

Weisko the Project Wolfenstein. Bergamo has mastered the Ultra Instinct.

In the lab, there is someone sleeping in the water chamber as he being experiment. The scientists working on the Project Wolfenstein to know how human mutant into a powerful strong huge wolf as permanent form instead temporarily so they continue working. Then, the huge wolf slowly open his eyes and break free out of chamber that he sleeping. The scientists hear the breaking sound then check camera monitor as the wolf is escaping. They sound alarm and warn everyone that the subject escaping the lab but the growling and scream can be heard then blood everywhere on wall that the wolf gone berserk and attacking everyone who stand in his way including scientists killing all of them. After attack, the wolf make his way out of the lab and finally outside as he start sniffing and licks his own nose as he howls then start roaming the outside world.

Meanwhile...

Valor, Blood Wolf, Bergamo, Duga, Dilmordo and Rouen having spar training at the huge field so it's five against Valor.

Valor: Blood Wolf, Bergamo, Dilmordo, Duga and Rouen are you guys ready?

Blood Wolf: Ready. Time to show my strength I been training.

Bergamo: Sure brother. Show me what you have train of your potential.

Dilmordo: Of course I'm ready, Valor.

Duga: I enjoy sparring with you anytime.

Rouen: Yes indeed but are you sure about that, brother?

Valor: eyes at Rouen I'm more capable to take on multiple opponents. My father fought more and more enemies by himself.

Rouen: nods and smiles You look just like your father. I'm impressed you are the strongest leader that your father is, Valor.

Valor: Thanks Rouen. Let's begin shall we? Give everything you got for your training, brothers.

Bergamo, Blood Wolf, Dilmordo, Duga and Rouen: Yes brother.

Valor goes in fighting stance while the five wolves charges him so then Dilmordo strikes him with his fists first as Valor blocks Dilmordo's fists with his hands to maneuver. Next is Rouen as he strikes him with twin swords then Valor blocks with his gauntlets made of adamantite that he blacksmith and make it to improved his offense and defense stance. Followed by Duga as he attack with his twin arm blades doing combo as Valor reads by parrying Duga's combo as he succeed. Bergamo powered both fists then combo strikes at him then Valor is on defense stance as he dodges most Bergamo attack with his speed. Blood Wolf attack with his red electric current at him while Valor hold his hand out as he absorbs Blood Wolf's which made Valor powerful.

Blood Wolf: What!? So my attack made him stronger...

Valor: You going have to use different elements or fight with brute force.

Rouen: Damn Valor how you be so good blocking and dodging even five of us can't go through your defense?

Valor: Let's just say I been going through a lot more defense training.

Dilmordo: Even my fists isn't fast enough to your speed.

Valor: It's called dodge timing and I have sixth sense to know what's my opponent next move.

Duga: I see you been training that's the main reason you gotten stronger.

Valor: Thanks Duga and I will continue my training.

Bergamo: So you still holding back, brother?

Valor: Maybe? I would fight no matter what.

Rouen: Hmm if we can't beat him. Everyone let's push him to his limit and pressure him, shall we?

Blood Wolf: Will see about that brother since you helped me with training!

Dilmordo: Very well then time to unleashed my powerful fire element!

Duga: Let's do this!

Bergamo: Time for some action!

Rouen, Blood Wolf, Dilmordo, Duga and Bergamo all powered up in their state form as their aura rising intensely.

Valor: Hmpf I see why you guys been training hard and I'm very proud all of you. Time to not playing around and show the meaning of the True Wolf God potential!

Valor powered up with both lightning and wind combination form that he mastered to ultimate level. They all charges him with full speed as Valor does same. The punches, kicks and exchange blow can be heard sending powerful shockwaves everywhere. They panting as they give everything they can to him but Valor still standing without breaking his sweats and not tired out with his fighting spirit.

Valor: Is that the best you five can go against the Wolf God?

Rouen: He's right... Valor is too strong.

Duga: He's like a super no the ultimate Wolf God...!

Blood Wolf: I can't keep up with him...

Dilmordo: Damnit there's no way he could be this powerful...?

Bergamo: Look like I have no choice but to unleashed my true power...

