

The wolves kept having argument over argument because of Dudley wanting to join the team, one half of the team wanted him to join the other half did not want to join and it was split in a way so that Artemis was undecided even though he is the leader of the team.

So when bickering was about to get physical, Dudley was the one to approach them after he saw what was happening with his future vision.

"I know you guys are all still divided over what i had said to join your group however there is one thing i would like to add"

Dudley had shared his backstory with him, and the memories of his past and present to catch up until now, and even though he has some money it won't last forever for him to survive.

"Forget what I said to you all, clearly I'm not wanted here in both my own family and home and to you guys..."

He was walking off but Artemis was the one to put his hand on his shoulder to make him stop with the other wolves behind him.

"Actually your words brought us together it was our bias against you that made us be in the wrong, we are sorry"

After that Dudley was welcomed into the group as the honorary 13th member of the group, and Artemis had prepared a room where he can move the things he has into the castle.
