

So about two days later after Dudley showed up, when Artemis was napping during the day he got a phone call from Amber and she basically screamed into the phone that Dudley was on earth and that he was with Angela.

Artemis booked it out of bed and back to earth, as he heard Amber shouting from her dorm room, and joined with her boyfriend tried to tell why Dating Dudley is a bad idea and what he did.

But Dudley had told the truth to Angela, as she was more open minded compared to her sister, Amber was tired and so was Artemis as he left the dorm and left in his ship back to his homeworld.

He then relayed on what had happened to the other wolves and they were tired just like Artemis over this drama.