They look at Bergamo as he closes his eyes and clenches his fists as the aura engulfs with blue surge around his body.

Duga: Hmm? Did Bergamo just gain his new power?

Rouen: Wait a minute! Did he just going with his intense training and grant his divine transformation?

Dilmordo: What new power did this guy has?

Blood Wolf: Well this is interesting.

Bergamo's furs and body turn silver with light blue aura surge around him and eyes glowing.

Valor: Heh it look like Bergamo finally achieved his "Ultra Instinct" form right off the bat.

Rouen: What!?

Duga: No way!?

Dilmordo: So that's the "Ultra Instinct" huh?

Blood Wolf: Something tell me it gets too intense with these two.

Bergamo and Valor look at each other with their intense eyes.

Bergamo: I want to thank you for training with me and my brothers as I grant this form.

Valor: You're welcome. I want to congratulate you for mastered the Ultra Instinct.

Bergamo: Thank you, brother Valor. Want to have a quick spar just you and me?

Valor: Sure. I going to have to transform as well.

Valor holds his silver moon teardrop that he wore his necklaces as he closes his eyes then hair and furs turns silver with silvery aura surge around his body even having his lightning and wind still activate as everyone looks at Valor's appearance.

Bergamo: Let's do this, Valor.

Valor: Bring it on then...

Everyone watches Valor and Bergamo as both wolves vanishes as the punches exchange blow with each shockwaves. They can't keep up with them so Bergamo punches him as Valor blocks it then Valor punches back at him even Bergamo blocks too.

Rouen: They both amazing! Especially Bergamo can keep up with Valor.

Duga: Well Rouen if Bergamo can go Ultra Instinct then we have to train hard to mastered the form he talk about.

Rouen: I agree, Duga. We just have to continue training more and more.

Dilmordo: Hmm I do want to join them but I going have to awakening my true power to match their same level.

Blood Wolf: Same Dilmordo.

Dilmordo: Yes of course.

Bergamo and Valor continue throw fast punches as the four watches. Bergamo notices something of his body as Valor stopped and looks at him.

Bergamo: Brother wait.

Valor: What's wrong?

Bergamo: My body feels like it reached the limit.

Valor: Hmm that happen to Goku when his stamina all used up.

Bergamo: I going have to stop for now.

Valor: Good idea.

Both wolves stop sparring as they revert back to normal.

Rouen: Huh?

Duga: Why they stop?

Dilmordo: Aww it was getting to the good part indeed.

Valor and Bergamo walks to them.

Bergamo: Sorry guys that I stop the fight somehow...

Valor: It's okay, Bergamo. turns to them The reason we both stopped because Bergamo's body has reached his limit.

Rouen: Ah right I remember it have a drawback that you told us about.

Duga: It's the stamina he used up, right Valor?

Valor: That's right. If he remain in his form too long. It will put sprain and cause pain in his body.

Bergamo: Good thing I sense my body.

Valor: You did the right thing. Just have to build up your stamina more to prolong the divine form.

Bergamo: precisely then we can continue where we left off.

Valor: Yes.

Rouen: I have to remember it in the future next time. So you guys want to have some my famous wine sake?

Valor: Never have wine before... Is it good?

Rouen: As a king pirate I enjoyed it. You should try it and you might love it too, Valor.

Valor: Hmm... all right. Everyone to the camp base.

Everyone: Yes sir.

They headed to the camp base as they set around the table as Rouen passes cups and pour wine sake for them then they start sips the cup.

Rouen: Let's celebrate and congrats Bergamo for achieved his form!

Duga: Congrats.

Blood Wolf: Congrats.

Dilmordo: Congrats.

Bergamo: Thank you guys but y'all should thank our leader and brother to Valor. He did help us with our training and he's been working hard for us brother to awakening the power inside.

Valor: Oh? I did?

Rouen: Yes you sure did!

Duga: Yeah you helped us a lot.

Dilmordo: Heh I respect you even you show how much you train us.

Blood Wolf: You showed me to turn my evil side to turn good side then help me out this realm world. I appreciate and will support you no matter what.

Valor: I dunno to say but thank you brothers... I guess I was feeling lonely way back in this forest woods for long before I met you guys...

