not?

Lee: Huh? Valor not fighting my brother? How come?

Cody: I think I know why my brother is. He told me not engages fight you two. He wants me to recruit y'all with no one to get hurt in fight.

Lee and Josh as he goes in normal stance then looks at Valor.

Valor: Cody is right as I told him there will be no pointless fight and violences. Josh the reason I don't want fight you because I might easily beat you regardless with or without my power.

Cody: Listen to what my brother is saying he took out every soldiers with each blows and I never seen his form so powerful.

Josh: So then I might end up losing from him... Damn...

Lee: I understand and yeah I can see why...

Valor explains to them as to know why he will never engage fight with other wolves so it is wrong for him to not act violences. He cares deeply toward his brothers like families. He's been training very long to keep his powers under control and such. He invited Lee and his brother Josh to come to his place to meet up his wolf members.

Lee: That sounds interesting. My brother and I would love to go your place.

Josh: Alright we will go then I guess Valor is our "brother" for now.

Cody: He is. Brother will lead his way to his place.

Valor: Brothers let's all move out.

Cody, Lee and Josh: Yes brother.

They leave plain area then heading back to Valor's place. Valor welcomes Cody, Lee and Josh to meet his wolf members as they greets to each other while his little brother Cade seems happy for his big brother Valor as the packs getting bigger so they show respects toward Valor as a leadership and hopefully he and his brothers will support each others.

-The End-