Bergamo: We always be with you so you're not alone, brother.

Rouen: Aww I understand how you feel being alone to no one to talk to, Valor. You're not alone at all.

Duga: Rouen right. You're not lonely.

Dilmordo: Don't be that but you got us as brothers to watch your back.

Blood Wolf: We are like big huge family now.

They go to Valor and group hug him to cheer him up and know he's not alone then Valor's phone start ringing and vibrating in his pocket.

Rouen: What's that, Valor?

Valor: It's my phone. I better check a caller ID to see who called. took his phone out his pocket then look on the caller ID as it show emergency call as he make his serious look of his face with eyebrow raise up

Duga: Who is it?

Valor: I dunno but something fishy and not right... answer the call Hello?

A voice on phone: Hello if you hear this. The Project Wolfenstein has escape from the lab. He roams the world to attack anyone who gets in his way. Everyone should stay inside the house or building for lockdown until further notices.

Rouen: What's going on?

Valor: ended the call It says a Wolfenstein is on loose in this world and he will attack anyone if confronted him without hesitation.

Duga: What!?

Bergamo: What should we do?

Valor: sighs I going have to stop him and you guys should stay in my house ASAP.

Rouen: What? You going by yourself?

Duga: Valor you not too serious just to go after him yourself, aren't you?

Valor: Duga and Rouen I understand but it's too dangerous for both of you to come with me. Y'all could get hurt or worse get killed from him.

Rouen: But will you get killed too?

Valor: No, why would I? I'm a deity and immortal so I don't go down thanks to my healing regenerate abilities. What about you guys?

Dilmordo: I too difficult to get killed so count me in.

Blood Wolf: Well as a demon wolf to myself so it's necessary that I don't die so easily.

Rouen: I have so many scars on me which I been battle too long and I won't get killed no matter how much I taken hits.

Duga: I survive with battles when it comes with large army of enemies that I fought.

Bergamo: We will fight on your side.

Valor: growls with his sharp teeth gritty as he slams cup in the table so hard then clenches his fist as everyone seem surprised at him You guys are too damn stubborn and somewhat idiotic! I don't care what y'all did happen in the past or whatever!

Rouen: We're sorry... Just give me chance.

Duga: We know but please I want to come with you...

Dilmordo: Valor I know you're upset with us but calm down and let us join ya.

Blood Wolf: If these guys are going with you then I going as well.

Bergamo: Brother please allow us to help you but going yourself will be much harder for you.

Valor: Y'all still worried about me? Urgh fine y'all can come but this time I'm a leader and I give commands, understood?

Everyone: We understand, sir.

Valor: By the way the wine sake is great and thank you for sharing with us, Rouen.

Rouen: You're welcome, brother Valor. ^^

Valor: According to the news, he last spotted somewhere in the cities and a lot people got injured or killed so we have to help them.

Duga: Yes we must save them if anything happens.

Rouen: Well Valor you our leader so what should we do?

Cade came rushing to Valor.

Cade: Big brother are you going somewhere?

Valor: Yes.

Cade: Can I come?

Valor: Sorry little brother it's too dangerous for you to tag along with us. You could get killed.

Cade: Aww okay...

Valor: Since five of them wants to come with me... I can't bring more and more my wolven clans which means I have to carry them safely out his harm way.

Cade: I understand wish I could help ya.

Valor: Sajin, Basil and Lavender come here right now.

Sajin, Basil and Lavender came to Valor.

Sajin: I'm here, Valor.

Basil: We hear you called us, big brother.

Valor: You three take care my little brother while we gone and protect him no matter what happen.

Sajin, Basil and Lavender: Yes brother.

Valor: And the rest for all of you. Stay inside my house then lockup and don't let anyone in except me.

Cade: hugs Valor's muzzle then kiss his nose Please be careful big brother.

Valor: noses Cade We will be fine. Now please go inside little brother so Sajin and Bergamo's brothers will watch and protect you in case if he comes.

Cade: Yes big brother.

Everyone goes in Valor's house which leave Valor and his five wolf crew members outside.

Valor: Let's move out brothers.

Valor and his crew leave camp base via forest woods then headed to the cities. The people in cities are wounded from the attack by Wolfenstein then polices show up as they escorts people to safely. One of police who is a huge muscled German Shepherd name Kevin see Valor and his crew came.

Kevin: Well it is Valor the hero who save the world, isn't it?

Valor: Hmm? And you are?

Kevin: You don't remember me? We both used to police in-training together and you have unique skills to passed the tests and everything.

Valor: That's way too long ago, Kevin.

Kevin: Yeah ever since you left the police and start your life. It look like you got company with you. They're your friends?

Valor: The reason I left because I can't bear to watch anyone getting killed and do nothing by standing and watching them... These are my brothers who I been recruiting and they see me as a leader.

Kevin: So you must be a famous leader then.

Valor: A Wolfenstein attack here, right?

Kevin: It is. My squad team escorts people to safely place. He start attack relentless everything in his sight.

Valor: So I heard.

Kevin: He's difficult to track since he move too fast.

Valor: That's why I'm here.

Kevin: You be able to track him, Valor?

Valor: Yes.

Kevin: I understand you left because you want to save anyone life. You seem different last time I saw you.

Valor: I see. Rouen, Duga, Blood Wolf, Dilmordo and Bergamo use healing supplies to help injured people out.

Everyone: Yes, sir.

Rouen and his crew left to helping out people using special healing potions and tonics.

Kevin: Whoa I didn't know you so well prepared.

Valor: You can thank me later but I already got his trail of where he goes next.

Kevin: What? Already? I knew you're special wish to have you back on team.

Valor: Sorry Kevin but I prefer to go solo while my crews busy.

Kevin: Wai-

Valor pick up the Wolfenstein's scent as he teleports out of sight. The lonely female wolf wanders off the street then the Wolfenstein see her still growling as he ready to make kill move as he rushes her then Valor reappear out of nowhere next to him as he roundhouse kick at Wolfenstein send him flying and crashes at the wall with strong force. Valor looks at him seeing much huger massive muscle size for wolf as his fur color are gray and soft light yellow with white fur chest on his pecs, scars on his left eye and right pecs, wearing bandages both his arms, both orange leather fingerless gloves and sports red and black shorts with belt buckle around his waist shaped like wolf head with red ominous eyes. The female wolf see Valor and Wolfenstein as she ran away. The Wolfenstein rubbing his head then shakes and see Valor still growling as he spoke.

Wolfenstein: You're pretty strong for another huge wolf yourself.

Valor: And you will regret for hurting innocent people.

Wolfenstein: What can't I say? I enjoyed killing anyone in my path.

Valor: Your path stop here and now. You might as well surrender.

Wolfenstein: snarls GRR how dare you speak to me like that!?

The Wolfenstein got up then rushes fast toward Valor as Valor goes in fighting stance. He strikes with his claws while Valor dodges and sway at his claw attack then counter with elbow blow at his chest as the Wolfenstein grunts as he moving back from his direct hit. Wolfenstein recover as he start throwing punches while Valor parries his punches and counter grab his arm as he elbow bash combo to his torso body then throw slam him to the ground as Valor point bo staff on his chest.

Wolfenstein: W-Who are you?

Valor: I could say same to you.

Weisko: Weisko the Werewolf God. Why can't I beat you?

Valor: A Werewolf God huh? Hmpf I don't care what you are or whatever refer to yourself. You're very predictable regardless what your next attack going to be like every werewolf does.

Weisko: So what are you? Some kind of master or a god?

Valor: As soon for you to find out. Why you killing people, Weisko?

Weisko: Heh you going have to beat me.

Valor: Hmpf you quite a stubborn one huh?

Weisko: What's just say I'm more just a savage beast!

Valor: Werewolf/Wolfenstein still same all they think about themselves. You should be ashamed for their selfish way so you deserve to be whatever you are and what crime you just did.

Weisko: Why you! I not selfish! quickly get up on his feet I was being experiment at the lab!

Valor: You expect me to believe that?

Weisko: In that case I have to unleash my bloody fury rage to finish you off!

Valor: arms crosses Doesn't bother me what you trying to do.

Weisko: Oh you will see!

Weisko goes in bloody fury rage mode as his red aura building up his body as he howls very loud.

Valor: arms crosses and sighs as he doesn't seem to be intimidated That's it? Look I don't have time for this. It's going take few seconds to finish you off...

Weisko: Prepare yourself!!!

Weisko see Valor with his red glowing ominous eyes while red aura surges up then charges him. Valor have no choice as he transforms as he roars godly loud with his silver furs and everything even his aura. Weisko strikes but Valor readied as he went through Weisko then he stand behind him with his eyes closed then suddenly several punches and kicks can be heard as Weisko taking heavy massive damage from each blows as Weisko is knock back at wall again so hard as he's unconscious as a sign of his defeated. Valor reverts to base form and looks at unconscious Weisko. Rouen and his crew finishes everything.

Rouen: We use every healing supplies.

Duga: That's a lot to save people.

Dilmordo: Since we finish where's Valor?

Rouen: Hm? Maybe that police German Shepherd knows. goes to Kevin Excuse me you know where Valor went?

Kevin: You must be his crew huh? He left to find the Wolfenstein.

Rouen: Right now?

Kevin: I told him to wait for backup to come but he said he want to go alone.

Rouen: Well Valor doesn't need someone help so he more capable for himself.

Kevin: What do you mean?

Duga: Didn't Valor tell you he's the ultimate Wolf God?

Kevin: No, I didn't know he is the Wolf God. o.o

Dilmordo: He's real all right since we have spar him and he still standing without getting tired.

Kevin: So that's the reason he quit the police station. He must be a legend!

Valor came back as he carry an unconscious Wolfenstein on his back.

Rouen: Valor you're back! Who is he on your back?

Kevin: Is that who he is?

Valor: Yes a real Wolfenstein but his name Weisko.

Duga: How you manage to beat him?

Valor: He's about to harm this lonely female wolf so I caught him in the nick of time.

Kevin: At least you save her. He about to be put arrested in the prison for long years.

Valor: I'm afraid it's not a good idea, Kevin.

Kevin: Why not?

Valor: Before he went unconscious. He mentions something that he is more of a werewolf god then experiment test on him to turn into this powerful wolf.

Kevin: A werewolf god being forced to turn into savage beast?

Rouen: Wow. So this guy is too dangerous.

Valor: It was the scientists fault for doing horrible test on him. I feel pity and sorry for him...

Kevin: Is there a cure for him?

Valor: No, unfortunately he can't go back the way he is due to their experiment test they did to him.

Kevin: Damn then it would be risky to put him on prison and chance are he will gone in killing spree rampage.

Valor: Unless you want me to keep him under my control?

Kevin: You going to do that, Valor?

Valor: Yes take a good look example at Dilmordo and Blood Wolf. Those two want to cause chaos here on this world but they changed and willing to be on my side.

Kevin: Hmm those two look very scary and powerful wolves to me indeed. So is it true you're a Wolf God?

Valor: Yes the real one.

Duga: We told him but he didn't believe it at first.

Kevin: Yeah sorry I couldn't believe you.

Valor: It's ok. Now that we done here. Let's get this werewolf out of this cities so he won't cause anymore chaos and killing innocents.

Rouen: Valor what if he will attack us?

Duga: Or killed us.

Valor: Don't worry I got him under my control. He did go on frenzy rage mode on me but didn't last him too long...

Kevin: Ahh well I will leave him to you then, Valor.

Valor: Okay thanks. Let's head back everyone.

Valor and his crew members left the cities and headed back to camp base. Valor places unconscious Weisko by the trees then walks to his house and looks at his crew.

Valor: You guys might want to go inside too.

Rouen: You going to be okay by yourself?

Valor: Yes.

Valor knocks the door as they peek through window to see Valor.

Valor: It's me.

They unlocked the door as Valor and his others goes inside. Valor prepare meals at his kitchen for while after he's done then exit out as he goes to Weisko and places meal for him. The food smell goes to Wolfenstein's nose as he sniffs and slowly open his eyes from his unconsciousness and looks around as he see plate full of foods in front of him but see Valor standing by the tree.

Weisko: You made it for me?

Valor: Yes.

Weisko: put his hand on back of his neck Thank you... start eating The food is delicious.

Valor: Thanks.

Weisko: I didn't know your name...

Valor: Valor. You were unconscious for long while.

Weisko: I remember seeing you turn silver then it went blink and I was blackout.

Valor: I see.

Weisko: What is this place?

Valor: This is base camp via forest woods.

Weisko: Nice place.

Valor: So you don't remember what happened?

Weisko: Hmm... I remember that I was taking to the lab for experiment test subject before...

Valor: I know but I'm talking about cities that you attack those people.

Weisko: Oh? put his hands together as he seem nervous I didn't mean to attack them I swear...

Valor: Huh? What are you talking about?

Weisko: My memory is fuzzy and messed up for what they did to me in lab and gone berserk all sudden!

Valor: sits in front him Hey calm down. Took a deep breath in and out.

Weisko: breathe in and breathe out

Valor: Here drink water too. give Weisko a cup of cool water

Weisko: Thank you, Valor. I was scared... drinking

Valor: Scared huh? Those scientists did something horrible to you?

Weisko: Yes... It is called Project Wolfenstein which make werewolves into savage wolf beast type.

Valor: I see.

Weisko: I break out lab then escape that's why I don't have a memories.

Valor: Okay.

Weisko: Is there a way to regain my memories back?

Valor: Unfortunately not. I'm sorry that I not much of a help.

Weisko: Whaaaaaat!!! howling loud

Valor: sighs ... >>;

Weisko: I dunno what to do...

Valor: Well Weisko which is your name. I have a werewolves who happen the same way but it's not that bad to be honest.

Weisko: So me being a werewolf is not that bad...?

Valor: No but it does give you agility, super strength and super speed.

Weisko: sniffs Yeah I suppose you're right...

Valor: Not only that but you know how to fight as well. You shouldn't be afraid what you are.

Weisko: What if I lose control and gone berserk again?

Valor: Same thing I did to werewolves. I can help you control it but you promise me not to hurt anyone including my brothers as they are afraid of you right now.

Weisko: Thanks and I'm very sorry of my behaviors. I didn't mean to make your brothers afraid of me.

Rouen and everyone in his house look through windows as they watch Valor talking with Weisko.

Valor: Before you meet them I want you to finish eating to regain your strength back first.

Weisko: nods Ok. eats until the plate is empty I'm done.

Valor: Good let's begin by meditate.

Weisko: A meditate? What's that?

Valor: This is part of training to relax your body and nerves which help for your frustration, anger and stresses.

Weisko: Oh ok!

Valor sits in legs crossed and closes his eyes as Weisko does same as they both mediating. After long hours of mediation, Valor and Weisko stretches legs out and open their eyes.

Valor: So how you feel, Weisko?

Weisko: I feel calm and very relaxing now.

Valor: That's good for a start.

Weisko: wagging What's next, Valor?

Valor: Now you in control of your wolf form. Let's practice by training with me.

Weisko: Yes sir.

Valor and Weisko start training each other as the Wolfenstein start striking with punches against Valor as he blocks while Valor is turn to strike as Weisko blocks his strikes. After training, Weisko feels exhausted and sweaty as he panting.

Valor: You okay?

Weisko: Yeah it just felt good training with you...

Valor: gives him a water bottle That's good you earn it.

Weisko: Thank you, Valor drinks

Valor: You ready to meet my wolveren clans?

Weisko: Sure.

Valor looks his house with windows as Valor nods to the side as it's ok for them to come out as so they did come outside.

Valor: Everyone this is Weisko. He had a bad experience at lab which his memory messed up and gone through hell with his hard life. He will remain forever in his werewolf and try his best to control it. He promised he will never hurt/killed anyone. So let's welcome him as our new wolveren clans.

Everyone: Welcome.

Weisko: Thank you everyone and thank you, brother Valor.

Valor: You're welcome, brother Weisko.

Weisko: smiles

Cade: Ooo big brother and Weisko should hug each other. ^^

Weisko: Umm... blushes

Valor: That's fine. We might as well.

Weisko: Yes, brother. We should.

Weisko walks toward Valor as they both look each other then cuddles. Weisko and Valor wags tail as they noses showing their brotherly relationship as everyone start cheering and give group hugs with them for now.

-The End-
